PART I

Item 1. Description of Business

Overview

American Southwest Music Distribution, Inc. f/k/a GL Energy & Exploration, Inc. (“we” or the “Company”) was incorporated in the state of Delaware in 1998. Previously, the company engaged in the exploration of mining prospects in the western United States. As of January 1, 2006, we were a “shell” company (as defined in Rule 12b-2 of the Exchange Act).

On March 13, 2006, we entered into an agreement (the “Exchange Agreement”) pursuant to which we acquired all of the equity of American Southwest Music Distribution, Inc., a Texas corporation (“American”). Pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, we issued 22,500,000 shares of our common stock and 23,980 shares of our series A convertible preferred stock to David Michery and Kent Puckett, the sole shareholders of American. On August 18, 2006, we filed a certificate of amendment to our certificate of incorporation with the Delaware secretary of state changing our name to “American Southwest Music Distribution, Inc.”

As a result, our business is the business of American. American’s current business is the production, acquisition, marketing and sale of pre-recorded music. American’s pre-recorded music products will include releases of the new musical performances of recording artists, as well as compilations featuring various artists or repackaged releases of previously recorded music from our master music catalog and derived from licenses of music masters from third-parties. The exchange will be accounted for as a reverse acquisition. The accounting rules for reverse acquisitions require that, beginning with the date of the acquisition (March 13, 2006), our balance sheet include the assets and liabilities of American and our equity accounts be recapitalized to reflect the net equity of American. Accordingly, our historical operating results are now the operating results of American.

Our current executive offices are located at 8721 Sunset Blvd., Penthouse 7, West Hollywood, California 90069. Our telephone number is (310) 659-8770.

Company History

We produce, acquire, market and sell pre-recorded music through our wholly owned subsidiary, American. American was incorporated in the State of Texas in May 2004. In July 2004, American acquired the assets of Celestial Breakaway Records’ and Out of Control Records’ music catalog, which consisted of rights to various master recordings previously released commercially. Pursuant to that acquisition, American procured the exclusive right to commercially market and sell those master recordings worldwide.

On October 13, 2004, American entered into that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization with the Company (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which all of American’s outstanding shares were to be converted into shares of the Company’s capital stock, with the Company being the surviving corporation. Although the Merger Agreement was executed, certain closing conditions were never satisfied, including the filing of a certificate of merger with the Delaware Secretary of State and as such the merger was never consummated. The Board of Directors of both American and the Company deemed it in the best interest of their respective companies and shareholders to terminate the Merger Agreement and to enter into the Exchange Agreement.

On March 13, 2006, American, their shareholders and the Company entered into the Exchange Agreement pursuant to which the Company issued an aggregate of 22,500,000 shares of its common stock and 23,980 shares of its series A convertible preferred stock to the American stockholders in exchange of their transfer of American shares to the Company.

American's executive offices are located at 8721 Sunset Blvd., Penthouse 7, West Hollywood, California 90069. American's telephone number is (310) 659-8770.

Recent Developments

Our Board of Directors approved an amendment to our certificate of incorporation (the "Charter Amendment") to: (i) change our name to "American Southwest Music Distribution" and (ii) effectuate a reverse stock split of our common stock by changing and reclassifying each seventy four (74) shares of our issued and outstanding common stock, par value $.001 per share ("Common Stock") into one (1) fully paid and non-assessable share of Common Stock (the "Reverse Split"). A majority of our stockholders approved the Charter Amendment by written consent on July 7, 2006. A notice of shareholder action by written consent was mailed to all stockholders of record as of July 7, 2006 informing them of this action on July 27, 2006. The Charter Amendment was filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on August 17, 2006. Nasdaq effectuated the name change and reverse split on Thursday August 24, 2006. Information in this Annual Report (other than our audited financial statements) has been adjusted to give effect to the Reverse Split.

Our Business

Our business is the production, acquisition, marketing and sale of pre-recorded music. Our pre-recorded music products will include releases of the new musical performances of recording artists, as well as compilations featuring various artists or repackaged releases of previously recorded music from our master music catalog and derived from licenses of music masters from third-parties.

Our expansion and exploitation of its music catalog is an integral part of its business and growth strategy. American owns a music catalog with 25 album masters, and intends to add to the music catalog through strategic and complementary acquisitions, licensing agreements, and by executing recording agreements with artists, production companies and other record labels with new recordings.

We will enter into rights acquisition, licensing, distribution and recording agreements ("Recording Agreements") with artists, third party record labels and production companies ("Labels") to provide us with master recordings that have not been previously released for sale to consumers ("New Masters"). Through each Recording Agreement, we will acquire the worldwide copyright and exclusive right to distribute and license music products derived from the New Masters that will be recorded and produced by the Labels, during the term of the Recording Agreement or any extension thereof. We will also acquire the exclusive right to record and market all New Masters of the recording artist(s) featured on any and all New Masters recorded by the Labels during the term of the Recording Agreements. We will also have the right to extend the term of the Recording Agreement through the exercise of multiple options pursuant to the terms of the Recording Agreements.

Most of our Recording Agreements will have an initial term and will usually have up separate, consecutive, irrevocable options, to renew the term for additional periods, at our sole discretion. As a condition of the initial term, and prior to exercising each option, we will be required to pay recoupable advances to the Label.

Pursuant each Recording Agreement, each Label will agree to deliver one or more New Masters to us during the term of the Recording Agreement. Each New Master will be required to contain at least twelve (12) newly recorded compositions of the featured recording artist(s), having an aggregate playing time of no less than forty (40) minutes ("Album"), and must be complete and satisfactory to us, in our managements' sole discretion.

If an Album is satisfactory us, we will market and advertise the consumer release of the Album, and after the Label's delivery of an Album to us, we will commercially release the Album in the United States and Canada. Whether or when an Album is commercially released to consumers is within our sole discretion. The actual amount of money spent marketing an Album will be determined by us

Depending upon the initial success of any single, we will advance to the Label the costs to film and produce a music video featuring the single song selected by us. Pursuant to the terms of the Recording Agreement, we have the right to supervise and approve all elements of the music video. Once an acceptable music video is completed, we will use our efforts and pay third-party promoters to secure airplay of the music video on regional and national music video shows, as part of our marketing of the particular Album.

The marketing expenses we spend on any Album are variable, because the actual amount of expenditures for each Album will depend upon our management's business judgment and discretion, about the commercial success (or lack thereof) of any Album, or the effectiveness of any Album's marketing. At any point, we can elect to continue to or discontinue spending money to market any individual Album. If the Album realizes commercial success in the United States and Canada, the Album will be released in foreign territories.

Depending upon the terms of each Recording Agreement, we will pay each Label royalties from the net profits we actually receive from the sale of music products delivered during the term of the Recording Agreement. According to the terms of each Recording Agreement, we will only be required to pay royalties to a Label after we recoup all advances (we make to or on behalf of the Label) from Label's percentage of net sales of all music products derived from the New Master(s) delivered by the subject Label.

Contracts with Universal

Distribution Agreement

On January 25, 2006, we entered into an Exclusive Manufacturing and Distribution Agreement ("Domestic Distribution Agreement") with Universal Records, a division of UMG Recordings, Inc. ("Universal"). Pursuant to this Agreement, Universal will sell our music products, including compact discs, cassettes, and digital versatile discs (DVD) to consumers mainly through retailers and wholesalers in the United States and Canada. During the term of the Domestic Distribution Agreement, Universal will be our exclusive manufacturer and distributor, through every distribution channel of recorded music in the United States and Canada. Universal will also exclusively handle all of our on-line sales during the term of the Domestic Distribution Agreement.

In exchange for its distribution services, through normal retail channels, Universal is entitled to a distribution fee equal to twenty five percent (25%) of our Net Billings. After the end of the calendar month, where our cumulative Net Billings exceed $8,000,000, Universal's distribution fee will be twenty two and one half percent (22.5%) of our Net Billings. After the end of the calendar month, in which our cumulative Net Billings exceeds $15,000,000, Universal's distribution fee will be twenty percent (20%) of our Net Billings. According to the Domestic Distribution Agreement, Net Billings means the cumulative wholesale price for sale of our products, less actual returns and credits to customers for such returns for the applicable accounting period.

In consideration for Universal's services related to sales of our products in the United States and Canada, through channels other than normal retail channels, Universal shall be entitled to a licensing fee equal to fifteen percent (15%) of our Net Licensing Billings. According to the Domestic Distribution Agreement, Net Licensing Billings mean royalties or flat payments received by Universal, on our behalf, attributed to sales, other than sales through normal retail channels.

At the end of the month, immediately following our first commercial release of a product pursuant to the Domestic Distribution Agreement, Universal will compute our Total Net Billings from the sale of American's products, and Universal will compute such Total Net Billings, thereafter, on a calendar monthly basis. Sixty (60) days, after the close of each such monthly period, Universal will send us an accounting statement covering the Total Net Billings and the Net Proceeds payable to us. Along with each accounting statement, Universal will pay us the Net Proceeds realized by sales during the particular accounting period, if any, after deducting any taxes that Universal is required to withhold.

Under the terms of the Domestic Distribution Agreement, Total Net Billings means all Net Billings and Net Licensing Billings that Universal receives from the sale and licensing of our products. Net Proceeds mean Total Net Billings less the following:

- § Universal's applicable distribution fees and license fees;
- § Reserves held, by Universal, against anticipated returns of our products;
- § Universal's charges for manufacturing and handling of our products;
- § All Advances, if any, made by Universal on behalf of us;
- § All applicable taxes imposed on Universal directly related to the manufacture and sale of our products;
- § All co-op advertising costs advanced by Universal on our behalf;

§ Universal's charges for handling returns and refurbishing our products;
§ Credits to Universal's customers for actual returns of our products;
§ Costs of any special program discounts or price reduction programs; and § Any other amounts that Universal is entitled to receive.

