Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 30, 2008, National Holdings Corporation (the “Company,” “we” or “us”) completed a private placement of securities pursuant to the terms of a Securities Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”), dated June 30, 2008, by and between the Company and St. Cloud Capital Partners II, L.P., a Los Angeles, California based private mezzanine investment fund formed in May 2007 that invests in debt and equity securities of lower middle market companies (“St. Cloud”).

In connection with the private placement, we sold to St. Cloud a 10% senior subordinated convertible promissory note (the “Note”) in the principal amount of $3,000,000 and a warrant (the “Warrant”) to purchase 468,750 shares of our common stock, par value $0.02 per share (the “Common Stock”). The Company and St. Cloud also entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the “Registration Rights Agreement”) in connection with the private placement. Marshall S. Geller, a Co-Founder and Senior Managing Partner of St. Cloud, is a member of the Company’s board of directors, and Robert W. Lautz, Jr., a Managing Director of St. Cloud, is a newly elected member of the Company’s board of directors. The Company paid a $60,000 closing fee in connection with this transaction.

Note

The principal amount of the Note issued in the private placement was $3,000,000.

The Note bears interest at 10% per annum payable quarterly in arrears, matures four years from the date of issuance, is unsecured and is initially convertible into 1,875,000 shares of Common Stock. The Note may be redeemed at the option of the Company at redemption prices as follows: (i) 125% of the principal amount of the note plus accrued and unpaid interest if redeemed between June 30, 2009 and June 30, 2010, (ii) 145% of the principal amount of the note plus accrued and unpaid interest if redeemed between June 30, 2010 and June 30, 2011, and (iii) 165% of the principal amount of the note plus accrued and unpaid interest if redeemed between June 30, 2011 and June 30, 2012. St. Cloud may convert the Note at any time. In addition, the Company may require St. Cloud to convert the Note if the market price and trading volume of the Company’s Common Stock reaches certain levels, as set forth in the Note. The Note is automatically prepayable upon the occurrence of a Change of Control (as defined in the Note) or at the option of the holder in event of the death of, or termination under certain circumstances of the employment of Mark Goldwasser, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer. As a material inducement for providing this financing, Mr. Goldwasser agreed to limit the amount of damages that the Company would be required to indemnify him for in connection with a certain ongoing FINRA arbitration to $1,000,000.

Warrant

In connection with the private placement, the Company issued to St. Cloud a Warrant to purchase 468,750 shares of Common Stock. The Warrant has an exercise price of $2.00 per share and expires five years from the date of issuance. The number of shares of Common Stock subject to the Warrant is subject to adjustment in the event of stock splits, dividends, distributions and similar adjustments to our capital stock.

Registration Rights Agreement

We entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with St. Cloud in connection with the private placement. Pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company has agreed to use its best efforts to register (i) the shares of Common Stock that are issuable upon conversion of the Note and (ii) the shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrant (collectively, “Registrable Shares”). The Company is required to prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement upon the earlier of 90 days following the consummation or termination of the Company’s merger with vFinance, Inc. (see Item 2.01 below) and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to have the registration statement declared effective as soon as practicable, but in any event within 180 days following the consummation of the Company's merger with vFinance, Inc. If the registration statement is not filed or declared effective by the SEC prior to such dates (any such failure or breach being referred to as an "Event", and the date on which such Event occurs being referred to as an "Event Date"), then, on each 30 day period following such Event Date (if the applicable Event shall not have been cured by such date) until the applicable Event is cured, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, the interest rate of the Note shall increase by 1% per annum, but in no event shall the interest rate of the Note exceed 15% per annum.

