Revenue Recognition

Licensing Agreements

Licensing revenue derived from the Company's copyrights is recognized in accordance with Statement of Position 00-2, Accounting by Producers or Distributors of Films ("SOP 00-2"). SOP 00-2 specifies that revenue is to be recognized when all of the following conditions are met:

1. Persuasive evidence of a sale or licensing arrangement with a customer exists.
2. The film is complete and, in accordance with the terms of the arrangement, has been delivered or is available for immediate and unconditional delivery.
3. The license period of the arrangement has begun and the customer can begin its exploitation, exhibition, or sale.
4. The arrangement fee is fixed or determinable.
5. Collection of the arrangement fee is reasonably assured.

When the Company's licensing fee is based on a percentage or share of a customer's revenue from the exploitation of the films, the Company recognizes revenue as the customer exploits the films and the Company meets all of the other revenue recognition conditions. In those circumstances, the Company receives reports from the customers on a periodic basis and uses those reports as the basis for recording revenue.

The Company reviewed its business plan with regard to whether the Company will continue to sell off assets it doesn't consider having immediate benefit to the Company. As a result, the Company believes the sale of these copyrights is in the ordinary course of business and should not be reported as an extraordinary event or as other income. Accordingly, the Company has reported the proceeds from the sales in "licensing and royalty revenues" within the consolidated statement of operations and the adjusted cost basis associated with the sale in costs of sales on the consolidated statement of operations.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE NINE AND THREE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2009 AND 2008

Monthly Website Subscriptions

Revenue for the monthly subscription from the members who subscribed to the Company's websites is recognized on a pro-rata basis, is calculated on a day-to-day basis and invoiced at the end of each month of full service in accordance with SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104, Revenue Recognition ("SAB 104"). The Company does not currently charge a cancellation fee or penalty if and when a customer decides to terminate their membership with our websites.

Current terms of the www.subaye.com membership agreement stipulate that the customer pays a nonrefundable fee of approximately $100 per month for access to the marketing and advertising capabilities in place at www.subaye.com. The Company does not currently provide any specific software to its customers, although, much of the website is driven by complex software which controls the video and voice streaming, among other things, which is prevalent throughout the website.

Subaye.com has an ongoing agreement with China Netcom ("CN"). CN is an internet and webhosting provider in the PRC and manages the internet connection and webhosting of the Company's www.subaye.com website. Under the agreement, CN is required to ensure that Subaye.com's internet connection and namely its webhosting, is operating correctly at all times such that all users of the websites, including Subaye.com members and anyone else who attempts to access the website can do so without interruption as long as the individual has a reliable internet connection. CN is compensated such that CN receives forty percent (40%) of Subaye.com's gross membership fees, payable on a monthly basis within approximately fifteen (15) days of the end of each month. The Company records its revenues net of the fees paid to CN, in accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 99-19 ("EITF 99-19"). The Company believes net revenue presentation is reasonable given that it shares the obligation to perform with CN with regard to its membership contracts with its customers. The Company also does not believe it has the ability to replace CN with another comparable internet and webhosting provider. Lastly, the allocation of fees to CN is based on a fixed percentage portion of the membership revenues earned from membership fee transactions.

Subaye.com has an ongoing agreement with SSTH Limited ("SSTH"). SSTH is a merchant service provider contracted to complete two tasks: (i) to assist the members of www.subaye.com in preparing each member's corporate branding video, which is to be uploaded to www.subaye.com and (ii) to assist Subaye.com with the daily operations of www.subaye.com and more specifically, to collect the monthly member fees, which are currently paid in cash, from the members of www.subaye.com. Collecting these cash receipts, tracking which customers have paid and which have not, and remitting the cash to Subaye.com, is a time intensive project each month. In October 2006, Subaye.com and SSTH Limited orally agreed to allow SSTH Limited as much as 90 days in order to collect all cash receipts from any particular month. Subaye.com determined it would provide the merchant services provider flexibility with regard to remitting cash to Subaye.com so that the merchant services provider could focus its efforts on collecting fees from the members of www.subaye.com. Subaye.com has never experienced collection issues with regard to the merchant services provider and does not expect any collection issues to occur in the future. SSTH is compensated such that SSTH receives ten percent (10%) of Subaye.com's gross membership fees, payable on a monthly basis at the end of each month. The Company records its revenues net of the fees paid to SSTH, in accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 99-19 ("EITF 99-19"). The Company believes net revenue presentation is reasonable given that it shares the obligation to perform with SSTH with regard to its membership contracts with its customers. The Company also does not believe it has the ability to replace SSTH with another comparable internet and webhosting provider. Lastly, the allocation of fees to SSTH is based on a fixed percentage portion of the membership revenues earned from membership fee transactions.

