The New Ireland Fund, Inc. Announces Terms of Rights Offering and Record Date

Boston, Massachusetts October 24, 2017 (Marketwired) - The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of The New Ireland Fund, Inc. (NYSE: IRL) (the “Fund”), a closed-end investment company, announced today that the new record date for its previously announced proposed transferable rights offering (the “Offer”) will be November 3, 2017. The Offer was postponed on October 4, 2017 pending effectiveness of the registration statement. The registration statement has been declared effective. The Offer will be made only by means of a prospectus and prospectus supplement.

Summary of Terms of the Offer

Each shareholder will receive one transferable right (the “Right”) for each share of common stock held on the record date of November 3, 2017. Each holder of Rights is entitled to subscribe for one new share of common stock for every three Rights held (1for-3).

The subscription price will be determined on the expiration date, December 6, 2017, based on a pricing formula equal to 92.5% of the average closing price of the Fund’s shares of common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on the expiration date and the four preceding trading days.

Record date shareholders who fully exercise their Rights will be eligible for an oversubscription privilege entitling those shareholders to subscribe for any additional shares of common stock not purchased pursuant to the primary subscription. In addition, the Fund may issue to record date shareholders additional shares pursuant to a secondary over-subscription privilege.

The Rights are expected to trade “when issued” on the New York Stock Exchange beginning on November 1, 2017, and the Fund’s shares of common stock are expected to trade “Ex-Rights” on the New York Stock Exchange on November 2, 2017. The Rights are expected to begin trading for normal settlement on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE: IRL RT) on or about November 8, 2017.

• A definitive announcement on the commencement of the Offer and the record date will be made through a prospectus and prospectus supplement. The final terms of the Offer may be different from those set out above.

The Fund's investment objective is long-term capital appreciation through investment primarily in equity securities of Irish companies. Since 2011, Ireland has been among the strongest growing economies in Europe, and its economic performance has outpaced the broader Eurozone.

The Offer is intended to increase the assets of the Fund available for investment, enabling the Fund to take advantage of attractive investment opportunities consistent with its investment objective and strategies without having to reduce existing Fund holdings. In addition, increasing the assets of the Fund is expected to result in certain economies of scale which may lower the Fund's expense ratio. The Fund is managed by KBI Global Investors (North America) Ltd. ("KBIGI"), a wholly owned subsidiary of KBI Global Investors Ltd. (based in Dublin, Ireland). KBI Global Investors Ltd. is majority owned by Amundi Asset Management, Europe's largest asset manager by assets under management. The Information Agent for the Offer is AST Fund Solutions, LLC and the Subscription Agent for the Offer is Computershare Inc.

The market price of the Fund's shares is determined by a number of factors, several of which are beyond the control of the Fund.
