Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors;
Appointment of Principal Officers

Matthew R. Simmons, chairman and chief executive officer of Simmons & Company International, an investment banking firm, has notified the company that he intends to resign from the Kerr-McGee Corporation Board of Directors effective January 11, 2005, following the Board's regular January meeting. Mr. Simmons decided to resign in order to avoid any potential conflicts of interest between his service to Kerr-McGee and his position with Simmons & Company. Although Simmons & Company historically has focused its analysis and financial services on the oil and gas industry's service and equipment sector, Simmons & Company is broadening its focus to include exploration and production companies like Kerr-McGee.
