NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements contained in this report are unaudited. In the opinion of management, the condensed consolidated financial statements include all adjustments, which are of a normal recurring nature, necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim periods of the fiscal year ending February 1, 2014 and of the fiscal year ended February 2, 2013. Certain items included in these statements are based on management's estimates. Actual results may differ from those estimates. The results of operations for any interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results expected for the year. The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements contained in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended February 2, 2013, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on April 1, 2013.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

During the first quarter of 2013, the Company adopted Accounting Standards Update 2013-02, Comprehensive Income (Topic 220): Reporting of Amounts Reclassified out of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income ("ASU 2013-02"). ASU 2013-02 amended existing guidance by requiring additional disclosure either on the face of the income statement or in the notes to the financial statements of significant amounts reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income. The provisions of this new guidance were effective prospectively as of the beginning of 2013. Accordingly, enhanced footnote disclosure for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 is included in Note 4. The adoption of ASU 2013-02 had no effect on our results of operations or financial position.

We performed our annual goodwill impairment assessment during the first quarter of 2013, using a qualitative approach as permitted under Accounting Standards Update No. 2011-08, Testing Goodwill for Impairment. In performing the assessment, we identified and considered the significance of relevant key factors, events, and circumstances that affected the fair value and/or carrying amounts of our reporting units. These factors included external factors such as macroeconomic, industry and market conditions, as well as entity-specific factors, such as our actual and planned financial performance. Based on the results of the impairment assessment performed, we concluded that it is more likely than not that the fair values of our reporting units substantially exceeded their respective carrying values and there are no reporting units at risk of impairment.

Other recently issued accounting pronouncements did not, or are not believed by management to, have a material effect on the Company's present or future consolidated financial statements.

2. Segment Information

The Company has determined that its reportable segments are those that are based on its method of internal reporting. As of May 4, 2013, the Company has two reportable segments, Athletic Stores and Direct-to-Customers. Sales and division results for the Company's reportable segments for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012 are presented below. Division profit reflects income before income taxes, corporate expense, net interest expense, and net non-operating income.

3. Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Annually during the first quarter, or more frequently if impairment indicators arise, the Company reviews goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives for impairment. The annual review of goodwill and assets with indefinite lives performed during the first quarters of 2013 and 2012 did not result in impairment charges. The fair value of each of the reporting units substantially exceeds its carrying value for both periods. The following table provides a summary of goodwill by reportable segment. The change represents foreign exchange fluctuations.

5. Financial Instruments

The Company operates internationally and utilizes certain derivative financial instruments to mitigate its foreign currency exposures, primarily related to third-party and intercompany forecasted transactions. As a result of the use of derivative instruments, the Company is exposed to the risk that counterparties will fail to meet their contractual obligations. To mitigate this counterparty credit risk, the Company has a policy of entering into contracts only with major financial institutions selected based upon their credit ratings and other financial factors. The Company monitors the creditworthiness of counterparties throughout the duration of the derivative instrument. Additional information is contained within Note 6, Fair Value Measurements.

Derivative Holdings Designated as Hedges

For a derivative to qualify as a hedge at inception and throughout the hedged period, the Company formally documents the nature of the hedged items and the relationships between the hedging instruments and the hedged items, as well as its risk-management objectives, strategies for undertaking the various hedge transactions, and the methods of assessing hedge effectiveness and hedge ineffectiveness. In addition, for hedges of forecasted transactions, the significant characteristics and expected terms of a forecasted transaction must be specifically identified, and it must be probable that each forecasted transaction would occur. If it were deemed probable that the forecasted transaction would not occur, the gain or loss on the derivative instrument would be recognized in earnings immediately. No such gains or losses were recognized in earnings for any of the periods presented. Derivative financial instruments qualifying for hedge accounting must maintain a specified level of effectiveness between the hedging instrument and the item being hedged, both at inception and throughout the hedged period, which management evaluates periodically.

