Conversion of Outstanding Debt to Equity

The Company owes YA Global Investments, L.P., an aggregate of approximately $4.0 million of principal and accrued interest on outstanding convertible debentures originally issued to YA Global’s predecessor-in-interest in 2005 and 2006, and subsequently amended, restated, and consolidated. Between December 27, 2012, and March 15, 2013, YA Global converted an aggregate of $254,036 in amounts due under such convertible debentures to 297,459,076 shares of common stock, the conversion price is set forth in the debentures.

These issuances included Iehab Hawatmeh, president and director ($45,000 converted to 150,000,000 restricted shares) and Fadi Nora and Kathryn Hollinger, directors ($45,000 and $7,500 converted to 150,000,000 and 25,000,000 restricted shares, respectively).

In each of the above transactions, the convertible debentures or other indebtedness tendered in exchange for the common stock issued had been issued as restricted securities taken for investment with a restrictive legend to the effect that such securities were restricted. The issuance of the common stock in exchange for such previously issued debt securities was effected in reliance on the exemption from registration provided in Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act for any security exchanged by the issuer with its existing securities holders when no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting such exchange.
