PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

The Registrant is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 by the prescribed date due to the Registrant reaching agreements in principle on March 14, 2008 to settle civil litigation relating to two shareholder class action lawsuits filed against the Registrant in 2004 and 2007 relating to the Registrant's financial restatement activities in prior years and the Registrant's completed stock option review. As a result, the Registrant requires additional time to incorporate these recent developments into its financial statements, which the Registrant expects to complete within the prescribed time period for the filing of such Form 10-K (including the extension under Rule 12b-25).

Information in this form regarding the timing of the completion of the Registrant's filing of the delayed Form 10-K and statements regarding the certain forward-looking statements including, without limitation, expressed or implied statements concerning the Registrant's expectations regarding the timing of filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K and the anticipated settlement of the securities litigation. Such statements are only predictions, and the Registrant's actual results may differ materially. Factors that may cause the Registrant's results to differ include, but are not limited to: risks that the settlement will be delayed or that the Court will not approve the settlements; risks that unanticipated issues will arise in the completion of the Registrant's audit and Annual Report on Form 10-K; and risks associated with debt leverage, including the potential for the lender to declare an event of default based upon any of the events described in this release. The Registrant undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements. These and other risk factors are more fully discussed in the Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2006, the Registrant's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2007, June 30, 2007 and September 30, 2007, and in other filings made with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In 2006 and 2007, the Registrant undertook a transformation strategy that culminated in the divestiture in 2007 of its wireless-related businesses and has pursued business with the federal government, primarily the U.S. Department of Defense, through strategic acquisition. The Registrant's divestiture of its European wireless engineering services business which was discontinued and held for sale in December 2006 was completed in March 2007. In addition, the Registrant's divestiture of its domestic wireless engineering services business was completed in June 2007 and the divestiture of its wireless deployment services business was completed in July 2007.
