As previously disclosed on a Form 8-K filed on May 8, 2009, the Compensation Committee of Magellan Health Services, Inc. (the Company) has decided not to agree to contractual provisions in future contracts with executives requiring the Company to reimburse executives for excise taxes payable on a change in control of the Company, except for certain circumstances where the Committee believes that special accommodations have to be made to recruit a new executive to the Company. In such a case, the excise tax gross ups will be limited to payments triggered by both a change in control and termination of employment and will be subject to a three year sunset provision.
