Item 2.05

Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On January 11, 2019, Stoneridge, Inc. (the “Company”) informed employees at the Company’s Canton, Massachusetts facility (the “Canton Facility”) that the Company was consolidating its manufacturing operations and closing the Canton Facility by the end of 2019. The closure is part of a Company initiative to realign its operations and engineering footprint to position the Company for future growth. The Canton Facility closure decision was made on January 10, 2019 by Company management with authority granted to management by the Company’s Board of Directors. At this time, the Company is in process of determining the estimated costs it expects to incur as a result of this initiative which will include employee severance and termination costs, contract terminations costs and the non-cash write-off of impaired fixed assets. The Company will amend this Form 8-K after such costs are determined. A copy of the Company’s press release announcing the Canton Facility closure is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
