Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On June 23, 2006, PRB Energy, Inc. (PRB or the Company) announced the departure of William P. Brand, Jr., who had served as Vice President of Finance since August 2005. Robert W. Wright, PRB's Chairman and CEO, will serve as interim CFO, supported by Daniel D. Reichel, whom it is expected will eventually become PRB's Vice President of Finance.

Mr. Reichel was previously with Denver-based Bridge Petroleum, a private international oil and gas exploration company, where he was CFO. In that position, he was responsible for all treasury and financial reporting, coordination of financing proposals with investment firms and the management of joint operating agreements with project partners. Previously, he had also directed the accounting and SEC financial reporting functions for Black Hills Exploration, a publicly held oil and gas exploration and production subsidiary in the Rocky Mountain region. From 2001 to 2004, Mr. Reichel was an independent consultant and project leader for accounting and software outsourcing firms in the petroleum industry. Mr. Reichel started his career in public accounting and over the next three decades held senior level accounting and finance positions for various public and private E&P companies in Denver.

Mr. Reichel is a Colorado-licensed, certified public accountant and holds a BS in Business Administration/Accounting from the University of Nebraska. He is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the Colorado Society of CPAs and also serves on the local Board of Directors of COPAS-Colorado, a non-profit national organization, known domestically and internationally for its leadership in petroleum accounting.
