Incorporation by reference

The information contained in this Report on Form 6-K, excluding the information set forth in Exhibit No. 1, shall be incorporated by reference in the prospectus relating to the Registrant's debt securities contained in the Registrant's Registration Statement on Form F-3 (File No. 333-207931), as such prospectus may be amended or supplemented from time to time.

On August 5, 2016, Westpac announced that John Arthur, Westpac Group's Chief Operating Officer (COO), has decided to retire from Westpac. Westpac also announced changes to the management of Mr Arthur's current portfolio following his retirement. This included elevating the role of Group General Counsel & Chief Compliance Officer (Rebecca Lim) to the Executive Team.

Westpac also announced that Gary Thursby would be taking on the expanded role of Group Executive, Strategy, Transformation & Business Services, with responsibility for the organisation's strategy and transformation portfolios and that George Frazis, Chief Executive Consumer Bank, will take on responsibility for the Group's contact centres.

These new appointments and expanded roles are effective October 1, 2016. All other responsibilities of the Executive Team remain unchanged.

About Rebecca Lim

Rebecca Lim was appointed Group General Counsel of Westpac in December 2011 and in 2013 took on responsibility for the Group's Compliance portfolio. On joining Westpac in 2002, Ms Lim worked across a number of legal teams, including Mergers & Acquisitions, Group Corporate and Treasury. She then held a number of senior positions in the Group, including Chief of Staff to the CEO, General Manager, St.George Private Clients and General Manager, Human Resources for the St.George Banking Group.

Ms Lim commenced her legal career in private practice at Blake Dawson Waldron (now Ashurst) before joining Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, where she worked in both New York and London. She has a Bachelor of Laws (Hons) and a Bachelor of Economics from the University of Queensland.
