Ternium Comments on Recent Developments in Venezuela

Luxembourg, April 9, 2008 – Ternium S.A. (NYSE: TX) announced today that Venezuela's Vice President Ramon Carrizales has informed representatives of Sidor of the Venezuelan government's intention to nationalize its majority-owned subsidiary Sidor. Ternium, however, has not yet received any formal notice in this respect.

Mr. Carrizales has announced the appointment of a negotiating committee. Ternium awaits the opportunity to engage in discussions with the Venezuelan authorities.

Forward Looking Statements

Some of the statements contained in this press release are “forward-looking statements”. Forward-looking statements are based on management's current views and assumptions and involve known and unknown risks that could cause actual results, performance or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied by those statements. These risks include but are not limited to risks arising from uncertainties as to gross domestic product, related market demand, global production capacity, tariffs, cyclicalities in the industries that purchase steel products and other factors beyond Ternium's control.

About Ternium
