Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1 - Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted. This report should, therefore, be read in conjunction with the Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2002 (the "2002 Form 10-KSB") of OraLabs Holding Corp. and Subsidiaries (the "Company").

The information included in this report is unaudited but reflects all adjustments which, in the opinion of management, are necessary to a fair statement of the results of the interim periods covered thereby. All adjustments are of a normal and recurring nature except as described herein.

Note 2 - Property and Equipment Property and equipment consisted of the following:

Machinery and equipment:

June 30, 2003
Machinery and equipment	$1,899,744
Leasehold Improvements	719,920

	2,619,664

Less accumulated depreciation	(1,465,257)

Note 3 - Line-of-Credit

The Company entered into a line-of-credit agreement with a bank in the amount of $1,000,000, which expires May 2004. As of June 30, 2003, the Company had available the entire $1,000,000 unused line-of-credit. The line-of-credit is collateralized by a first lien on all of the Company's business assets.

Note 4 - Reserve for Returns and Allowances

The company reserves 2.75% of revenues for returns and allowances of their product. The reserve is recorded as a reduction of revenues and as a liability on the balance sheet. The amount recorded as a liability on the balance sheet at June 30, 2003 is $381,972.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Special Note on Forward-Looking Statements

Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, provide a safe harbor for certain forward-looking statements. This quarterly report contains statements that are forward-looking. Forward looking statements include those which are not historical facts, including without limitation statements about management's expectations for any period beyond the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2003. Words such as "expect", "anticipate", "believe", "intend" and "estimate" and similar expressions are examples of words which identify forward looking statements. While these statements reflect the Company's beliefs as of the date of this report, they are subject to assumptions, uncertainties and risks that could cause actual results to differ materially and adversely from the results contemplated, forecast or estimated in the forward-looking statements included in this report. These factors include, but are not necessarily limited to, the impact of competitive products, the acceptance of new products or product lines in the marketplace, the Company's ability to manage growth, the availability of an adequate workforce and changes in market conditions.

Results of Operations. For the three month period ending June 30, 2003 as compared with the three month period ending June 30, 2002.

Product sales increased $471,871 or 16%. Sales increased due to higher volume of lip balm sales to key customers.

Gross profit increased $257,707. As a percentage of sales gross profit increased from 24% to 28%. The product mix being shipped in the second quarter of 2003 included larger quantities of lip balm which is less labor intensive than that of the products shipped in the second quarter of 2002.

Engineering increased $27,027 or 83%. The increase can be attributed to additional staffing for maintenance and safety compliance.

Selling and marketing decreased $162,163 or 39%. The decrease can be attributed to a reduction in Sales Commissions (due to a significant amount of non-commissioned sales by the President of the Company) for approximately $97,000; Advertising for approximately $46,000; and Bad Debt expense for approximately $25,000.

Provision for income tax increased $133,242 or 145%. Income before tax of $102,911 for second quarter 2003 compared to $241,927 loss for second quarter 2002 resulted in the increased income tax.

The Company incurred a loss for the second quarter of year 2002 of $149,974, but for the second quarter of 2003 the Net Income for the Company was $61,622, as explained by the above activities. As a percentage of sales, the incurred loss, which excludes Interest, Other Income and Income taxes, for the second quarter of year 2002, was 9%, but for the second quarter of year 2003 the Operating Income was 3% as a percentage of sales.

Results of Operations. For the six month period ending June 30, 2003 as compared with the six month period ending June 30, 2002.

Product sales increased $785,656 or 11%. Sales increased due to higher volume of lip balm sales to key customers.

Gross profit increased $285,988. As a percentage of sales gross profit remained steady at 33% for both periods. The higher cost of raw materials in the first quarter of 2003 as compared to the first quarter of 2002 did not continue to be significantly higher in the second quarter of 2003 as compared to the second quarter of 2002. However, the lower labor cost in the second quarter of 2003 as compared with the second quarter of 2002 created offsetting variances for the six month period resulting in no change in percentage of gross profit.

Engineering increased $52,487 or 74%. The increase can be attributed to additional staffing for maintenance and safety compliance.

