Item 1. Business

OVERVIEW

Vertrue Incorporated ("Vertrue" or the "Company") is a leading consumer services marketing company. The Company offers both subscription and transaction based services focused on meeting consumer needs in large spending categories - healthcare, personal property, discounts, security and insurance and personals. The Company's service offerings provide consumers everyday savings, event-oriented discounts, benefits that provide the consumer with peace of mind and access to information and opportunities for self-enrichment.

Vertrue operates a group of businesses that have a diverse mix of product offerings that reach consumers through direct marketing efforts. Vertrue markets its services through inbound call marketing, internet marketing, television and newspaper advertising, outbound telemarketing and direct mail. Over the last three years, Vertrue has increased its use of the internet to market, deliver and service its customers. During 2005, revenues before deferral generated through internet marketing efforts were 29% of total revenues before deferral. Looking ahead to 2006, Vertrue expects the internet channel to continue to grow.

The Company has two reportable business segments: Marketing Services, formerly known as the Membership segment, and Personals. The Marketing Services business segment provides discounted products and services to consumers on a subscription basis. The Personals business segment provides both web-based and phone-based personals services to its customers.

The Company was incorporated in 1989 in Delaware under the name Cardmember Publishing Corporation. On October 17, 1996, the Company completed an initial public offering of its stock and changed its name to MemberWorks Incorporated. On October 13, 2004, the Company began doing business as Vertrue Incorporated and on November 18, 2004, shareholders approved an amendment to the Company's charter formally changing its name to Vertrue Incorporated. The name change was intended to reflect the ever-broadening base of services that the Company offers to its customers.

MARKETING SERVICES SEGMENT

The Marketing Services segment designs membership programs that provide consumers everyday savings, event-oriented discounts, benefits that provide consumers with peace of mind and access to information. The membership programs provide substantial benefits to members, clients and vendors. Members benefit by receiving an array of programs and services in the categories of healthcare, personal property, discounts, security and insurance. Clients benefit from the increased revenue stream that partnering with Vertrue generates or by strengthening the loyalty of their customer base. Vendors benefit by obtaining access to a large number of demographically attractive consumers with minimal incremental marketing costs.

When consumers agree to enroll in a program, they generally receive a trial membership. During this time, the member may use the program's services without obligation, as outlined in the marketing solicitation. Membership materials, which include a membership brochure and a membership card with a membership identification number, are either mailed or emailed to the member during the trial period. The brochure outlines in detail the benefits offered and contains a toll-free number and a website address, which may be used to access membership benefits and information. In the event that a member elects not to participate in the membership program, he or she can call a toll-free number or log on to the website during the trial period to cancel the service without incurring any additional charges. Trial memberships are generally for a period ranging from 7 to 30 days and there are no conditions with respect to the ability of the consumer to terminate a trial membership.

If the membership is not canceled during the trial period, the member is charged the annual or monthly membership fee, depending upon the applicable payment plan offered. Annual members who do not cancel their memberships after the initial one year membership term receive a renewal notice in advance of each membership year and are charged for the succeeding year's membership fee. During the course of an initial annual membership term or renewal term, a member may cancel his or her membership in the program generally for a pro rata refund of the membership fee based on the remaining portion of the membership period at the time of the cancellation. Monthly members are billed each month after the trial period ends and continue to be billed each month until the member cancels. During 2005, approximately 85% of the Marketing Services segments' new member enrollments were in a monthly payment program. Membership fees vary depending upon the particular services offered in the membership program. The Marketing Services segment had approximately 5.7 million members as of June 30, 2005.

Membership service programs are also delivered through loyalty arrangements with client partners. The Marketing Services segment works with its clients to incorporate elements from one or more of the standard membership programs and designs a custom program for the client. The client then either provides the customized membership program to its customers as a value-added feature or resells the customized membership program. In some cases, the client provides loyalty memberships to its customers free of charge and pays the periodic membership fee for each customer's membership. In other cases, the client charges a reduced fee to its customer. Under these loyalty programs, the Marketing Services segment does not pay for the marketing costs to solicit memberships. Instead, the client offering the memberships is responsible for the marketing.

Products. The Marketing Services segment partners with leading, brand name merchants and service companies to offer members valuable packages of members-only benefits. Programs are available in English, French and Spanish and can be customized for specific clients, customer segments or consumer communities. Membership programs are packaged around popular spending categories and offer potential savings greater than the program fee. The membership programs fall into the four consumer spending categories described below.

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

Healthcare

Health, wellness and self-improvement programs offer savings on nearly every healthcare product and service, including prescription drugs, vitamins and supplements, eye glasses and contact lenses, hearing aides, durable medical equipment and select consumer products. These programs also offer discounts on professional services, including medical, dental, vision, hearing, chiropractic, alternative medicine, elder care, diet, exercise and other personal health services. These programs offer real solutions for the uninsured and underinsured.

Personal Property

Personal property programs offer consumers online access to listings of discounted homes and autos. Members also have access to complementary services such as a mortgage center, roadside assistance, lemon checker and extended warranties.

Security and Insurance

Security and insurance programs offer discounts on products and services that enhance the consumer's sense of security and well being. These programs provide access to services that help manage privacy and protection, including identity theft insurance, credit card registration and credit reporting, scoring and monitoring. Insurance programs offer competitively priced insurance products, including life, supplemental health, accidental death, short-term and long-term disability, warranty and identity theft insurance coverage. Other program benefits include 24-hour protection services, roadside assistance and financial, tax and retirement consultation services.

Discounts

Discount programs offer exclusive access to members-only savings with leading brand name merchants covering a wide range of consumer spending categories, including travel, transportation, entertainment, dining, shopping, home improvement and small business. Savings are available through discounted gift cards, coupons, promotion codes and rebates.

The Company's loyalty programs provide clients with a wide range of benefits to offer or market to their customers and include stand-alone benefits, reward point accumulation and management, gift certificates, merchandise and travel reward redemption. The Marketing Services segment's versatility in designing loyalty strategies and providing turnkey execution is essential in supporting and promoting the client's brand.

Vendors. The Marketing Services segment has established a large network of vendor relationships that deliver the discounts and services in each of the various membership programs. The Marketing Services segment evaluates and engages only those vendors who can cost-effectively deliver high quality products and services. Participating vendors generally benefit by obtaining access to a large number of demographically attractive consumers with minimal incremental marketing costs. Specifically, vendors gain access and marketing exposure to the Marketing Services' membership base, and in almost all cases, pursuant to contractual arrangements, provide members-only discounts on products or services. The Marketing Services segment generally does not receive payments from these vendors for rendering services to the members and, in certain cases, it pays the vendors a fee based on the number of members in the membership program or based on other agreed upon factors.

Contracts with vendors are generally for one year or more with subsequent one-year renewal terms at Vertrue's option. In most cases, vendors may cancel contracts only for cause and subject to notice provisions that provide the Marketing Services segment time to locate a substitute vendor. Most vendor contracts are non-exclusive and require vendors to maintain the confidentiality of the contract terms.

Marketing and Distribution. The Marketing Services segment solicits members for its programs using direct marketing methods, including inbound call marketing, referred to as MemberLink, online marketing, newspaper and magazine advertising, television advertising, direct mail and outbound telemarketing.

MemberLink inbound call marketing occurs when clients' inbound callers who meet certain criteria are offered membership programs by the client's service representative or by a Marketing Services membership service representative through a call transfer. Vertrue pays the client either a royalty for initial and renewal membership fees or a fee per marketing offer or per sale.

Online marketing is conducted through arrangements with internet service providers, online retailers and online marketers. The marketing methods include banner ads, pop-up boxes and search engine marketing. The Marketing Services segment buys advertising or pays a royalty on membership fees generated or a fee per impression or per sale. The Marketing Services segment also makes use of affiliate marketing. New members sign up for membership programs by clicking through to the Marketing Services segment's websites through links posted on affiliate partner websites.

Clients. Membership programs are marketed, in many cases, through arrangements with clients, which include banks and other financial institutions, e-commerce companies, direct response television companies, catalog companies, retailers and other organizations with large numbers of individual customers. These companies have outsourced the implementation of membership programs to providers, such as Vertrue, that are able to apply advanced database systems to capture, process and store consumer and market information, use their experience to provide effective membership programs and realize economies of scale. In addition, businesses that outsource their membership programs demand that the program provider have the expertise to continue to introduce innovative new programs and have resources, such as extensive vendor networks and an experienced management team, to launch membership programs quickly and successfully. Clients receive royalty payments in exchange for providing new members or access to potential members.

