Item 8.01 Other Events

Stewart & Stevenson Services, Inc. (the Company) has previously disclosed that the Company and six of its directors were named as defendants in a purported class action lawsuit relating to the proposed merger transaction with Armor Holdings (the Original Lawsuit). The Original Lawsuit was filed on April 11, 2006 in District Court in Harris County, Texas, by a purported shareholder of the Company on behalf of all other similarly situated shareholders, and alleged, among other things, that the defendants have breached their fiduciary duties to the shareholders of the Company and have failed to disclose material information or disclosed materially false information in its proxy materials relating to the shareholders meeting to be held on May 9, 2006. After the defendants removed the Original Lawsuit to the United States District Court, Southern District of Texas (Federal Court) and after the Company filed a motion to dismiss the class action, the plaintiff filed an amended complaint in Federal Court as a derivative suit asserting similar claims as the Original Lawsuit (the Amended Lawsuit, and together with the Original Lawsuit, the Claim). The Company and the individual defendants, Armor as an intervenor, and the plaintiff filed numerous motions and other pleadings since the Amended Lawsuit was filed, including the Company's filing of a motion to dismiss the Claim and the plaintiff's filing of a motion for a temporary restraining order to enjoin the shareholder meeting. Today, the court dismissed the plaintiff's Claim and rendered moot the plaintiff's request for the temporary restraining order. The Company's public announcement regarding the court's ruling is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