Selling and marketing increased $55,172 or 6%. An increase in Bad Debt Expense for non-reoccurring write offs of uncollectible receivables in the amount of $261,000 in the first quarter 2003 was partially offset by decreases in Advertising, Bad Debt and Sales Commissions in the second quarter 2003.

General and administrative expenses increased $191,732 or 19%. The increase can be attributed to Salaries and related payroll expenses increased approximately $160,000 due in large part to additional staffing; Legal fees increased approximately $27,000.

Interest and Other Income decreased $28,283 or 59%. This was due to reduced royalty income for approximately $12,000; interest income for approximately $11,000; and capital gains for approximately $5,000.

Net income decreased by $8,623 or 4%, as explained by the above activities. As a percentage of sales, net operating income, which excludes Interest, Other Income and Income taxes, remained the same at 4%.

Liquidity and Capital Resources. Balance Sheet as of June 30, 2003 compared to December 31, 2002.

At June 30, 2003, the Company had $2,384,563 of cash and its current ratio was approximately 5 to 1. The Company believes its current capital resources are sufficient to fund operations for the next twelve months.

Net cash used in operating activities in the amount of $374,078 consists of the following:

Accounts receivable increased $426,506. Increased revenue in conjunction with reduced promotional allowances resulted in increased accounts receivable.

Prepaid Expenses increased $87,404. This increase is substantially from prepaid insurance premiums of approximately $68,000 and for July rent paid in June.

Deposits increased $125,073. The Company made a deposit in second quarter of 2003 for raw materials that was subsequently used to pay for the raw materials when received in the third quarter of 2003.

Accounts Payable increased $114,655. This is due to timing differences for purchases of raw materials and broker commissions.

Accrued liabilities increased $53,009. This is due to timing differences on payroll for earning period verses distribution of payment.

Reserve for Returns decreased $157,146. The Company made a specific allowance in the amount of $150,000 in the fourth quarter of 2002. These products were returned in the first quarter of 2003, which was absorbed by the specific allowance, taking the reserve for returns back to 2.75% of revenues.

Income taxes payable decreased $119,332. This decrease was significantly from tax payments made in June, 2003.

Retained earnings increased $212,274 as a result of net income.

Trends. Lip balm revenues increased to $6,200,328 in the first six months of 2003 as compared to $5,345,271 in the first six months of 2002, or a 16% increase. Sales were strong across trade classes including Mass Market, Dollar Stores, Grocery, Drug Stores, and Contract Packaging. However, third quarter sales will likely be slowed and increased expenses will occur as the Company moves into a larger and better equipped facility (see "Other Information" below). The Company plans to aggressively pursue increased business to take advantage of the new facility, but can not predict with certainty what growth will take place or if and when it may occur.

Sales of sour drops and breath fresheners were $1,233,166 in the first six months of 2003 as compared to $1,297,622 in the first six months of 2002, or a 5% decrease. The Company's revenue from established customers continued on track with last year without any significant change to customers or products. The Company will introduce into the market in the third quarter a new combo pack of sour drops and sour candy that could help sales in the third quarter and beyond, although it is too soon to predict the success or failure of this product.

The nutritional supplements, on a relatively smaller scale, showed decline in revenue. Revenues were $281,338 in the first six months of 2003 as compared to $310,001 in the first six months of 2002, or a 9% decrease. The second half of year 2003 may see a continued downward trend in this category.

Impact of Inflation. The Company's financial condition has not been affected by the modest inflation of the recent past. The Company believes that revenues will not be materially affected by inflation. The Company's lip care and oral care products are primarily very low retail price points and impulse items. The nutritional supplements are a small part (approximately 4%) of revenues and could be negatively impacted by inflation.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures. As of the end of the period covered by this report, the Company conducted an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the principal executive officer and principal financial officer, of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act")). Based on this evaluation, the principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms. There was no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the Company's most recently completed fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item No. 1. Legal Proceedings. The Company is not a party to any material pending legal proceedings to which either it or its subsidiary is a party or to which any of its property is subject.

