Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 20, 2017, Telaria, Inc. (the Company) entered into a transition agreement (the Transition Agreement) with Adam Lichstein, the Company s President, Publisher Platforms. The Transition Agreement provides that Mr. Lichstein will continue to serve as the Company s President, Publisher Platforms through October 6, 2017, at which time his employment will terminate (the Separation Date). Mr. Lichstein will continue to receive his current base salary and be entitled to participate in the Company s employee benefit plans through the Separation Date.

The Transition Agreement provides, in accordance with the terms of the employment offer letter entered into between Mr. Lichstein and the Company, that Mr. Lichstein will receive the following benefits, subject to his continued compliance with terms of the Transition Agreement: (1) payment of his base salary for a period of 12 months from the Separation Date; (2) a pro-rated portion of his 2017 target bonus; and (3) paid COBRA coverage for up to 12 months from the Separation Date. Additionally, Mr. Lichstein is entitled to acceleration of 100% of the unvested shares subject to any stock option or restricted stock unit award issued to him by the Company. Mr. Lichstein will be bound by a non-compete and non-solicitation obligation for a period of 12 months following the Separation Date.

The foregoing description of the Transition Agreement is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the Transition Agreement, which the Company s intends to file as an exhibit with the Company s Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2017.