The description of the Purchase Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement, and the terms of the Note and Warrant issued in the private placement, contained in this Item 1.01 is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copies of the Purchase Agreement, Registration Rights Agreement, Note and Warrant that are attached hereto as exhibits, each of which is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the press release that we issued regarding the completion of the private placement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, and is also incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with the closing of the Merger (as defined below) the Company entered into a number of additional definitive material agreements as set forth in Item, 2.01 below.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On November 7, 2007, we announced that we had entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 7, 2007 (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among the Company, vFin Acquisition Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and vFinance, Inc. (“vFinance”). Effective as of 12:01 a.m. (EDT) July 1, 2008 (the “Effective Date”), the Merger was completed.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub was merged with and into vFinance (the “Merger”), with vFinance the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, on the Effective Date each of the 55,635,066 shares of vFinance common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date was exchanged for 0.14 shares of Company common stock, or approximately 7,788,910 shares of Company common stock. The closing price of the Company’s common stock, as quoted on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board, on June 30, 2008 was $1.75 per share.

Each option and warrant to purchase shares of vFinance common stock outstanding prior to the Effective Date was converted into options or warrants, as applicable, to acquire the number of shares of the Company’s Common Stock determined by multiplying (i) the number of vFinance shares of common stock underlying each outstanding vFinance stock option or warrant immediately prior to the Effective Date of the Merger by (ii) 0.14, at an exercise price per share of the Company’s Common Stock equal to (i) the exercise price per share of each stock option or warrant otherwise purchasable pursuant to the vFinance stock option divided by (ii) 0.14.

Voting Agreement

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, on the Effective Date Mark Goldwasser, Chairman of the board of directors of the Company, Christopher Dewey, Vice Chairman of the board of directors of the Company, and Leonard J. Sokolow, Vice Chairman of the board of directors of the Company and former Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the board of directors of vFinance, entered into an agreement (the “Voting Agreement”) to vote their shares of the Company for the election of each other and their designated nominees until the earlier to occur of: (i) the Company’s merger, consolidation or reorganization whereby the holders of the Company’s voting stock immediately prior to such transaction own less than 50% of the voting power of the Company immediately after such transaction, (ii) by mutual consent of the parties thereto, (iii) the date that Messrs. Goldwasser, Sokolow and Dewey own in the aggregate less than one percent of the outstanding voting securities of the Company, (iv) upon the fifth anniversary of the Voting Agreement or (v) upon listing of the Company’s Common Stock on AMEX, the NASDAQ Capital Market or the NASDAQ Global Market.

The description of the Voting Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of such agreements. The Voting Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 10.41 hereto, is incorporated herein by reference.

Sokolow Employment Termination Agreement

On the Effective Date, the principal office of vFinance was relocated to New York, New York. Accordingly, pursuant to the terms of Mr. Sokolow's employment agreement with vFinance dated November 16, 2004, as amended, Mr. Sokolow received a lump sum cash payment of $1,150,000 as of the Effective Date. On the Effective Date, Mr. Sokolow and vFinance entered into an employment termination agreement ("Termination Agreement"). The following description of the Termination Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Termination Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 10.42 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Pursuant to the Termination Agreement, Mr. Sokolow's employment agreement with vFinance terminated, Mr. Sokolow waived the acceleration of vesting of his unvested stock option to purchase shares of vFinance common stock (as provided in his present employment agreement with vFinance) and he received a lump sum cash payment of $1,150,000 as required under the terms of his employment agreement with vFinance. However, if: (i) Mr. Sokolow's employment is terminated by the Company with cause or (ii) Mr. Sokolow voluntarily resigns his employment with the Company, all stock options Mr. Sokolow received in exchange for his vFinance stock options pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement will become 100% vested and will remain exercisable by Mr. Sokolow or his beneficiaries for a period of nine months from the date of such event; provided, however, such period of nine months will not exceed the earlier of the latest date upon which such options could have expired by the original terms under the circumstances or the tenth anniversary of the original date of the grant of the options.

Pursuant to the terms of the Termination Agreement, if any payments made to Mr. Sokolow, including the acceleration of the vesting of his Company stock options, will be subject to the tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, vFinance has agreed to pay Mr. Sokolow an additional amount such that the net amount retained by him, after deduction of any tax on such payment, will equal the payments received by Mr. Sokolow under the Termination Agreement.
