accidental death and dismemberment and disability insurance for Mr. Broussard and his dependents for 24 months, if such termination is on after a Change in Control.

If (i) Mr. Broussard becomes entitled to payments that would be “parachute payments” in connection with a change in control of the Company that would subject him to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code and (ii) the aggregate amount of such payments that Mr. Broussard would receive, after all taxes, is less than he would receive if such payments were reduced below the threshold above which the excise tax would apply (the “Section 280G Threshold”), then (iii) such payments shall be reduced to $1.00 below the Section 280G Threshold so that Mr. Broussard does not become subject to the excise tax.

In connection with Mr. Broussard’s relocation to the Louisville, Kentucky area and the sale of his residence in Houston, Texas, the Company will reimburse Mr. Broussard for all real estate commissions and other customary closing costs of the type covered by the Company’s Executive Homeowner Relocation Policy that he incurs in connection with the sale of his residence.

In addition, Mr. Broussard is subject to non-competition and non-solicitation covenants during his term of employment and for two years following his termination, as well as to a perpetual covenant not to use or disclose confidential information and trade secrets. Mr. Broussard is also entitled to be reimbursed for legal fees incurred in connection with the negotiation of the Employment Agreement in an amount not to exceed $25,000.
