Notes to the Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements

Edgar Filing: TRANSPORTATION LOGISTICS INTL INC - Form 10QSB

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Item 310 of Regulation S-B. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three months ended March 31, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ended December 31, 2003. The unaudited condensed financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

RESTATEMENT OF 2002 STATEMENT OF OPERATIONS

During 2002 the Company discontinued all of the operations which had comprised its business at the beginning of 2002. The Statement of Operations for the first quarter of 2002 has been restated to reflect that change.

SHORT-TERM LOAN

During the first quarter of 2003 the Company borrowed $100,000 from a private lender. The debt bears interest at 8% per annum, and is due on June 25, 2003. The principal amount of the loan is included in "Current maturities of long term debt" on the March 31, 2003 balance sheet.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Forward-looking Statements: No Assurances Intended

This Report contains certain forward-looking statements regarding Transportation Logistics, its business and financial prospects. These statements represent Management's present intentions and its present belief regarding the Company's future. Nevertheless, there are numerous risks and uncertainties that could cause our actual results to differ from the results suggested in this Report. Among the more significant risks are:

1. the fact that Transportation Logistics requires additional capital to sustain its operations through the next year;
2. the fact that Transportation Logistics' growth will be limited by its ability to obtain additional capital; and
3. the fact that the industry in which Transportation Logistics operates is dominated by large logistics companies, against whom Transportation Logistics must compete.

Because these and other risks may cause the Company's actual results to differ from those anticipated by Management, the reader should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements that appear in this Report. Readers should also take note that Transportation Logistics will not necessarily make any public announcement of changes affecting these forward-looking statements, which should be considered accurate on this date only.

Results of Operations

During 2002, the Company discontinued all of the businesses in which it had been engaged at the beginning of the year:

Edgar Filing: TRANSPORTATION LOGISTICS INTL INC - Form 10QSB

- We sold Transportation Logistics (U.K.) to the individuals from whom we had originally acquired it. They gave us a promissory note for $35,000, 940,867 shares of Transportation Logistics common stock, and a promise to pay us 50% of any profits they realize from operating a global network.
- We surrendered our interest in HumanaForce Logistics LLC, which had provided personnel services to the transportation industry.
- We ceased the operations of Pupil Transportation, Inc. after that subsidiary lost its principal contract to a larger competitor.
- We terminated the operations of our financial services division, as we lacked the capital needed to fund its ongoing operations.

Because these businesses have been discontinued, we have restated our financial results for the first quarter of 2002. As restated, our statement of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2002 shows no revenue and a loss attributable to the discontinued operations.

In May 2002 we acquired Xcalibur Xpress, Inc., which is now our only operating business. In the three months ended March 31, 2003 Xcalibur Xpress contributed $1,693,203 in revenue. We realized a gross margin of 14% from that revenue, which was less than the 35% gross margin that we realized from the operations of Xcalibur Xpress in 2002. The reduction in gross margin reflects transitional expenses; over the long-term we expect the gross margin to range between 14% and 22%.

The gross profit from Xcalibur Xpress was not sufficient to offset all of the expenses of operating our public company for the quarter. As a result we reported an operating loss of $4,304. However, that loss reflected the effect of a non-cash expense of $61,775 that we incurred as a result of issuance of stock to consultants during 2002. But for that expense, we would have reported an operating profit of $57,471.

We expect the operations of Xcalibur Xpress to grow, which will increase their efficiency. Because of the efficiency of the operations of Xcalibur Xpress, we believe that it can be the foundation for rebuilding Transportation Logistics. Our success in that regard will depend, however, on our ability to raise capital.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The primary roadblock facing our plans for growth is our need for capital. At the present time, our only source of capital is a $1.5 million secured line of credit, on which we can draw funds equal to 85% of the amount of our eligible accounts receivable. We are actively seeking additional capital resources, through sale of equity or debt, and hope to increase our available resources. With additional capital resources, we expect to be able to expand the operations of Xcalibur Xpress and to initiate complementary businesses that will permit us to achieve the economies of scale that will facilitate profitability and growth.

Our working capital deficit at March 31, 2003 totaled $ 145,491. The deficit increased by $120,935 from the deficit at December 31, 2002, as we borrowed $100,000 from a private lender on a short-term basis. Those funds, which we received in March, have enabled us to expand our operations, which should be reflected in our financial results for the remainder of the year.

Although our working capital deficit is not great, our cash flow remains insufficient to satisfy the requirements of our existing liabilities. For this reason we require additional capital resources. Management, therefore, is actively engaged in exploring opportunities for equity or debt financing, to obtain the funds needed to sustain our operations through the coming year.

ITEM 3. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Michael Margolies, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, performed an evaluation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures within 90 days prior to the filing date of this report. Based on his evaluation, he concluded that the controls and procedures in place are sufficient to assure that material information concerning the Company which could affect the disclosures in the Company's quarterly and annual reports is made known to him by the other officers and employees of the Company, and that the communications occur with promptness sufficient to assure the inclusion of the information in the then-current report.