To secure our payment of any fees, advances or monies that become due and payable to Universal, pursuant to the Domestic Distribution Agreement, we executed a security agreement, granting Universal a first position security interest in the following collateral:

§ All master recordings contained solely on records actually distributed under the Domestic Distribution Agreement, and all contract rights and licenses relating to the master recordings;

§ All sound recordings contained in the all master recordings contained solely on records actually distributed under the Domestic Distribution Agreement, and all copyrights to such sound recordings;

§ Any derivatives or duplicates of all master recordings contained solely on records actually distributed under the Domestic Distribution Agreement;

§ All proceeds derived from all master recordings contained solely on records actually distributed under the Domestic Distribution Agreement;

§ Any and all monies which become payable to us under the Distribution Agreement;

§ All inventory now owned or hereafter acquired by us and all proceeds of the sale or other disposition of the inventory; and

§ Our names and logos used on records, including trademarks.

In addition to our obligations under the security agreement, David Michery, executed an inducement letter wherein he agreed that his active participation in the performance his duties as an employee is a vital part of the Domestic Distribution Agreement. In the event of his death or incapacity or in the event that David Michery ceases to be actively engaged in our management, in a controlling capacity, Universal will have the right to terminate the Domestic Distribution Agreement.

In addition to distributing and selling our products, Universal will supervise and advance the costs of all of American's manufacturing, and will warehouse all of American's inventory. The Domestic Distribution Agreement became effective January 25, 2006 and will continue until January 25, 2008. Universal has the right to extend the term of the Domestic Distribution Agreement for an additional two years, until January 25, 2010.

For each separate title of music products released, our management, along with Universal shall determine the applicable wholesale price per unit.

Under the Distribution Agreement, we are responsible for all recording costs and rights acquisition costs in securing all intellectual property rights and licenses necessary to allow us to sell records. We will be responsible for paying all marketing and promotion costs for each Album title that it releases commercially, and will be responsible to pay artist royalties and royalties related to all licenses related to the exploitation of the Album and its content.

Upstream Agreement

On January 25, 2006, we entered into another agreement with Universal, pursuant to which we granted Universal the right to enter into exclusive recording services contracts with recording artists that have recording contracts with us, and whose performances are featured on Albums, distributed by Universal, on our behalf, that achieve sales in the United States equal to or in excess of 25,000 units (as reported by Soundscan) ("Upstream Agreement").

Under the Upstream Agreement, Universal may exercise its rights to any recording artist, under contract with us, by providing us with written notice, at any time after we deliver an Album featuring the performances of the subject Artist, and ending on the date that Universal releases the Album to retail; or at any time during the period commencing on the date after the Album has been commercially released in the United States and has achieved sales in the United States equal to or in excess of twenty five thousand (25,000) units (as reported by Soundscan), and ending on the date such Album has achieved sales in the United States equal to fifty thousand (50,000) units. If, however, Universal does not exercise its rights under the Upstream Agreement for a particular Artist with sales exceeding 50,000, we have an obligation to provide Universal with written notice that an Artist reached such sales levels, and Universal will have an additional thirty (30) days to exercise its right to the particular recording artist.

If Universal exercises its rights under the Upstream Agreement, we will enter into to a contract to provide the exclusive recording services of the selected Artist to Universal. Pursuant to the recording agreement and the Upstream Agreement, we will grant to Universal a fifty percent (50%) ownership interest in and to all Albums and related materials, relating to the selected artist, that exist prior to Universal's exercise of its rights. Although we will retain an ownership interest in the such Masters, we lose our right to sell, transfer, grant, convey, assign, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of, or create any liens, encumbrances or security interests on any nature in respect to our rights to the existing master that become subject to Upstream Agreement.

On the first full calendar month following the date that Universal exercises its rights under the Upstream Agreement, if the sum of the advances, recording costs, marketing costs and promotion costs actually expended by us, on any existing Album that becomes subject to the Upstream Agreement, exceeds the total Net Proceeds credited to us in connection with the sale of such Album, Universal will pay us, as an advance against our future Net Profits under the recording agreement and the Upstream Agreement, fifty percent (50%) of our actual expenditures.

From the date that Universal receives its rights to any existing Album, Universal becomes, solely responsible for paying all artist royalties, third-party licensing fees and royalties, marketing, promotion and advertising costs related to the existing Album.

Under the Upstream Agreement, Universal grants us a fifty percent (50%) ownership interest in the copyright of each master subsequently recorded by the selected Artist, under the recording contract with Universal. Universal, however, has the exclusive and unlimited right to sell or license such masters, and we will not have the right to sell, transfer, grant, convey, assign, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of, or create any liens, encumbrances or security interests on any nature in respect to our rights to such masters.

For all subsequently recorded masters, Universal will be responsible for paying all recording costs and rights acquisition costs in securing all intellectual property rights and licenses necessary to allow Universal to sell Albums. Universal will, also, be responsible for paying all marketing and promotion costs for each Album title that it releases commercially, and will be responsible to pay artist royalties and royalties related to all licenses related to the exploitation of the Album and its content. According to the Upstream Agreement, Universal shall pay all advances, royalties and other monies payable directly to the particular Artist.

In consideration for the rights granted to Universal, under the Upstream Agreement, Universal agrees to pay us fifty percent (50%) of Universal's Net Profits earned from the sale or other exploitation of any and all of the masters and Albums that are subject to the Upstream Agreement. According to the Upstream Agreement, Net Profits mean the amount equal to Gross Revenues less the Deductions.

Under the Upstream Agreement, Gross Revenue include:

§ All monies actually received or credited to Universal from the sale of records in the United States minus reasonable reserves anticipated returns, actual returns and credits for returns, price discounts, and a distribution fee equal to twenty-five (25%) of United States Net Sales;

§ One hundred percent (100%) of Universal's Net Receipts in respect to licenses;

§ Royalties of calculated at a basic rate of nineteen percent (19%) of the applicable Royalty Base Price for records sold through normal retail channels outside the United States by Universal's direct and immediate principal foreign licensees; and § Fifty percent (50%) net receipts received by Universal, with respect to licenses of masters outside the United States on flat-fee or other royalty basis.

Deductions are:

§ A reserve for all reasonably anticipated future costs in connection with the particular Artist and/or masters recorded under the contract for anticipated marketing and promotions costs, recording costs, and music video costs; and

§ All direct costs and expenses incurred by Universal.

Under the Upstream Agreement, Universal will prepare accounting statements for us on a semi-annual basis. On or before each September 30, or March 31, Universal will send such accounting statements to us for the semi-annual accounting period ending the immediately preceding June 30th or December 31st, and will send American the amount of our share of any Net Profits, if any are then due and payable.

Foreign License Agreement

On January 25, 2006, we entered into the Exclusive Foreign License Agreement (“Foreign License Agreement”) with Universal. The term of the Foreign License Agreement runs simultaneously with the term of the Domestic Distribution Agreement. During the term of the Foreign License Agreement, Universal has the exclusive right to sell, license or otherwise exploit records and videos that its distributes under the Domestic Distribution Agreement through the rest of the Universe, excluding the United States.

In consideration of the rights granted, Universal agrees to pay us royalties on Net Sales. Under the Foreign License Agreement, Universal will prepare accounting statements for us on a semi-annual basis. On or before each September 30, or March 31, Universal will send such accounting statements to American for the semi-annual accounting period ending the immediately preceding June 30th or December 31st, and will send us the amount of our Royalties, if any, that are then due and payable.

Competition

The entertainment and recorded music industry is highly competitive. We face competition, from many other record companies, and from entertainment companies from other sectors of the entertainment industry (film and video games) for consumer household discretionary purchases of entertainment products. Record companies also compete for talented artists, producers and songwriters. Although there are many independent record labels, similar to American, three major record companies (BMG/Sony, Warner Music and Universal) currently control the distribution and market for pre-recorded music in the United States and around the world. Many of these record companies have significantly longer operating histories, greater financial resources, assets and larger music catalogs, and larger staffs than us. Our ability to compete in this industry depends on many factors, including but not limited to:

§ Our management’s and employees’ creativity, skills and relationships with artists, promoters, radio stations, distributors and retailers;

§ Our ability to sign Recording Agreements to secure new artists and Masters, and to expansion its music catalog;

§ Our ability to effectively market and sell its music products; and

§ Our ability to establish, and maintain a reputation for commercially releasing high quality music products.

Employees

As of August 8, 2006, we currently have 7 employees, and 6 are full-time. None of our employees are represented by a labor union and we have not entered into a collective bargaining agreement with any union. We have not experienced any work stoppages and consider our relations with our employees to be good.

Item 1A. Risk Factors and Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information

An investment in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the following risk factors and the other information in this annual report before investing in our common stock. Our business and results of operations could be seriously harmed by any of the following risks. The trading price of our common stock could decline due to any of these risks.

Risks Associated with our Business

There is substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

We incurred recurring net losses totaling $2,071,520 for the period from inception (July 1, 2004) through April, 30, 2006. As of April 30, 2006 we have an accumulated deficit of $3,465,741 and a working capital deficit of $2,300,702. These conditions raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in this regard are to raise equity or loan financings as required. There are no assurances that we will be successful in this regard.

We are a development stage company, and we have no significant operating history.

