Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(i) On July 6, 2004, Ernst & Young LLP ("E&Y") indicated to Franklin Capital Corporation (currently, Patient Safety Technologies, Inc.) ("Franklin") that, due to economic reasons, E&Y would not stand for re-election as Franklin's independent accountants for the year ended December 31, 2004 and that the client auditor relationship between Franklin and E&Y will cease upon the filing of Franklin's Quarterly Report on a Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2004, which Form 10-Q was filed August 16, 2004.

(ii) E&Y's report on Franklin's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except for their reports dated March 5, 2004 and March 7, 2003 on Franklin's financial statements, which contained an explanatory paragraph indicating substantial doubt existed about Franklin's ability to continue as a going concern.

(iii) The decision to change accountants was not presented to, recommended or approved by Franklin's audit committee or Board of Directors.

(iv) During Franklin's fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003, and through August 16, 2004, there were no disagreements with E&Y on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of E&Y, would have caused E&Y to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports on Franklin's financial statements.

(v) During Franklin's fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003, and through August 16, 2004, there were no "reportable events" as set forth in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

(vi) As reported in a Form 8-K filed on November 3, 2004, Franklin engaged Rothstein, Kass & Company, P.C. on October 28, 2004 to succeed E&Y as Franklin's independent accountants.

(vii) Franklin has provided E&Y with a copy of this report prior to its filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") and requested that E&Y furnish a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agrees with the statements made by Franklin in this report and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of such letter is filed herewith as an exhibit.