The Company also has an ongoing agreement with FRT whereby FRT is to ensure the telephone lines and mechanical equipment associated with the Company's internet connection is operating correctly. The Company has a fixed arrangement with FRT such that the monthly fees payable to FRT for its services are approximately $6,200.

SAAS

The Company derives its application services revenues from subscription fees paid by customers for access to the Company's computer software and computer hardware through the internet. Because the Company provides its application as a service, the Company follows the provisions of the Securities and Exchange Commission's, or SEC, Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104, Revenue Recognition and Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 00-21, Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables. The Company recognizes revenue when all of the following conditions are met: (1) there is persuasive evidence of an arrangement with a customer; (2) the service has been provided to the customer; (3) license agreement terms are deemed fixed or determinable and free of contingencies or uncertainties that may alter the agreement such that it may not be complete and final; and (4) collection is probable.

The Company's arrangements do not contain general rights of return.

Subscription revenues are recognized ratably over the contract terms beginning on the commencement date of each contract. Invoicing is recorded on a monthly basis. As a result, the Company does not anticipate generating any deferred revenue associated with its SAAS business segment.

The Company has entered into various SAAS contracts with its customers whereby payment is due from the customers within a thirty day term. Subsequent to entering into the Company's initial SAAS contracts with its customers, the Company negotiated with its customers to allow flexibility with regard to payment terms. The Company and its SAAS business customers have verbally agreed that payments are due from customers within a ninety day term. The Company has limited collection history with these specific customers and is new to the SAAS business. However, in recent months the Company's collections from its SAAS customers have been encouraging. The Company does not currently anticipate collection issues with regard to its SAAS business customers.

Software Sales

Revenue from the sale of software is recognized pursuant to the requirements of Statement of Position 97-2 "Software Revenue Recognition" (SOP 97-2), issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, as amended by SOP 98-9 "Modification of SOP 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, With Respect to Certain Transactions." In accordance with SOP 97-2, we begin to recognize revenue from licensing and supporting our software products when all of the following criteria are met: (1) we have evidence of an arrangement with a customer; (2) we deliver the products; (3) license agreement terms are deemed fixed or determinable and free of contingencies or uncertainties that may alter the agreement such that it may not be complete and final; and (4) collection is probable.

Our software licenses generally do not include acceptance provisions. An acceptance provision allows a customer to test the software for a defined period of time before committing to license the software. If a license agreement includes an acceptance provision, we do not record deferred subscription value or recognize revenue until the earlier of the receipt of a written customer acceptance or, if not notified by the customer to cancel the license agreement, the expiration of the acceptance period.

FOR THE NINE AND THREE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2009 AND 2008

Under our traditional software sales business model, software license agreements for our IBS version 5.0 software typically includes a lifetime right of use and do not provide for any support or maintenance to be provided by the Company for the term of the agreement. Software license fees are recognized once all four criteria for revenue recognition criteria are met (as the contracts do not include a right to unspecified software products.)

Our standard licensing agreements include a product warranty provision for all products. Such warranties are accounted for in accordance with SFAS No. 5, "Accounting for Contingencies." The likelihood that we would be required to make refunds to customers under such provisions is considered remote. As a result, the Company has not accrued for potential liabilities associated with the performance of its software products as no liabilities are specifically anticipated by the Company.

