NOTES TO THE CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

January 31, 2009

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION - INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") for interim financial information and the general instructions to Form 10-Q. Accordingly, they do not include all information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. These interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with our audited financial statements and notes thereto included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2008. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The results of operations for the periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending October 31, 2009 or any future period.

2. ADOPTION OF SFAS NO. 123 (REVISED 2004) SHARE-BASED PAYMENT

In December 2004, FASB issued FASB No. 123 (Revised 2004) Share-Based Payment. This Statement establishes standards for the accounting and transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services. It also addresses transactions in which an entity incurs liabilities in exchange for goods or services that are based on the fair value of the entity's equity instruments or that may be settled by the issuance of those equity instruments. This Statement focuses primarily on accounting for transactions in which an entity obtains employee services in share-based payment transactions. This Statement does not change the accounting guidance for share-based payment transactions with parties other than employees provided in Statement 123 as originally issued and EITF Issue No. 96-18, "Accounting for Equity Instruments That Are Issued to Other Than Employees for Acquiring, or in Conjunction with Selling, Goods or Services." This Statement does not address the accounting for employee share ownership plans, which are subject to AICPA Statement of Position 93-6, Employers' Accounting for Employee Stock Ownership Plans. The adoption of SFAS 123 (Revised 2004) by the Company did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows. There was no change in the status of outstanding shares or in the Equity Compensation Plan since October 31, 2006, and no shares were granted to employees of the Company for services rendered or to be rendered.

3. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Innovative Designs, Inc. (the "Company") calculates net income (loss) per share as required by Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 128, Earnings per Share. Basic earnings (loss) per share is calculated by dividing income (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is calculated by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares and dilutive common stock equivalents outstanding. During the periods presented common stock equivalents were not considered as their effect would be anti-dilutive.

4. GOING CONCERN AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company's financial statements are presented on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is contingent upon its ability to expand its operations and secure additional financing. The Company is currently pursuing financing for its operations and seeking to expand its operations. Failure to secure such financing or expand its operations may result in the Company not being able to continue as a going concern.

The financial statements do not include any adjustments to reflect the possible future effects on the recoverability and classification of assets or the amounts and classification of liabilities that may result from the possible inability of the Company to continue as a going concern.

We are subject to dispute and litigation in the ordinary course of our business. None of these matters, in the opinion of our management, is material or likely to result in a material effect on us based upon information available at this time. We applied for a federal trademark for the name "Artic Armor" which was approved by the Patent and Trademark Office. The application has been opposed by a third party who objects to the word "Armor". We are attempting to resolve the matter.

On July 30, 2008, Elio D. Cattan and Eliotex srl filed a Motion to Strike Satisfaction of Judgment in the action filed at 04-00593 in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. The basis for the relief requested was Cattan's averment that Innovative Designs defrayed certain of the expenses in Greystone, Inc.'s litigation in the United States, and that assistance violated Pennsylvania public policy regarding champerty and maintenance.

On February 5, 2009, The Honorable Arthur J. Schwab entered an Order on the Motion of Elio Cattan and Eliotex, SRL (collectively, "Cattan") to strike the assignment and satisfaction of judgment filed at Docket No. 04-00593 by Elite Properties, LLC. Counsel for Innovative Designs, Inc. sought to preclude the District Court from rendering any determination on the merits as to the ownership of the Judgment or the propriety of the State Court execution proceedings by which ownership of the Judgment was transferred.

The District Court did not adopt or substantiate the legal argument brought forward by Counsel for Cattan, and did not render any findings on the merits that would disturb Elite Properties, LLC's ownership of the IDI Judgment at the time it was satisfied. In the event that any further such action is brought, it must be filed in the State Court, the forum in which the execution proceedings took place, and in which those proceedings were specifically approved and authorized by the Court.

Management and the Company's Counsel believes that the results of the above-referenced litigation were beneficial to the Company, and that the likelihood of further proceedings, or of any outcome detrimental to the Company, is remote.

5. COMMON STOCK

On December 11, 2008, we issued a total of 20,000 shares of our common stock for cash for $.40 per share or $8,000. The shares were issued without registration pursuant to the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

On December 30, 2008, we issued a total of 70,000 shares of our common stock for cash for $.30 per share or $21,000. The shares were issued without registration pursuant to the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

On December 30, 2008, we issued a total of 1,500 shares of our common stock for services for $.30 per share or $450. The Company's CEO and the service provider negotiated the value of the services to be performed on behalf of the Company. The negotiated value was divided by the approximate trading value of the Company's common stock on the date the transaction was entered into to calculate the number of shares issued to the service provider. The shares were issued without registration pursuant to the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

General

The following information should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto and in conjunction with Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2008.

Disclosure Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements made in this report, and other written or oral statements made by or on behalf of the Company, may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the federal securities laws. When used in this report, the words "believes," "expects," "estimates," "intends" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding future events and developments and our future performance, as well as our expectations, beliefs, plans, intentions, estimates or projections relating to the future, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of these laws. Examples of such statements in this report include descriptions of our plans and strategies with respect to developing certain market opportunities, and our overall business plan. All forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events to differ materially from those projected. We believe that these forward-looking statements are reasonable; however, you should not place undue reliance on such statements. These statements are based on current expectations and speak only as of the date of such statements. We undertake no obligations to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of future events, new information or otherwise.