The primary currencies to which the Company is exposed are the euro, British pound, Canadian dollar, and Australian dollar. For option and forward foreign exchange contracts designated as cash flow hedges of the purchase of inventory, the effective portion of gains and losses is deferred as a component of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Loss ("AOCL") and is recognized as a component of cost of sales when the related inventory is sold. The amount reclassified to cost of sales related to such contracts was not significant for any of the periods presented. The effective portion of gains or losses associated with other forward contracts is deferred as a component of AOCL until the underlying transaction is reported in earnings. The ineffective portion of gains and losses related to cash flow hedges recorded to earnings was also not significant for any of the periods presented. When using a forward contract as a hedging instrument, the Company excludes the time value of the contract from the assessment of effectiveness. At each quarter-end, the Company had not hedged forecasted transactions for more than the next twelve months, and the Company expects all derivative-related amounts reported in AOCL to be reclassified to earnings within twelve months. The net change in the fair value of foreign exchange derivative financial instruments designated as cash flow hedges of the purchase of inventory was $1 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and was not significant for the thirteen weeks ended April 28, 2012. The notional value of the contracts outstanding at May 4, 2013 was $59 million and these contracts extend through January 2014.

5. Financial Instruments – (continued)

Derivative Holdings Designated as Non-Hedges

The Company mitigates the effect of fluctuating foreign exchange rates on the reporting of foreign-currency denominated earnings by entering into currency option contracts. Changes in the fair value of these foreign currency option contracts, which are not designated as hedges, are recorded in earnings immediately within other income. The realized gains, premiums paid and changes in the fair market value were not significant for any of the periods presented. The notional value of the contract outstanding at May 4, 2013 was $10 million and this contract extends through July 2013.

The Company also enters into foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge foreign-currency denominated merchandise purchases and intercompany transactions that are not designated as hedges. The net change in fair value was not significant for any of the periods presented. The notional value of the contracts outstanding at May 4, 2013 was $29 million and these contracts extend through June 2013.

Additionally, the Company enters into diesel fuel forward and option contracts to mitigate a portion of the Company's freight expense due to the variability caused by fuel surcharges imposed by our third-party freight carriers. Changes in the fair value of these contracts are recorded in earnings immediately. The effect was not significant for any of the periods presented. The notional value of the contracts outstanding at May 4, 2013 was $3 million and these contracts extend through November 2013.

Fair Value of Derivative Contracts

6. Fair Value Measurements

The Company's financial assets recorded at fair value are categorized as follows:

Level 1 Quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets.

Level 2 — Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and model-derived valuations in which all significant inputs or significant value-drivers are observable in active markets.

Level 3 Model-derived valuations in which one or more significant inputs or significant value-drivers are unobservable.

The following tables provide a summary of the Company's recognized assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Available-for-sale securities are recorded at fair value with unrealized gains and losses reported, net of tax, in other comprehensive income, unless unrealized losses are determined to be other than temporary. As of May 4, 2013, the Company held $54 million of available-for-sale securities, which was comprised of $48 million of short-term investments and a $6 million auction rate security, which is included in other assets.

Short-term investments represent corporate bonds with maturity dates within one year from the purchase date. These securities are valued using model-derived valuations in which all significant inputs or significant value-drivers are observable in active markets and therefore are classified as Level 2 instruments.

The fair value of the auction rate security is determined by using quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets and accordingly is classified as a Level 2 instrument.

The Company's derivative financial instruments are valued using market-based inputs to valuation models. These valuation models require a variety of inputs, including contractual terms, market prices, yield curves, and measures of volatility.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value and estimated fair value of long-term debt were as follows:

	May 4,	April 28,	February 2,
(in millions)	2013	2012	2013
Carrying value	$ 132	$ 135	$ 133
Fair value	$ 151	$ 147	$ 152

The fair value of long-term debt is determined using model-derived valuations in which all significant inputs or significant value-drivers are observable in active markets and therefore is classified as Level 2.

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, and other current receivables and payables approximate their fair value.