We are a development stage company that has not had operations for many years. Our plans and businesses are “proposed” and “intended” but we may not be able to successfully implement them. Our primary business is the production, acquisition, marketing and sale of pre-recorded music. However, we have not yet released a music product and have not earned any revenues and have incurred losses since our incorporation. To date, our management’s efforts have been limited to organizational activities, business planning and seeking initial funding. We currently lack sufficient capital to generate revenue or operate our business in a profitable manner. As a development stage company, our prospects are subject to all the risks and uncertainties frequently encountered by companies in the music industry. In addition, we are subject to all of the risks, uncertainties, expenses, delays, problems, and difficulties typically encountered in the establishment of a new business. We expect that unanticipated expenses, problems, and technical difficulties will occur and that they will result in material delays in the development of our business. We may not obtain sufficient capital or achieve a significant level of operations and, even if we do, we may not be able to conduct such operations on a profitable basis.

We have limited financial resources which if not corrected will prevent and inhibit our ability to implement its business plan.

We have limited financial resources and have not generated any revenues to date. We cannot achieve revenues until we release and market new records from our catalog or from new musical performances of recording artists pursuant to Recording Contracts with those recording artists, their production companies or record labels. To secure new Recording Contracts requires us to pay substantial advances to the recording artists, their production companies or record labels. Prior to and concurrent with any commercial release of a new music product requires us to pay substantial marketing costs and consultant fees related to the marketing of the product. To begin generating revenues, we must have substantial funding. There can be no assurance that we will raise sufficient funds to release its music products, and therefore no assurances that we will receive any revenues from its operation, nor operate on a profitable basis.

We may not be able to find music products with mass consumer acceptance and we cannot predict sales revenues from the release of music products.

Although we will attempt to locate and secure Recording Agreements with record labels, production companies, producers, and recording artists, the record industry is very competitive, there is no assurance that we will secure contracts with talented record labels, production companies, producers, and recording artists. Although we may secure Recording Agreements, the music products derived from the master recordings delivered pursuant to those Recording Agreements and the compilation albums derived from American's music catalog may not receive mass consumer appeal and may not generate significant sales revenues despite our marketing efforts and expenditures. The sale of recorded music products to consumers is entirely speculative, and there is no way to assure the amount of music products that will be sold from any of our commercial releases of its music products.

We may not be able to obtain sufficient capital to implement our business plan.

To successfully implement our business plan, we need access to capital. Our ability to implement our business plan will be limited unless we are able to obtain capital through additional debt or equity financing. We cannot assure that such debt or equity financing will be obtained or that, if obtained, such financing will be on terms that are favorable to us or sufficient for our needs. If we are unable to obtain sufficient financing, we may be unable to fully implement our business plan, and we may be required to limit or discontinue our operations.

Acquisitions involve risks that could cause our actual growth to differ from our expectations and lower the market price for our common stock

While we are not currently a party to any agreements regarding any material acquisitions, we expect to continue to seek to acquire master recordings, music publishing rights and other record companies. Acquisitions involve risks that could cause our actual growth to differ from our expectations. For example:

§ We may not be successful in identifying attractive acquisitions. We compete with other companies to acquire master recordings, music publishing rights and other record companies. We expect that this competition will continue, which may inhibit our ability to complete suitable acquisitions on favorable terms.

§ We may be unable to successfully integrate acquired businesses and realize anticipated economic, operational and other benefits in a timely manner. If we are unable to successfully integrate acquired businesses, product lines and personnel, we may incur substantial costs and delays or other operational, technical or financial problems. In addition, efforts to integrate or failure to successfully integrate acquisitions may divert management's attention from our existing business and may damage our relationships with our key employees and customers.

The recorded music industry is highly competitive, and we cannot assure the success of our individual products, or the overall success of our business plan.

The recorded music industry is highly competitive. We face competition for discretionary consumer purchases of our products from other record companies and other entertainment companies, such as film and video companies. Many of these competitors have greater financial and other resources, larger development staffs, and more effective marketing organizations than we do. In the United States three record companies control eighty percent (80%) of record sales: Warner Music Group, Universal Music Group, and Sony Music Entertainment/BMG. Independent record companies generate the balance of record sales. Our ability to compete in this market depends largely on:

- § The skill and creativity of our employees and their relationships with artists;
- § Our ability to sign new and established artists and songwriters;
- § The expansion and utilization of our music catalog;
- § The acquisition of licenses to enable us to create compilation packages;
- § The effective and efficient distribution our products; and

§ Our ability to build and maintain a reputation for producing, licensing, acquiring, marketing and distributing high quality music.

Since we are in a creative industry, we may be able to generate sufficient revenues from successful releases to exceed the costs of unsuccessful product releases.

The recorded music industry, like other creative industries, involves a substantial degree of risk. Each recording is an individual artistic work, and its commercial success is primarily determined by consumer taste, which is unpredictable and constantly changing. As a result, we cannot assure the financial success of any particular release, the timing of success or the popularity of any particular artist. We may be unable to generate sufficient revenues from successful releases to cover the costs of unsuccessful releases.

Delays in the delivery of new master records by third-party labels could materially adversely affect our business, financial results, and operating results.

The timing of releases of New Records may materially affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. To secure New Records for release and sale to consumers, we will enter into Distribution Agreements with third party Labels. Pursuant to these Distribution Agreements, the third party Labels agree to deliver to us commercially satisfactory master recordings that have not been previously released for sale to consumers. Our results of operations are subject to seasonal variations. In particular, our revenues and operating income are affected by end-of-the-year holiday sales. In accordance with industry practice, we record revenues for music products when the products are shipped to retailers. In anticipation of holiday sales, retailers purchase products from us prior to December. As a result, our revenues and operating income typically decline during December, January and February. If releases planned for the peak holiday season are delayed, our business, financial results and operating results could be materially adversely affected.

If we experience higher than expected returns, our financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

Our products are sold on a returnable basis, which is standard music industry practice. We set reserves for future returns of products estimated based on return policies and experience. We expect that our actual return experience will be within standard industry parameters. However, we may experience an increase in returns over our established reserves. If this occurs our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

Losses of Key Personnel could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations.

Our success depends largely on the skills, experience and efforts of our executive officers and key employees, especially our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, David Michery. The loss of the services of Mr. Michery or other members of our senior management, could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations. In addition, in large part, our success will depend on our ability to attract and retain qualified management, marketing and sales personnel. We experience competition for qualified personnel with other companies and organizations. Our inability to hire or retain qualified personnel could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations.

We may not manage our growth properly.

We intend to grow in the future, and our growth presents numerous challenges and places significant additional pressure on our managerial, financial and other resources. To manage such growth it is necessary that we continue to implement and improve our operating systems, attract and train more qualified personnel, integrate acquired businesses and products, and expand our facilities. If we fail to effectively manage our growth, our business, operating results or financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

Our operations are seasonal.

Our results of operations are subject to seasonal variations. In particular, our revenues and operating income are affected by end-of-the-year holiday sales. In accordance with industry practice, we record revenues for music products when the products are shipped to retailers. In anticipation of holiday sales, retailers purchase products from us prior to December. As a result, our revenues and operating income typically decline during December, January and February. In addition, timing of a new release may materially affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. For example, if releases planned for the peak holiday season are delayed, our business, financial results and operating results could be materially adversely affected.

We are dependent on third parties for certain licensing rights.

We license the rights to numerous master recordings and compositions from third parties for recording and re-recording of music to produce compilations and to expand of our catalog. We also seek to license the rights to our master recordings and compositions to third parties for use in albums for a royalty or a flat fee. These cross-licensing arrangements are generally made possible by existing industry practices based on reciprocity. If these practices change, we cannot assure that we will be able to obtain licenses from third parties on satisfactory terms, or at all, and our business, financial condition and operating results, particularly with respect to compilation products, could be materially and adversely affected.

If David Michery dies or becomes incapacitated or in the event that he ceases to be actively engaged in management, in a controlling capacity, Universal will have the right to terminate the Domestic Distribution Agreement.

Our Exclusive Manufacturing and Distribution Agreement with Universal is a material contract to our current and future operations (see “Business - Contracts with Universal”). Pursuant to the terms of the Domestic Distribution Agreement, David Michery’s active and full time participation in our business affairs is required. In the event of his death or incapacity or in the event that he ceases, for whatever reason to be actively engaged in our management in a controlling capacity, Universal has the right, without liability of any kind to us whatsoever, to terminate the Domestic Distribution Agreement. Currently, this is our only agreement in place, and its termination would have a material effect on our business, financial condition and operating results.

Risks Associated with Investing in our Common Stock

There is a limited trading market for our common stock.

Our common stock is traded on the OTC Bulletin board under the symbol “ASWD.OB.” There has been virtually no trading activity in our stock recently, and when it has traded, the price has fluctuated widely. We consider our common stock to be “thinly traded” and any last reported sale prices may not be a true market-based valuation of the common stock. A consistently active trading market for our stock may not develop at any time in the future. Stockholders may experience difficulty selling their shares if they choose to do so because of the illiquid market and limited public float for our stock. It is possible that even a limited public market for our common stock will not be sustained after the date of this annual report or at a time at which you may desire to sell your shares.

The volatility of our stock price affect our may adversely affect the market price for our common stock.