Background

Innovative Designs, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the "Company", "we or "our") was formed on June 25, 2002. We market and sell clothing products such as hunting apparel, and cold weather gear called "Artic Armor" that are made from INSULTEX, a material with buoyancy, scent block and thermal resistant properties. We obtain INSULTEX through a license agreement with the owner and manufacturer of the material. Since our formation we have devoted our efforts to:

- Completing the development, design and prototypes of our products,
- Obtaining retail stores or sales agents to offer and sell our products, and
- Developing our website to sell more of our products.

The increase in sales revenue for the three months ended January 31, 2009 over the corresponding period ending January 31, 2008 is a result of our selling more of our Artic Armor line of products. We also utilized a television advertising campaign during the period that was very effective for our internet sales. We do not pay sales commissions on such sales. We are also offering more of a selection in terms of color and other refinements to our Artic Armor line that has increased its acceptance to the railroad industry as well as EMS and police units. Most of our sales during the period were for this product line.

Because of the seasonal nature of our current product lines, Artic Armor and our hunting line. We do not expect the next quarter to show as strong sales of these items as in the prior quarter.

INNOVATIVE DESIGNS, INC.

January 31, 2009

Our increase in the cost of sales is the result of selling more of our products. During the period ending January 31, 2009, we paid approximately $23,000 in legal expenses.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

During the quarter ended January 31, 2009, we funded our operations with revenues from sales and the selling of our securities in private transactions. We will continue to fund operations from revenues and borrowings and the possible sale of securities. Our ability to obtain outside funding of either debt or equity is being adversely affected in part, by the general inability to obtain commercial lending.

Short Term: We funded our operations with revenues from sales and the sale of our securities. We sold approximately $29,000 worth of our common stock in private transactions during the period and we repaid approximately $88,000 in related party debt and shareholder advances. The financial institution has restricted the amounts we can borrow on our lines of credit and they will not increase our borrowing capacity on the lines of credit. The Company continues to pay its creditors when payments are due and has been successful in expanding its sales base into the oil and gas industry and to the railroad industry as well as to other sectors of the market.

Long Term: The Company will continue to fund operations from revenues, borrowings and the possible sale of its securities. The Company is currently pursuing financing to fund its long-term liquidity needs, however, the general state of the credit industry has made borrowing more difficult.

ITEM T. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Management has developed and implemented a policy and procedures for reviewing, on a quarterly basis, our disclosure controls and procedures and our internal control over financial reporting. Management, including our principal executive and financial officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of disclosure controls and procedures as of January 31, 2009 and, based on their evaluation, our principal executive and financial officers have concluded that these controls and procedures were ineffective. Effective March 19, 2008, our Chief Executive Officer temporarily assumed the duties of our Chief Financial Officer. As of the date of filing this Form 10-Q, the Chief Executive Officer continues these duties. During the fourth quarter of 2008, a number of adjusting journal entries were recorded in order to adjust the ending inventory balance to the correct balance. The nature of these entries related primarily to inventory valuation with regards to the correct balance. Consequently, during the first quarter of 2009, a number of adjustments were recorded in order to correct the Company's books and records. The adjustments included the following: adjustments were made to ending cash balances which were not properly reconciled; inventory was adjusted for items which were received during this quarter but not entered into the inventory system by the Company and not reflected in the ending inventory balance; notes payables were corrected for payments made by the Company to lenders; and adjustments were made in order to adjust cost of sales to the correct balances. Throughout the reporting period, the Company's former Chief Financial Officer would calculate the Company's monthly cost of sales and month end inventory using the retail method of accounting. Under the retail method, which is a method widely used by merchandising firms to value or estimate ending inventory, a "cost-to-retail" factor (a percentage) is applied to sales to determine an estimate of the amount of inventory that was sold to produce monthly sales. After the Company estimated the inventory sold, it would reduce its end of the month inventory balance by this amount. At the end of each quarter, the Company takes a physical count of the product on hand and true up the value of the inventory on hand in its general ledger as a result of the physical count. However, the Company did not true up the value of inventory on hand in its general ledger at the end of the first quarter of 2009. At the time when the error was found, the Company maintained a separate inventory subsidy ledger. The error was discovered when the Company's Chief Financial Officer was comparing the ending balance in its inventory subsidy ledger to the ending inventory balance in the general ledger.

With the discovery of the error, the Company ceased the retail method of accounting to account for its monthly cost of sales and ending inventory balances, effective February 2009. The Company also purchased integrated inventory software that tracks purchases and sales of inventory using actual inventory values rather than a factor under the retail method of accounting. The Company began using this software effective February 1, 2009 with the purchase of the inventory software and no longer using the retail method of accounting. Management believes the change in its controls and procedures will mitigate errors from occurring in inventory with respect to inventory cost.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

During the most recent fiscal quarter, there were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting identified in connection with the evaluation required by paragraph (d) of Exchange Act Rules 13(a)-15 or 15d-15 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II

ITEM 2. UNREGISTERED SALE OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS

On December 11, 2008, we issued a total of 20,000 shares of our common stock for cash for $.40 per share or $6,000 to one investor in a private placement. The shares were issued without registration pursuant to the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended as an offering not involving a public offering.

On December 30, 2008, we issued a total of 70,000 shares of our common stock for cash for $.30 per share or $21,000 to one investor in a private placement. The shares were issued without registration pursuant to the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended as an offering not involving a public offering.

On December 30, 2008, we issued a total of 1,500 shares of our common stock for services to a sales consultant for $.30 per share or $450. The shares were issued without registration pursuant to the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended as an offering not involving a public offering.
