AGL CAPITAL CORPORATION
PRICES $200 MILLION SENIOR NOTES

ATLANTA - (BUSINESS WIRE) Dec. 15, 2004 AGL Capital Corporation, a wholly owned financing subsidiary of AGL Resources Inc. (NYSE: ATG), announced it has priced $200 million of 10-year senior notes at an interest rate of 4.95 percent. The company estimates that the net proceeds from the offering will be approximately $198 million. The senior notes will mature in January 2015. AGL Resources intends to use the net proceeds from the sale of the senior notes to repay a portion of its short-term debt.

The transaction is expected to close December 20, 2004. Banc of America Securities LLC and Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated are the joint book-running managers for the offering.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, any securities. Any such offer will be made only by means of a prospectus. Potential investors should read the prospectus and prospectus supplement carefully before making any investment decision. A copy of the preliminary prospectus relating to the offering may be obtained from the underwriters and is available on the Internet at www.sec.gov.

About AGL Resources

AGL Resources (NYSE: ATG) is an Atlanta-based energy services holding company and was named 2003 Gas Company of the Year by Platts Global Energy Awards. The company's utility subsidiaries - Atlanta Gas Light, Elizabethtown Gas in New Jersey, Virginia Natural Gas in Norfolk, Florida City Gas, Chattanooga Gas, and Elkton Gas in Maryland - serve 2.2 million customers in six states. Houston-based subsidiary Sequent Energy Management is involved in natural gas asset management and optimization, producer services, wholesale marketing and risk management activities. As a member of the SouthStar partnership, AGL Resources markets natural gas to consumers in Georgia under the Georgia Natural Gas brand. AGL Networks, the company's telecommunications subsidiary, owns and operates fiber optic networks in Atlanta and Phoenix. The company also owns and operates Jefferson Island Storage & Hub, a high-deliverability natural gas storage facility near the Henry Hub in Louisiana, and Virginia Gas, a natural gas storage pipeline and distribution company in southwestern Virginia and a high-deliverability salt cavern storage facility in Saltville, Va. Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements included or incorporated by reference in this press release and the prospectus supplement assumptions and expectations about future events. These statements, which may relate to such matters as future earnings, growth, supply and demand, costs, subsidiary performance, new technologies and strategic initiatives, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. These statements do not relate strictly to historical or current facts, and you can identify certain of these statements, but not necessarily all, by the use of the words anticipate, assume, indicate, estimate, believe, predict, forecast, rely, expect, continue, and similar meaning. Although we believe that the assumptions and expectations reflected in these statements are reasonable in view of the information currently available, there can be no assurance that these assumptions and expectations will prove to be correct. These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, and actual results may differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements. In addition to the specific factors discussed in our reports that are incorporated by reference, the following are among the important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements:

changes in industrial, commercial and residential growth in AGL Resources service territories; changes in price, supply and demand for natural gas and related products; impact of changes in state and federal legislation and regulation, including orders of various state public service commissions and of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission on the gas and electric industries and on AGL Resources; actions taken by government agencies, including decisions on base rate increase requests by state regulators;

the ultimate impact of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and any future changes in accounting regulations or practices in general with respect to public companies, the energy industry or AGL Resources operations specifically; the enactment of new accounting standards, or interpretations of existing accounting standards, by the Financial Accounting Standards Board or the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, that could impact the way AGL Resources records revenues, assets and liabilities, which in turn could adversely affect reported results of operations;

the enactment of new auditing standards, or interpretations of existing auditing standards, by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board which could adversely affect AGL Resources ability to comply with the requirements of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002; effects and uncertainties of deregulation and competition, particularly in markets where prices and providers historically have been regulated, and unknown issues following deregulation such as the stability of the Georgia retail gas market, including risks related to energy marketing and risk management; concentration of credit risk in marketers that are certificated by the Georgia Public Service Commission to sell retail natural gas in Georgia, as well as concentration of credit risk in customers of our wholesale services segment; utility and energy industry consolidation; performance of equity and bond markets and the impact on pension and post-retirement funding costs;

impact of acquisitions and divestitures, including:

the risk that the businesses of NUI Corporation and/or Pivotal Jefferson Island Storage & Hub, LLC will not be integrated successfully with AGL Resources or that such integrations may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; material deficiencies in NUI's internal controls that AGL Resources must address and resolve; revenues following the acquisitions may be lower than expected; expected revenue synergies and cost savings from these two acquisitions may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame;

direct or indirect effects on AGL Resources' business, financial condition or liquidity resulting from a change in our credit ratings or the credit ratings of our counterparties or competitors; interest rate fluctuations, financial market conditions and general economic conditions; uncertainties about environmental issues and the related impact of such issues; impact of changes in weather upon the temperature-sensitive portions of the business;

impact of ongoing investigations and litigation;

impact of changes in prices on the margins achievable in the unregulated retail gas marketing business;

increases in competition in the markets served by AGL Resources;

the availability and price of insurance;

the general effects of deregulation of the energy markets, including industry restructuring and unbundling of services;

the ability to attract and retain key executives and employees; fluctuations in energy commodity prices;

acts of war or terrorism;

AGL Resources' ability to control operating expenses and to achieve efficiencies in its existing and acquired operations;

AGL Resources' ability to continue to modernize its current and acquired distribution infrastructures as scheduled and budgeted; and other risks described in AGL Resources' documents on file with the SEC.

Any forward-looking statements should be considered in light of such important factors.

New factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those described above emerge from time to time, and it is not possible to predict all such factors, or the extent to which any such factor or combination of factors may cause actual results to differ from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which such statement is made, and AGL Resources does not undertake any obligation to update the information contained in such statement to reflect subsequent developments or information except as required by law.
