PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

In late May 2015, McGladrey LLP ( McGladrey ), the independent registered public accounting firm of the Rio Tinto America Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan and Investment Partnership Plan (the Registrant ), notified the Registrant that it believed certain services (the Services ) that one of its associated entities had provided to affiliates of the Registrant during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 may be inconsistent with the Securities and Exchange Commission's (the Commission ) rules on auditor independence. The Services consisted of certain corporate secretarial services provided by a McGladrey associated entity to affiliates of the Registrant. The Services were provided to two South African affiliates of the Registrant and a South African branch of an affiliate to the Registrant from 2006-2015; the fees were not material.

Prior to such notification, the Registrant did not believe there were any issues relating to McGladrey's independence. McGladrey advised the Registrant that it believes that these Services did not compromise or impair its integrity and objectivity with respect to conducting its audits and issuing reports on the Registrant's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2011, 2012 and 2013, and the Rio Tinto America Inc. Benefit Governance Committee (the BGC) which administers the Registrant and acts as its fiduciary, upon careful evaluation, concurs with this conclusion.

In order to ensure that the audit of the Registrant's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 could be completed and issued in a timely fashion on June 26, 2015 the BGC terminated McGladrey as the independent auditor of the Registrant. On June 26, 2015, the BGC engaged Anton Collins Mitchell LLP (ACM) as the Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Registrant's financial statements, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2014 and the related notes to the financial statements. This decision was made to ensure independent audit opinions are provided on the financial statements that are required to be filed with the Registrant's annual report on Form 11-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 (the 2014 11-K), the report that is the subject of this filing.

The Registrant and ACM continue to work to complete the necessary audits as quickly as reasonably possible, however, as a result of the steps taken to resolve the foregoing matter, the audits could not be completed by June 29, 2015, the date by which the 2014 11-K is required to be filed under applicable SEC rules, without unreasonable effort and expense.