There were no transfers into or out of Level 1, Level 2, or Level 3 assets and liabilities for any of the periods presented.

7. Earnings Per Share

The Company accounts for and discloses net earnings per share using the treasury stock method. The Company's basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the Company's reported net income for the period by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding at the end of the period. The Company's restricted stock awards, which contain non-forfeitable rights to dividends, are considered participating securities and are included in the calculation of basic earnings per share. Diluted earnings per share reflects the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period used in the basic earnings per share computation plus dilutive common stock equivalents. The Company's basic and diluted weighted-average number of common shares outstanding was as follows:

	Thirteen weeks ended
	May 4,	April 28,
(in millions)	2013	2012
Weighted-average common shares outstanding	150.4	151.8
Effect of Dilution:
Stock options and awards	2.3	2.5
Weighted-average common shares assuming dilution	152.7	154.3

Options to purchase 0.5 million shares of common stock were not included in the computation for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013. These options were not included primarily because the exercise prices of the options were greater than the average market price of the common shares and, therefore, the effect would have been antidilutive. Substantially all options to purchase common stock outstanding as of April 28, 2012 were included in the computation of diluted earnings per share. As of May 4, 2013, contingently issuable shares of 0.5 million have not been included as the vesting conditions have not been satisfied.

8. Pension and Postretirement Plans

The Company has defined benefit pension plans covering certain of its North American employees, which are funded in accordance with the provisions of the laws where the plans are in effect. In addition to providing pension benefits, the Company sponsors postretirement medical and life insurance plans, which are available to most of its retired U.S. employees. These medical and life insurance plans are contributory and are not funded.

No pension contributions to the U.S. or Canadian qualified plans were made during the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012. The Company continually evaluates the amount and timing of any future contributions. The Company expects to contribute $2 million in 2013 to the Canadian qualified plan. Additional contributions will depend on the plan asset performance and other factors.

9. Share-Based Compensation

Total compensation expense related to the Company's share-based compensation plans was $8 million and $6 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively. The associated tax benefits recognized for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012 were $1 million and $2 million, respectively. Tax deductions in excess of the cumulative compensation cost recognized for share-based compensation arrangements were $4 million and $5 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively, and are classified as a financing activity within the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

The Company uses a Black-Scholes option-pricing model to estimate the fair value of share-based awards. The Black-Scholes option-pricing model incorporates various and highly subjective assumptions, including expected term and expected volatility. The following table shows the Company's assumptions used to compute the share-based compensation expense:

	Stock Option Plans			Stock Purchase Plan

Compensation expense related to the Company's stock option and stock purchase plans was $3 million for both the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012. As of May 4, 2013, there was $16 million of total unrecognized compensation cost, related to nonvested stock options, which is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 1.57 years.

Restricted Stock and Units

Restricted shares of the Company's common stock and restricted stock units may be awarded to certain officers and key employees of the Company. The Company also issues restricted stock units to its non-employee directors. Each restricted stock unit represents the right to receive one share of the Company's common stock, provided that the vesting conditions are satisfied. As of May 4, 2013, 1,009,157 restricted stock units were outstanding. Compensation expense is recognized using the fair market value at the date of grant and is amortized over the vesting period, provided the recipient continues to be employed by the Company.

Generally, awards fully vest after the passage of time, typically three years. However, restricted stock unit grants made in connection with the Company's long-term incentive program vest after the attainment of certain performance metrics and the passage of time. Restricted stock is considered outstanding at the time of grant and the holders have voting rights. Dividends are paid to holders of restricted stock that vests with the passage of time; for any performance-based restricted stock granted after May 19, 2010, dividends will be accumulated and paid after the performance criteria are met.

Restricted shares and units activity for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012 is summarized as follows:

	Number of Shares and Units

The weighted-average grant-date fair value per share was $34.24 and $30.89 for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively. The total value of awards for which restrictions lapsed during the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012 was $6 million and $5 million, respectively. As of May 4, 2013, there was $15 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested restricted awards.