The Marketing Services segment's clients supply substantially all the information for marketing efforts in accordance with strict consumer privacy safeguards. As a result, the ability to market a new program to an existing customer base or an existing program to a new customer base may depend on first obtaining the client's approval.

Contracts with clients typically grant the Marketing Services segment the right to indefinitely continue to provide membership services directly to the clients' account holders even if the client terminates its contract. Many client contracts may be terminated by the client upon 30 to 90 days notice without cause and without penalty.

Membership programs sponsored by the Company's largest client, West Corporation, accounted for 14% of total revenues for the year ended June 30, 2005. A loss of this client could have a material effect on the Company's results of operations.

Member Service. Providing high quality service to members is an extremely important factor in retaining members and strengthening the affinity of the clients' customers. Currently membership call centers are located in Montreal, Canada, Goleta, California, Houston, Texas, Omaha, Nebraska and Chicago, Illinois, with a total of over 1,300 membership service representatives. All new membership service representatives are required to attend on-the-job training. Through its training programs, systems and software, the Marketing Services segment seeks to provide members with friendly, rapid and effective answers to members' questions. Members can access their benefits 24 hours a day via the program's website or automated telephone response technology. The Marketing Services segment also works closely with its clients' customer service personnel to ensure that their representatives are knowledgeable in matters relating to the membership programs.

Technology. The Marketing Services segment has invested substantially in new technology, including data warehousing and mining capabilities, and various Internet applications which work together to allow the Company to effectively and efficiently market its services to members. New member information is received from clients daily and from internet customers immediately. That information is maintained on core infrastructure systems that drive information constantly to the customer service platform ("CRM"), fulfillment, billing and data warehousing systems. This allows for rapid fulfillment of member information kits as well as other benefits. All membership information is maintained on a state-of-the-art CRM system, which allows extremely responsive targeted call center interactions. Vertrue receives confirmation of billing data from merchant processors on a regular basis, permitting Vertrue to update the status of each member, including member profile information.

In providing quality service to its members, the management information systems interact with the Company's advanced call routing system in order to display member profile information prior to answering the call, allowing membership service representatives to have the best possible information prior to serving those members. The telecommunications systems also monitor the performance quality of the membership service representatives and other aspects of business through sophisticated reporting capabilities.

In addition, the Marketing Services segment has increased its use of the data warehousing capabilities to review, analyze and model the membership base to optimize service and to market additional products most appropriate for each member.

Competition. The Marketing Services segment believes that the principal competitive factors in the membership services industry include the ability to identify, develop and offer innovative programs, the quality and breadth of programs offered, competitive prices and in-house marketing expertise. Competitors offer programs which provide services similar to or compete directly with those provided by the Marketing Services segment. Some of these competitors have substantially larger customer bases and greater financial and other resources. To date, the Marketing Services segment has effectively competed with such competitors. However, there can be no assurance that competitors will not increase their emphasis on programs similar to those offered by the Marketing Services segment; provide programs comparable or superior to those provided by the Marketing Services segment at lower membership prices; adapt more quickly to evolving industry trends or changing market requirements; or that new competitors will not enter the market or that other businesses will not introduce competing programs. Such increased competition may result in price reductions, reduced marketing margins or loss of market share, any of which could materially adversely affect the segment's business, financial condition and results of operations. Additionally, because contracts between clients and program providers are often exclusive with respect to a particular service, potential clients may be prohibited from contracting with the Marketing Services segment to promote a program if the services are similar to or overlap the services provided by an existing program of a competitor.

PERSONALS SEGMENT

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

The Personals segment consists of the Lavalife business. Lavalife offers web-based and phone-based personals services to its customers. Lavalife's open-minded approach to dating allows members to choose how they want to "click with other singles" by offering different dating communities including dating, relationships and intimate encounters. These services allow customers to interact with each other from anywhere in real time by phone, email, text chat or video. To acquire new users and retain existing customers, Lavalife relies on its innovative products, marketing relationships with major media groups, advertising campaigns in large markets, a widely recognized brand name and an advanced technology infrastructure. These interactive services allow customers who want to enhance their social lives to search for a date, meet new people and communicate with other customers in a real time, "Anywhere," "Anytime" and "Anyhow" environment.

Lavalife employs a transactional business model, in which customers buy non-refundable credits up front and spend those credits only when they want to interact with other customers. Lavalife's competitors generally employ a subscription business model, in which customers pay a fixed periodic fee. Lavalife believes a transactional model is more attractive to new customers, who will join due to a lower initial cost and the ability to easily control their spending. The customer determines when to use the credits to communicate with other customers. Furthermore, once a customer has an account balance, the customer has a strong financial incentive to return to use the remaining credits. To further develop brand loyalty and to encourage return visits, Lavalife continues to add features and functionality to its existing service offerings and introduce new innovative interactive products. Lavalife continues to employ new distribution channels, recently expanding the distribution of its phone-product by marketing it through mobile carriers.

Lavalife utilizes an integrated network to support both its phone and web operations. The Lavalife infrastructure for both the IVR and the web is built on state of the art, industry standard, high capacity technology designed to support the significant level of member interaction and a quality experience. The technology supports such high demand features as live chat, voice messaging, quick response searches for "who's online now" and instant messaging. The network operations center, located in Toronto, Canada, allows the personals business to scale both its web and phone operations, as well as support text messaging operations, with full remote management capabilities for all services.

The personals business is very competitive and highly fragmented. Primary competitors of the various brands that comprise personals include numerous online and offline dating and matchmaking services (both free and paid), some of which operate nationwide and some of which operate locally, and the personals sections of newspapers and magazines. In addition to broad-based personals services, there are numerous niche websites and offline personals services that cater to specific demographic groups.

ACQUISITIONS

On January 1, 2005, the Company completed the acquisition of certain of the assets of My Choice Medical Holdings, Inc. ("MCM"), a privately held advertising and practice management company serving cosmetic surgeons throughout the United States. The Company acquired certain of the assets of MCM in order to expand its consumer offerings to include cosmetic surgery. The results of MCM have been included in the Corporate and Other business unit.

On November 30, 2004, the Company completed the acquisition of certain of the assets of Bargain Network, Inc. ("Bargain"), a privately held provider of premier pricing services for homes and vehicles. The Company acquired certain of the assets of Bargain in order to expand its direct to consumer marketing presence and to expand its discounted consumer offerings to include personal property. The results of Bargain have been included in the Marketing Services segment.

GOVERNMENT REGULATION

The Company markets its products and services through various distribution channels including internet, print, direct mail and telemarketing. These channels are regulated at both the state and federal levels and the Company believes that these marketing methods may increasingly be subject to such regulation, particularly in the area of consumer privacy. Regulations may limit the Company's ability to solicit new members or to offer one or more products or services to existing members. The telemarketing industry has become subject to an increasing amount of federal and state regulation. For example, the Federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 limits the hours during which telemarketers may call consumers and prohibits the use of automated telephone dialing equipment to call certain telephone numbers. Additionally, the Federal Telemarketing and Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act of 1994 and Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") regulations, including the Telemarketing Sales Rule, as amended, promulgated thereunder, prohibit deceptive, unfair or abusive practices in telemarketing sales. Both the FTC and state attorneys general have authority to prevent marketing activities deemed by them to be "unfair or deceptive acts or practices." Further, some states have enacted laws and others are considering enacting laws targeted directly at regulating telemarketing and/or internet marketing practices, and there can be no assurance that any such laws, if enacted, will not adversely affect or limit the Company's current or future operations. Compliance with these regulations is generally the responsibility of the Company, and the Company could be subject to a variety of enforcement and/or private actions for any failure to comply with such regulations. The Company's provision of products and services requires the Company to comply with certain state regulations, changes in which could materially increase the Company's operating costs associated with complying with such regulations. Noncompliance with any rules and regulations enforced by a federal or state consumer protection authority may subject the Company or its management to fines or various forms of civil or criminal prosecution, any of which could have a material adverse affect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations. Also, the media often publicizes perceived noncompliance with consumer protection regulations and violations of notions of fair dealing with consumers that make the membership programs industry susceptible to peremptory charges of regulatory noncompliance and unfair dealing by the media.

The Company currently maintains rigorous security and quality controls that are intended to ensure that all of its marketing practices meet or exceed industry standards and all applicable state and federal laws and regulations. The Company only collects and maintains customer data that is necessary to administer its business activities, such as a customer's name, address and encrypted billing information and only public information is used for marketing and modeling purposes, such as demographic, neighborhood and lifestyle data. The Company neither resells any confidential consumer information that is obtained or derived in its marketing efforts nor purchases consumer information from financial or other institutions.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION ABOUT SEGMENTS AND GEOGRAPHIC AREAS

See Note 18 to the consolidated financial statements in Item 8 of this Annual Report on Form 10-K for financial information about geographic areas.

