1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

In connection with its ongoing Chapter 11 case in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida, West Palm Beach Division (the “Bankruptcy Court”), HearUSA, Inc. (“the Company”) conducted a Section 363 auction for the sale of substantially all of its assets on July 29, 2011 in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. As a result of that auction, the Company and Auxiliary Health Benefits Corporation d/b/a National Ear Care Plan, as sellers, and Audiology Distribution, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Siemens Hearing Instruments, Inc., or its permitted assigns, as purchaser (the “Purchaser”) and Siemens Hearing Instruments, Inc. or its permitted assigns (for limited purposes only) (“Siemens”) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of July 29, 2011 (the “Asset Purchase Agreement”), pursuant to which the Company agreed to sell substantially all of its assets to the Purchaser pursuant to Sections 105, 363 and 365 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), subject to Bankruptcy Court approval and the satisfaction of certain conditions set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement. Pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement and applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Agreement is binding on the Company upon issuance by the Bankruptcy Court of an order approving the transaction (the “Sale Order”).

On August 17, 2011, the Bankruptcy Court issued the Sale Order.

Pursuant to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Purchaser has agreed to purchase the acquired assets for a purchase price estimated at approximately $109 million (the “Purchase Price”). The Purchase Price is comprised of $66.8 million in cash plus certain assumed liabilities (which includes repayment or assumption of the $10 million debtor-in-possession (DIP) financing provided by the stalking horse bidder, William Demant Holdings A/S), plus the payment of cure costs for assumed contracts, and the assumption of various liabilities of the company. In addition, Siemens has agreed to an unconditional waiver of its right to receive any distribution with respect to the 6.4 million shares of the Company’s common stock that it owns in the event that the sale to the Purchaser under the Asset Purchase Agreement is consummated. For purposes of the bidding in the Section 363 auction, the Company estimated the value of the waiver of distribution to be in the range of $6.0 to $7.0 million, subject to final reconciliation of assumed liabilities, excluded liabilities, taxes and common stock dilution effects of the transaction.

Pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Company, Siemens and the Purchaser agreed that, solely for purposes of the comparison of bids from the Purchaser and William Demant during the Section 363 auction, the offer by the Purchaser would also reflect an amount equal to $20 million corresponding to the value, agreed for such purposes, of eliminating the possibility of a rejection damages claim regarding the supply agreement between the Company and Siemens as long as the Purchaser was the prevailing bidder.

Consummation of the sale to the Purchaser is subject to a number of customary conditions, including, among others, conditions related to compliance with federal antitrust regulations; accuracy of the representations and warranties of the parties; material compliance by the parties with their obligations under the Asset Purchase Agreement; and compliance with certain specified deadlines for actions in connection with the bankruptcy case.