9. Share-Based Compensation – (continued)

The Company recorded compensation expense related to restricted stock awards, net of forfeitures, of $5 million and $3 million for the thirteen week periods ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively.

10. Subsequent Event

On May 8, 2013, the Company signed a definitive agreement to acquire Runners Point Warenhandelsges. mbH, ("Runners Point Group") a specialty athletic store and online retailer based in Recklinghausen, Germany, for total cash consideration of approximately $94 million. The transaction is subject to review by merger control authorities in Germany. During the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, the Company incurred $1 million of transaction costs.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Foot Locker, Inc., through its subsidiaries, operates in two reportable segments – Athletic Stores and Direct-to-Customers. The Athletic Stores segment is one of the largest athletic footwear and apparel retailers in the world, whose formats include Foot Locker, Lady Foot Locker, Kids Foot Locker, Champs Sports, Footaction, and CCS. The Direct-to-Customers segment is multi-branded and multi-channeled. This segment sells, through its affiliates, directly to customers through its Internet websites, mobile devices, and catalogs. Eastbay, one of the affiliates, is among the largest direct marketers in the United States. The Direct-to-Customers segment operates the website for eastbay.com, final-score.com, and eastbayteamservices.com. Additionally, this segment operates websites aligned with the brand names of its store banners (footlocker.com, ladyfootlocker.com, kidsfootlocker.com, footaction.com, champssports.com, and ccs.com).

STORE COUNT

At May 4, 2013, the Company operated 3,321 stores as compared with 3,335 and 3,360 stores at February 2, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively. During the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, the Company opened 25 stores, remodeled or relocated 64 stores and closed 39 stores.

The 22 CCS stores did not close during the first quarter of 2013 as was previously anticipated and announced. They are scheduled to close in early June, with the majority of the locations converting to other formats.

A total of 45 franchised stores were operating at May 4, 2013, as compared with 42 and 36 stores at February 2, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively. Revenue from the franchised stores was not significant for any of the periods presented. These stores are not included in the Company's operating store count above.

SALES AND OPERATING RESULTS

All references to comparable-store sales for a given period relate to sales of stores that are open at the period-end and have been open for more than one year. The computation of comparable-store sales also includes the sales of the Direct-to-Customers segment. Stores opened or closed during the period are not included in the comparable-store base; however, stores closed temporarily for relocation or remodeling are included. Computations exclude the effect of foreign currency fluctuations.

The following table summarizes results by segment:

Sales increased by $60 million, or 3.8 percent, to $1,638 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, from $1,578 million for the thirteen weeks ended April 28, 2012. Excluding the effect of foreign currency fluctuations, total sales for the thirteen-week period increased 4.1 percent, as compared with the corresponding prior-year period. Comparable-store sales increased by 5.2 percent for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013.

Gross margin, as a percentage of sales, increased to 34.2 percent for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 as compared with 34.0 percent in the corresponding prior-year period. As a percent of sales, the cost of merchandise for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 decreased by 20 basis points as compared with the corresponding prior-year period, primarily reflecting a lower markdown rate offset, in part, by lower initial markups. In addition, the occupancy and buyers compensation expense rate decreased by 10 basis points, reflecting improved leverage of fixed costs. These improvements were partially offset by lower margin rate on shipping and handling. Vendor allowances were not significant for any of the periods presented.

Segment Analysis

Athletic Stores

Athletic Stores sales increased by 2.4 percent to $1,471 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, as compared with the corresponding prior-year period of $1,437 million. Excluding the effect of foreign currency fluctuations, sales from athletic store divisions increased 2.7 percent for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, as compared with the corresponding prior-year period. Comparable-store sales increased by 3.8 percent for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013. All banners within this segment, with the exception of Lady Foot Locker, experienced comparable-store sales gains, led by Kids Foot Locker and domestic Foot Locker. Basketball continued to be the biggest driver of growth, with Jordan retro and lifestyle products, as well key marquee player shoes, performing well. The basketball category also benefitted our European operations, which experienced a low-single digit comparable-store sales increase.