EMPLOYEES

As of June 30, 2005, the Company employed 1,505 persons on a full-time basis and 776 on a part-time basis. The Company's employees are not represented by a labor union. The Company believes its employee relations are good.

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

Item 2. Properties

A summary of key information with respect to the Company's leased facilities is as follows:

Location	Square Footage	Year Lease Expires
Omaha, NE	124,832	2009 through 2015
Toronto, Canada	73,929	2009
Goleta, CA	66,251	2006
Stamford, CT	63,559	2006
Montreal, Canada	48,193	2011
Houston, TX	41,591	2006
Chicago, IL	15,218	2010
Atlanta, GA	13,717	2005
Stroudsburg, PA	9,500	2008

The Stamford, Connecticut office serves as the Company's corporate headquarters and also includes non-corporate offices for the Marketing Services segment. The Toronto, Canada office serves as the operational office for the Personals segment. All other locations serve as operational offices for the Marketing Services segment. The Company believes that its properties are generally in good condition, are well maintained and are suitable and adequate to carry on its business. Vertrue recently signed a lease effective March 1, 2006 to relocate its Stamford, CT offices to Norwalk, CT.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

In management's opinion, there are no significant legal proceedings to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or to which any of their properties is subject except as set forth below. The Company is involved in other lawsuits and claims generally incidental to its business, including but not limited to various suits, including previously disclosed suits, brought against the Company by individual consumers seeking monetary and/or injunctive relief relating to the marketing of the Company's programs. In addition, from time to time in the regular course of its business the Company receives inquiries from various federal and/or state regulatory authorities.

In March 2001, an action was instituted by plaintiff Teresa McClain against Coverdell & Company ("Coverdell"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, Monumental Life Insurance Company and other defendants in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, Southern Division. The suit, which sought unspecified monetary damages, alleged that Coverdell and the other defendants violated the Michigan Consumer Protection Act and other applicable Michigan laws in connection with the marketing of Monumental Life Insurance Company insurance products. The Court certified a class of Michigan residents. The Court approved the settlement agreement, which was signed by all parties, at a Fairness/Approval hearing on November 22, 2004 and the Company was not required to make any payment.

On January 24, 2003, the Company filed a motion with the Superior Court for the Judicial District of Hartford, Connecticut to vacate and oppose the confirmation of an arbitration award issued in December 2002. The arbitration, filed against the Company by MedValUSA Health Programs, Inc. ("MedVal") in September 2000, involved claims of breach of contract, breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing, and violation of the Connecticut Unfair Trade Practices Act ("CUTPA"). Even though the arbitrators found that the Company was not liable to MedVal for any compensatory damages, they awarded $5.5 million in punitive damages and costs against the Company solely under CUTPA. The Company believes that this arbitration award was unjustified and not based on any existing legal precedent. Specifically, the Company challenged the award on a number of grounds, including that it violated a well-defined public policy against excessive punitive damage awards, raised constitutional issues and disregarded certain legal requirements for a valid award under CUTPA. On June 22, 2003, the Superior Court denied the Company's motion to vacate the award and on May 10, 2005, the Connecticut Supreme Court denied the Company's appeal of that decision. As a result of the Connecticut Supreme Court's decision, the Company recorded a one-time $5.5 million charge in the June 2005 quarter. The Company has requested the U.S. Supreme Court to review the Connecticut Supreme Court's decision. However, there can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in its efforts.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

OVERVIEW

The Company is a leading consumer services marketing company. The Company offers both subscription and transaction based services focused on meeting consumer needs in large spending categories - healthcare, personal property, discounts, security and insurance and personals. The Company's service offerings provide consumers everyday savings, event-oriented discounts, benefits that provide the consumer with peace of mind and access to information and opportunities for self-enrichment. The Company's loyalty programs provide clients with a wide range of benefits to offer or market to their customers and include stand-alone benefits, reward point accumulation and management, gift certificates, merchandise and travel reward redemption.

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

The Company has two reportable business segments: Marketing Services, formerly known as the Membership segment, and Personals. For additional financial information about these reportable business segments, see Note 18 to the consolidated financial statements in Item 8 of this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The Marketing Services segment offers consumers a variety of products and services from selected vendors and service providers on an annual or monthly subscription basis or a fee for service basis. Revenues are derived principally from recurring fees which are billed to the member on either an annual or monthly basis. In the case of annually billed membership fees, the Company receives full payment at or near the beginning of the membership period, but recognizes the revenues as the member's refund privilege expires. Membership fees that are billed monthly are recognized when earned. Revenues derived from one time fees are recognized when the service is performed.

The Personals segment employs a transactional business model in which users buy non-refundable credits up front and spend those credits only when they want to interact with other customers. Personals revenues are recognized when the services are used.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Critical accounting policies are those policies that are important to the Company's financial condition and results of operations and involve subjective or complex judgments on the part of management, often as a result of the need to make estimates. The following areas require the use of judgments and estimates: revenue recognition, deferred marketing costs, valuation of goodwill and other intangible assets, estimation of remaining useful lives of intangible assets and valuation of deferred tax assets. Estimates in each of these areas are based on historical experience and various assumptions that management believes are appropriate. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Management believes the areas listed above represent the critical accounting policies of the Company as contemplated by Financial Reporting Release No. 60, "Cautionary Advice Regarding Disclosure about Critical Accounting Policies." For a summary of all the Company's significant accounting policies, see Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements in Item 8 of this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Revenue recognition

Revenues are billed primarily through credit and debit cards and are recognized when earned. Members may cancel their memberships at any time. Members enrolled in an annual payment plan who cancel their memberships receive a pro rata refund of the remaining unused portion of their membership fees. In accordance with Staff Accounting Bulletin 104, "Revenue Recognition" ("SAB 104"), revenues, net of estimated cancellations, are deferred and recognized as revenues when membership refund privileges expire. Management establishes and regularly updates the allowance for membership cancellations. In estimating the allowance for membership cancellations, management analyzes historical cancellation experience, current economic trends and changes in customer demand for the Company's products and services. Actual membership refunds are charged against the allowance for membership cancellations on a current basis. If actual cancellations differ from the estimate, the results of operations would be impacted. The Personals segment employs a transactional business model in which users buy non-refundable credits up front and spend those credits only when they want to interact with other customers. Personals revenues are recognized when the services are used.

Edgar Filing: VERTRIE INC - Form 10-K

Marketing expenses

Marketing expenses are comprised of refundable royalty payments, non-refundable royalty payments, advertising costs, telemarketing costs and direct mail costs. Advertising costs and non-refundable royalty payments, which include fee per offer, fee per sale and fee per impression marketing arrangements, are expensed when incurred. Refundable royalty payments are charged to operations as the associated revenues are recognized in accordance with SAB 104. Telemarketing costs, including costs for third party vendors to solicit members for the Company, and direct mail costs, including costs of printing and mailing direct mail pieces, are deferred direct response advertising costs and are charged to marketing expenses over the expected future benefit period in accordance with American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement of Position 93-7, "Reporting on Advertising Costs" ("SOP 93-7").

Deferred marketing costs to enroll a new member are less than the related estimated total net revenues. However, if deferred marketing costs were to exceed the related estimated total net revenues, management would adjust the deferred marketing costs for that impairment.

Valuation of goodwill and other intangibles

The Company reviews the carrying value of its goodwill and other intangible assets and assesses the estimated remaining useful lives of its intangible assets in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Statement No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS 142").

11

Management reviews goodwill and other intangible assets for impairment by comparing their carrying values to their fair values at least annually or more frequently if circumstances indicate possible impairment. When determining fair value, management utilizes various assumptions, including projections of future cash flows. A change in the underlying assumptions could cause fair value to be less than carrying value and require the Company to record a corresponding charge against operations. Management tested goodwill for impairment at July 1, 2004, 2003 and 2002 during the quarters ended September 30, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively, and concluded that it was not impaired as of July 1, 2004, 2003 or 2002. Management also reassessed the estimated useful lives of its indefinite lived intangible assets and determined that they were appropriate.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under the provisions of FASB Statement No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Management assesses the realizability of deferred tax assets considering various assumptions, including estimates of future taxable income and ongoing tax strategies. A change in these underlying assumptions could impact the results of operations.

The Company operates in two reportable business segments: Marketing Services, formerly known as the Membership segment, and Personals. The Marketing Services reportable business segment provides discounted products and services to consumers. The Personals reportable business segment provides both web-based and phone-based personals services to its customers. The Corporate and Other business unit includes the results of MCM as well as unallocated general corporate expenses.

