ownership by Rubin Investment Group ("Rubin"). In its Schedule 13D filing on July 12, 2001, Rubin claimed beneficial ownership of 2,235,000 shares that it may acquire upon the exercise of certain warrants. The warrants were originally issued by the Registrant in consideration of Rubin's undertaking to perform certain services for the Registrant. Rubin failed to perform, causing substantial harm to the Registrant, and, as a result, on January 9, 2001, the Registrant notified Rubin that it cancelled the warrants.

Rubin also misrepresented the percentage of Registrant stock covered by warrants. Rubin's Schedule 13D stated that the warrant shares represented 19.2% of the Registrant's common stock based on 9,054,120 outstanding shares. In fact, the Registrant reported in its latest publicly filed document 14,871,620 outstanding shares at the time of filing of the Schedule 13D, so that the warrant shares would actually represent only 13.0%, if the warrants were in effect.

The Registrant has instructed its transfer agent not to issue any shares of common stock upon any attempted exercise of any portion of the warrants.

The Registrant has also notified the SEC of Rubin's errant filing and has requested the SEC to take appropriate action.
