PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On May 28, 2003, the registrant announced that it is delaying the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 1, 2003, which is due on May 30, 2003. The registrant plans to file its Form 10-K as soon as practicable but does not currently expect that it will be filed on or before the 15th day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.

As previously disclosed, the registrant has received a request from the Securities and Exchange Commission for the voluntary production of certain information in connection with the registrant s accounting practices. The registrant is fully cooperating with the SEC s request for information. The registrant is concurrently performing its own review of its accounting practices and is therefore deferring filing of its Form 10-K while the registrant s review proceeds. The registrant intends to file its Form 10-K as soon as practicable.

Safe Harbor Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Except for the historical information contained herein, the matters set forth in this Form 12b-25, including the registrant s expectations as to the timing of filing its Form 10-K and the impact of the registrant s accounting practices review on the registrant s financial statements, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof and are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, changes in the scope and nature of the Commission s inquiry and/or investigation, the results and effect of the registrant s accounting practices review and its failure to file timely the Form 10-K, and the risks detailed from time to time in the registrant s periodic reports filed under the Exchange Act, including its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended November 30, 2002. The registrant disclaims any intent or obligation to update or revise any forward looking statements.
