ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

On November 22, 2011, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Bankruptcy Court") entered an interim order (the "Interim Order") that imposes, effective immediately, mandatory procedures and restrictions on certain purchases, acquisitions, transfers, sales, dispositions and other transactions involving common stock of Syms Corp. (the "Company") and/or options to acquire or sell common stock of the Company.

The Interim Order requires (i) the filing with the Bankruptcy Court of certain notices of proposed transactions involving the Company's common stock or options relating to such stock, (ii) Company approval of certain of its common stock-related transactions, and (iii) any person or entity who is or becomes an owner of at least 686,288 shares of the Company's common stock to serve notice of its ownership status on the Company and others identified in the Interim Order. Acquisitions or dispositions of the Company's common stock or stock options in violation of the Interim Order shall be void and may be reversed by the Bankruptcy Court and subject to judicial sanctions.

A copy of the Interim Order is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.
