A.

Survival of Representations, Warranties, Etc.

The representations, warranties and covenants contained in or made pursuant to this Agreement or any certificate, document or instrument delivered pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement in the transactions contemplated hereby shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Closing hereunder (notwithstanding any investigation, analysis or evaluation by any party hereto or their designees of the Assets and Properties, business, operations or condition (financial or otherwise) of the other party), and thereafter the representations and warranties of the parties herein shall continue to survive in full force and effect for a period of eighteen (18) months, at which time they will expire.

costs, losses, liabilities, damages, lawsuits, deficiencies, claims and expenses (collectively, the "Damages"), incurred in connection with, arising out of, resulting from or incident to any breach of any covenant, representation, warranty or agreement or the inaccuracy of any representation, made by the Company or the Company Stockholders in or pursuant to this Agreement, or in the other documents delivered in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement.

2. Right of Set-Off

. As security for their obligation to indemnify Parent and Parent Group hereunder, the Company Stockholders hereby grant each of Parent and the Parent Group a right of set-off and agree that at any time a payment or amount is owing by the Company Stockholders pursuant to the terms of this Article VIII, or either Parent or the Parent Group has made a claim for indemnification pursuant to the terms of this Article VIII, Parent and the Parent Group may set-off, or direct the other party to set-off, amounts owing by either Parent or the Parent Group to any of the Company Stockholders.

4. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent, Acquisition Co. and the Company Stockholders shall have no liability with respect to the matters described in paragraphs (a) and (c) above unless and until the aggregate amount of Damages equal or exceed $25,000 (the "Threshold Amount"). The limitation of Parent and Acquisition Co. for indemnification under this Article VIII shall be limited to the Aggregate Indemnification Amount and shall be payable in cash or Parent Common Stock, at the Parent's option. The limitation of Parent, Acquisition Co. and the Company Stockholders for indemnification under this Article VIII shall be limited to claims made within twenty-four (24) months from the Closing Date. The limitations of liability set forth herein shall not apply to any intentional or fraudulent breach by any party of any representation, warranty, covenant or obligation.

- Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Company's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, the indemnification provisions of this Article VIII shall take precedence over such Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws. No Company Stockholder nor any other director or officer incumbent at any time prior to the Closing shall be entitled to indemnification directly or indirectly under the Company's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws or otherwise for any matter upon which the Company or any Company Stockholder has or might have an indemnification obligation hereunder and the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws shall be deemed amended accordingly. However, the provisions of this Section 8.3 are intended only for the regulation of relations between the Company and the Company Stockholders and any indemnified party. Exhibit 99.1 Press Release dated June 20, 2003

Crdentia Corp. (OTCBB:CRNC) Agrees to Acquire Baker Anderson Christie, Inc.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--June 20, 2003--Crdentia Corp. (OTCBB:CRNC)

, announced today that is has entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization with Baker Anderson Christie, Inc. ("BAC"). Upon the terms and subject to the conditions in the merger agreement, BAC will become a subsidiary of Crdentia Corp. BAC is based in San Francisco, CA and provides total clinical staffing for both residential care facilities and hospices.

BAC management attributes their success to their hands-on management style. They strive for the highest degree of customer satisfaction and enjoy a strong reputation for quality service among its customers. BAC believes that their reputation for providing quality of care facilitated its entry into clinical outsourcing for local area hospices. In these contracts, BAC provides and manages the entire clinical staff within the contracted facilities.

Crdentia Corp. seeks to capitalize on an opportunity that currently exists in the healthcare industry by targeting the critical nursing shortage issue. There are many small companies that are addressing the rapidly expanding needs of the healthcare industry. Unfortunately, due to their relatively small capitalization, they are unable to maximize their potential, obtain outside capital or expand. By consolidating well-run small private companies into a larger public entity, Crdentia intends to facilitate access to capital, the acquisition of technology, and expanded distribution that, in turn, drive internal growth.

Statements contained in this release that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Among the important factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those discussed in "Risk Factors" in the Company's Forms 10-KSB, Forms 10-QSB, and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such risk factors include, but are not limited to, a limited operating history with no earnings; reliance on the Company's management team, members of which have other business interests; the ability to successfully implement the Company's business plan; the ability to continue as a going concern; the ability to fund the Company's business and acquisition strategy; the growth of the temporary healthcare professional staffing business; difficulty in managing operations of acquired businesses; uncertainty in government regulation of the healthcare industry; and the limited public market for the Company's common stock. The actual results that the Company achieves may differ materially from any forward-looking statements due to such risks and uncertainties. We undertake no obligation to revise or update publicly any forward-looking statements for any reason.