The market price of our common stock has historically been volatile. We believe the market price of the common stock could continue to fluctuate substantially, based on a variety of factors, including quarterly fluctuations in results of operations, timing of product releases, announcements of new products and acquisitions or acquisitions by our competitors, changes in earnings estimates by research analysts, and changes in accounting treatments or principles. The market price of our common stock may be affected by our ability to meet or exceed analysts' or "street" expectations, and any failure to meet or exceed such expectations could have a material adverse effect on the market price of our common stock. Furthermore, stock prices for many companies, particularly entertainment companies, fluctuate widely for reasons that may be unrelated to their operating results. These fluctuations and general economic, political and market conditions, such as recessions or international currency fluctuations and demand for our products, may adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

Our common stock is considered to be a “penny stock” and, as such, the market for our common stock may be further limited by certain SEC rules applicable to penny stocks.

As long as the price of our common stock remains below $5.00 per share or we have net tangible assets of $2,000,000 or less, our shares of common stock are likely to be subject to certain “penny stock” rules promulgated by the SEC. Those rules impose certain sales practice requirements on brokers who sell penny stock to persons other than established customers and accredited investors (generally institutions with assets in excess of $5,000,000 or individuals with net worth in excess of $1,000,000). For transactions covered by the penny stock rules, the broker must make a special suitability determination for the purchaser and receive the purchaser’s written consent to the transaction prior to the sale. Furthermore, the penny stock rules generally require, among other things, that brokers engaged in secondary trading of penny stocks provide customers with written disclosure documents, monthly statements of the market value of penny stocks, disclosure of the bid and asked prices and disclosure of the compensation to the brokerage firm and disclosure of the sales person working for the brokerage firm. These rules and regulations make it more difficult for brokers to sell our shares of our common stock and limit the liquidity of our securities.

We do not expect to pay dividends for the foreseeable future.

For the foreseeable future, it is anticipated that earnings, if any, that may be generated from our operations will be used to finance our operations and that cash dividends will not be paid to holders of our common stock.

Any projections used in this report may not be accurate.

Any and all projections and estimates contained in this report or otherwise prepared by us are based on information and assumptions which management believes to be accurate; however, they are mere projections and no assurance can be given that actual performance will match or approximate the projections.

Because stock ownership is concentrated, you and other investors will have minimal influence on stockholders' decisions.

Assuming that issued and outstanding warrants and options for our common stock have not been exercised, our executive officers and/or their affiliated companies directly or beneficially own approximately 93% of our outstanding common stock (on a fully converted basis) as of August, 2006. As a result our executive officers may be able to significantly influence the management of the company and all matters requiring stockholder approval, including the election of directors. Such concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control of our company.

Our directors and executive officers control the company.

Our directors, executive officers and/or their affiliated companies directly or beneficially own approximately 93% of our outstanding common stock (on a fully converted basis). Accordingly, these persons, as a group, may be able to exert significant influence over the direction of our affairs and business, including any determination with respect to our acquisition or disposition of assets, future issuances of common stock or other securities, and the election of directors. Such a concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying, deferring, or preventing a change in control of the company.

Substantial sales of our stock may impact the market price of our common stock.

Future sales of substantial amounts of our common stock, including shares that we may issue upon exercise of options and warrants, could adversely affect the market price of our common stock. Further, if we raise additional funds through the issuance of common stock or securities convertible into or exercisable for common stock, the percentage ownership of our stockholders will be reduced and the price of our common stock may fall.

Issuing preferred stock with rights senior to those of our common stock could adversely affect holders of common stock.

Our charter documents give our board of directors the authority to issue series of preferred stock without a vote or action by our stockholders. The board also has the authority to determine the terms of preferred stock, including price, preferences and voting rights. The rights granted to holders of preferred stock may adversely affect the rights of holders of our common stock. For example, a series of preferred stock may be granted the right to receive a liquidation preference - a pre-set distribution in the event of a liquidation - that would reduce the amount available for distribution to holders of common stock. In addition, the issuance of preferred stock could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire a majority of our outstanding voting stock. As a result, common stockholders could be prevented from participating in transactions that would offer an optimal price for their shares.

Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

Some of the statements in this annual report are forward looking statements, which are subject to risks and uncertainties. These risks and uncertainties could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in forward-looking statements. We base these forward-looking statements on our expectations and projections about future events, which we derive from the information currently available to us. Such forward-looking statements relate to future events or our future performance. Forward-looking statements are only predictions. The forward-looking events discussed in this annual report, the documents to which we refer you and other statements made from time to time by us or our representatives, may not occur, and actual events and results may differ materially and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about us. For these statements, we claim the protection of the “bespeaks caution” doctrine. The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof, and we expressly disclaim any obligation to publicly release the results of any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this filing.

Item 2. Description of Property

Our executive office is located at 8721 Sunset Blvd., Penthouse 7, West Hollywood, California 90069, telephone (310) 659-8770. We have a two-year lease that began on November 2005 and expires on October 31, 2007 for which we pay $1,685 per month. Other than the office in West Hollywood, California, we do not currently maintain any other office facilities. We plan to open an office in Houston, Texas in the next 12 months. We believe there is an adequate supply of suitable office space for lease on terms acceptable to us.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

In May 2005, Vestcom, Ltd. filed suit against us, our officers, and several other unrelated companies including AMC American Music Corporation. The lawsuit arose from a loan made by Vestcom on or about July 3, 2003 in the amount of $500,000 to AMC American Music Corporation. Vestcom alleged that AMC American Music Corporation fraudulently transferred its assets ("Subject Assets") to Celestial Breakaway Records, which is owned and controlled by our President, David Michery, and/or us. We contended that none of its assets belonged previously to AMC American Music Corporation.

Vestcom, Ltd. was seeking not less than $1.2 million from all the defendants including us, to be awarded ownership of all Subject Assets, punitive damages, and other remuneration.

We have entered a stipulation for Settlement/Term Sheet in the action entitled Vestcom v. AMC; Case No. CV-04-03745, which is expected to close on or about September 15, 2006. Pursuant to the stipulation, American agreed to pay Vestcom the damages Vestcom alleges to have incurred in the above referenced action equal to the sum of $500,000 plus interest thereon at a rate of 9.5% from July 3, 2003 through the expected Closing Date, $360,000 as a supplemental damages payment and $250,000 for legal fees and expenses of Vestcom. Assuming a September 15, 2006 closing, the principal amount will equal $1,300,000 (the "Principal Amount"). On the Closing Date, we will issue Vestcom a 9.5% promissory note for the Principal Amount, which note will be payable as follows: $150,000 payable on the Closing Date, $250,000 payable on or before January 1, 2007, and the balance to be paid in 8 equal installments paid quarterly beginning April 3, 2007.

The note will be convertible into shares of our common stock at 90% of the average bid price for the five (5) days immediately prior to conversion, subject to certain limitations. The note will be secured by our assets as well as a pledge of a certain amount of David Michery's shares. We have agreed to register the shares of common stock underlying the note

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

No matters were submitted to a vote of shareholders in the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ended April 30, 2006.

PART II

Item 5. Market for Common Equity and Related Stockholder Matters

Beginning August 24, 2006, in connection with our name change, our common stock trades on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbol "ASWD.OB." Previously, our common stock traded on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbol "GEEX.OB." The following table shows the high and low bid or close prices for our common stock for each quarter since May 1, 2004 as reported by the OTC Bulletin Board. We consider our stock to be "thinly traded" and any reported sale prices may not be a true market-based valuation of the stock. All share prices have been adjusted to provide for a 1-for-74 reverse stock spit effected on August 24, 2006. Some of the bid quotations from the OTC Bulletin Board set forth below may reflect inter-dealer prices, without retail mark-up, mark-down or commission and may not represent actual transactions.

May 1, 2005 to April 30, 2006	High Close	Low Close
First quarter	$ 7.40	$ 2.22
Second quarter	4.81	1.56
Third quarter	3.70	1.48
Fourth quarter	2.22	0.74
May 1, 2004 to April 30, 2005	High Bid	Low Bid
First quarter	$ 1.48	$ 0.30
Second quarter	1.33	0.52
Third quarter	4.07	0.67
Fourth quarter	2.96	0.89

As of August 8, 2006, there were approximately 26 record holders of our common stock.

We have not paid any cash dividends since our inception and do not contemplate paying dividends in the foreseeable future. It is anticipated that earnings, if any, will be retained to retire debt and for the operation of the business.

Shares eligible for future sale could depress the price of our common stock, thus lowering the value of a buyer's investment. Sales of substantial amounts of common stock, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect prevailing market prices for shares of our common stock.

Securities Authorized for Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans. The following provides information concerning compensation plans under which our equity securities are authorized for issuance as of April 30, 2006 (on an adjusted basis for the Reverse Split):

Plan Category	(a) Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants and rights	(b) Weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights	(c) Number of securities remaining available for future issuance under equity compensation plans (excluding securities reflected in column (a))
Equity compensation plans approved by security holders(1)	--	$--	1,486(1)
Equity compensation plans not approved by security holders (2)(3)	--	--	135,135(2) 432,432(3)
Total	--	$--	569,053

(1) On April 23, 2003, a majority of the stockholders of the Company approved a performance equity plan for 10,000,000 shares of Common Stock ("2003 Performance Equity Plan"). The rights of the common stock were not changed. We intend to issue the shares of common stock from time to time as determined by the board of directors to directors, employees, consultants and others. The board of directors of the Company believes the 2003 Plan will provide flexibility in structuring compensation arrangements and provide an equity incentive for employees and others who are awarded shares under the 2003 Plan. The shares under an award may be issued at less than market price at the discretion of the board of directors. None of the awards as provided under the 2003 Plan are allocated to any particular person or class of persons among those eligible to receive awards. As of April 30, 2006 we have issued a total of 9,890,000 shares of common stock to various consultants under the Plan.