The results of MCM, Bargain and Lavalife (the "acquired companies") have been included in the consolidated results since their acquisitions on January 1, 2005, November 30, 2004 and April 1, 2004, respectively.

Revenues

Revenues increased 19% in 2005 due to the inclusion of revenues from the acquired companies. During 2005, Vertrue increased direct to consumer marketing efforts in order to provide additional growth opportunities and a more diverse business model. Vertrue decreased its level of marketing with certain client partners in the outbound telemarketing channel. Vertrue's member and customer base was 6.3 million at the end of 2005 versus 6.2 million at the end of 2004.

In 2004, revenues increased 7% primarily due to the effect of the acquisition of Lavalife. Excluding the impact of the acquisition of Lavalife, revenues would have increased 3% primarily due to an increase in the weighted average program price point per member.

Marketing expenses

Marketing expenses increased 12% in 2005 primarily due to the inclusion of marketing expenses incurred by the acquired companies. As a percentage of revenues, marketing expenses were 49% in 2005 compared to 52% in 2004. Marketing expenses decreased as a percentage of revenues primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel and the effect of the lower marketing expense ratios of the acquired companies.

In 2004, marketing expenses decreased 9% and, as a percentage of revenues, decreased to 52% from 61% in 2003. These decreases were primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel.

Operating expenses

Operating expenses increased 25% in 2005 and, as a percentage of revenues, operating expenses increased to 20% in 2005 from 19% in 2004. These increases were primarily due to the effect of the higher operating expense ratios of the acquired companies.

In 2004, operating expenses increased 17% and, as a percentage of revenues, were 19% in 2004 compared to 17% in 2003. These increases were primarily due to increased member service call center related costs incurred to improve the value and quality of services offered to the membership base.

General and administrative expenses

General and administrative expenses increased 26% in 2005 and, as a percentage of revenues, were 19% in 2005 compared to 18% in 2004. These increases were primarily due to the impact of the acquired companies. General and administrative expenses increased 16% in 2004 and, as a percentage of revenues, were 18% in 2004 compared to 16% in 2003. These increases were primarily due to increased employee related expenses and the impact of the acquisition of Lavalife.

Charge for arbitration award

In 2005, the Company recorded a $5.5 million charge related to an arbitration award against the Company. For additional information, see Item 3 "Legal Proceedings" in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Amortization of intangibles

The increase in amortization of intangible assets during 2005 and 2004 was due to the acquisitions that occurred during those years.

Operating income

Operating income increased 8% in 2005 due to the impact of the acquired companies and the decrease in marketing expense ratios. As a percentage of revenues, marketing expenses were 49% in 2005 compared to 52% in 2004. Marketing expenses decreased as a percentage of revenues primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel and the effect of the lower marketing expense ratios of the acquired companies. These increases were partially offset by the impact of the $5.5 million charge for the arbitration award.

In 2004, operating income increased 137% primarily due to a decrease in marketing expense as a percentage of revenues. As a percentage of revenues, marketing expenses were 52% in 2004 compared to 61% in 2003 primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel.

Interest expense, net

Interest expense, net in 2005 included $14.3 million related to the 9.25% Senior Notes and $5.0 million related to the 5.5% Convertible Notes. The increase in interest expense, net in 2005 was due to a full year of interest expense related to the 9.25% Senior Notes issued in April 2004 and the 5.5% Convertible Notes issued in September 2003. In addition to the increase in interest expense, interest income earned in 2005 decreased due to lower short-term investment balances. The decrease in short-term investments was due to acquisitions of businesses and purchases of treasury stock.

The increase in interest expense, net in 2004 was due to interest expense related to the 5.5% Convertible Notes and the 9.25% Senior Notes. For additional information on these debt issuances, refer to Item 7 "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition - Liquidity and Capital Resources" in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Settlement of investment related litigation

In 2003, the Company, along with certain of the other former shareholders of iPlace, Inc., settled their lawsuit against Homestore.com, Inc. The total settlement amount in favor of the plaintiffs was $23.0 million of which the Company received $19.1 million.

Loss on sale of subsidiary

In 2003, the Company settled with Homestore.com, Inc. all issues pending related to amounts held in escrow in connection with the 2002 sale of the Company's investment in iPlace, Inc. The Company recorded a net loss of $1.0 million related to this settlement in 2003.

Net loss on investment

In 2003, the Company sold all of its Homestore.com, Inc. common stock and recognized a loss of $0.2 million.

Provision for income taxes

In 2005, 2004 and 2003, the Company recorded provisions for income taxes of $13.4 million, $18.6 million and $16.2 million, respectively, based on effective tax rates of 34.4%, 40% and 40%, respectively. The effective tax rate in 2005 decreased from the prior year as a result of the full year impact of the acquisition of Lavalife. The effective tax rate was higher than the U.S. federal statutory rate in 2004 and 2003 due to state tax expense and other non-deductible items. As of June 30, 2005 and 2004, the Company had accumulated federal net operating loss carry forwards of $1.5 million and $6.5 million, respectively.

EBITDA Measures

EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are used by the Company's management and its investors to evaluate the performance of its business. A description and reconciliation of EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are disclosed in Item 7 "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition - Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Measures" of this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

EBITDA increased 20% in 2005 to $78.7 million and, as a percentage of revenues, EBITDA increased to 14% in 2005 from 13% in 2004. These increases were due to the impact of the acquired companies and improved marketing margins. As a percentage of revenues, marketing expenses decreased to 49% in 2005 from 52% in 2004 primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel and the effect of the lower marketing expense ratios of the acquired companies. These increases were partially offset by the impact of the $5.5 million charge for the arbitration award.

EBITDA increased 90% in 2004 to $65.4 million and, as a percentage of revenues, EBITDA increased to 13% in 2004 from 8% in 2003. These increases were due to a decrease in marketing expenses as a percentage of revenue from 61% in 2003 to 52% in 2004 primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel.

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

Adjusted EBITDA decreased 2% in 2005 to $57.2 million and, as a percentage of revenues before deferral, adjusted EBITDA decreased to 10% in 2005 from 13% in 2004. These decreases were due to the increase in the mix of revenue from monthly payment plans and the impact of the $5.5 million charge for the arbitration award partially offset by the impact of the acquired companies.

Adjusted EBITDA increased 25% in 2004 to $58.6 million and, as a percentage of revenues before deferral, adjusted EBITDA increased to 13% in 2005 from 11% in 2004. These increases were due to an increase in revenues before deferral of 9% while marketing costs before deferral remained flat. This improvement was primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel.

Marketing Services Segment

Revenues

Revenues increased 4% in 2005 and net active members increased 2% to 5.7 million as of June 30, 2005 due to the inclusion of revenues and members from Bargain. During 2005, the Marketing Services segment increased direct to consumer marketing efforts in order to provide additional growth opportunities and a more diverse business model. In addition, the Marketing Services segment decreased its level of marketing with certain client partners in the outbound telemarketing channel.

Revenues increased 3% in 2004 primarily due to an increase in the weighted average program price point per member. Net active members decreased 11% in 2004 to 5.6 million primarily due to a decrease in marketing efforts in 2004. Revenues in 2003 benefited from the completion of the migration of members that participate in a full-money-back refund policy program to a pro rata refund policy program.

The mix of new members enrolled in a monthly payment plan was approximately 85%, 62% and 27% in 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. Revenues from members enrolled in different payment plans are summarized below (dollars in millions):

	For the years ended June 30,			Percent Increase/(Decrease)
	2005	2004	2003	'05 vs. '04	'04 vs. '03

Operating income

Operating income increased 12% in 2005 primarily due to a 4% increase in revenues while marketing expenses increased 1%. Marketing expenses were $251.1 million in 2005 versus $248.9 million in 2004 and, as a percentage of revenues, marketing expenses were 51% in 2005 versus 53% in 2004. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel.

Operating income increased 83% in 2004 primarily due to a 3% increase in revenues while marketing expenses decreased 11%. Marketing expenses were $248.9 million in 2004 versus $280.7 million in 2003 and, as a percentage of revenues, marketing expenses were 53% in 2004 versus 61% in 2003. These decreases were primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel. The decrease in members enrolled through the outbound telemarketing channel was not completely offset by an increase in the level of members enrolled through the Company's more profitable online and MemberLink channels. Operating income was reduced by an increase in operating expenses. Operating expenses increased 12% in 2004 and, as a percentage of revenues, were 19% in 2004 and 17% in 2003 primarily due to increased member service call center related costs incurred to improve the value and quality of services offered to the membership base.

