Item 5 Full Description of Material Change

On September 25, 2003, Cameco closed its recently announced offering of 5% Convertible Debentures for aggregate gross proceeds of $230 million. The syndicate was co-led by RBC Dominion Securities Inc. and Scotia Capital Inc. and included CIBC World Markets Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc.

Cameco will use the net proceeds of approximately $222.6 million to repay outstanding short-term, commercial-paper debt related to the company's past acquisition of a further 16.6% interest in Bruce Power LP, which closed in February 2003. In accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, the Convertible Debentures will be reflected as equity on Cameco's balance sheet.

The Convertible Debentures mature on October 1, 2013 and bear interest from the date of issue at 5% per annum, which will be payable semi-annually in arrears on April 1 and October 1 in each year, commencing on April 1, 2004. The Convertible Debentures can be converted at the option of the holders into Cameco common shares at any time on or prior to the maturity date based on a conversion price of $65.00 per share, representing a conversion ratio of approximately 15.3846 shares per $1,000 of Convertible Debentures.

The company may not redeem the Convertible Debentures prior to October 1, 2008. Thereafter, the company may redeem the Convertible Debentures in whole or in part at a redemption price equal to par plus accrued and unpaid interest, provided that the holders will be able to convert the Convertible Debentures into Cameco common shares at any time up to one business day prior to the redemption date.

The Convertible Debentures and the common shares issuable on the conversion thereof will not be and have not been registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (US Securities Act) and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements.
