To obtain funding for its ongoing operations and pay off existing debt, Stronghold Technologies, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a Securities Purchase

Edgar Filing: STRONGHOLD TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 8-K

Agreement (the "Agreement") with New Millennium Capital Partners II, LLC, AJW Qualified Partners, LLC, AJW Offshore, Ltd. and AJW Partners, LLC (collectively, the "Investors") on March 31, 2005 for the sale of (i) $650,000 in callable secured convertible notes (the "Notes") and (ii) stock purchase warrants (the "Warrants") to buy 650,000 shares of our common stock.

On March 31, 2005, the Investors purchased $350,000 in Notes and received Warrants to purchase 350,000 shares of the Company's common stock. In addition, provided that all of the conditions in the Securities Purchase Agreement are satisfied, the Investors are obligated to provide the Company with an additional $300,000 within five business days of the effectiveness of the registration statement.

The Notes bear interest at 12%, mature two years from the date of issuance, and are convertible into our common stock, at the Investors' option, at a conversion price, equal to the lower of (i) $0.02 or (ii) 25% of the average of the three lowest intraday trading prices for our common stock during the 20 trading days before, but not including, the conversion date. As of April 8, 2005, the average of the three lowest intraday trading prices for our common stock during the preceding 20 trading days as reported on the Over-The-Counter Bulletin Board was $.02 and, therefore, the conversion price for the secured convertible notes was $.005. Based on this conversion price, the Notes plus all the callable secured convertible notes issued in connection with our June 2004 Securities Purchase Agreement in the aggregate amount of $3,350,000, excluding interest, were convertible into 670,000,000 shares of our common stock.

We may prepay the Notes in the event that no event of default exists, there are a sufficient number of shares available for conversion of the callable secured convertible notes and the market price is at or below $.03 per share. The full principal amount of the Notes is due upon default under the terms of Notes. In addition, we have granted the Investors a security interest in substantially all of our assets and intellectual property as well as registration rights.

The Warrants are exercisable until five years from the date of issuance at a purchase price of $0.03 per share. In addition, the exercise price of the Warrants is adjusted in the event we issue common stock at a price below market.

The Investors have contractually agreed to restrict their ability to convert the Notes and exercise the Warrants and receive shares of our common stock such that the number of shares of the Company common stock held by them and their affiliates after such conversion or exercise does not exceed 4.99% of the Company's then issued and outstanding shares of common stock.

The sale of the Notes was completed on March 31, 2005 with respect to $350,000 of the Notes. As of the date hereof, the Company is obligated on $350,000 in face amount of Notes issued to the Investors. The Notes are a debt obligation arising other than in the ordinary course of business which constitute a direct financial obligation of the Company. In addition, the Company is also obligated on $3,000,000 in face amount of callable secured convertible notes issued to the Investors pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement entered in June 2004.

The Notes and Warrants were offered and sold to the Investors in a private placement transaction made in reliance upon exemptions from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) under the Securities Act of 1933 and Rule 506 promulgated thereunder. Each of the Investors is an accredited investor as defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933.

On November 1, 2001, the Company entered into a line of credit with United Trust Bank (now PNC Bank) pursuant to which the Company borrowed $1.5 million. On September 30, 2002, we converted the outstanding line of credit with UnitedTrust Bank into a $1,500,000 promissory note. On April 27, 2004, PNC Bank, N.A., as successor by merger to UnitedTrust Bank filed a complaint in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Union County (Docket No. UNN-L_001522-04) against our company and Christopher J. Carey, in his capacity as guarantor, to collect the sums outstanding under the Loan Agreement, dated as of September 30, 2002. On July 15, 2004, we entered into a fully executed forbearance agreement with PNC Bank, N.A. whereby PNC agreed to delay the pursuit of its lawsuit in exchange of scheduled payments. We made an initial principal payment of $420,000 with the execution of the forbearance as well as payments of $50,000 on August 15, 2004, September 15, 2004 and October 15, 2004. In connection with the financing, we made the final scheduled payment of $601,000, on March 31, 2005.