EBITDA

EBITDA increased 11% in 2005 to $96.5 million and, as a percentage of revenues, EBITDA increased to 20% in 2005 from 18% in 2004. These increases were primarily due to a 4% increase in revenues while marketing expenses only increased 1%. Marketing expenses were 51% in 2005 versus 53% in 2004. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel.

In 2004, EBITDA increased 61% to $86.7 million and, as a percentage of revenues, EBITDA increased to 18% in 2004 from 12% in 2003. These increases were primarily due to a decrease in marketing expenses of 11% combined with a 3% increase in revenues offset by an increase in operating expenses. Marketing expenses as a percentage of revenues were 53% in 2004 compared to 61% in 2003. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel. In 2004, EBITDA increased 61% while operating income increased 83% due to a $1.8 million decrease in depreciation expenses.

Adjusted EBITDA

Adjusted EBITDA decreased 8% in 2005 to $74.0 million and, as a percentage of revenues before deferral, adjusted EBITDA was 16% in 2005 compared to 18% in 2004. These decreases were due to a 6% increase in marketing costs before deferral while revenue before deferral increased only 3%. As a percentage of revenue before deferral, marketing costs before deferral was 52% in 2005 and 51% in 2004 due to the increase in the mix of revenue from monthly payment plans.

Adjusted EBITDA increased 22% in 2004 to $80.5 million and, as a percentage of revenues before deferral, adjusted EBITDA was 18% in 2004 compared to 16% in 2003. These increases were primarily due to an increase in revenues before deferral of 5% while marketing costs before deferral decreased 3%. The improvement in the marketing margin was primarily due to the decrease in the level and mix of members enrolled through the higher cost outbound telemarketing channel.

Personals Segment

Revenues

Revenues were $72.1 million in 2005 and represent the revenues of Lavalife, which was acquired by the Company on April 1, 2004. On a pro forma basis assuming the acquisition of Lavalife occurred on July 1, 2003, revenues would have remained flat from fiscal 2004. There were approximately 0.6 million active customers as of June 30, 2005, which was also flat from June 30, 2004.

Operating income

The operating loss was $3.1 million in 2005 and included $5.2 million of intangible amortization expense related to the acquisition. On a pro forma basis assuming the acquisition of Lavalife occurred on July 1, 2003, operating income would have been $0.7 million in 2004. The decrease from fiscal 2004 was primarily due to increased employee related expenses.

EBITDA

EBITDA was $6.2 million in 2005 and, as a percentage of revenue was 9%. On a pro forma basis assuming the acquisition of Lavalife occurred on July 1, 2003, EBITDA would have been $9.9 million in 2004. The decrease from fiscal 2004 was primarily due to increased employee related expenses.

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

Adjusted EBITDA

Adjusted EBITDA was $6.3 million in 2005 and, as a percentage of revenue was 9%. On a pro forma basis assuming the acquisition of Lavalife occurred on July 1, 2003, adjusted EBITDA would have been $10.3 million in 2004. The decrease from fiscal 2004 pro forma adjusted EBITDA was primarily due to increased employee related expenses.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Net cash flow provided by operating activities is an important measure used to understand the Company's liquidity. Management believes it is useful to analyze the components of net cash provided by operating activities as follows: Revenues before deferral, marketing costs before deferral, operating expenses, general and administrative expenses, interest paid, current taxes payable and changes in assets and liabilities. For definitions and reconciliations of revenues before deferral and marketing costs before deferral see "Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Measures" in Item 7 "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition - Liquidity and Capital Resources" in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $32.3 million, $47.9 million and $48.5 million for the years ended June 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

The table below summarizes the components of revenues before deferral for the years ended June 30 (in millions):

Revenues before deferral	2005	2004	2003
	-----	-----	-----
Monthly payment plans	$ 255.8	$ 166.3	$ 76.9
Annual payment plans:
Initial year	40.3	78.2	149.4
Renewal year	127.7	167.7	165.0
Personals	72.2	17.1	-
Other	48.9	27.1	26.6
	-----	-----	-----
Total	$ 544.9	$ 456.4	$ 417.9

Revenues before deferral increased 19% to $544.9 million in 2005 and increased 9% to $456.5 million in 2004 primarily due to the inclusion of revenues before deferral from the acquired companies. Excluding revenues before deferral from the acquired companies, revenues before deferral would have decreased 1% in 2005 and increased 5% in 2004. The decrease in 2005 is primarily due to the effect of an increase in the marketing of monthly payment programs. In 2005, 2004 and 2003, the mix of new members enrolled in a monthly payment plan program was approximately 85%, 62% and 27% of total members enrolled, respectively. The increase in revenues before deferral in 2004 was primarily due to an increase in the weighted average program price point per member. Monthly weighted average program price points per member were $12.61, $11.37 and $10.11 for 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. The new annual weighted average program price points per member for 2005, 2004 and 2003 were $104, $107 and $104, respectively.

Marketing costs before deferral were $273.0 million, $230.3 million and $229.3 million in 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. As a percentage of revenue before deferral, marketing costs before deferral were 50%, 50% and 55% in 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. Marketing costs before deferral increased 19% in 2005 primarily due to the inclusion of marketing costs of $52.2 million from the acquired companies. Marketing margin before deferral was $271.9 million, $226.1 million and $188.6 million for 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

The effect of the increase in marketing margin before deferral in 2005 on net cash provided by operating activities was more than offset by increased general and administrative and operating expenses primarily due to the operations of the acquired companies and increased interest costs associated with the Convertible Notes and Senior Notes. Interest paid on the Convertible Notes was $5.0 million in 2005 compared to $2.5 million in 2004. Interest paid on the Senior Notes was $13.9 million in 2005 while no payments were made in 2004. Taxes paid in 2005 and 2004 were $8.0 million and $5.6 million, respectively. The effect of the increase in marketing margin before deferral in 2004 on net cash provided by operating activities was partially offset by increased operating expenses, general and administrative expenses and net interest expense. The net changes in assets and liabilities excluding the impact of interest and taxes paid discussed above were neutral for 2006.

Net cash provided by (used in) investing activities was $16.4 million in 2005, ($237.0) million in 2004 and $7.4 million in 2003. Net cash provided by investing activities in 2005 reflected $104.6 million of net proceeds from sales of short-term investments offset by $77.2 million of cash used in connection with the Company's recent acquisitions. Net cash used in investing activities in 2004 reflected $114.9 million of cash used in connection with the acquisition of Lavalife and $115.0 million of cash used in the net purchases of short-term investments. Net cash provided by investing activities in 2003 reflected the Company's $19.1 million settlement of a lawsuit against Homestore.com, Inc. Capital expenditures were $11.0 million, $7.1 million and $5.5 million in 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Net cash (used in) provided by financing activities was ($31.7) million in 2005, $168.8 million in 2004 and ($34.2) million in 2003. Net cash used in financing activities in 2005 principally reflected the use of $41.1 million to repurchase the Company's stock, which was partially offset by proceeds from the exercise of stock options of $10.8 million. In 2004, net cash provided by financing activities principally reflected the issuance of $229.8 million in debt, net of issuance costs, proceeds from the exercise of employee stock options of $24.5 million and proceeds from the issuance of restricted stock of $9.1 million. These sources of cash were partially offset by $94.2 million of cash used to repurchase the Company's stock. In 2003, net cash used in financing activities principally reflected repurchase of the Company's stock for $37.2 million partially offset by proceeds from exercise of employee stock options of $4.1 million.

Debt Issuances

As of June 30, 2005, the Company had $240.0 million of debt outstanding. In September 2003, the Company issued $90.0 million aggregate principal amount 5.5% convertible senior subordinated notes ("Convertible Notes") due September 2010. The Convertible Notes were registered in 2004. The Convertible Notes bear interest at the rate of 5.5% per year, which is payable in cash semi-annually in arrears on April 1 and October 1. Upon a change in control, holders of the Convertible Notes may require the Company to repurchase all or part of the Convertible Notes for cash.

In April 2004, the Company issued $150.0 million aggregate principal amount of 9.25% Senior Notes due 2014. The Senior Notes were registered in 2005. The Senior Notes were sold at 98.418% of the principal amount which resulted in an effective yield of 9.5%. Interest on the Senior Notes is payable in cash semi-annually in arrears on April 1 and October 1. A portion of the proceeds from the offering of the Senior Notes was used to repay amounts borrowed under the senior secured credit facility to fund a portion of the Lavalife acquisition. The Company intends to use the remaining proceeds for general corporate purposes, including working capital, future acquisitions and repurchases of the Company's common stock under the Company's stock buyback program to the extent permitted under the indenture governing the Senior Notes and the senior secured credit facility.

