Item 8.01 Other Events

Edgar Filing: MGP INGREDIENTS INC - Form 8-K

As previously reported, the Company has been a party to certain patent litigation in the United States District Court for the District of Kansas captioned MGP Ingredients, et. al. v. Manildra Milling Corporation et. al. (Case No. 04-2278-GTV). The Company recently filed a second lawsuit in the same court relating to the same patent, MGP Ingredients, Inc. et. al. v. The Manildra Group et. al (Case No. 05-2233-CM).

The Company, Manildra Milling Corporation and its parent and The Kansas State University Research Foundation (KSURF) have entered into a settlement of these two lawsuits pursuant to which the parties' various claims against one another will be dismissed with prejudice and a consent judgment entered. Manildra and its parent have acknowledged the validity of the Seib 946 patent licensed to the Company by KSURF and agreed not to make, have made, use, sell or import in the United States or Australia products based on the patent. Manildra also will convey to the Company specified intellectual property, extruding equipment, inventory of certain resistant starch and other consideration in exchange for a transfer of funds by the Company of $950,000. The settlement is subject to court approval.

In a related transaction, Manildra's parent has sold and the Company has purchased $294,000 of chemicals which are used in the production of resistant starch.
