ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY

Indemnification of directors and officers of the Company is provided under Article VI of the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Company for judgments, fines, settlements, and expenses, including attorney fees incurred in connection with any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative if such director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Article VI of the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provides that an outside director shall not be personally liable to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of his fiduciary duty as a director and authorizes the Company to indemnify such outside director against monetary damages for such breach to the full extent permitted by law. This provision applies to acts or omissions occurring after the effective date of the amendment, and does not limit liability for (i) any act or omission not in good faith which involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (ii) any transaction from which the outside director derived an improper direct or indirect financial benefit, (iii) paying a dividend or approving a stock repurchase in violation of the Nebraska Business Corporation Act, or (iv) any act or omission which violates a declaratory or injunctive order obtained by the Company or its stockholders. For purposes of Article VI, "outside director" is defined as any member of the Board of Directors who is not an officer or a person who may control the conduct of the Company through management agreements, voting trusts, directorships in related corporations or any other device or relationship. The Company has purchased director and officer liability insurance that insures directors and officers against certain liabilities in connection with the performance of their duties as directors and officers, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and provides for payment to the Company of costs incurred by it in indemnifying its directors and officers.

Under Nebraska law, indemnification of directors and officers may be provided for judgments, fines, penalties, settlements, and expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in connection with any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding other than an action by or in the right of the Company. This applies to any civil, criminal, investigative, arbitratve, or administrative action, formal or informal, provided that the director or officer involved acted in good faith, in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Indemnification of directors and officers may be also provided for judgments, fines, settlements, and expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in connection with any threatened, pending, or completed action, or suit by or in the right of the corporation if such director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. However, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter in which such person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties to the corporation unless the court in which the action is brought deems indemnity proper.

The grant of indemnification to a director or officer shall be determined by a majority of a quorum of disinterested directors, by a written opinion from independent legal counsel, or by the shareholders.

Indemnification shall be provided to any directors and officers for expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding to the extent that he or she has been successful on the merits.

Federal Regulations clearly define areas for indemnity coverage, as follows:

(a) Any person against whom any action is brought or threatened because that person is or was a director, officer or employee of the Bank shall be indemnified by the Bank for:

(i) Reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, arising from the defense or settlement of such action, provided that a majority of the Bank's directors conclude that, in connection with any actions, a person ultimately may become entitled to indemnification under this section;

(ii) Any amount for which that person becomes liable under a judgment

in such action;

(iii) Reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, actually paid or incurred by that person in defending or settling such action, or in enforcing his or her rights under this section if he or she attains a favorable judgment in such enforcement action.

(b) Indemnification provided for in subparagraph (a) shall be made to such officer or director only if the requirements of this subparagraph are met:

(i) The Bank shall make the indemnification provided by subparagraph (a) in connection with any such action which results in a final judgment on the merits in favor of such officer or director.

(ii) The Bank shall make the indemnification provided by subparagraph (a) in case of settlement of such action, final judgment against such director or officer or final judgment in favor of such director or officer, other than on the merits, if a majority of the disinterested directors of the Bank determines that such director or officer was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her employment or authority as he or she could reasonably have perceived it under the circumstances and for a purpose he or she could reasonably have believed under the circumstances was in the best interests of the Bank or its shareholders. However, no indemnification shall be made unless the Bank gives the OTS at least 60 days' notice of its intention to make such indemnification. No such indemnification shall be made if the OTS advises the Bank in writing, within such notice period, of its objection thereto.

(c) As used in this paragraph:

(i) "Action" means any judicial or administrative proceeding, or threatened proceeding, whether civil, criminal, or otherwise, including any appeal or other proceeding for review;

(ii) "Court" includes, without limitation, any court to which or in which any appeal or any proceeding for review is brought;

(iii) "Final Judgment" means a judgment, decree, or order which is not appealable and as to which the period for appeal has expired and with no appeal taken;

(iv) "Settlement" includes the entry of a judgment by consent or by confession or upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered that remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report, to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, where interim financial information required to be present by Article 3 of Regulation S-X is not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

(6) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