The Kids Foot Locker business continues to benefit from its new store design and innovative product offerings. The remodeled stores help create a kid-friendly environment, with a "Pro Zone" and hero-sized footprints, aimed to entertain young customers. In addition, the Company is expanding and diversifying the children's assortment in particular by emphasizing branded apparel and accessories, and offering more casual and running footwear styles.

Lady Foot Locker's sales declined due to a comparable-stores sales decline and a lower store count. During the first quarter of 2013, 21 underperforming stores were closed. Overall, sales of women's footwear, apparel, and accessories declined in the first quarter. The 14 remodeled Lady Foot Locker locations, as well as the 3 new SIX:02 stores, which opened during the fourth quarter of 2012, have been outperforming the rest of the Lady Foot Locker chain. Management continues to review the women's business in light of results of the test locations and continues to implement various initiatives intended to improve future performance and attract the athletically-active woman.

Athletic Stores division profit increased 1.9 percent for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, as compared with the corresponding prior-year period. Division profit, as a percentage of sales, was 14.3 percent for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 as compared with 14.4 percent for the corresponding prior-year period. This primarily reflects improved sales and an improved gross margin rate driven by improved leverage of fixed occupancy expenses. The improvement in gross margin was partially offset by an increase in expense, which was primarily the result of a higher allocation of corporate expense, discussed more fully below.

Direct-to-Customers

Direct-to-Customers sales increased by 18.4 percent to $167 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, as compared with the corresponding prior-year period of $141 million. Sales on a comparable basis, due to the shift related to the 53^{rd} week in 2012, were not significantly different and represented an increase of 18.2 percent. The increase was primarily a result of continued strong sales performance of the Company's store-banner websites coupled with continued growth in Eastbay's sales. Sales at each of the store-banner websites increased significantly, with the total increase approximating 50 percent.

Direct-to-Customers division profit for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 increased by $5 million to $23 million as compared with the corresponding prior-year period. Division profit, as a percentage of sales, was 13.8 percent for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 as compared with 12.8 percent for the corresponding prior-year period. The increase primarily reflects higher sales partially offset by a slightly lower gross margin rate attributable to lower shipping and handling revenue. This decline was offset by expense rate improvements.

Corporate Expense

Corporate expense consists of unallocated selling, general and administrative expenses ("SG&A"), as well as depreciation and amortization related to the Company's corporate headquarters, centrally managed departments, unallocated insurance and benefit programs, certain foreign exchange transaction gains and losses, and other items. Corporate expense for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 decreased by $4 million to $19 million from the corresponding prior-year period. The decline is primarily as a result of a reallocation of expense between corporate and the operating divisions. Based upon an internal study of corporate expense, the allocation of such expenses to the operating divisions was increased thereby reducing corporate expense. This decrease was partially offset by $1 million of transaction costs related to the Company's pending acquisition of Runners Point Group.

Selling, General and Administrative

SG&A of $315 million increased by $9 million or 2.9 percent, for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 as compared with the corresponding prior-year period. SG&A, as a percentage of sales, decreased to 19.2 percent for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, as compared with 19.4 percent in the corresponding prior-year period. Excluding the effect of foreign currency fluctuations, SG&A increased by $10 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, as compared with the corresponding prior-year period. This increase primarily represents increased variable costs to support sales, such as store wages. The Company also continued its marketing and advertising spending, which increased by $3 million as compared to the prior-year period. Included in SG&A during the first quarter of 2013, is $1 million of transaction costs related to the Company's pending acquisition of Runners Point Group as noted above in the discussion of corporate expense.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization increased by $2 million in the first quarter of 2013 to $31 million as compared with $29 million for the first quarter of 2012, reflecting increased capital spending on store improvements and technology. The effect of foreign currency fluctuations was not significant.

Interest Expense

Interest expense and interest income were unchanged as compared with the prior year.