(2) On February 27, 2004, the board of directors of the Company (and approved by a majority of the Company's stockholders in March 2004) approved a performance equity plan for 10,000,000 shares of common stock. The rights of the common stock were not changed. The purpose of the GL Energy and Exploration, Inc. 2004 Equity Performance Plan is to enable the Company to offer to its employees, officers, directors and consultants whose past, present and/or potential contributions to the Company and its Subsidiaries have been, or will be important to the success of the Company. The various types of long-term incentive awards that may be provided under the Plan will enable the Company to respond to changes in compensation practices, tax laws, accounting regulations and the size and diversity of its business. As of April 30, 2006, no shares have been issued under this plan.

On October 7, 2004, the board of directors of the Company approved the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan for 35,000,000 shares of Common Stock. The rights of the common stock were not changed. The purpose of the Plan is to encourage and enable officers, directors, and employees of GL Energy and Exploration, Inc. and its Subsidiaries and other persons to acquire a proprietary interest in the Company. It is anticipated that providing such persons with a direct stake in the Company's welfare will assure a closer identification of their interests with those of the Company and its shareholders, thereby stimulating their efforts on the Company's behalf and strengthening their desire to remain with the Company. As of April 30, 2006, we have issued a total of 4,500,000 shares of common stock to various consultants and employees.

Significant Accounting Policies

Financial Statement Presentation

The financial statements presented herein reflect the consolidated financial statements of the Company and American Southwest after giving effect to the reverse merger of the two companies on a historical basis.

Music catalog

Cost Basis

The cost basis in the music catalog is recorded at cost. Amortization will be computed using the straight-line method over periods ranging from 1 to 5 years. Amortization will be recorded once revenues commence.

Risk of Obsolescence

A number of the Music Catalogues date from contracts entered into from 1997 - 1998 that provide for a limited number of album or single release recordings and options for extension thereon. Accordingly, there is a risk that the Music Catalogues owned by the Company are subject to competition from later releases by the artists through other entities besides the Company, as well as the risk of the passage of time on the salability on the masters owned by the Company.

Impairment of Long-Lived and Other Intangible Assets

The Company reviews the carrying value of both its long-lived and other intangible assets annually, or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the historical cost-carrying value of an asset may no longer be appropriate. The Company assesses recoverability of the carrying value of the asset by estimating the future net cash flows expected to result from the asset, including eventual disposition. If the future net cash flows are less than the carrying value of the asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's carrying value and fair value. At April 30, 2006 the Company's evaluation determined that no provision for impairment of either its other intangible assets (its "Music Library") or its fixed assets was required at that date.

Consideration of Other Comprehensive Income Items

SFAS 130 Reporting Comprehensive Income requires companies to present comprehensive income (consisting primarily of net income plus other direct equity changes and credits) and its components as part of the basic financial statements. The Company's financial statements do not contain any changes in equity that are required to be reported separately in comprehensive income.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment," which establishes standards for transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services. This standard requires a public entity to measure the cost of employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments based on the grant date fair value of the award. This eliminates the exception to account for such awards using the intrinsic method previously allowable under APB Opinion No. 25. SFAS No. 123 (R) became effective for the interim period beginning July 1, 2005. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of SFAS No. 123(R) will have a significant impact on the Company's overall results of operations or financial position.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, "Exchanges of Nonmonetary Assets, an amendment of APB Opinion No. 20, Accounting for Nonmonetary Transactions." The amendments made by SFAS No. 153 are based on the principle that exchanges of nonmonetary assets should be measured based on the fair value of the assets exchanged. Further, the amendments eliminate the narrow exception for nonmonetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replace it with a broader exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance. A nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. This statement shall be applied prospectively and is effective for nonmonetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2005. Earlier application is permitted for nonmonetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after the date of issuance. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of SFAS No. 153 will have a significant impact on the Company's overall results of operations or financial position.

In May 2005, the FASB issued SFAS 154, "Accounting Changes and Error Corrections," that applies to all voluntary changes in accounting principle. This Statement requires retrospective application to prior periods' financial statements of changes in accounting principle, unless it is impracticable to determine either the period-specific effects or the cumulative effect of the change. When it is impracticable to determine the period-specific effects of an accounting change on one or more individual prior periods presented, this Statement requires that the new accounting principle be applied to the balances of assets and liabilities as of the beginning of the earliest period for which retrospective application is practicable and that a corresponding adjustment be made to the opening balance of retained earnings (or other appropriate components of equity or net assets in the statement of financial position) for that period rather than being reported in an income statement. When it is impracticable to determine the cumulative effect of applying a change in accounting principle to all prior periods, this Statement requires that the new accounting principle be applied as if it were adopted prospectively from the earliest date practicable. SFAS 154 will be effective for the Company for fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of SFAS No. 154 will have an impact on the Company's overall results of operations or financial position.

Plan of Operation

We had no revenues for the year-ended April 30, 2006 or since its inception. We incurred $643,463 in operating expenses and $1,310,811 of other costs and expenses, which includes a $1,244,583 loss incurred on legal settlement on behalf of an entity formerly owned by David Michery for the year-ended April 30, 2006. We have also incurred $133,941 in legal and accounting fees. These fees were related to negotiating Recording Agreements, the Exchange Agreement, litigation and SEC compliance requirements. We paid our management $166,795.

We remain a development stage company. Since our inception, we have had minimum working capital to fund our operations. In order to pay the expenses of its operations, we have relied on third-party loans and loans from shareholders. As a result, we have incurred debt in the total amount of $937,580 to pay our expenses. Consequently, our balance sheet for the period of May 2004 (inception) through April 30, 2006, reflects a current asset value of $0 and a total asset value of $4,280,739 of which $0 is in the form of cash.

During the next twelve months of operations, we plan to carry out its plan of operation as described herein. Our management is currently seeking to execute several recording agreements with various production companies, labels and artists. There is no assurance as to when or whether we will locate suitable production companies, labels and artist or suitable master recordings. Also, there are not assurances that we will have sufficient capital to secure the rights under any Recording Agreement negotiated.

On January 25, 2006, we entered into an Exclusive Manufacturing and Distribution Agreement, Upstream Agreement and Exclusive Foreign License Agreement with Universal Records, a division of UMG Recordings, Inc.

Our management plans to select masters from its catalog for commercial release in 2006, and seeking third-party licensing agreements to be included in the proposed compilation Albums derived from its catalog.

In the second calendar quarter of 2006, we plan to begin marketing the release of new Albums it intends to commercially release in the third and fourth calendar quarters of 2006. During the remainder of 2006 to mid-November 2006, we plan to release nine (9) separate Albums.

In the next 12 months, we plan to hire up 5 additional employees.

We have a working capital deficit and only a minimum amount of operating cash with which to fund our future operations. We must obtain adequate funding in order to fulfill our obligations under any recording agreement that we intend to execute, and adequate funding to market and advertise any of music products that we intend to release. If we do not receive adequate funding, its management must either discontinue or substantially scale back our planned

We intend to seek either debt or equity capital or both. As of the date of this report, we do not have commitments for funding or any other agreements that will provide us with adequate working capital to conduct its full operating plan for the next twelve months. We cannot give any assurance that we will locate any funding or enter into any agreements that will provide the required operating capital to fund our planned business operations. In addition, we may consider receiving advances against future sales from Universal (as customary in the music industry) or to agree to sell rights to Master recordings, copyrights, or rights to any artist under a Recording Agreement or in our catalog. In addition, we may consider strategic alliances, mergers or acquisition as a means of pursuing our business plan or otherwise funding our business plan.

Our existing capital is currently not sufficient to enable us to meet our cash needs in conjunction with complying with our reporting obligations under Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, for a period of twelve months following the date hereof.

Regardless of whether our cash assets are adequate to meet its operational needs, we will seek to compensate its management, consultants, employees and other service providers by issuing its shares of stock, or options to buy shares of its common stock in lieu of cash. For information as to our policy in regard to payment for services, see "Other Compensation Arrangements."

We anticipate obtaining funding from the sale of our common stock and from additional loans.

Registered Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders

GL Energy and Exploration, Inc. (now known as American Southwest Music Distribution, Inc.)
Hollywood, California

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of GL Energy and Exploration, Inc. (now known as American Southwest Music Distribution, Inc.), a development stage company, (hereon referred to as "the Company") as of April 30, 2006 and 2005, and the related consolidated statements of operations, cash flows, and changes in stockholders' equity for the year ended April 30, 2006, and for the period from inception (July 1, 2004) to April 30, 2005. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States of America). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of GL Energy and Exploration, Inc. (now known as American Southwest Music Distribution, Inc.) as of April 30, 2006 and 2005, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended April 30, 2006, and for the period from inception (July 1, 2004) to April 30, 2005 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses from operations, and is dependent upon debt and equity financing to provide sufficient working capital to maintain continuity. These circumstances create substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

(NOW KNOWN AS AMERICAN SOUTHWEST MUSIC DISTRIBUTION, INC.)
(A DEVELOPMENT STAGE COMPANY)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF BUSINESS / ORGANIZATION

Nature of Business

GL Energy and Exploration, Inc. (herein referred to as “GL Energy” and the “Company”) was a development stage company with no business operations through March 2006. GL Energy was incorporated in Delaware on October 7, 1998 under the name LRS Group Incorporated. On October 15, 1998, the name was changed to LRS Capital, Inc. On October 10, 2001, the company changed its name to GL Energy and Exploration, Inc. GL Energy was traded on the OTC Bulletin board under the symbol “GEEX.OB.”

Merger with American Southwest Music Distribution, Inc.

