BUHRMANN SELLS ITS SUBSIDIARY DOCVISION TO TPG

Buhrmann NV and Cendris, an operating company of Royal TPG Post BV, part of TPG NV, have reached an agreement about the sale of Buhrmann subsidiary DocVision to Cendris. The transaction will result in a small book profit that will be recorded as an exceptional gain in the second quarter of this year.

DocVision is specialised in providing services in the area of mailroom, copy/print services and archives management. The company employs about 300 staff, working across many sites at customers in the Netherlands. In 2002, the company realised sales of EUR 23 million.

The divestment of DocVision is in line with Buhrmann's strategy to concentrate its activities primarily on the business-to-business distribution of non-production related products and services for the office market and graphic arts industry.

The past years DocVision has achieved a profitable growth. However, within Buhrmann's overall portfolio, this subsidiary is a completely independent activity with only very limited synergy with the core business of the Group.

Cendris offers a variety of specialised solutions for direct communication, data and document management in the Benelux, United Kingdom, Italy, Germany and Central Europe. In 2002, the company reported sales of EUR 210 million and employed 4,000 staff. With the acquisition of DocVision, Cendris will improve its position to benefit from the increasing demand for outsourcing of mailroom, copy/print and archive management services in the Netherlands.