Income Taxes

For the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, the Company recorded an income tax provision of $78 million, which represents an effective tax rate of 36.1 percent, compared to the prior-year income tax provision of $73 million, which represented an effective tax rate of 36.4 percent. The Company's interim provision for income taxes is measured using an annual effective tax rate, adjusted for discrete items that occur within the periods presented.

The Company regularly assesses the adequacy of the Company's provisions for income tax contingencies in accordance with the applicable authoritative guidance on accounting for income taxes. As a result, the Company may adjust the reserves for unrecognized tax benefits considering new facts and developments, such as changes to interpretations of relevant tax law, assessments from taxing authorities, settlements with taxing authorities, and lapses of statutes of limitation. The effective tax rate for both periods included tax benefits of $2 million from reserve releases due to the settlements of tax examinations. Excluding these nonrecurring benefits, the effective tax rate for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 decreased modestly as compared with the corresponding prior-year period, due primarily to the effect of certain recently implemented tax planning initiatives.

The Company currently expects its full year tax rate to approximate 37 percent, excluding the effect of any additional nonrecurring items that may occur. The actual tax rates will primarily depend on the level and mix of income earned in the United States as compared with its international operations.

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Measures

The Company provides non-GAAP information to assist investors with the comparison of the Company's results period over period. In the first quarter of 2013, the Company recorded approximately $1 million, or $0.01 per diluted share, for transaction costs associated with the pending acquisition of Runners Point Group. Accordingly, the Company has excluded these costs to arrive at its non-GAAP results. The non-GAAP financial measure is provided in addition to, and not as an alternative to, the Company's reported results prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Net Income

Net income of $138 million, or $0.90 per diluted share, for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 increased by $0.07 per diluted share from $128 million, or $0.83 per share last year. The improved performance represents a 25 percent flow-through of increased sales to pre-tax income, reflecting leveraging of fixed costs, and controlling operating expenses.

Presented below are GAAP and non-GAAP results, as more fully described above.

	Thirteen weeks ended
	May 4,	April 28
(in millions)	2013	2012
Net income	$ 138	$ 128
Diluted EPS	$ 0.90	$ 0.83
Net income (non-GAAP)	$ 139	$ 128
Diluted EPS (non-GAAP)	$ 0.91	$ 0.83

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's primary source of liquidity has been cash flow from operations, while the principal uses of cash have been to: fund inventory and other working capital requirements; finance capital expenditures related to store openings, store remodelings, Internet and mobile sites, information systems, and other support facilities; make retirement plan contributions, quarterly dividend payments, and interest payments; and fund other cash requirements to support the development of its short-term and long-term operating strategies. The Company generally finances real estate with operating leases. Management believes its cash, cash equivalents, future cash flow from operations, and the Company's current revolving credit facility will be adequate to fund these requirements.

The Company may also from time to time repurchase its common stock or seek to retire or purchase outstanding debt through open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, or otherwise. Such repurchases, if any, will depend on prevailing market conditions, liquidity requirements, contractual restrictions, and other factors. The amounts involved may be material.

Any material adverse change in customer demand, fashion trends, competitive market forces, or customer acceptance of the Company's merchandise mix and retail locations, uncertainties related to the effect of competitive products and pricing, the Company's reliance on a few key vendors for a significant portion of its merchandise purchases and risks associated with global product sourcing, economic conditions worldwide, the effects of currency fluctuations, as well as other factors listed under the heading "Disclosure Regarding Forward-Looking Statements," could affect the ability of the Company to continue to fund its needs from business operations.

Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities was $251 million and $133 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively. These amounts reflect net income adjusted for non-cash items and seasonal working capital changes. Due to the shift caused by the 53^{rd} week in 2012, merchandise inventory purchases were accelerated into 2012 to support the sales for February, whereas in the prior year those purchases occurred in the subsequent first quarter. Additionally, the timing of certain income tax payments shifted out of the first quarter of 2013 into the early part of second quarter. Cash paid for income taxes declined $65 million to $15 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013.

