Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

On November 4, 2015, the Audit Committee (the “Audit Committee”) of the Board of Directors of Barrett Business Services, Inc. (the “Company”), received written notice from its independent registered public accounting firm, Moss Adams LLP (“Moss Adams”), that Moss Adams’ completed interim review of the Company’s unaudited interim consolidated financial statements as of June 30, 2014, and for the periods then ended, which financial statements were included in the Company’s Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2014, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 8, 2014 (the “2014 second quarter Form 10-Q”), can no longer be relied upon.

In connection with this notice, Moss Adams requested that the Audit Committee conduct an independent investigation regarding the Company’s workers’ compensation expense reserve as reported in its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2014 (the “June 30, 2014 workers’ compensation reserve”). Moss Adams stated that it has become aware of information indicating that an illegal act has or may have occurred with respect to the June 30, 2014 workers’ compensation reserve in connection with Moss Adams not having been provided with available information regarding the Company’s June 30, 2014 workers’ compensation expense reserve in the course of Moss Adams’ review of the Company’s financial statements in the 2014 second quarter Form 10-Q.

The Audit Committee, at a meeting held on November 6, 2015, determined that, given the seriousness of the allegations, it is in the best interests of BBSI’s shareholders to conduct a thorough and prompt independent investigation into whether an illegal act has occurred and the impact of any such illegal act on the Company’s financial statements for the quarter ended June 30, 2014. As such, the Audit Committee has retained independent legal counsel, Stoll Stoll Berne Lokting & Shlachter, P.C., of Portland, Oregon, to conduct an independent investigation.

In May 2014, the Company engaged an actuarial consultant to assist management in assessing the Company’s practices in handling workers’ compensation claims and establishing case reserves, evaluating its workers’ compensation liability, and working with its independent actuary of record. The Audit Committee believes that the notice received from Moss Adams was triggered by Moss Adams’ becoming aware that the consultant’s analysis had not been provided to Moss Adams in connection with its review of the financial statements included in the 2014 second quarter Form 10-Q. The Audit Committee also believes that the issues described above do not affect the Company’s annual financial statements included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

The Company intends to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2015 (the “2015 third quarter Form 10-Q”), with the Securities and Exchange Commission as soon as practicable after the Audit Committee’s independent investigation has been completed and Moss Adams has had an opportunity to review and assess the findings of the investigation and to finalize its review of the Company’s unaudited interim consolidated financial statements to be included the 2015 third quarter Form 10-Q.

The Chair of the Audit Committee has discussed the matters disclosed in this Item 4.02 with Moss Adams.

Forward Looking Statements:

The foregoing information regarding the investigation by independent counsel and the effects on the Company's financial statements includes forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties. Additional considerations and other important risk factors affecting the Company's business are described in the Company's reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The forward-looking statements in this report speak only as of the date hereof.