Credit Facility

The Company has a senior secured credit facility, which was amended and restated on March 1, 2005 and matures on March 23, 2006, that allows borrowings of up to $45.0 million. Borrowings under the senior secured credit facility accrue interest at either the Eurodollar rate, or the higher of the Prime rate, or the Federal Funds rate plus an applicable margin. As of June 30, 2005, availability under the senior secured credit facility was reduced by an outstanding letter of credit of $5.5 million and was $39.5 million. As of June 30, 2005, the effective interest rate for borrowings under the senior secured credit facility was 6.25%. The senior secured credit facility has certain financial covenants, including a maximum debt coverage ratio, potential restrictions on additional borrowings and potential restrictions on additional stock repurchases. As of June 30, 2005, the Company was in compliance with all such debt covenants.

Stock Repurchase Program

The Company purchased 1.2 million shares of its common stock for $41.1 million at an average price of $34.92 per share during 2005 compared to 3.0 million shares for $94.2 million at an average price of $31.56 per share in 2004 and 2.0 million shares for $37.2 million at an average price of $18.67 per share in 2003. The Company utilized cash from operations, stock issuances and the issuance of the Convertible Notes and Senior Notes to repurchase shares.

During 2005, the Company's Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of 1.0 million shares of its common stock under its ongoing stock repurchase program. On November 8, 2004, the Board of Directors authorized a modified Dutch Auction self-tender offer for up to 500,000 shares of its common stock. Under the terms of the self-tender offer as approved by the Board of Directors and as set forth in the Offer to Purchase filed as an exhibit to the Company's Schedule TO filed on November 15, 2004, as amended, the Company's stockholders were given the opportunity to tender part or all of their shares to the Company at a price of not less than $33.50 per share and not more than $38.50 per share. The self-tender offer closed on January 7, 2005 with a total of 605,000 shares tendered by shareholders. The Company exercised its right, as set forth in the Offer to Purchase, to purchase the additional 105,000 shares and repurchased a total of 605,000 shares for $38.50 per share, paying a total of $23.3 million.

As of June 30, 2005, the Company had 0.8 million shares available for repurchase under its stock repurchase program.

Acquisitions

In January 2005, the Company completed the acquisition of certain of the assets of MCM, a privately held advertising and practice management company serving cosmetic surgeons throughout the United States. The purchase price, excluding fees and expenses, amounted to $33.0 million and was paid in cash on the closing date. In addition, contingent payments of up to $56.0 million may be paid in the next three years if certain performance targets, including increasing levels of revenues and earnings, are achieved over the next three calendar years.

In November 2004, the Company completed the acquisition of certain of the assets of Bargain, a privately held provider of premier pricing services for homes and vehicles. The purchase price, which excludes fees and expenses and is subject to certain purchase price adjustments, amounted to $39.1 million. The Company expects to pay approximately $14.6 million of contingent payments in the December 2005 quarter. No further contingent payments are required by the purchase agreement. In addition, the Company assumed certain liabilities amounting to $4.7 million.

In April 2004, the Company completed the acquisition of all of the net assets and outstanding capital stock of Lavalife, a leading provider of web-based and phone-based interactive personals services. The purchase price, excluding fees and expenses, was Cdn$152.5 million, or $116.3 million. In connection with this acquisition, the Company received $9.1 million related to the issuance of the Company's restricted common stock to Lavalife's senior management.

Other

As of June 30, 2005, the Company had cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments of $80.6 million in addition to its senior secured credit facility. The Company believes that existing cash and short term investment balances together with funds available under its senior secured credit facility will be sufficient to meet its funding requirements for the foreseeable future.

The Company did not have any material commitments for capital expenditures as of June 30, 2005. The Company expects to incur capital expenditures of $15.0 million in 2006. The Company intends to utilize cash on hand and cash generated from operations to fulfill capital expenditure requirements during 2006.

RECONCILIATION OF NON-GAAP MEASURES

Management believes that revenues before deferral and marketing costs before deferral are important measures of liquidity and are significant factors in understanding the Company's operating cash flow trends. These non-GAAP measures are used by management and the Company's investors to understand the liquidity trends of the Company's marketing margins related to current period operations which are reflected within the operating cash flow section of the cash flow statement. GAAP revenues and marketing expenses are important measures used to understand the marketing margins earned during the period in the income statement. However, in order to understand the Company's operating cash flow, it is important to understand the primary current period drivers of that cash flow. Two of the primary indicators of operating liquidity for the period are revenues before deferral and marketing costs before deferral. Revenues before deferral are revenues before application of SAB 104 and represent the revenues billed during the current reporting period less an allowance for membership cancellations. That is, revenues before deferral for a reporting period include membership fees received in the current reporting period that will be recorded as GAAP revenues in future reporting periods and exclude membership fees received in prior reporting periods that are recorded as GAAP revenues in the current reporting period. Marketing costs before deferral are marketing costs before the application of SAB 104 and SOP 93-7 and represent marketing costs paid or accrued during the current reporting period. That is, marketing costs before deferral for a reporting period include costs paid or accrued in the current reporting period that will be recorded as GAAP marketing expenses in future reporting periods and exclude marketing expenses paid or accrued in prior reporting periods that are recorded as GAAP marketing expenses in the current reporting period. Neither revenues before deferral nor marketing costs before deferral exclude charges or liabilities that will require cash settlement. Additionally, these measures are not a substitute for or superior to revenues and marketing expenses determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. In light of the difference between revenues before deferral, marketing costs before deferral and their most directly comparable GAAP measures, the Company uses these measures solely as liquidity measures and not as performance measures.

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

Revenues before deferral for the years ended June 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 are calculated as follows (in millions):

	2005	2004	2003
	-----	-----	-----
Revenues	$ 579.8	$ 488.7	$ 456.9
Change in deferred revenues	(34.9)	(32.3)	(39.0)
	-----	-----	-----
Revenues before deferral	$ 544.9	$ 456.4	$ 417.9
	=====	=====	=====

Marketing costs before deferral for the years ended June 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 are calculated as follows (in millions):

	2005	2004	2003
	-----	-----	-----
Marketing expenses	$ 286.4	$ 255.8	$ 280.7
Change in deferred marketing costs	(13.4)	(25.5)	(51.4)
	-----	-----	-----
Marketing costs before deferral	$ 273.0	$ 230.3	$ 229.3

The Company's management and investors use EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA, among other measures, to evaluate the year over year performance of its businesses, to measure that performance compared with internal budgets and to determine compensation under its management incentive plans.

EBITDA eliminates the effects of interest and other expense, income taxes, noncash depreciation of tangible assets and noncash amortization of intangible assets that were recognized in business combinations. A limitation of this measure, however, is that it does not reflect the periodic cost of certain capitalized tangible assets and intangible assets used in generating revenues in the Company's businesses nor does it reflect the effect of interest and taxes. The Company's management evaluates these costs through other financial measures.

Adjusted EBITDA is calculated using revenues before deferral and marketing costs before deferral instead of GAAP revenues and GAAP marketing expenses. Adjusted EBITDA is useful to management because it eliminates the amortization related to the recognition of GAAP revenues and GAAP marketing expenses and therefore includes only membership fees received in the current reporting period and marketing costs paid or accrued in the current reporting period.

These non-GAAP measures should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for or superior to, operating income, net income, operating cash flows or other measures of financial performance and liquidity determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

COMMITMENTS

The Company is not aware of factors that are reasonably likely to adversely affect liquidity trends, other than the risk factors presented in the Forward Looking Statements in this Annual Report on Form 10-K. The Company does not have off-balance sheet arrangements (other than those disclosed in the table below), non-exchange traded contracts or material related party transactions.

Future minimum payments of contractual obligations as of June 30, 2005 are as follows (in millions):

	Payments Due by Period
	Total	Less than 1 year	1 - 3 years	3 - 5 years	After 5 years
Operating leases	$ 27.3	$ 8.7	$ 10.7	$ 6.9	$ 1.0

Total payments due	$ 360.3	$ 34.2	$ 73.3	$ 7.5	$ 245.3

(1) Includes $70.6 million of contingent payments related to business combinations.

