PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

(Attach extra Sheets if Needed)

Tenet Healthcare Corporation (the Registrant) was unable to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 (Form 10-Q) by the August 9, 2005 due date for the reasons discussed below. The Registrant also expects, for the same reasons, that it will be unable to file the Form 10-Q by August 14, 2005 and, therefore, is not requesting the five-day extension permitted by Rule 12b-25(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

The Registrant announced on July 20, 2005 that developments arising out of a previously disclosed Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) investigation would most likely cause a delay in the filing of the Form 10-Q with the SEC. The SEC's investigation relates to the Registrant's disclosures regarding its receipt of certain Medicare outlier and managed care stop loss payments prior to 2003. At the request of the SEC, the Registrant is investigating allegations made by a former employee that inappropriate contractual allowances for managed care contracts may have been established at three California hospitals through at least fiscal year 2001. If the allegations were found to be true, net operating revenues for those periods could have been understated and net operating revenues for subsequent periods could have been overstated if such contractual allowances were established and later reversed.

The audit committee of the Registrant's board of directors has instructed its independent outside counsel to investigate the allegations. The independent outside counsel has retained the Huron Consulting Group to conduct a forensic accounting review of the allegations, including an examination of whether similar issues might have affected other of the Registrant's hospitals. As a result of this ongoing review, the Registrant has been unable to finalize certain information necessary to complete the preparation of the Form 10-Q, and, consequently, KPMG LLP, the Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm, has not yet been able to complete its SAS 100 review in connection with the Form 10-Q.

At this time, the Registrant cannot provide assurances as to when the Form 10-Q will be filed.

Some of the statements in this notice are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on beliefs and expectations of the Registrant's management, and on information currently available to management. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and the Registrant makes no promise to update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of changes in underlying factors, new information, future events or otherwise. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement, including, but not limited to, the timing and outcome of the review being conducted by independent outside counsel on behalf of the audit committee of the Registrant's board of directors.