American Southwest Music Distribution, Inc. (“American Southwest”) was incorporated in the State of Texas in May of 2004. American Southwest remained inactive until it commenced development stage activity in July of 2004.

American Southwest was created to generate revenue through music licensing, recording, and distribution. American Southwest acquired the rights to several music master catalogs for the purpose of generating revenues from the sale of records derived from these catalogs. The expansion and exploitation of its music catalog is an integral part of American Southwest’s business and growth strategy. American Southwest owns a music catalog with 25 album masters, and intends to add to the music catalog through strategic and complementary acquisitions, licensing agreements, and by executing recording agreements with artists, production companies, and other record labels with new recordings.

On March 13, 2006, American Southwest and GL Energy entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement and Plan of Reorganization. As part of the agreement GL Energy issued 22,500,000 shares of their $.001 par value common stock and 23,980 shares of their $.001 par value Series A convertible preferred stock to David Michery and Kent Puckett, the sole shareholders of American Southwest, in exchange for all of the issued and outstanding $.001 par value common shares of American Southwest, totaling 4,294 shares.

Since GL Energy had no assets of substance prior to the transaction, for accounting purposes the acquisition has been treated as a merger of both companies and recapitalization of the shares of American Southwest, with GL Energy as the acquirer and American Southwest as the surviving entity (reverse acquisition). The accounting rules for reverse acquisitions require that, beginning with the date of the acquisition (March 13, 2006), the balance sheet include the assets and liabilities of American Southwest and the equity accounts be recapitalized to reflect the net equity of American Southwest. Accordingly, the historical operating results are now the operating results of American Southwest. The historical development stage entity financial statements prior to March 13, 2006 are those of American Southwest.

On August 18, 2006 the State of Delaware approved the Company changing its name from “GL Energy and Exploration, Inc.” to “American Southwest Music Distribution, Inc.” Effective August 24, 2006 the Company is now traded on the OTC Bulletin board under the symbol “ASWD.OB.”

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Financial Statement Presentation

The financial statements presented herein reflect the consolidated financial statements of GL Energy and American Southwest after giving effect to the reverse merger of the two companies on a historical basis.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements, management makes estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities in the balance sheet and revenue and expenses in the statement of expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the merged entities. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, services have been rendered, the sales price is fixed or determinable, and collectability is reasonably assured.

Music Catalog

Cost Basis

The cost basis in the music catalog is recorded at cost. Amortization will be computed using the straight-line method over periods ranging from 1 to 5 years. Amortization will be recorded once revenues commence.

Risk of Obsolescence

A number of the Music Catalogues date from contracts entered into from 1997 - 1998 that provide for a limited number of album or single release recordings and options for extension thereon. Accordingly, there is a risk that the Music Catalogues owned by the Company are subject to competition from later releases by the artists through other entities besides the Company, as well as the risk of the passage of time on the salability on the masters owned by the Company.

Fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Description	Estimated useful life
Furniture and fixtures	5 years
Equipment	5 years
Leasehold improvements	2 years

See registered independent auditors' report.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Impairment of Long-Lived and Other Intangible Assets

The Company reviews the carrying value of both its long-lived and other intangible assets annually, or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the historical cost-carrying value of an asset may no longer be appropriate. The Company assesses recoverability of the carrying value of the asset by estimating the future net cash flows expected to result from the asset, including eventual disposition. If the future net cash flows are less than the carrying value of the asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's carrying value and fair value. At April 30, 2006 the Company's evaluation determined that no provision for impairment of either its other intangible assets (its "Music Library") or its fixed assets was required at that date.

Income Taxes

The Company recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities based on differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities using the enacted tax rates and laws that are expected to be in effect when the differences are expected to be recovered. The Company provides a valuation allowance for deferred tax assets for which it does not consider realization of such assets to be more likely than not.

Basic and Diluted Loss per Share

The Company complies with the requirements of the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128, "Earning per Share" ("SFAS No. 128"). SFAS No. 128 specifies the compilation, presentation and disclosure requirements for earnings per share for entities with publicly held common stock or potentially common stock. Net loss per common share, basic and diluted, is determined by dividing the net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding.

Net loss per common share-diluted does not include potential convertible preferred shares (See Note 1).

Consideration of Other Comprehensive Income Items

SFAS 130 Reporting Comprehensive Income requires companies to present comprehensive income (consisting primarily of net income plus other direct equity changes and credits) and its components as part of the basic financial statements. The Company's financial statements do not contain any changes in equity that are required to be reported separately in comprehensive income.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment," which establishes standards for transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services. This standard requires a public entity to measure the cost of employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments based on the grant date fair value of the award. This eliminates the exception to account for such awards using the intrinsic method previously allowable under APB Opinion No. 25. SFAS No. 123 (R) became effective for the interim period beginning July 1, 2005. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of SFAS No. 123(R) will have a significant impact on the Company's overall results of operations or financial position.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, "Exchanges of Non-monetary Assets, an amendment of APB Opinion No. 20, Accounting for Non-monetary Transactions." The amendments made by SFAS No. 153 are based on the principle that exchanges of non-monetary assets should be measured based on the fair value of the assets exchanged. Further, the amendments eliminate the narrow exception for non-monetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replace it with a broader exception for exchanges of non-monetary assets that do not have commercial substance. A non-monetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. This statement shall be applied prospectively and is effective for non-monetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2005. Earlier application is permitted for non-monetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after the date of issuance. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of SFAS No. 153 will have a significant impact on the Company's overall results of operations or financial position.

In May 2005, the FASB issued SFAS 154, "Accounting Changes and Error Corrections," that applies to all voluntary changes in accounting principle. This Statement requires retrospective application to prior periods' financial statements of changes in accounting principle, unless it is impracticable to determine either the period-specific effects or the cumulative effect of the change. When it is impracticable to determine the period-specific effects of an accounting change on one or more individual prior periods presented, this Statement requires that the new accounting principle be applied to the balances of assets and liabilities as of the beginning of the earliest period for which retrospective application is practicable and that a corresponding adjustment be made to the opening balance of retained earnings (or other appropriate components of equity or net assets in the statement of financial position) for that period rather than being reported in an income statement. When it is impracticable to determine the cumulative effect of applying a change in accounting principle to all prior periods, this Statement requires that the new accounting principle be applied as if it were adopted prospectively from the earliest date practicable. SFAS 154 will be effective for the Company for fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of SFAS No. 154 will have an impact on the Company's overall results of operations or financial position.

NOTE 3 - GOING CONCERN

As shown in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, the Company incurred recurring net losses totaling $2,071,520 as a development stage entity for the period from inception (July 1, 2004) through April 30, 2006. The Company has an accumulated deficit of $3,465,741 and a deficiency in working capital of $2,300,702 as of April 30, 2006. These conditions raise substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management is trying to raise additional capital through sales of stock or loan financing arrangements. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

See registered independent auditors' report.

NOTE 4 - INCOME TAXES

The Company incurred no federal income tax expense for the years ended April 30, 2006 and 2005. The Company has net operating loss carryforwards available of approximately $2,071,000 to offset future net income. Due to uncertainty surrounding the realization of the favorable tax attributes in future tax returns, the Company has placed a full valuation allowance against its net deferred tax asset. At such time as it is determined that it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset is realizable, the valuation allowance will be reduced. Furthermore, the net operating loss carry forward may be subject to further limitation pursuant to Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The cumulative net operating loss carryforward will expire in accordance with the following schedule:

April 30, 2025	$ 117,246
2026	1,954,274
	$ 2,071,520

Deferred income taxes consist of the following:

The landlord agreed to terminate the lease in April 2005 and the lease was settled by the Company for a final payment of $12,592, which amount was charged to rent expense by the Company.

B) WRITE-OFF OF DEFERRED TRANSACTION COSTS IN CONNECTION WITH TERMINATION OF UNSUCCESSFUL PRE-EXISTING MERGER AGREEMENT BETWEEN GL ENERGY AND AMERICAN SOUTHWEST

On March 10, 2006, GL Energy’s board of directors approved the termination of an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated as of October 13, 2004 (the “Merger Agreement”). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, all of American Southwest’s outstanding shares were to be converted into shares of GL Energy’s capital stock, with American Southwest being the surviving corporation. Although the Merger Agreement was executed, certain closing conditions were never satisfied, including the successful filing of a certificate of merger with the Delaware Secretary of State and as such the merger was never consummated. The Board of Directors of the Company deemed it in the best interest of GL Energy and its stockholders to terminate the Merger Agreement, and to enter into the transaction described below.

During the year ended April 30, 2005 American Southwest incurred $183,900 of deferred transaction costs in connection with the transaction. Below is a summary of the $183,900 of deferred transaction costs:

Facilitation fee incurred to Donald Byers	$ 150,000
Legal and other professional fees	26,780
Transfer agent fees	5,878
Other	1,242
	$ 183,900

As a result of the March 10, 2006 GL Energy Board resolution, these costs were written off to expense during the year ended April 30, 2006, of which $150,000 represents and is classified as “related party consulting fees and services” in the consolidated financial statements. The other items are included in “general and administrative expenses” in those statements..

(C) RELATED PARTY CONSULTING FEES AND SERVICES

The Company has also incurred related party consulting fees and services of $32,000 during the year ended April 30, 2006 to Robert Guillerman, former President of American Southwest.

The Company has also incurred related party consulting fees and services of $99,295 during the year ended April 30, 2006 to David Michery, CEO of American Southwest.

The Company has also incurred related party consulting fees and services of $42,500 during the year ended April 30, 2006 to Marcus Sanders, former COO of American Southwest.