Investing Activities

For the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013, net cash used in investing activities was $48 million, reflecting $50 million in capital expenditures, partially offset by the receipt of $2 million related to lease termination gains related to exiting certain European leases. The Company's full year forecast for capital expenditures is $217 million, which includes $173 million related to the remodeling or relocation of existing stores and 86 new store openings, as well as $44 million for the development of information systems, websites, and infrastructure.

Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing was $20 million and $36 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively. The Company declared and paid dividends during the first quarters of 2013 and 2012 of $30 million and $28 million, respectively. This represents a quarterly rate of $0.20 and $0.18 per share for 2013 and 2012, respectively. The Company did not repurchase any common stock in the first quarter of 2013 because of the ongoing negotiations related to the pending acquisition of Runners Point Group, however the Company plans to reinitiate its share repurchase program in the second quarter. During the first quarter of 2012, the Company repurchased 878,700 shares of its common stock for $27 million. Additionally, the Company received proceeds from the issuance of common stock in connection with employee stock programs of $6 million and $14 million for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively. In connection with stock option exercises and share-based compensation programs, the Company recorded excess tax benefits of $4 million and $5 million as a financing activity for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

During the first quarter of 2013, the Company adopted Accounting Standards Update 2013-02, Comprehensive Income (Topic 220): Reporting of Amounts Reclassified out of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income ("ASU 2013-02"). ASU 2013-02 amended existing guidance by requiring additional disclosure either on the face of the income statement or in the notes to the financial statements of significant amounts reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income. The provisions of this new guidance were effective prospectively as of the beginning of 2013. Accordingly, enhanced footnote disclosure for the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013 is included in Note 4. The adoption of ASU 2013-02 had no effect on our results of operations or financial position.

We performed our annual goodwill impairment assessment during the first quarter of 2013, using a qualitative approach as permitted under Accounting Standards Update No. 2011-08, Testing Goodwill for Impairment. In performing the assessment, we identified and considered the significance of relevant key factors, events, and circumstances that affected the fair value and/or carrying amounts of our reporting units. These factors included external factors such as macroeconomic, industry and market conditions, as well as entity-specific factors, such as our actual and planned financial performance. Based on the results of the impairment assessment performed, we concluded that it is more likely than not that the fair values of our reporting units substantially exceeded their respective carrying values and there are no reporting units at risk of impairment.

Other recently issued accounting pronouncements did not, or are not believed by management to, have a material effect on the Company's present or future consolidated financial statements.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

There have been no significant changes to the Company's critical accounting policies and estimates from the information provided in Item 7, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 2, 2013.

DISCLOSURE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Other than statements of historical facts, all statements which address activities, events, or developments that the Company anticipates will or may occur in the future, including, but not limited to, such things as future capital expenditures, expansion, strategic plans, financial objectives, dividend payments, stock repurchases, growth of the Company's business and operations, including future cash flows, revenues, and earnings, and other such matters, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on many assumptions and factors which are detailed in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the effects of currency fluctuations, customer demand, fashion trends, competitive market forces, uncertainties related to the effect of competitive products and pricing, customer acceptance of the Company's merchandise mix and retail locations, the Company's reliance on a few key vendors for a majority of its merchandise purchases (including a significant portion from one key vendor), pandemics and similar major health concerns, unseasonable weather, deterioration of global financial markets, economic conditions worldwide, deterioration of business and economic conditions, any changes in business, political and economic conditions due to the threat of future terrorist activities in the United States or in other parts of the world and related U.S. military action overseas, the ability of the Company to execute its business and strategic plans effectively with regard to each of its business units, and risks associated with global product sourcing, including political instability, changes in import regulations, and disruptions to transportation services and distribution.

