Item 1.01 – Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 13, 2013, Ascena Retail Group, Inc. (the “Company”) and certain of its domestic subsidiaries entered into an amendment and restatement agreement (the “Amendment and Restatement Agreement”) to amend and restate the Company’s credit agreement dated as of January 3, 2011, as amended and restated as of June 14, 2012 (the “Existing Credit Agreement”) with the lenders thereunder and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent.

The Amendment and Restatement Agreement amended and restated the Existing Credit Agreement by increasing the five-year credit facility by $50 million from $250 million to $300 million. The Company then borrowed $263,500,000 under the Existing Credit Agreement to pay off the entire principal balance outstanding under the Term Credit Agreement, dated as of June 14, 2012, among the Company, the lenders party thereto and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent. Immediately after paying off the Term Credit Agreement, the Existing Credit Agreement was amended and restated (the “Restated Credit Agreement”). The Restated Credit Agreement is among the Company and certain of its domestic subsidiaries, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, Bank of America, N.A., as syndication agent, U.S. Bank National Association and Fifth Third Bank, as co-documentation agents, and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, as joint lead arrangers and joint book runners. The Restated Credit Agreement provides a senior secured revolving credit facility up to $500 million. The Existing Credit Agreement was scheduled to expire on June 14, 2017, but the Restated Credit Agreement will mature on June 14, 2018. The revolving credit facility may be used for the issuance of letters of credit, to fund working capital requirements and capital expenditures, and for general corporate purposes. The Restated Credit Agreement includes a $250 million letter of credit sublimit, of which $60 million can be used for standby letters of credit, and a $25 million swing loan sublimit. The interest rates, pricing and fees under the Restated Credit Agreement fluctuate based on excess availability, as defined in the Restated Credit Agreement.

The Restated Credit Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, and affirmative covenants. The Restated Credit Agreement also contains customary negative covenants, subject to negotiated exceptions on (i) liens, (ii) investments, (iii) indebtedness, (iv) significant corporate changes, including mergers and acquisitions, (v) dispositions, (vi) restricted payments and certain other restrictive agreements. The Restated Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default, such as payment defaults, cross-defaults to other material indebtedness, bankruptcy and insolvency, the occurrence of a defined change in control, or the failure to observe the negative covenants and other covenants related to the operation of the Company’s business.

The Company’s obligations under the Restated Credit Agreement are guaranteed by certain of its domestic subsidiaries (the “Subsidiary Guarantors”). As collateral security under the Restated Credit Agreement and the guarantees thereof, the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors have granted to the administrative agent, for the benefit of the lenders, a lien on substantially all of their tangible and intangible assets, including, without limitation, certain domestic inventory and certain material real estate.

The above descriptions of the Amendment and Restatement Agreement and the Restated Credit Agreement are not complete and are qualified in their entirety by the actual terms of the agreements, copies of which are attached to this report as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2.
