Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference.

We incorporate by reference into this Registration Statement the following documents and information filed by Nuance Communications, Inc. with the Securities and Exchange Commission:

- (b) Our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, for the quarter ended March 31, 2002, filed May 15, 2002.
- (c) The description of the common shares contained in our Registration Statement on Form 8-A, filed on April 3, 2000 including any reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) for the purpose of updating such description.

All documents subsequently filed by us pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 and 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement that include that all securities offered pursuant to this Registration Statement have been sold or that deregister all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement and to be a part of this Registration Statement from the date of such documents are filed. Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

As permitted by Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, our Certificate of Incorporation includes a provision that eliminates the personal liability of our directors for monetary damages for breach of their fiduciary duty as a director to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware General Corporation Law. In addition, our Bylaws provide that we shall indemnify our directors and officers and may indemnify our employees and other agents to the extent permitted under Delaware General Corporation Law. Our bylaws also permit us to secure insurance on behalf of any director, officer, employee or agent against any liability arising out of his or her actions in such capacity, regardless of whether we have the power to indemnify such individual against such liability under the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Our policy is to enter into indemnification agreements with each of our directors and executive officers that provide the maximum indemnity allowed to directors and executive officers by Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law and our Bylaws, as well as certain additional procedural protections. These agreements, among other things, indemnify our directors and executive officers against any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (if such settlement is approved in advance by us, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), actually and reasonably incurred, and any federal, state, local or foreign taxes imposed on the indemnified party as a result of the actual or deemed receipt of any payments under the indemnification agreement, for any action arising out of such person's position as our director, officer, employee, agent or fiduciary, or any of our subsidiary, or in relation to such person's service at our request as a director, officer, employee, agent or fiduciary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. Pursuant to the indemnification agreements, we will not be obligated to indemnify the indemnified party: (1) for any expenses or to advance expenses with respect to proceedings or claims initiated by the indemnified party and not by way of defense, counterclaim or crossclaim, except with respect to proceedings specifically authorized by our Board of Directors or brought to enforce a right to indemnification under the indemnification agreement, our Bylaws or any statute or law; (2) for any expenses incurred by the indemnified party with respect to any proceeding instituted by the indemnified party to enforce or interpret the agreement, if a court determines that each of the material assertions made by the indemnified party in such proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous; (3) with respect to any proceeding brought by us against the indemnified party to enforce or interpret the agreement, if a court determines that each of the material defenses asserted by the indemnified party was made in bad faith or was frivolous; (4) on account of any suit in which judgment is rendered against the indemnified party for the payments of profits made from the purchase or sale by the indemnified party of securities in violation of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related laws; or (5) for any expenses resulting from acts, omissions or transactions for which the indemnified party is prohibited from receiving indemnification under the agreement or applicable law.

The indemnification provision in our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws and the indemnification agreements entered into between us and our directors and executive officers, may be sufficiently broad to permit indemnification of our officers and directors for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Item 9. Undertakings.

- (a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:
  - (i) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.
  - (ii) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
  - (iii) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
