(e) Heska Corporation (the “Company”) held its 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (“Annual Meeting”) on May 3, 2018. At the Annual Meeting, the Company’s stockholders approved an amendment and restatement of the Company’s then existing Amended and Restated 1997 Stock Incentive Plan (the “1997 Stock Plan”) to, among other things, increase by 250,000 the number of shares of the Company’s common stock authorized for issuance under the 1997 Stock Plan and to make provision to permit, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Compensation Committee”), future grants of restricted stock under the plan to become vested in the event of a plan participant’s death or disability. Other amendments to the 1997 Stock Plan, which are to be applicable only to future awards made under the plan, were to provide for expanded performance goal vesting criteria and to include a change in beneficial ownership of more than 50% of the outstanding voting power to be included in the definition of “change in control” under the plan. Subsequent to the Annual Meeting, the Company’s Board of Directors further amended the Amended and Restated 1997 Stock Plan to eliminate the Compensation Committee’s discretion to offer to purchase for cash outstanding stock options from option holders. A further description of the amendments to the 1997 Stock Plan that were approved at the Annual Meeting is included in the definitive proxy statement related to the Annual Meeting that was filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission under cover of Schedule 14A (File No. 000-22427) on March 26, 2018 (the “Proxy Statement”), which description is incorporated herein by reference.