The Company has also incurred related party consulting fees and services of $25,000 during the year ended April 30, 2006 to Kent Puckett, CFO of American Southwest.

Accordingly, related party consulting fees and services totaled $348,975 and $0 during the year ended April 30, 2006 and the period from inception (July 1, 2004) through April 30, 2005, respectively, and $348,975 for the period from inception of the development stage (July 1, 2004) to April 30, 2006, including the $150,000 incurred to Donald Byers

(D) LOSS INCURRED ON LEGAL SETTLEMENT ON BEHALF OF ENTITY FORMERLY OWNED BY SIGNIFICANT COMPANY STOCKHOLDER

In May 2005, Vestcom, Ltd. filed suit against American Southwest and its officers. The lawsuit arose from a loan made by Vestcom on or about July 3, 2003 in the amount of $500,000 to American Music Corporation, Inc. ("AMC"). Vestcom alleged that AMC fraudulently transferred its assets which principally included the Music Catalogue ("Subject Assets") to Celestial, which was owned and controlled by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, David Michery. American Southwest contended that none of its assets previously belonged to AMC.

Vestcom, Ltd. was seeking not less than $1.2 million from all the defendants, including American Southwest, to be awarded ownership of all subject assets, punitive damages, and other remuneration.

On July 12, 2006 American Southwest reached a settlement with Vestcom whereby American Southwest agreed to pay Vestcom as follow: $500,000, which represents the principal amount of the above loan made by Vestcom on or about July 3, 2003, plus interest thereon at the rate of 9.5% from July 3, 2003 through to the closing date of the settlement. The closing date of the settlement is expected to be no later than September 15, 2006. In addition, American Southwest agreed to pay to Vestcom $360,000 as a supplemental damages payment and $250,000 for legal fees and expenses incurred by Vestcom. Assuming that September 15, 2006 is the closing date, the total amount will be $1,244,583 which includes accrued interest to the date of the settlement, which has been accrued by the Company as of April 30, 2006, with a commensurate loss reflected in the Company's consolidated statement of operations for the year then ended since the Company is absorbing the loss on behalf of the entity formerly owned by David Michery.

Assuming the settlement closing takes place as planned, American Southwest will issue a promissory note to Vestcom which will bear interest at 9.5%. The note will be payable as follows: $150,000 payable at the closing date, which will be applied to the final payments of interest on the note, $250,000 payable on or before January 1, 2007, and the balance of $1,102,772 payable in 8 equal installments paid quarterly in the amount of $137,847.

The note will also be convertible in whole or in part at any time into American Southwest's common stock at 90% of the average bid price for the 5 days immediately prior to conversion. American Southwest is also to secure its obligation with a lien on all of its assets, which apparently will be junior in position to the obligation to Pegasus described in Note 5 above. David Michery has agreed to personally guarantee this settlement should American Southwest breach any of its obligations.

The company's ability to exploit the Music Catalogue received from Celestial is dependent on the Settlement closing taking place as planned and the Company's meeting the scheduled payments as due, in particular the $250,000 due in January 1, 2007.

(E) OTHER RELATED PARTY AMOUNTS

At April 30, 2005, the Company had a loans receivable of $15,142 from David Michery, the Company's Chief Executive Officer. The loan was non-interest bearing and due on demand.

NOTE 8 - STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

In 2004, the Board of Directors of GL Energy adopted a 2004 Stock Incentive Plan (“the plan”) under which 35,000,000 shares of GL Energy’s common stock have been reserved for issuance to employees, officers, directors and consultants whose past, present and/or potential contributions to GL Energy have been, or will be important to the success of GL Energy.

Options granted under the Plan may be either incentive stock options or nonqualified stock options. Incentive stock options (“ISO”) may be granted only to GL Energy employees (including officers and directors who are also employees). Nonqualified stock options (“NSO”) may be granted to GL Energy employees and consultants. Options under the Plan may be granted for periods of up to ten years and at an exercise price equal to the estimated fair value of the shares on the date of grant as determined by the Board of Directors, provided, however, that the exercise price of an ISO and NSO granted to a 10% shareholder shall not be less than 110% of the estimated fair value of the shares on the date of grant. To date, options granted generally are exercisable immediately as of the effective date of the option agreement.

During 2004, 3,000,000 one year options were granted to two consultants. The exercise price was $.01 and all 3,000,000 vested immediately. The options were exercised prior to the effective date of the merger and reflected in the pre-merged entities financial statements. No options were granted during 2006 or 2005 and there are no options outstanding at April 30, 2006.

NOTE 9 - EQUITY PERFORMANCE PLAN

In February 2004, the Board of Directors of GL Energy adopted a 2004 Equity Performance Plan under which 10,000,000 shares of GL Energy’s common stock have been reserved for issuance to employees, officers, directors and consultants whose past, present and/or potential contributions to GL Energy have been, or will be important to the success of GL Energy. As of April 30, 2006, no common shares have been issued under this plan.

NOTE 10 - AGREEMENTS WITH UNIVERSAL RECORDS

On January 25, 2006, American Southwest entered into an exclusive manufacturing and distribution agreement (“Domestic Distribution Agreement”) with Universal Records, a division of UMG Recordings, Inc. (“Universal”). Pursuant to this agreement, Universal will sell American Southwest’s music products, including compact discs, cassettes, and digital versatile discs to consumers mainly through retailers and wholesalers in the United States and Canada. During the term of the Domestic Distribution Agreement, Universal will be American Southwest’s exclusive manufacturer and distributor, through every distribution channel of recorded music in the United States and Canada. Universal will also exclusively handle all of American Southwest’s on-line sales during the term of the Domestic Distribution Agreement.

In exchange for its distribution services, through normal retail channels, Universal is entitled to a distribution fee equal to twenty five percent (25%) of American Southwest’s net billings. After the end of the calendar month, where American Southwest’s cumulative net billings exceed $8,000,000, Universal’s distribution fee will be twenty two and one half percent (22.5%) of American Southwest’s net billings. After the end of the calendar month, in which American Southwest’s cumulative net billings exceeds $15,000,000, Universal’s distribution fee will be twenty percent (20%) of American Southwest’s net billings. According to the Domestic Distribution Agreement, net billings means the cumulative wholesale price for sale of American Southwest's products, less actual returns and credits to customers for such returns for the applicable accounting period.

The Domestic Distribution Agreement became effective January 25, 2006 and will continue until January 25, 2008. Universal has the right to extend the term of the Domestic Distribution Agreement for an additional two years, until January 25, 2010.

On January 25, 2006, American Southwest entered into another agreement with Universal ("Upstream Agreement") pursuant to which American Southwest granted Universal the right to enter into exclusive recording services contracts with recording artists that have recording contracts with American Southwest, and whose performances are featured on albums distributed by Universal, on American Southwest's behalf, that achieve sales in the United States equal to or in excess of 25,000 units.

On January 25, 2006, American Southwest entered into the Exclusive Foreign License Agreement ("Foreign License Agreement") with Universal. The term of the Foreign License Agreement runs simultaneously with the term of the Domestic Distribution Agreement. During the term of the Foreign License Agreement, Universal has the exclusive right to sell, license or otherwise exploit records and videos that its distributes under the Domestic Distribution Agreement through the rest of the universe, excluding the United States.

Item 8. Changes In and Disagreements With Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

On August 11, 2006, we dismissed Malone & Bailey PC as our independent accountants, and we engaged KBL, LLP as our independent accountants.

The reports of Malone & Bailey PC on the financial statements of GL Energy & Exploration, Inc. for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor were such reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the accountant's reports of Malone & Bailey PC on our financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 stated that we had recurring losses from operation and a working capital deficiency which raised raised substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

The decision to change accountants from Malone & Bailey PC to KBL, LLP was approved by our board of directors. KBL, LLP was American's auditor prior to its acquisition by GL Energy pursuant to the Exchange Agreement on March 13, 2006 and KBL, LLP audited American's financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2005 which were included in GL Energy's current report on Form 8K filed with the Commission on March 14, 2006.

During our fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 and April 30, 2006 (after our change in fiscal year) and the subsequent interim period through August 11, 2006, the date of the dismissal of Malone & Bailey PC, we did not have any disagreement with Malone & Bailey PC on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, except as follows:

Malone & Bailey PC expressed concern with the accounting principles applied to the valuation of intangible assets acquired by American in exchange for shares of its own common stock issued to a control person, or an entity owned by that control person. Malone and Bailey PC refers to Staff Accounting Bulletin SAB.T.5G. "Transfers of Non-monetary Assets by promoters or Shareholders" which indicates that the transfer of assets to a company by its promoters or shareholders in exchange for stock prior to or at the time of the company's initial public offering should normally be recorded at the transferor's cost basis determined under GAAP. Malone & Bailey stated their opinion that the intangible assets were recorded at an estimated fair value which does not represent the transferor's cost and that the audited financial statements as of and for the year ended April 30, 2005 included in GL Energy's Current Report on Form 8-K dated March 10, 2006 to announce the merger of the two companies (GL Energy and American) are misleading and need to be restated.

KBL, LLP previously audited American's financial statements for the period ended April 30, 2005, which period encompassed the transaction which Malone & Bailey expressed concern above. The intangible assets discussed above by Malone & Bailey were recorded at the transferor's cost basis that was reflected on the transferor's internal financial statements and corporate income tax returns. Accordingly, KBL had previously determined the valuation of intangibles as accurate per their previous audit and applied the Staff's Guidance under SABT 5G in applying the transferors cost basis as discussed above.