The Company operates in leased facilities. Management expects that leases currently in effect will be renewed or replaced by other leases of a similar nature and terms. The Company plans to relocate certain of its offices in 2006. The new leases were signed during the first quarter of fiscal 2006 and therefore, are not reflected in the table above. See Notes 7 and 8 to the consolidated financial statements in Item 8 of this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In December 2004, the FASB issued Statement No. 123 (Revised 2004), "Share-Based Payment," ("SFAS 123R"). This statement is a revision of SFAS 123 and supersedes APB 25. SFAS 123R will require the Company to measure all employee stock-based compensation awards using a fair value method and record that expense in its consolidated financial statements over the requisite service periods. Adoption of SFAS 123R will also require additional accounting related to income tax effects and additional disclosure regarding cash flow effects resulting from share-based payment arrangements. SFAS 123R is effective beginning in the Company's first quarter of fiscal 2006. Adoption of SFAS 123R will have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations, cash flow presentation and related disclosures. The Company expects additional expense related to the adoption of SFAS 123R of approximately $5.0 million in fiscal 2006.

In May 2005, the FASB issued Statement No. 154, "Accounting Changes and Error Corrections - A replacement of APB Opinion No. 20 and FASB Statement No. 3"

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

("SFAS 154"). This statement requires retrospective application to prior periods' financial statements of changes in accounting principles unless it is impracticable to determine either the period-specific effects or the cumulative effect of the change. This statement applies to all voluntary changes in accounting principles and changes required by an accounting pronouncement that does not include specific transition provisions. SFAS 154 is effective beginning in the Company's first quarter of fiscal 2007. The Company does not expect adoption of SFAS 154 to have a material effect on its consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Annual Report on Form 10-K contains forward-looking statements that are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about the industry in which the Company operates and management's beliefs and assumptions. These forward-looking statements include statements that do not relate solely to historical or current facts and can be identified by the use of words such as "believe," "expect," "estimate," "project," "continue" or "anticipate." These forward-looking statements are made pursuant to safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are based on many assumptions and estimates that are inherently subject to significant risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control, cannot be foreseen and reflect future business decisions that may change. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements. Among the many factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements are:

- o higher than expected membership cancellations or lower than expected membership renewal rates;
- o changes in the marketing techniques of credit card issuers;
- o increases in the level of commission rates and other compensation required by marketing partners to actively market with the Company;
- o potential reserve requirements by business partners, such as the Company's credit card processors;
- o unanticipated termination of marketing agreements;
- o the extent to which the Company can continue to successfully develop and market new products and services and introduce them in a timely manner;
- o the Company's ability to integrate acquired businesses into the Company's management and operations and operate successfully;
- o unanticipated changes in or termination of the Company's ability to process revenues through third parties, including credit card processors and bank card associations;
- o the Company's ability to develop and implement operational and financial systems to manage growing operations;
- o the Company's ability to recover from a complete or partial system failure or impairment, other hardware or software related malfunctions or programming errors;
- o the degree to which the Company is leveraged;
- o the Company's ability to obtain financing on acceptable terms to finance the Company's growth strategy and to operate within the limitations imposed by financing arrangements;
- o further changes in the already competitive environment for the Company's products or competitors' responses to the Company's strategies;

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

- o changes in the growth rate of the overall U.S. economy or the international economy where the Company does business such that credit availability, interest rates, consumer spending, related consumer financing and related consumer debt are affected;
- o additional government regulations and changes to existing government regulations of the Company's industry;
- o the Company's ability to compete with other companies that have financial or other advantages;
- o adverse movements of foreign exchange rates;
- o the Company's ability to attract and retain active members and users;
- o adverse results of litigation or regulatory matters; and
- o new accounting pronouncements.

Many of these factors are beyond the Company's control and therefore its business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows may be adversely affected by these factors.

The Company cautions that these factors are not exclusive. All forward looking statements made in this Annual Report on Form 10-K are qualified by these cautionary statements and readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Except as required by law, the Company has no obligation and does not intend to publicly update any forward looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Interest Rate

The Company has a senior secured credit facility, which was amended and restated on March 1, 2005 and matures on March 23, 2006, that allows borrowings of up to $45.0 million. Borrowings under this senior secured credit facility accrue interest at either the Eurodollar rate or the higher of the Prime rate, or the Federal Funds rate plus an applicable margin. There were no borrowings outstanding under this senior secured credit facility as of June 30, 2005. As of June 30, 2005, availability under the senior secured credit facility was reduced by an outstanding letter of credit of $5.5 million and was $39.5 million. As of June 30, 2005, the effective interest rate for borrowings under the senior secured credit facility was 6.25%. Management believes that an increase in the Eurodollar rate, the Prime rate or the Federal Funds rate would not be material to the Company's financial position or its results of operations.

In addition, the Company has $90.0 million aggregate principal amount of 5.5% Convertible Notes due 2010 and $150.0 million aggregate principal amount of 9.25% Senior Notes due 2014. The Convertible Notes and the Senior Notes pay interest in cash semi-annually in arrears on April 1 and October 1. The fair value of the fixed interest instruments is affected by changes in interest rates and, with respect to the Convertible Notes, by changes in the Company's stock price and volatility. The Company does not currently hedge interest rates with respect to its outstanding debt. As of June 30, 2005, the carrying value of the Convertible Notes and the Senior Notes was $90.0 million and $147.8 million, respectively, and the fair value of the notes was $103.1 million and $151.5 million, respectively. Cash paid in connection with interest on the Convertible Notes and the Senior Notes in each of the next five years is expected to be $18.8 million assuming none of the notes is converted into equity.

Foreign Currency

The Company conducts business in certain foreign markets, primarily in Canada.

Edgar Filing: VERTRUUE INC - Form 10-K

The Company's primary exposure to foreign currency risk relates to investments in foreign subsidiaries that transact business in functional currencies other than the U.S. dollar, primarily the Canadian dollar. The Company's recent acquisitions have reduced the proportion of its operations exposed to potentially volatile movements in currency exchange rates. The economic impact of currency exchange rate movements on the Company is often linked to variability in real growth, inflation, interest rates, governmental actions and other factors. These changes, if material, could cause the Company to adjust its financing and operating strategies. As currency exchange rates change, translation of the income statements of the Company's international businesses into U.S. dollars affects year-to-year comparisons of operating results.

The Company uses purchase option contracts and forward contracts to minimize its exposure to changes in future cash flows caused by movements in foreign currency exchange rates between the U.S. dollar and the Canadian dollar. However, there can be no assurance that the Company's foreign currency hedging activities will substantially offset the impact of fluctuations in currency exchange rates on its results of operations and financial position. The Company does not use derivatives for speculative purposes. Derivatives used to hedge forecasted transactions and specific cash flows associated with Canadian dollar denominated financial assets and liabilities that meet the criteria for hedge accounting are designated as cash flow hedges. The effective portion of gains and losses is deferred as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income and is recognized in earnings in the same line item as the underlying hedged item at the time the hedged item affects earnings.

Fair Value of Investments

The Company does not have material exposure to market risk with respect to investments since the Company's investments are short-term in nature (original maturities of less than one year).

Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data

The Company's financial statements and related notes and report of independent public registered accounting firm are included following Part IV beginning on page F-1 and identified in the index in Item 15(a).

Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

None.

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures.

The Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined under Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934) as of the end of the period covered by this report and have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level. The Company's disclosure controls and procedures are designed to ensure that material information relating to the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries that is required to be disclosed in its reports under the Exchange Act is accumulated, communicated to the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer and disclosed appropriately in its timely reports under the Exchange Act.

Because a cost-effective control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. In addition, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting.

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(f). Under the supervision and with the participation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, management evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005.

On January 1, 2005 and November 30, 2004, respectively, the Company completed the acquisitions of certain of the assets of MCM and Bargain. Management excluded certain elements of the internal control over financial reporting of MCM and Bargain from its assessment of internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005 because the assets were acquired in purchase business combinations during 2005. Subsequent to the acquisitions, certain elements of each of the MCM and Bargain internal control over financial reporting and related processes were integrated into the Company's existing systems and internal control over financial reporting. Those controls that were not integrated have been excluded from management's assessments of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005. The excluded elements of MCM and Bargain represent controls over accounts representing 3.8% of the Company's consolidated assets and 6.6% of the Company's consolidated revenues as of and for the year ended June 30, 2005.

Management used the criteria set forth in "Internal Control - Integrated Framework" of the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission in making its assessment. Based on those criteria, management concluded that the Company's internal control over financial reporting was effective.

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the independent registered public accounting firm that audited the Company's financial statements included in Item 8 of this Annual Report on Form 10-K, has also audited management's assessment of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005 and the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005. Their report is included in Item 8.

Changes in internal control over financial reporting.