Under the terms of substantially all of our license agreements, we have agreed to indemnify customers for costs and damages arising from claims against such customers based on, among other things, allegations that our software products infringe the intellectual property rights of a third party. In most cases, in the event of an infringement claim, we retain the right to (i) procure for the customer the right to continue using the software product; (ii) replace or modify the software product to eliminate the infringement while providing substantially equivalent functionality; or (iii) if neither (i) nor (ii) can be reasonably achieved, we may terminate the license agreement and refund to the customer a pro-rata portion of the fees paid. Such indemnification provisions are accounted for in accordance with SFAS No. 5. The likelihood that we would be required to make refunds to customers under such provisions is considered remote. In most cases and where legally enforceable, the indemnification is limited to the amount paid by the customer.

Importing and Exporting Sales

The Company recognizes revenue on import and export sales when products are delivered and the customer takes ownership and assumes risk of loss, collection of the relevant receivable is probable, persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists and the sales price is fixed or determinable. Net sales of products represent the invoiced value of goods, net of value added taxes, sales returns, trade discounts and allowances. In December 1999, the Securities Exchange Commission issued Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") No. 101, "Revenue Recognition" and in July 2000, the Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") issued EITF Abstract No. 99-19 Reporting Revenue Gross as a Principal versus Net as an Agent ("EITF 99-19") which provided further guidance to SAB 101 on revenue recognition in certain circumstances. Prior to the introduction of EITF 99-19, the manner in which the Company recognized revenues depended on the goods and services sold. We reviewed the considerations included in EITF 99-19 with respect to sales of products within each of our business segments but with particular attention to our importing and exporting business segment. We determined that while EITF 99-19 outlines the variety of types of business transactions which would require the Company to report its revenues and costs of goods sold on a net basis, we do not believe our importing and exporting business should be accounted for with net reporting of revenues and costs of sales. The Company takes full ownership and assumes the risk of loss for its imported goods while the goods are in transit. The Company does not consider itself an agent for its customers, as described by EITF 99-19. After reviewing EITF 99-19, management believes that the Company is correct in continuing to present its revenues and costs of goods sold on a gross basis.

Sales revenue represents the invoiced value of goods, net of a value-added tax (VAT). All of the Company's products sold in the PRC are subject to a Chinese value-added tax at a rate of 6% of the gross sales price or at a rate approved by the Chinese local government.

Media & Marketing Management

In accordance with SAB 104, the Company recognizes revenue generated by its MGI subsidiary when the following fundamental criteria are met: (i) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (ii) delivery has occurred or services have been rendered, (iii) the price to the customer is fixed or determinable and (iv) collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured. In general, revenues are typically earned throughout the life of MGI contracts, normally on a monthly basis.

Amortization of Copyrights

The Company amortizes its copyrights using the individual-film-forecast-computation method, in accordance with the SOP 00-2, which amortizes or accrues (expenses) such costs in the same ratio that current period actual revenue (numerator) bears to the estimated remaining unrecognized ultimate revenue as of the beginning of the current fiscal year (denominator). The Company began amortization of certain movie copyrights in December 2006, when the Company began to recognize revenue from one of its copyrighted titles, "Big Movie: Subaye." Amortization related to the Company's copyrights is included in cost of sales.

The ultimate revenue to be included in the denominator of the individual-film-forecast-computation method fraction is subject to certain limitations as set forth in the SOP. If an event or change in circumstance indicates that the Company should assess whether the fair value of the copyright is less than its unamortized costs, the Company will determine the fair value of the film and will write off the amount by which the unamortized capitalized costs exceeds the episode's fair value. Accordingly, the Company cannot subsequently restore any amounts written off in previous fiscal years to income.

Trade Accounts Receivable

Trade accounts receivable are recorded at the invoiced amount and do not bear interest. The allowance for doubtful accounts represents the Company's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the existing accounts receivable balance. The Company determines the allowance for doubtful accounts based upon historical write-off experience and current economic conditions. The Company reviews the adequacy of its allowance for doubtful accounts on a regular basis. Receivable balances past due over 120 days, which exceed a specified dollar amount, are reviewed individually for collectability. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote. The Company does not have off-balance sheet credit exposure related to its customers. The concentration of customers owing at least 5% of the Company's outstanding accounts receivable as of June 30, 2009 and September 30, 2008 was 84% and 99% of the company's accounts receivable, respectively.

