Item 5. Other Events.

On November 22, 2002, the Company completed its previously announced sale of 12,000 shares of its newly created Series A Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series A Preferred") for an aggregate purchase price of $12,000,000. Contemporaneously with the sale of the Series A Preferred, the Company also completed the renegotiations of its loan covenants with its major long-term lenders and its three bank lenders.

The Company sold the Series A Preferred in a private placement to a number of current shareholders, who, in the aggregate, owned approximately 40% of the Company's common stock (the "Common Stock") prior to the transaction. The sale increased their aggregate holdings of Common Stock (on an as-converted basis) and voting power initially by approximately 5%. The Series A Preferred Stock has an initial conversion price of $6.69 per share of Common Stock. The Series A Preferred is entitled to a quarterly dividend equal to the greater of 8% per annum or the total dividends declared and paid on the Common Stock on an as-converted basis each year. For the other terms of the Series A Preferred, see Exhibit 3, filed herewith. In connection with the sale of the Series A Preferred, the Company entered into the Series A Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement (filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1) and a Registration Rights Agreement (filed herewith as Exhibit 10.2).

In conjunction with the sale of the Series A Preferred, the Company renegotiated its loan covenants (the "Debt Amendments") with its senior note holders (who hold approximately $96,000,000 aggregate principal amount of senior notes) and its two lender banks in the US (the senior note holders and lender banks being referred to collectively as the "Lenders"). The Debt Amendments expand certain financial covenants in order to provide greater financial and operating flexibility. In exchange for the Debt Amendments, the interest rate or other fees payable by the Company on the various senior debt instruments to the Lenders (the "Senior Debt") will increase, raising, at the current debt level, the Company's annual interest expense by approximately $2.1 million. Upon the Company's debt attaining investment grade status, the interest expense will decrease by approximately $1.6 million. As part of the Debt Amendments, certain of the Company's subsidiaries entered into guarantees with respect to the Senior Debt and, in addition, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries will grant the Lenders security interests in substantially all of their respective assets. As part of the negotiations, A. M. Castle & Co. (Canada), Inc. ("Castle Canada") also amended its credit agreement with its Canadian bank lender and will grant the bank a security interest in substantially all of its assets. Neither the Company or any other subsidiary has guaranteed the debt of Castle Canada, nor has Castle Canada guaranteed the debt of the Company or other subsidiary. Copies of the agreements, as amended, between the Company and its senior note holders are filed as exhibits hereto.

Further, the Company has signed a commitment letter for a $60 million receivable securitization financing facility to replace its existing facility, which expires in March 2003.