Item No. 2. Changes in Securities. None.

Item No. 3. Defaults Upon Senior Securities. None.

Item No. 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders. On May 29, 2003, the annual meeting of stockholders of the Company was held at the Company's headquarters in Englewood, Colorado. The matters voted upon at the meeting were the election of directors and the ratification of the appointment of the Company's auditors. With respect to the election of directors, all four of the incumbent directors were re-elected. The voting was as follows: Gary H. Schlatter 8,485,455 for, 2,842 against, 2,077 abstain; Michael I. Friess 8,485,455 for, 2,842 against, 2,077 abstain; Allen R. Goldstone 8,485,455 for, 2,842 against, 2,077 abstain; Robert C. Gust 8,485,455 for, 2,842 against, 2,077 abstain. There were no broker non-votes. With respect to the ratification of the selection of the Company's auditors for fiscal year ending December 31, 2003, there were 8,487,167 votes in favor, 2,922 against and 285 abstentions. There were no broker non-votes.

Item No. 5. Other Information. Effective May 1, 2003, the Company and Gary H. Schlatter entered into an Amended and Restated Employment Agreement to replace the previous agreement that expired on April 30, 2003. The Agreement is for a term of three years expiring on April 30, 2006, and continues the same salary structure as included in the previous agreement, i.e., annual increases of 10% per year starting with $392,645.00 for the first 12 months (which is a 10% increase from the previous 12-month period). Under specified circumstances involving a change in control, Mr. Schlatter may terminate the Agreement and receive a lump sum payment equal to all of the compensation to which he would have otherwise been entitled had the Agreement remained in effect for its entire term.

The lease by which the Company occupies its second warehouse facility expired on June 30, 2003. The landlord under that lease was an affiliated entity of Mr. Schlatter. The Company is continuing to pay rent and to occupy the space on a month-to-month basis as Mr. Schlatter is actively seeking to acquire, through an affiliate, a larger office-warehouse facility that will replace both warehouses presently occupied by the Company. It is Mr. Schlatter's and the Company's intent that the rental rates established to lease the new facility will be comparable to that which would be paid to unaffiliated parties.

matters described in this Agreement, the adequacy and sufficiency of all of which consideration is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Employment. Effective as of May 1, 2003, the Company hereby employs Employee and Employee hereby accepts employment as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

2. Extent of Duties. Employee agrees to devote such time and attention to the business of the Company as may be required to fulfill the duties of his position, which is expected to require the Employee to devote a substantial amount of his working time, efforts, attention and energies. Employee shall not engage in any other business activity or activities that require significant personal services by Employee that in the judgment of the Board of Directors of the Company may conflict with the proper performance of Employee's duties under this Agreement.

3. Duties. Employee will, in addition to fulfilling his responsibilities in the capacity of President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, perform such functions and duties as the Company may specify or from time to time assign to him and which are consistent with said positions. Employee shall have full responsibility and authority for formulating policies and for the management and operation of the Company, subject to the general direction and control of the Board of Directors.

4. Term of Employment. (a) The term of this Agreement shall commence effective May 1, 2003, and continue for a period of three (3) years thereafter (through and including April 30, 2006), or until Employee's death, or upon the date that Employee is notified in writing pursuant to Section 4(c)(iii) that his employment has terminated for good and sufficient cause as defined herein, or upon a termination by Employee pursuant to Section 19, whichever comes first.

(b) The term "good and sufficient cause" for purposes hereof is defined as theft, fraud, embezzlement, the willful and continued failure by Employee substantially to perform his duties hereunder (other than as resulting from the Employee's incapacity due to physical or mental illness) after demand for substantial performance delivered by the Company that specifically identifies the manner in which the Company believes the Employee has not substantially performed his duties, the willful engaging by the Employee of misconduct which is materially injurious to the Company, monetarily or otherwise, or the willful violation by the Employee of the provisions of this Agreement. For purposes of this paragraph, no act, or failure to act, on the part of Employee shall be considered willful unless done or omitted to be done, not in good faith and without reasonable belief by Employee that his action or omission was in the best interest of the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 4(a), Employee shall not be deemed to have been terminated for "good and sufficient cause" without: (i) reasonable notice to Employee setting forth the reasons for the Company's intention to terminate for "good and sufficient cause"; (ii) an opportunity for the Employee, together with his counsel, to be heard before the Board of Directors, and, at Employee's or the Board of Director's discretion, an arbitration panel in accordance with Section 14 hereof, and (iii) following such hearing, delivery to the Employee of a notice of termination from the Board of Directors finding that in the good faith opinion of the Board of Directors, Employee was guilty of conduct set forth above in the definition of "good and sufficient cause", specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