Allowances for doubtful accounts receivable balances are recorded when circumstances indicate that collection is doubtful for particular accounts receivable or as a general reserve for all accounts receivable. Management estimates such allowances based on historical evidence such as amounts that are subject to risk. Accounts receivable are written off if reasonable collection efforts are not successful.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Estimates and assumptions are periodically reviewed and the effects of revisions are reflected in the consolidated financial statements in the period they are determined to be necessary. Significant estimates include estimates of the useful life of property and equipment, copyrights, collectability of accounts receivable, and valuation of stock based compensation.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications to the Company's balance sheet and income statement have been made in 2008, in order for the 2009 financial statements to conform to the presentation of these financial statements. These reclassifications did not impact the Company's assets, liabilities, net income or stockholders equity for the nine months ended June 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

NOTE 3 - ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

The Company's business operations are conducted in the PRC. During the normal course of business, the Company extends unsecured credit to its customers. Management reviews its accounts receivable on a regular basis to determine if the allowance for doubtful accounts is adequate. An estimate for doubtful accounts is made when collection of the full amount is no longer probable. Trade accounts receivable at June 30, 2009 and September 30, 2008 consisted of the following:

	June 30, 2009 Unaudited	September 30, 2008 Audited
Trade accounts receivable	$ 13,165,525	$ 10,417,803
Less: allowance for doubtful accounts	(362,773)	(30,767)
Totals	$ 12,802,752	$ 10,387,036

The activity in the allowance for doubtful accounts for trade accounts receivable for the nine months ended June 30, 2009 and the year ended September 30, 2008 is as follows:

	June 30, 2009 Unaudited	September 30, 2008 Audited
Beginning Allowance for Doubtful Accounts	$ 30,767	$ 413,036
Additional Charges to Bad Debt for Estimated Uncollectible Accounts	331,928	-

Foreign Currency Translation Adjustment	78	-
Ending Allowance for Doubtful Accounts	$ 362,773	$ 30,767

The Company has the following concentrations of business with customers constituting greater than 5% of the Company's accounts receivable as of June 30, 2009 and September 30, 2008. The nonpayment of these accounts receivables, individually or in the aggregate, could have a material impact on our future results of operations.

NOTE 4 - ADVERTISING PROMOTION

The Company expenses advertising costs as the costs are incurred in accordance with Statement of Position 93-7 “Reporting on Advertising Costs” (“SOP 93-7”), issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

On October 1, 2008, Subaye.com entered into a promotional event whereby a total of 16,000 members of www.subaye.com would receive a total of 1,600 DVDs which included both a promotional video on behalf of the customer and the motion picture “Big Movie: Subaye” free of charge. The customer would receive the DVDs and participate in the promotion if they agreed to remain customers of Subaye.com for the twelve month period from October 1, 2008 through September 30, 2009 (the “12 Month Period”). If a customer does not remain a customer for the full 12 Month Period then the customer will owe Subaye.com approximately $0.72 per DVD for each month in which they did not remain a customer during the 12 Month Period. Subaye.com then delivered the DVDs to its participating customers December 2008 and January 2009. The total cost of the promotional event was approximately $6.8 million. The Company recorded a prepaid expense for approximately $6.8 million and expensed the full value of the advertising promotion in December 2008 and January 2009. For the nine and three months ended June 30, 2009, the Company recorded $6.8 million and $0 in advertising costs for the advertising promotion, respectively, which is included as advertising in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income.

