Item 3 of the Original Schedule 13D is amended by deleting the text therein in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

On March 25, 2003, Riverwood Holding, Inc. ("Riverwood"), Graphic Packaging International Corporation ("GPIC") and Riverwood Acquisition Sub LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Riverwood ("Acquisition Sub"), entered into the Agreement and Plan of Merger, as amended by an Amendment No. 1, dated as of July 11, 2003 (the "Merger Agreement"), providing, among other things, for the merger of GPIC with and into Acquisition Sub, with Acquisition Sub continuing as the surviving company (the "Merger"). Prior thereto, the Coors Family Trusts held 60,249,576 shares of GPIC. The Merger Agreement was approved by the stockholders of GPIC on August 7, 2003, and the Merger was consummated on August 8, 2003. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, on August 8, 2003, Riverwood filed a Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of Delaware ("Closing Date"), and the Merger was effective as of the filing of such certificate ("Effective Time"). The Coors Family Trusts received as a result of the merger 60,249,576 shares of the Company.

Item 4.

Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 of the Original Schedule 13D is amended by deleting in its entirety the text therein and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

The Reporting Person became the trustee for the Coors Family Trusts on June 30, 2006. Adolph Coors Company LLC is Trustee for all of the holdings of the Coors Family Trusts, including the Common Units of Adolph Coors Company LLC.

The purpose of this Amendment No. 1 to the Original Schedule 13D is to report the designation effective June 30, 2006, of Adolph Coors Company LLC as successor trustee to the individual trustees of the Coors Family Trusts. Adolph Coors Company LLC does not serve as trustee for any other trusts or conduct any business not related to the administration and management of the Coors Family Trusts.

The purpose of the designation by the former individual trustees of the Coors Family Trusts of Adolph Coors Company LLC as successor trustee was to provide for a single entity to serve as trustee, which has the benefits of formally consolidating administration and management of the holdings of the Coors Family Trusts and of facilitating short-term and long-term planning for the Trusts. All twelve (12) of the former individual trustees of the Coors Family Trusts are descendants of Adolph Coors and now constitute the Board of Directors of Adolph Coors Company LLC.

Jeffrey H. Coors, Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company; and Timothy I. Coors, a member of management of the Company, are also Directors of Adolph Coors Company LLC. Jeffrey H. Coors is also Co-Chairman of Adolph Coors Company LLC. There are ten other Directors of Adolph Coors Company LLC. None of the individual members of the Board of Directors or of the officers of Adolph Coors Company LLC are considered to be beneficial owners of the shares of the Company's Common Stock held by Adolph Coors Company LLC, as Trustee of the Coors Family Trusts. Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement described in Item 6 (Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer), Jeffrey H. Coors and, in the case of his inability to act, William K. Coors has been designated as the "Family Representative" to perform all of the Reporting Person's obligations under the Stockholders Agreement, including, but not limited to designating one person for nomination to the Company's Board of Directors. The three parties to the Stockholders Agreement are required to vote to elect this person as a director as well as the persons designated by the two other parties (CDR and Exor, as hereinafter defined) to the Stockholders Agreement. Jeffrey H. Coors has been the person designated by the Family Representative for nomination to the Company's Board of Directors. The Reporting Person retains voting power with regard to all other matters and sole dispositive power with respect to the shares of Common Stock held by the Reporting Person.

The Reporting Person pursues an investment objective that seeks capital appreciation. The Reporting Person will continuously analyze the operations, capital structure, and markets of companies in which it invests, including the Company, through analysis of documentation and discussions with knowledgeable industry and market observers and with representatives of such companies (often at the invitation of management). As a result of these activities, the Reporting Person may participate in interviews or hold discussions with third parties or with management in which the Reporting Person may suggest or take a position with respect to potential changes in the operations, management, or capital structure of such companies as a means of enhancing shareholder value. Such suggestions or positions may relate to one or more of the transactions described in Item 4(a) through (j) of Schedule 13D under Rule 13d-1(a), including, without limitation, such matters as disposing of one or more businesses; selling the Company or acquiring another company or business; changing operating or marketing strategies; adopting, not adopting, modifying, or eliminating certain types of anti-takeover measures; restructuring the Company's capitalization; reviewing dividend and compensation policies; entering into agreements with third parties relating to acquisitions of securities issued or to be issued by the Company; entering into agreements with the management of the Company relating to acquisitions of shares of the Company by members of management, issuance of options to management, or their employment by the Company.

Further, subject to and depending upon the availability of prices deemed favorable by the Reporting Person, it may choose to purchase additional shares of the Common Stock from time to time in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions with third parties, by exercising options or warrants, or otherwise. In addition, depending upon prevailing conditions or other factors, the Reporting Person may determine to dispose of shares of the Common Stock currently held by the Reporting Person in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions with third parties, or otherwise.

As a Director of the Company, Jeffrey H. Coors may consider plans and proposals submitted by management with respect to business combinations aimed at improving the operating efficiencies of the Company, acquiring complementary properties, entering new market regions and/or for other reasons. These business combinations may include mergers and acquisitions, asset purchases and sales, as well as strategic ventures and marketing alliances. As a Director of the Company, Jeffrey H. Coors also may, depending on the facts and circumstances, consider any plans and proposals with respect to other transactions described in subparagraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Except as described herein, the Reporting Person has no present plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions described in Item 4(a) through (j) of Schedule 13D under Rule 13d-1(a).

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

Item 5 of the Original Schedule 13D is amended by deleting in its entirety the text therein and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

As members of the group, the parties to the Stockholders Agreement may be deemed to beneficially own the Company's Common Stock beneficially owned by the members of the group as a whole. If deemed a group, the parties to the Stockholders Agreement would be deemed to beneficially own, in the aggregate, 128,694,576 shares of Company Common Stock, or 64.8% of the Company Common Stock calculated based on 198,698,698 shares of the Company's Common Stock outstanding as of March 20, 2006, as reported in the Issuer's Schedule 14 A filed on April 11, 2006.
