Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 23, 2007, David Weymouth, a member of the Board of Directors of Chordiant Software, Inc. (the "Company"), advised Steven R. Springsteel, the Chairman, President and CEO of the Company that Mr. Weymouth intended to resign as a member of the Board of Directors as a result of the pressing demands on his schedule after having accepted a full time position with a company located in the United Kingdom. Mr. Weymouth has advised Mr. Springsteel that he intends to remain a member of the Board of Directors until the earlier of November, 2007 or such time as the Board of Directors has appointed his successor to the Board. The Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors has initiated efforts to identify a qualified person from outside of the Company to serve as an independent member of the Board of Directors in replacement of Mr. Weymouth.

On July 24, 2007, the Board of Directors of the "Company approved the following compensation arrangements for James St. Jean, the Company's Vice President of Worldwide Engineering.

- Mr. St. Jean will receive a one-time cash bonus of $30,000, payable as soon as practicable.
- In 2006, Chordiant's Audit Committee conducted an independent investigation into Chordiant's historical practices of granting stock options, which investigation was more fully disclosed in Chordiant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period of October 1, 2005 to September 30, 2006. As a result of such investigation, Chordiant's Audit Committee had determined that certain stock options, including three stock options issued to Mr. St. Jean between 2001 to 2004 (the "Options"), were issued on terms that did not reflect the appropriate grant date and therefore did not provide for an exercise price that was equal to 100% of the fair market value of Chordiant's common stock on the appropriate measurement date (the "Corrected Exercise Price"). On June 23, 2007, Chordiant's Compensation Committee recommended to Chordiant's Board that Mr. St. Jean's Options be amended, subject to the agreement of Mr. St. Jean, to increase the exercise price of that number of the shares subject to each Option that had not yet been exercised and which are subject to adverse treatment under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. On July 24, 2007, the Board of Directors authorized the Company to offer to reprice such Options on the terms recommended by the Compensation Committee under the terms of an Amendment to Option Agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits.

99.1 Form of Amendment to Option Agreement Mr. St. Jean and the Company.