Acquisition of Media Group International Limited

On October 23, 2007, the Company's subsidiary, Subaye.com, acquired 100% of the outstanding ownership units of Media Group International Limited ("MGI") for 100,000 shares of common stock of Subaye.com, valued at $200,000 which was the fair market value of recent arms length transactions involving the common stock of Subaye.com, Inc. The Company began amortization of the Big Movie: Subaye movie copyrights in December 2006, when the Company began to recognize revenue from the film. Amortization related to the Company's copyrights was $956,559 and $0 and $246,074 and $0 for the nine and three months ended June 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively, and is included in cost of sales in the accompanying statements of operations and comprehensive income.

The ultimate revenue to be included in the denominator of the individual-film-forecast-computation method fraction is subject to certain limitations as set forth in SOP 00-2. If an event or change in circumstance indicates that the Company should assess whether the fair value of the copyright is less than its unamortized costs, the Company will determine the fair value of the film and will write off the amount by which the unamortized capitalized costs exceeds the episode's fair value. Accordingly, the Company cannot subsequently restore any amounts written off in previous fiscal years to income.

Given the environment in which the Company currently operates, it is reasonably possible that management's estimate of the economic useful lives of these assets or the assumption that they will recover their carrying amounts from future operations, could change in the future.

Intangible assets of the Company are reviewed annually or more often if circumstances dictate, to determine whether their carrying value has become impaired. The Company considers assets to be impaired if the carrying value exceeds the future projected cash flows from related operations. The Company also reevaluates the periods of amortization to determine whether subsequent events and circumstances warrant revised estimates of useful lives. As of June 30, 2009 and September 30, 2008, respectively, the Company expects these assets, at their current carrying value, to be fully recoverable.

NOTE 17 - RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS 141R, Business Combinations (“SFAS 141R”), which replaces FASB SFAS 141, Business Combinations. This Statement retains the fundamental requirements in SFAS 141 that the acquisition method of accounting be used for all business combinations and for an acquirer to be identified for each business combination. SFAS 141R defines the acquirer as the entity that obtains control of one or more businesses in the business combination and establishes the acquisition date as the date that the acquirer achieves control. SFAS 141R will require an entity to record separately from the business combination the direct costs, where previously these costs were included in the total allocated cost of the acquisition. SFAS 141R will require an entity to recognize the assets acquired, liabilities assumed, and any non-controlling interest in the acquired at the acquisition date, at their fair values as of that date. This compares to the cost allocation method previously required by SFAS No. 141. SFAS 141R will require an entity to recognize as an asset or liability at fair value for certain contingencies, either contractual or non-contractual, if certain criteria are met. Finally, SFAS 141R will require an entity to recognize contingent consideration at the date of acquisition, based on the fair value at that date. This Statement will be effective for business combinations completed on or after the first annual reporting period beginning on or after December 15, 2008. Early adoption of this standard is not permitted and the standards are to be applied prospectively only. Upon adoption of this standard, there would be no impact to the Company's results of operations and financial condition for acquisitions previously completed. The adoption of SFAS No. 141R is not expected to have a material effect on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 160, "Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements, an amendment of Accounting Research Bulletin No 51" ("SFAS 160"). SFAS 160 establishes accounting and reporting standards for ownership interests in subsidiaries held by parties other than the parent, changes in a parent's ownership of a noncontrolling interest, calculation and disclosure of the consolidated net income attributable to the parent and the noncontrolling interest, changes in a parent's ownership interest while the parent retains its controlling financial interest and fair value measurement of any retained noncontrolling equity investment. SFAS 160 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is prohibited. The adoption of SFAS No. 160 is not expected to have a material effect on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In March 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 161 "Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities—An Amendment of FASB Statement No. 133." ("SFAS 161"). SFAS 161 establishes the disclosure requirements for derivative instruments and for hedging activities with the intent to provide financial statement users with an enhanced understanding of the entity's use of derivative instruments, the accounting of derivative instruments and related hedged items under Statement 133 and its related interpretations, and the effects of these instruments on the entity's financial position, financial performance, and cash flows. This statement is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008. The Company does not expect its adoption of SFAS 161 to have a material impact on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In April 2008, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position ("FSP") SFAS No. 142-3, "Determination of the Useful Life of Intangible Assets." This FSP amends the factors that should be considered in developing renewal or extension assumptions used to determine the useful life of a recognized intangible asset under FASB Statement No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS 142"). The intent of this FSP is to improve the consistency between the useful life of a recognized intangible asset under SFAS 142 and the period of expected cash flows used to measure the fair value of the asset under SFAS 141R, and other GAAP. This FSP is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is prohibited. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS FSP 142-3, to have a material impact on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In May 2008, the FASB issued FSP Accounting Principles Board ("APB") 14-1 "Accounting for Convertible Debt Instruments That May Be Settled in Cash upon Conversion (Including Partial Cash Settlement)" ("FSP APB 14-1"). FSP APB 14-1 requires the issuer of certain convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash (or other assets) on conversion to separately account for the liability (debt) and equity (conversion option) components of the instrument in a manner that reflects the issuer's non-convertible debt borrowing rate. FSP APB 14-1 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008 on a retroactive basis. The Company does not expect the adoption of FSP APB 14-1, to have a material impact on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

