ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On April 17, 2007, we were granted a Modification of Contract Agreement with the United States Marine Corps to provide sustainment Integrated Logistics Support for the U.S. Marine Corp s Mine Resistant Ambush Protected vehicle program for consideration of approximately $6.9 million.

Under the terms of the contract, Force Dynamics, LLC will supply support including deployment blocks, maintenance workshop blocks, field service representatives and operator and maintenance training in connection with previous vehicle contracts.

This report may contain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including, without limitation, statements concerning our business and possible or assumed future results of operations. We generally use words such as believe, may, could, will, intend, expect, anticipate, plan, and similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements for many reasons including: our ability to continue as a going concern, adverse economic changes affecting markets we serve; competition in our markets and industry segments; our timing and the profitability of entering new markets; greater than expected costs, customer acceptance of our products or difficulties related to our integration of the businesses we may acquire; and other risks and uncertainties as may be detailed from time to time in our public announcements and SEC filings. Although we believe the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, they relate only to events as of the date on which the statements are made, and our future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements may not meet these expectations. We do not intend to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this document to conform these statements to actual results or to changes in our expectations, except as required by law.