5. Disability. This Agreement shall not terminate upon the temporary disability of the Employee, but the Company may terminate this Agreement upon the permanent disability of the Employee. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "disability" shall mean Employee's inability to perform his normal duties under this Agreement. If the Company and Employee cannot agree within fifteen (15) days as to the existence of a disability, the determination shall be made by two (2) physicians, one (1) designated by the Company and one (1) by Employee. If these two physicians cannot agree, they shall appoint a third physician and the determination of the majority shall be conclusive and binding on the Company and Employee. All costs incurred in determining the existence of a disability shall be shared equally by Company and Employee. The date of disability shall be the date upon which Employee and the Company agree or the earliest date upon which the physicians determine that a disability exists, whichever may apply.

6. Compensation. (a) Employee's salary for services performed under this Agreement shall be at the rate of $392,645.00 per year for the first year, $431,909.50 per year for the second year, and $475,100.45 per year for the third year, payable by the Company in equal weekly installments and reduced by applicable withholding of federal, state and local taxes. This salary may be increased from time to time in the discretion of the Employer's Board of Directors. If increased, this salary shall not be decreased thereafter during the term of this Agreement without the consent of the Employee. The salary provided in this Section 6 shall in no way be deemed exclusive and shall not prevent Employee from participating in any other compensation or benefit plan of Employer or from receiving any other consideration described in this Agreement.

(b) The Board of Directors of the Company may grant bonus compensation to the Employee from time to time in such amounts and at such times as determined by the Board of Directors in its discretion.

7. Benefits. In addition to Employee's salary and other compensation, Employee is entitled to the benefits of any employee group benefit or employee welfare benefit plan (e.g., medical insurance, term life insurance, retirement benefits, profit sharing, stock option plans or grants, disability insurance or similar benefits) which is provided by the Company to any of its employees. Employee shall be entitled to the same benefits provided under any such plans that are provided to all of the other employees of the Company as a group. Also, the Company will pay the lease and insurance expenses for up to two automobiles used by the Employee and will reimburse the Employee for his cellular telephone expenses as well as other telephone related expenses.

8. No Alienation. The benefits provided hereunder shall not be subject to alienation, assignment, pledge, anticipation, attachment, garnishment, receivership, execution or levy of any kind, including liability for alimony or support payments. Any attempt to cause such benefits to be so subject shall not be recognized, except to the extent required by law.

9. Covenant Not to Compete. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year thereafter, Employee will not participate in any business competitive to that of the business of Employer, except that Employee may make passive investments in businesses engaged in such activities provided that any such investment does not exceed a five percent (5%) equity interest. In addition, during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, Employee will not disclose or utilize any trade secrets or proprietary information of the Employer except within the scope of Employee's employment hereunder.

10. Expenses. Employee shall be entitled to prompt reimbursement for all reasonable expenses incurred by Employee in the performance of his duties hereunder.

11. Assignment. This Agreement is for personal services and neither party may assign or transfer any rights or obligations without the express written consent of the other.

12. Colorado Law. This Agreement has been made and entered into in the State of Colorado. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado.

13. Severability. If it is determined that any provision of this Agreement is invalid or of no force and effect, this shall not impair the remainder of this Agreement and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

14. Arbitration. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be settled solely by arbitration in the State of Colorado in accordance with the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court have jurisdiction thereof. The parties agree that the arbitrator shall have the right to award the prevailing party in any controversy the attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such party in connection therewith.