MYSTARU.COM, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE NINE AND THREE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2009 AND 2008

In October 2008, the FASB issued FSP FAS 157-3, "Determining the Fair Value of a Financial Asset When the Market For That Asset Is Not Active" ("FSP FAS 157-3"), with an immediate effective date, including prior periods for which financial statements have not been issued. FSP FAS 157-3 amends FAS 157 to clarify the application of fair value in inactive markets and allows for the use of management's internal assumptions about future cash flows with appropriately risk-adjusted discount rates when relevant observable market data does not exist. The objective of FAS 157 has not changed and continues to be the determination of the price that would be received in an orderly transaction that is not a forced liquidation or distressed sale at the measurement date. The adoption of FSP FAS 157-3 is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In April 2009, the FASB issued FSP SFAS 157-4, "Determining Whether a Market Is Not Active and a Transaction Is Not Distressed," which further clarifies the principles established by SFAS No. 157. The guidance is effective for the periods ending after June 15, 2009 with early adoption permitted for the periods ending after March 15, 2009. The adoption of FSP FAS 157-4 is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

Other accounting standards have been issued or proposed by the FASB or other standards-setting bodies that do not require adoption until a future date and are not expected to have a material impact on the financial statements upon adoption.

Online Membership Services

Subaye

We own a majority interest in our subsidiary, Subaye.com, Inc. We have established a website, www.subaye.com, a provider of corporate online video in China and a destination for business to business e-commerce in the PRC for customers who utilize the website to enhance the marketing and promotion of their business products and services. We continue to experience a strong demand for our services through www.subaye.com and believe the market it serves is one of the fastest growing in the PRC. These customers are demanding easily accessible methods to market and promote their products or services. We have also committed to maintaining a minimal monthly fee for our members with the hope that the demand and low cost of utilizing www.subaye.com will result in stable, if not dramatic membership growth in the coming years.

The online membership services business segment generated member growth of 67% for the twelve months ended April 30, 2009. We expect continued growth in membership, revenues and net income for this business segment during the fiscal year ending September 30, 2009.

Subaye.com's platform consists of its websites, www.goongreen.org, www.x381.com, www.goongood.com, www.subaye.com and the Subaye Alliance network, which is its network of third-party websites. As of April 30, 2009, Subaye.com had 39,822 members and the Company's video database consisting of 80,025 profiles of corporate video showcases. These showcases offer a cost-effective venue for small to mid-size enterprises ("SMEs") to advertise their products and services and establish and enhance their corporate brands.

We launched the internet video services on our www.subaye.com website and began generating revenues from corporate video uploading services in November, 2006. We have grown significantly since we commenced operations in October of 2006. We charge our members a monthly membership fee of approximately $100. The table below details our membership growth and the growth of corporate profiles of small to medium sized enterprises, which make up the majority of our membership.

From July 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007, Subaye.com offered a special promotion to allow potential member users and current member users use of our website free of charge. As a result, no revenue was generated by the Company during this time period.