Other than the matters discussed above, there have been no "reportable events" as set forth in Item 304(a)(1)(i-v) of Regulation S-B adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission

We engaged KBL, LLP on August 11, 2006. As stated above, KBL, LLP previously audited American's financial statements for the period ended April 30, 2005, Since the transaction pursuant to which GL Energy acquired American has been accounted for as a reverse acquisition with American being treated as the acquirer for accounting purposes, our management and our board determined it appropriate to engage American's accountants as our independent auditor. This engagement was approved by our board of directors. While we did not specifically consult KBL, LLP regarding any of the matters specified in Item 304(a)(2) of Regulation S-B, KBL LLP has previously audited the valuation of the intangible assets acquired by American and agreed with American's valuation contained in their audited statements for the period ended April 30, 2005.

We disagree with Malone & Bailey's assessment that the assets were estimated at fair value. We contend that American used the "Transferor's Cost Basis" to determine the value for the subject intangible assets. We discussed this matter with our Board and with American's auditor. This matter was fully discussed in connection with American's audit for the period ended April 30, 2005. American's cost basis was determined based on the actual advances disbursed to artists. KBL, LLP advised us that they tested over 80% of the asset value as part of their audit of the assets. Their test of transactions included tracing the basis of over 80% of the dollar value of the assets to the dollar value of the advance received by the artist as recorded on the artists' contracts as well as tracing the dollar amounts to our books and records, and cancelled checks. They found no discrepancies in their sample. Further, given that Malone and Bailey was provided with no documentation related to the asset amount, we do not understand how they were able to make an assertion that the asset was being recorded at fair market value. Accordingly, management does not believe that any statements contained in American's audit for the period ended April 30, 2005 (and contained herein) were misleading nor do we believe they need to be restated. In addition, we are continuing discussions with Malone & Bailey and have agreed to provide them with additional information which we believe will alleviate concerns. We hope to resolve this disagreement in the near future in which case an amendment to this Current Report on 8-K will be filed disclosing the same.

We have provided Malone & Bailey PC with a copy of this disclosure prior to its filing with the Commission. As of the date of this report, Mantyla McReynolds, LLC has not provided any response to this disclosure.

Item 8A. Controls and Procedures.

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in its Exchange Act reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure based closely on the definition of "disclosure controls and procedures" in Rule 13a-15(e). In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognized that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management necessarily was required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

At the end of the period covered by this Annual Report, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. Based upon the foregoing, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of April 30, 2006, the disclosure controls and procedures of the Company were effective to ensure that the information required to be disclosed in the Company's Exchange Act reports was recorded, processed, summarized and reported on a timely basis.

There were no changes in internal controls over financial reporting that occurred during the fiscal quarter ended April 30, 2006, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires our directors, executive officers, and stockholders holding more than 10% of our outstanding common stock, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in beneficial ownership of our common stock. Executive officers, directors and greater-than-10% stockholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file. To our knowledge, based solely on review of the copies of such reports furnished to us for the period ended April 30, 2006, no Section 16(a) reports required to be filed by our executive officers, directors and greater-than-10% stockholders were filed on a timely basis.

Item 10. Executive Compensation

Set forth below is information for our Chief Executive Officer for the years ended April 30, 2006 and 2005. No other officer received compensation in excess of $100,000 for 2006 or 2005.

Name and Position	Year	Annual Compensation			Long-Term Compensation			All Other Compensation
		Salary	Bonus	Other Annual Compensation	Restricted Stock Awards ($)	Common Shares Underlying Options Granted (# Shares)
President, Chief Executive Officer and Director	2005	$76,206	-0-	$---	-0-	-----	-0-
(as of October 2004)

In the next twelve months, we intend to enter into employment agreements with each of our executive officers at an annual salary to be determined based on their then levels, time devoted and the scope of their responsibilities. In addition to cash compensation, we intend to use shares of our common stock, and options to purchase shares of its common stock to compensate its officers. In addition, we may use common stock to compensate others for services provided.

There is no plan in place for compensation of persons who are salary directors, but it is expected that in the future that we will create a remuneration and reimbursement plan for such directors.

Other Compensation Arrangements

In March 2004, a majority of our shareholders approved an equity performance plan for 10,000,000 shares of common stock ("2004 Equity Performance Plan"), and in October 2004, the board of directors approved the registration of an additional 35,000,000 shares of common stock on form S-8 for the purpose of having shares of common stock available to compensate directors, consultants, employees, management and others for services. The rights of the common stock were not changed. We intend to issue the shares of common stock from time to time as determined by the board of directors to directors, employees, management, consultants and others. The Company's board of directors believes the 2004 Equity Performance Plan, and the additional 35,000,000 shares of common stock will provide flexibility in structuring compensation arrangements and provide an equity incentive for employees and others who are awarded these shares. These shares may be issued at less than market price at the discretion of the board of directors. None of the shelf-registered shares are allocated to any particular person or class of persons among those eligible to receive awards. As of March 2006, GL Energy has issued a total of 4,500,000 shares of common stock to various consultants and employees.

Compensation of Directors

All directors receive reimbursement for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in attending board of directors meetings and for promoting our business. From time to time we may engage certain members of the board of directors to perform services on our behalf. In such cases, we compensate the members for their services at rates no more favorable than could be obtained from unaffiliated parties.

Item 12. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.

In March 2006, the Company and American consummated the Exchange Agreement pursuant to which the Company issued 22,500,000 shares of its common stock and 23,980 shares of its series A preferred stock to the stockholders of American in exchange for all of their capital stock in American. David Michery and Kent Puckett, the Company's officers and directors, were the sole stockholders of American. Messrs. Michery and Puckett were appointed as officers of the Company in October 2004 in connection with the original Merger Agreement entered into between the Company and American. The Merger Agreement was never consummated and recently terminated.

Byers and Associates advanced money to American and the Company in the form of a loan represented in a promissory note in the amount $49,009. Donald Byers is the sole owner of Byers and Associates and owns 16,190,000 of the Company's common stock. At the time of the loan, Donald Byers was the majority shareholder of the Company. The loaned funds were used to pay expenses for both the Company and American. The original loan principal in January 2005 was $23,500, and the principal was due April 30, 2005. Byers and Associates loaned additional funds to American and the Company bringing the balance to $38,092.57. As American's and the Company's consideration for Byers and Associates' agreement to renew the loan that was in default, American and the Company agreed to increase the principal due to $49,009.00, to include unpaid interest due and to take into consideration fluctuations in the exchange rate between the United States and Canada since the original date of the loan. Byers and Associates agreed to extend the due date of the loan to February 28, 2006. The Promissory Note was a zero coupon promissory note. If American and the Company fail to pay the principal on the Note or any other Note issued to Byers and Associates on or before their due date the promissory note will be considered in default. If the promissory note is in default, the entire balance of the loan principal, then, outstanding, shall bear interest at the rate of 10% per annum. Such interest shall accrue from the date of the promissory note until the promissory note is paid. This note is currently in default.

Byers and Associates advanced money to American in the form of a loan represented in a promissory note in the amount $16,592. Donald Byers is the sole owner of Byers and Associates and owns 16,400,000 of the Company's common stock. At the time of the loan, Donald Byers was the majority shareholder of the Company. The loaned funds were used to pay expenses for American. The promissory note was due and payable on February 28, 2005. The Promissory Note was a zero coupon promissory note. If American fails to pay the principal on the Note or any other Note issued to Byers and Associates on or before their due date, the promissory note will be considered in default. If the promissory note is in default, the entire balance of the loan principal, then, outstanding, shall bear interest at the rate of 10% per annum. Such interest shall accrue from the date of the promissory note until the promissory note is paid. This note is currently in default.

In September 2004, American entered into an agreement with Donald Byers, in his capacity as the majority shareholder of the Company. Pursuant to the agreement, in September 2004, American paid Mr. Byers $150,000. As consideration for American's payment, Messrs. Byers and Frank Rossi resigned from the Company's board of directors and appointed Marcus Sanders and David Michery to the Company's board of directors. As additional consideration, Mr. Byers approved the Merger Agreement and cooperated and provided assistance in connection with the same.

In September 2004, as additional consideration for Mr. Byer's cooperation and assistance, American agreed to pay Mr. Byers an additional $50,000, on the date that is sixty (60) days, after the Closing date of the Reorganization Agreement. Pursuant to the same agreement, American also agreed to pay the Company's Current Liabilities, as of the date of the agreement, in the aggregate amount of $126,925.00 (the sum of Accounts Payable in the amount of $30,000, and debts Due to Shareholders in the amount of $96,925). Pursuant to this agreement, David Michery unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed the payments when due, and granted to Mr. Byers a security interest in 1,250,000 shares of the Company's common stock that shall be issued to Mr. Michery pursuant to the Reorganization Agreement. Mr. Michery's obligation to make such guarantee and provide such security to Mr. Byers was conditioned upon the close of the Reorganization Agreement.

On June 1, 2004, the Company entered into a management services agreement with Wellstar International, Inc. ("Wellstar") pursuant to which Wellstar agreed to provide management services and office facilities on an ongoing basis for $10,000 per month for the 12-month period ending May 31, 2005. This agreement was terminated in September 2004. The Company's former President and Chairman, Donald Byers, was the sole director of Wellstar.

In June 2003, the Company entered into an agreement with its then President and Chairman, Donald Byers, pursuant to which it agreed to pay him $8,000 per month as compensation and office rental through May 2004. These management fees have been paid through May 2004 and the agreement was terminated.

In June 2003, the Company issued 20,000,000 shares of common stock valued at $20,000 to two directors for an investment in a mining claim in Chile. These shares were issued to two individuals, as follows: Donald Byers -
