As of the date of this Notice, the Registrant is unable to file its Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2003 due to the amount of time management has had to spend in generating the quarterly results of operations and cash flows for the prior period ending March 31, 2002, to compare with the calendar quarterly period for the new fiscal year ending December 31. The Registrant is in the first year of its new fiscal year ending December 31; the prior fiscal year was June 1, to May 31. In addition, the Registrant is still evaluating the effect of the implementation of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards #143, ("SFAS 143") and has not yet determined a final calculation under SFAS 143 for reclamation liabilities on its shut down mine properties.

The Registrant will file the Form 10-Q Report for the three months ended March 31, 2003 on or before May 20, 2003.