We believe that Subaye.com is poised for growth due to the following strengths:

- largest user base of users seeking videos produced by SMEs;
- first video uploading service provider in the PRC with an extensive customer base across industries;

- local market experience and expertise in introducing and expanding our services across the PRC and operating in the PRC's rapidly evolving internet industry;
 - leading technology with a proven platform, providing users with relevant video showcase and customers with a cost-effective way to reach potential consumers; and
- extensive and effective nationwide network of over 100 regional distributors, providing high-quality and consistent customer services.

Our goal is to become a platform that provides internet users with the best way to find information and allows businesses to reach a broad base of potential customers. We intend to achieve our goal by implementing the following strategies:

- growing our online video marketing business by attracting potential customers and increasing per-customer spending on our services, enhancing user experience;
 - increasing traffic through the development and introduction of new video-related features and functions;
- expanding Subaye Alliance by leveraging our brand and offering competitive economic arrangements to Subaye Alliance members; and
- pursuing selective strategic acquisitions and alliances that will allow us to increase user traffic, enlarge our customer base, expand our product offerings and reduce customer acquisition costs.

The successful execution of our strategies is subject to certain risks and uncertainties, including our ability to:

- offer new and innovative products and services to attract and retain a larger user base;
- attract additional customers and increase per-customer spending;
- increase awareness of our brand and continue to develop user and customer loyalty;

- respond to competitive market conditions;
- respond to changes in our regulatory environment;
- manage risks associated with intellectual property rights;
- maintain effective control of our costs and expenses;
- raise sufficient capital to sustain and expand our business;
- attract, retain and motivate qualified personnel; and
- upgrade our technology to support increased traffic and expanded services.

Subaye.com achieved profitability as of the quarter ended December 31, 2006. We have experienced growth in recent periods, in part, due to the growth in the PRC's online marketing industry, which may not be representative of future growth or be sustainable. We cannot assure that our historical financial information is indicative of our future operating results or financial performance, or that our profitability will be sustained.

The Company has provided its services on the www.x381.com website to its members free of charge since the website was acquired in February 2008. In July 2009 the Company expects to begin charging annual membership fees of approximately $100 which we currently estimate will generate revenues of approximately $1,000,000 for the year ended September 30, 2009.

Other Websites

We also plan to launch the www.goongood.com and www.goongreen.org websites during the summer of 2009. We currently estimate an additional $1.2 million in revenues could be generated by these two websites during the year ended September 30, 2009.

MyStarU.com and Icurls.com

The Company purchased www.mystaru.com on October 1, 2006, and www.icurls.com on November 20, 2006. We expect to use the two websites in 2009 to continue to develop the Company's offerings in the arts education market. From October 1, 2006 and through the date of this report, the Company sold approximately $1.8 million in "master franchise licenses" and approximately $1.7 million in "end user licenses" to unrelated parties in the PRC. The third party purchasers are intent on utilizing the Company's education-related web-based offerings in certain sectors of the PRC and across potential large portions of the PRC population within each sector.

The system is a prototype for state-of-the-art delivery of streaming video performing education courses in the music and movie industries in the PRC. The new courseware was developed using the Guangzhou Subaye's EDU v5.0 Education Management System and is delivered to viewers via the MYST platform. The multimedia content is produced using Adobe Flash(r) video synchronized presentations and demonstrative video clips. Users can view multimedia training presentations that include downloadable video files of course materials and are then able to upload their own video files to teachers for analysis, which affords users the opportunity to have questions answered by course teachers. MYST intends to use this new capability to reach hundreds of thousands of young people who are interested in entering the performing arts, music and movie industries. MYST's goal is to deliver education content online without meaningful limitations or restrictions.

In a country with significant mobile phone usage, the growth opportunities remain tremendous. The PRC has more than 1.33 billion people, and mobile services will remain a strong area of growth. Entertainment content for these mobile devices is in high demand and MYST is intent on becoming a dominant player within this space.

