Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 18, 2018, certain wholly-owned subsidiaries (the Borrowers) of The Howard Hughes Corporation (the Company) entered into a loan agreement (the Loan Agreement) with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent and a lender; Wells Fargo Securities, L.L.C., as sole lead arranger and sole book-runner; and the other lenders party thereto.

The Loan Agreement provides for a $615.0 million term loan (the Term Loan) and an $85.0 million revolver loan (the Revolver Loan and together with the Term Loan, the Loans). The Loans mature on September 18, 2023 (with no extension options), and each loan bears interest at a rate equal to one month LIBOR plus 1.65%. On September 21, 2018, the Company entered into a swap agreement to fix 100% of the outstanding principal of the Term Loan to a rate equal to 4.6%. The Loan Agreement requires monthly interest-only payments during the term of the Loans with the outstanding principal due at maturity. The Borrowers have a one-time right to request an increase of $50.0 million in the aggregate amount of the Revolver Loan commitment.

Pursuant to the terms of the security instruments, the Loans are secured by a first priority security interest in certain of the Company's properties which are directly owned by the Borrowers (each a Mortgaged Property and collectively, the Mortgaged Properties). In connection with the Loans, the Company provided the administrative agent, on behalf of the lenders, a non-recourse carve-out guaranty and a hazardous materials indemnity agreement.

The Borrowers drew $615.0 million under the Term Loan at closing. All of the net proceeds after costs and fees related to the Term Loan were used to repay all outstanding indebtedness encumbering the Mortgaged Properties, including indebtedness under which the administrative agent was a lender. As of closing, the Company did not make any draw under the Revolver Loan.

The Borrowers may prepay the Loan in whole or in part on or after September 18, 2019. Mandatory prepayments (or substitution or addition to the pool of properties securing the Loans) also are required in connection with the disposition of Mortgaged Properties, curing certain defaults and other customary circumstances. The Borrowers are not entitled to the release of certain Mortgaged Properties designated as key properties. In connection with any prepayments, the lenders under the Loans are entitled to receive a prepayment fee equal to (a) 0.75% of the amount prepaid for payments on or prior to September 18, 2020 and (b) 0.25% of the amount prepaid for prepayment between September 19, 2020 and September 18, 2021. No prepayment fee is payable after September 18, 2021. In addition, the Borrowers may not make any prepayment with respect to the Mortgaged Properties designated as key properties unless they prepay the outstanding principal balances of the Loans.

The Loan Agreement contains customary representations and covenants for a loan agreement of this type, including financial covenants related to maintenance of interest coverage ratios and loan-to-value ratios with respect to the Mortgaged Properties, taken as a whole. The Loan Agreement also contains customary events of default, certain of which are subject to cure periods. The events of default include, among other things, nonpayment of principal, interest or fees; breach of the representations or warranties; bankruptcy or insolvency; certain changes of control of the Borrowers and prohibited transfers; a default under the guaranty; and the voluntary termination of any swap contract. If an event of default exists, the payment on any unpaid principal amount may be accelerated, and the administrative agent may make protective advances to preserve the value of the Mortgaged Properties.

The description of the Loan Agreement set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Loan Agreement. A copy of the Loan Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.