For additional discussion on risks and uncertainties that may affect forward-looking statements, see "Risk Factors" disclosed in the 2012 Annual Report on Form 10-K. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could produce significantly different results. The Company undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

The Company's management performed an evaluation under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), and completed an evaluation as of May 4, 2013 of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as that term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")). Based on that evaluation, the Company's CEO and CFO concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that information relating to the Company that is required to be disclosed in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC rules and forms, and is accumulated and communicated to management, including the CEO and CFO, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

During the quarter ended May 4, 2013, there were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) of the Exchange Act) that materially affected or are reasonably likely to affect the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

Legal proceedings pending against the Company or its consolidated subsidiaries consist of ordinary, routine litigation, including administrative proceedings, incidental to the business of the Company or businesses that have been sold or disposed of by the Company in past years. These legal proceedings include commercial, intellectual property, customer, environmental, and labor-and-employment-related claims.

Certain of the Company's subsidiaries are defendants in a number of lawsuits filed in state and federal courts containing various class action allegations under federal or state wage and hour laws, including allegations concerning unpaid overtime, meal and rest breaks, and uniforms.

The Company is a defendant in one such case in which plaintiff alleges that the Company permitted unpaid off-the-clock hours in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act and state labor laws. The case, Pereira v. Foot Locker, was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania in 2007. In his complaint, in addition to unpaid wage and overtime allegations, plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, injunctive relief, and attorneys' fees and costs. In 2009, the Court conditionally certified a nationwide collective action. During the course of 2010, notices were sent to approximately 81,888 current and former employees of the Company offering them the opportunity to participate in the class action, and approximately 5,027 have opted in.

The Company is a defendant in additional purported wage and hour class actions that assert claims similar to those asserted in Pereira and seek similar remedies. With the exception of Hill v. Foot Locker filed in state court in Illinois in 2011, Kissinger filed in state court of California, Ghattas filed in state court of California, and Cortes v. Foot Locker filed in federal court of New York, all of these actions were consolidated by the United States Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation with Pereira under the caption In re Foot Locker, Inc. Fair Labor Standards Act and Wage and Hour Litigation. The consolidated cases are in the discovery stages of proceedings. In Hill v. Foot Locker, in May 2011, the court granted plaintiffs' motion for certification of an opt-out class covering certain Illinois employees only. The Company's motion for leave to appeal was denied. The Company has had and continues to have discussions with plaintiff's counsel in an attempt to determine whether it will be possible to resolve the consolidated cases and Hill. Meanwhile, the Company is vigorously defending these class actions. Due to the inherent uncertainties of such matters, and because fact and expert discovery have not been completed, the Company is currently unable to make an estimate of the range of loss.

The Company and the Company's U.S. retirement plan are defendants in a purported class action (Osberg v. Foot Locker, filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York) in which the plaintiff alleges that, in connection with the 1996 conversion of the retirement plan to a defined benefit plan with a cash balance formula, the Company and the retirement plan failed to properly advise plan participants of the "wear-away" effect of the conversion. Plaintiff asserted claims for: (a) breach of fiduciary duty under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA); (b) violation of the statutory provisions governing the content of the Summary Plan Description; (c) violation of the notice provision of Section 204(h) of ERISA; and (d) violation of ERISA's age discrimination provisions. In September 2009, the court granted the Company's motion to dismiss the Section 204(h) claim and the age discrimination claim. In December 2012, the court granted the Company's motion for summary judgment on the remaining two claims, dismissing the action. Plaintiff has appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 2nd Circuit. Because of the inherent uncertainties of such matters and the current status of this case, the Company is currently unable to make an estimate of loss or range of loss for this case.

Management does not believe that the outcome of any such legal proceedings pending against the Company or its consolidated subsidiaries, including In re Foot Locker, Inc. Fair Labor Standards Act and Wage and Hour Litigation, Hill, Cortes, Kissinger, Ghattas, and Osberg, as described above, would have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position, liquidity, or results of operations, taken as a whole.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

There were no material changes to the risk factors disclosed in the 2012 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

The following table provides information with respect to shares of the Company's common stock that the Company repurchased during the thirteen weeks ended May 4, 2013.

Date Purchased	Total Number of Shares Purchased	Average Price Paid per Share	Number of Shares Purchased as Part of Publicly Announced Program (2)	Approximate Dollar Value of Shares that may yet be Purchased Under the Program (2)
