Emerging Growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 8, 2018, the Company appointed Michael Scarpa, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, as the Company's Principal Financial Officer.

Mr. Scarpa, 62, joined the Company in November 2012 as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and has served as the Company's Chief Operating Officer and/or Chief Financial Officer for the last six years, most recently as Chief Operating Officer. In November 2018, Mr. Scarpa reassumed his former duties as the Company's Chief Financial Officer, in addition to his responsibilities as Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Scarpa has more than 35 years of financial and operational management experience. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Scarpa was Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer of The Talbots, Inc. with responsibility for finance, treasury, planning and allocation, supply chain, information technology and corporate strategy. Previously, Mr. Scarpa spent 25 years with Liz Claiborne, Inc. where he held positions of increasing responsibility, culminating in his appointment as Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Scarpa began his career in financial positions with Maidenform, Inc. and Krementz and Company. Mr. Scarpa earned his BS and MBA degrees from Rutgers University, and is a CPA.

Also on November 8, 2018, the Company appointed Robert Helm, the Company's Vice President, Finance and Accounting, as the Company's Principal Accounting Officer.

Mr. Helm, 39, joined the Company in December 2016 as Vice President and Controller. In November 2018, Mr. Helm became the Company's Vice President, Finance and Accounting, responsible for overseeing the Company's accounting and external reporting, treasury, procurement, business planning, capital management and insurance functions. Mr. Helm has more than 16 years of accounting and finance experience. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Helm was Vice President and Corporate Controller at Rag & Bone Holdings LLC and then at Fresh Direct Holdings, Inc., in each case, with responsibility for financial operations and accounting and reporting functions. Previously, Mr. Helm spent five years at Ralph Lauren Corporation, where he held positions of increasing responsibility, culminating in his appointment as Vice President and U.S. Regional Controller. Mr. Helm began his career in public accounting and auditing, including at KPMG US LLP. Mr. Helm earned his BS in Finance from Ramapo College of New Jersey and his BS in Accounting from William Patterson University, and is a CPA.

Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains or may contain forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including but not limited to statements relating to the Company's strategic initiatives and adjusted net income per diluted share. Forward-looking statements typically are identified by use of terms such as "may," "will," "should," "plan," "project," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate" words, although some forward-looking statements are expressed differently. These forward-looking statements are based upon the Company's current expectations and assumptions and are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results and performance to differ materially. Some of these risks and uncertainties are described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including in the "Risk Factors" section of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 3, 2018. Included among the risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results and performance to differ materially are the risk that the Company will be unsuccessful in gauging fashion trends and changing consumer preferences, the risks resulting from the highly competitive nature of the Company's business and its dependence on consumer spending patterns, which may be affected by changes in economic conditions, the risk that the Company's strategic initiatives to increase sales and margin are delayed or do not result in anticipated improvements, the risk of delays, interruptions and disruptions in the Company's global supply chain, including resulting from foreign sources of supply in less developed countries or more politically unstable countries, the risk that the cost of raw materials or energy prices will increase beyond current expectations or that the Company is unable to offset cost increases through value engineering or price increases, various types of litigation, including class action litigations brought under consumer protection, employment, and privacy and information security laws and regulations, the imposition of regulations affecting the importation of foreign-produced merchandise, including duties and tariffs, and the uncertainty of weather patterns. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they were made. The Company undertakes no obligation to release publicly any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