SAAS

In September, 2008, the Company committed to the Software as a Service business model ("SAAS") and the Company's subsidiary, Subaye IIP Limited, completed several significant investments in computer hardware and computer software in order to serve the emerging SAAS marketplace in the PRC. For the nine and three months ended June 30, 2009, the Company had revenues of $2,856,336 and $1,238,270 from its SAAS business. The SAAS business is focused on developing significant recurring revenues from a variety of customers. Management is continuing to focus on the SAAS market in the PRC and expects continued success within the market.

Online 3D Animation Shopping Mall

On April 3, 2009, Subaye IIP, Limited entered into a $2.1 million agreement with a PRC-based web developer with extensive experience within the website design and website infrastructure fields. A new website and associated infrastructure is to be designed and is scheduled to begin operating on or before April 3, 2010. Subaye IIP, Limited's personnel will supervise the development effort and ensure the vision for the website is fulfilled. The website will feature 3D imaging and animation. We anticipate it will function with and become integrated with the www.subaye.com and www.x381.com websites already operated by the Company. The members of these two websites will also be invited to utilize the new online shopping mall. The Company will sell its own inventory of consumer goods through the online shopping mall and will also earn commissions for allowing its www.x381.com and www.subaye.com members to utilize the shopping mall. The Company believes the vision behind this website is unique and expects significant interest in the website to build as the website nears completion on or before April 3, 2010.

On May 3, 16 and 26, 2009, the Company's subsidiary, Subaye IIP Limited, entered into three agreements with three consumer goods distributors in the PRC. The products will include clothes, footwear, bags and garniture, jewellery and electronics. The consumer goods distributors committed to delivering goods ordered by Subaye IIP Limited or the members of www.subaye.com "just in time." If the consumer goods distributors do not deliver the products ordered by the first day subsequent to the order, the consumer goods distributors will pay Subaye IIP Limited a penalty equal to 5% of the cost of the product ordered per day it is delivered late. The contracts are valid from May 3, 16 and 26, 2009 through November 2, 15 and 25, 2010. In accordance with the contract, Subaye IIP Limited paid a deposit of approximately $8.2 million. Panyu M&M operates in today’s global economy and continually delivers quality services for our importing and exporting clientele. As in the other three business segments, we believe the import/export businesses of the PRC are well-positioned.

During the year ended September 30, 2009, management expects significant growth in revenues for Panyu M&M. Panyu M&M has been in the process of negotiating significant distribution contracts with large PRC importers in recent months and anticipates revenues from these potential new contracts will be significant if and once finalized.

The Company continues to see increased interest in SAAS solutions within the Chinese marketplace and is working to obtain marketshare as this business expands in popularity and acceptance within China. The Company now has three SAAS

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We believe that our currently-available working capital, consistent cashflow from our online membership services business segment and the collection of our accounts receivable, should be adequate to sustain our operations through September 30, 2009.

As of June 30, 2009, we had a cash balance of $770,228, consisting of cash held in PRC and Hong Kong banks and cash in hand. We currently have no cash positions in the United States of America.

Management has invested substantial time evaluating and considering numerous proposals for possible investments, acquisitions or business combinations, either sought out by management or presented to management by investment professionals, the Company's advisers and others. We continue to consider acquisitions, business combinations, or start up proposals, which could be advantageous to our shareholders. No assurance can be given that any such project, acquisition or combination will be concluded, or that all these actions will be approved by our Board of Directors.

Net cash provided by operations for the nine months ended June 30, 2009 was $2,106,649. Net income for the nine months ended June 30, 2009 was $6,006,589. Noncash charges totaled $6,928,223 for the three months ended June 30, 2009. Changes in assets and liabilities for the nine months ended June 30, 2009 utilized $10,828,163. In the future, we may use cash in our operations due to our continuing efforts to rapidly expand our operations.

Our future growth is dependent on our ability to continue to generate significant and consistent cashflow through the online membership services business segment, raise capital for expansion as necessary, and to continually seek additional revenue sources. If we decide to pursue any acquisition opportunities or other expansion opportunities, we may need to raise additional capital, although there can be no assurances that such capital-raising activities would be successful.