15. Counsel. Employee represents that he has consulted his own legal counsel to the extent deemed necessary by Employee, that such counsel has advised him as to the effect of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and Employee acknowledges that legal counsel to the Company does not represent Employee in connection herewith.

16. Waiver, Complete Agreement and Modification. (a) Waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement contains the full and complete agreement between the parties concerning the employment of Employee, and supersedes all prior statements, agreements, understandings and representations with respect to the employment of Employee.

(c) This Agreement may only be modified by written amendment, signed by the parties.

17. Survival. Each provision of this Agreement which by its terms is to apply after the termination of this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

18. Notices. All notices required to be given by this Agreement shall be made in writing and shall be deemed delivered upon personal delivery to the party requiring notice or when deposited in the U.S. Mail, postage prepaid, certified or registered, return receipt requested, addressed to the party requiring notice at the address set forth on the signature page of this Agreement or as any party may from time to time specify in writing to the other party.

19. Termination By Employee. Upon the occurrence of any of the following events this Agreement may be terminated by the Employee by written notice to Employer:

(a) the sale by Employer of substantially all of its assets;

Edgar Filing: ORALABS HOLDING CORP - Form 10QSB

(b) the sale, exchange or other disposition, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, of at least forty percent (40%) of the outstanding voting shares of Employer;

(c) a decision by Employer to terminate its business and liquidate its assets;

(d) the merger or consolidation of Employer with another entity or an agreement to such merger or consolidation or any other type of reorganization;

(e) Employer makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, files a voluntary bankruptcy petition, files a petition or answer seeking a reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any law, there shall have been filed any petition or application for the involuntary bankruptcy of Employer, or other similar proceeding, in which an order for relief is entered or which remains undismissed for a period of thirty days or more, or Employer seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of Employer or any material party of its assets; or

(f) there are material changes in Employee's duties and responsibilities without his written consent.

20. Effect of Termination. Except in the case of termination due to Employee's death, termination by the Employee or Company under this Agreement may only be effective by the terminating party giving the other party a written notice of termination, describing the reasons therefore. In the event of termination by Company for "good and sufficient cause", Employee shall be entitled to compensation only through the date of the notice of termination given pursuant to Section 4(c) (iii). In the event of termination due to the Employee's death, the Employee's estate will be entitled to a death benefit equal to the total salary remaining to paid for the remaining term of the Agreement, reduced by life insurance benefits, if any, paid to Employee's estate under policies (other than group policies) for which the Employer pays all premiums and Employee's estate is the beneficiary. In the event of a temporary or permanent disability described in Section 5 above, and regardless of whether or not the Employer elects to terminate this Agreement, Employee shall be entitled to receive all compensation accrued and payable during the entire term of this Agreement regardless of the date of the disability. However, any such payment shall be reduced by disability insurance benefits, if any, paid to Employee under policies (other than group policies) for which Employer pays all premiums and Employee is the beneficiary. In the event of a termination by Employee pursuant to Section 19, Employee shall receive a lump sum payment equal to all of the compensation to which he otherwise would have been entitled had the Agreement remained in effect for its entire term. Any termination of this Agreement shall not prejudice any remedy to which the Employee or Company may be entitled, either at law, equity or under this Agreement.

21. Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Company agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Employee harmless from any and all claims, liabilities, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) hereafter arising out of or in connection with the activities of the Company or its employees, including Employee or other agents in connection with and within the scope of this Agreement or by reason of the fact that Employee is or was a director or officer of the Company or any affiliate of the Company. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Company shall advance to Employee expenses of defending any such action, claim or proceeding. However, Company shall not indemnify Employee or defend Employee against, or hold him harmless from any claims, damages, liabilities or expenses, including attorneys' fees, resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Employee. The duty to indemnify described in this section shall survive the expiration or early termination of this Agreement as to any claims based on facts or conditions which occurred or are alleged to have occurred prior to such expiration or termination.

22. Attorneys' Fees. If any action at law or in equity is necessary to enforce or interpret the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses in addition to any other relief to which that party may be entitled.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement on the dates set forth below.