During the fourth quarter of 2005, there were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Shareholders and Board of Directors of Vertrue Incorporated:

We have completed an integrated audit of the Vertrue Incorporated 2005 consolidated financial statements and of its internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005 and audits of its 2004 and 2003 consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Our opinions, based on our audits, are presented below.

Consolidated financial statements and financial statement schedule

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements listed in the index appearing under Item 15(a)(1) present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Vertrue Incorporated and its subsidiaries at June 30, 2005 and 2004, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended June 30, 2005 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. In addition, in our opinion, the financial statement schedule listed in the index appearing under Item 15(a)(2) presents fairly, in all material respects, the information set forth therein when read in conjunction with the related consolidated financial statements. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit of financial statements includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

Internal control over financial reporting

Also, in our opinion, management's assessment, included in Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting appearing under Item 9A, that the Company maintained effective internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005 based on criteria established in Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO), is fairly stated, in all material respects, based on those criteria. Furthermore, in our opinion, the Company maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005, based on criteria established in Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the COSO. The Company's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. Our responsibility is to express opinions on management's assessment and on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit of internal control over financial reporting in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. An audit of internal control over financial reporting includes obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, evaluating management's assessment, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control, and performing such other procedures as we consider necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinions.

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting

may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

As described in Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting, management has excluded certain elements of the internal control over financial reporting of MCM and Bargain from its assessment of internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005 because they were acquired in purchase business combinations during fiscal 2005. Subsequent to the acquisitions, certain elements of each of the MCM and Bargain internal control over financial reporting and related processes were integrated into the Company's existing systems and internal control over financial reporting. Those controls that were not integrated have been excluded from management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2005. We have also excluded those elements of the internal control over financial reporting of MCM and Bargain from our audit of internal control over financial reporting. The excluded elements of MCM and Bargain represent controls over accounts representing 3.8% of the consolidated assets and 6.6% of the consolidated revenues as of and for the year ended June 30, 2005.

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF BUSINESS

Vertrue Incorporated ("Vertrue" or the "Company") is a leading consumer services

marketing company. The Company offers both subscription and transaction based services focused on meeting consumer needs in large spending categories - healthcare, personal property, discounts, security and insurance and personals. The Company's service offerings provide consumers everyday savings, event-oriented discounts, benefits that provide the consumer with peace of mind and access to information and opportunities for self-enrichment.

The Company was incorporated in 1989 in Delaware under the name Cardmember Publishing Corporation. On October 17, 1996, the Company completed an initial public offering of its stock and changed its name to MemberWorks Incorporated. On October 13, 2004, the Company began doing business as Vertrue Incorporated and on November 18, 2004, shareholders approved an amendment to the Company's charter formally changing its name to Vertrue Incorporated. The name change was intended to reflect the ever-broadening base of services that the Company offers to its customers.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of presentation - consolidation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and include the accounts of the Company, its wholly owned subsidiaries and variable interest entities required to be consolidated. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

The Company acquired Lavalife Inc. ("Lavalife") on April 1, 2004, Bargain Network, Inc. ("Bargain") on November 30, 2004 and My Choice Medical, Inc. ("MCM") on January 1, 2005. Therefore, their results of operations have been included in the consolidated results of operations since their acquisition dates. The results of Bargain, Lavalife and MCM have been included in the Marketing Services, Personals and Corporate and Other segments, respectively.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The most significant judgments and estimates include: membership cancellation rates, deferred marketing costs, goodwill and other intangible asset valuations, intangible assets' remaining useful lives and deferred tax asset valuations.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year's presentation to reclassify auction rate securities from cash and cash equivalents to short-term investments. Corresponding adjustments have been made in the consolidated statements of cash flows for prior periods to reflect gross purchases and sales of auction rate securities as investing activities rather than as a component of cash and cash equivalents. The Company reclassified $112,330,000 and $5,000,000 from cash and cash equivalents to short-term investments at June 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively. These reclassifications do not affect previously reported cash flows from operating or financing activities in the consolidated statements of cash flows. For the years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003, net cash used in investing activities related to auction rate securities was $107,330,000 and $5,000,000, respectively.

Foreign currency translation

Assets and liabilities of foreign subsidiaries, whose assets and liabilities are denominated in their local currencies, are translated at the exchange rates in effect as of the balance sheet dates. Equity accounts are translated at historical exchange rates and revenues, expenses and cash flows are translated at average exchange rates for the periods presented. Translation gains and losses are included as a component of comprehensive income in the consolidated statements of shareholders' deficit. Transaction gains and losses are included in the consolidated statements of operations.

Fair value of financial instruments and concentration of credit risk

All current assets and liabilities are carried at cost, which approximates fair value due to their short-term maturities. The recorded amounts of the Company's long-term liabilities also approximate fair value except for differences with respect to the Convertible Notes and the Senior Notes (see Note 7) which had carrying values of $90,000,000 and $147,814,000, respectively, and fair values of $103,050,000 and $151,500,000, respectively, as of June 30, 2005. The Convertible Notes and the Senior Notes had carrying values of $90,000,000 and $147,659,000, respectively, and fair values of $93,263,000 and $143,250,000, respectively, as of June 30, 2004. The fair value information was based on publicly available information. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk consist primarily of accounts receivable from credit card processors who facilitate payments from membership and personals customers.

F-7

Fixed assets

Fixed assets, capitalized software costs and capital leases are carried at cost, less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. Useful lives are generally between 3 and 7 years for computer software and equipment, the shorter of the estimated remaining useful life or the remaining life of the lease, for leasehold improvements and 5 to 10 years for furniture and fixtures. Maintenance and repair expenditures are charged to operations as incurred.

Revenue recognition

Revenues are billed primarily through credit and debit cards. Revenues from membership programs are recognized when earned. Members may cancel their memberships at any time. Members enrolled in an annual payment plan who cancel their memberships receive a pro rata refund of the remaining unused portion of their membership fees. In accordance with Staff Accounting Bulletin 104, "Revenue Recognition" ("SAB 104"), revenues, net of estimated cancellations, are deferred and recognized as revenues when membership refund privileges expire. Management establishes and regularly updates the allowance for membership cancellations. In estimating the allowance for membership cancellations, management analyzes historical cancellation experience, current economic trends and changes in customer demand for the Company's products and services. Actual membership refunds are charged against the allowance for membership cancellations on a current basis. Accrued liabilities set forth in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of June 30, 2005 and 2004 include an allowance for membership cancellations of $11,232,000 and $14,156,000, respectively.

Revenues generated by the Personals reportable business segment are recognized when the services are used.

Membership programs sponsored by the Company's largest client accounted for 14% of revenues in 2005. Membership programs sponsored by the Company's two largest clients in each year accounted for 18% and 12% of revenues in 2004 and 21% and 16% of revenues in 2003, respectively.

Marketing expenses

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

The Company's marketing expenses are comprised of refundable royalty payments, non-refundable royalty payments, advertising costs, telemarketing costs and direct mail costs. Advertising costs and non-refundable royalty payments, which include fee per offer, fee per sale and fee per impression marketing arrangements, are expensed when incurred. Refundable royalty payments are charged to operations as the associated revenues are recognized in accordance with SAB 104. Telemarketing costs, including costs for third party vendors to solicit members for the Company, and direct mail costs, including costs of printing and mailing direct mail pieces, are deferred direct response advertising costs and are charged to marketing expenses over the expected future benefit period in accordance with American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement of Position 93-7, "Reporting on Advertising Costs" ("SOP 93-7").

Deferred marketing costs to enroll a new member are less than the related estimated total net revenues. However, if deferred marketing costs were to exceed the related estimated total net revenues, management would adjust the deferred marketing costs for that impairment.

Earnings per share

Basic and diluted earnings per share are determined in accordance with the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement ("SFAS") No. 128, "Earnings Per Share" ("SFAS 128"). Basic earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the reporting period. Diluted earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding and the dilutive effect of potentially outstanding common shares determined using the treasury stock method.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers highly liquid investment instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company's cash and cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates fair market value, and primarily consist of money market funds.

Restricted cash

The Company excludes from cash and cash equivalents restricted cash that is held in an escrow account for payment of commissions to a client.

F-8

Short-term investments

Short-term investments consist of commercial paper with original maturities of more than 3 months but less than or equal to one year and auction rate securities with interest rates that reset every 49 days or less but stated contractual maturities greater than one year. As of June 30, 2005, these investments are classified as available-for-sale and recorded at cost, which approximates fair value due to their short-term reset dates. Historically, the Company has been able to liquidate auction rate securities at any reset date to provide funds for investing or financing activities or to invest in securities that would generate higher yields.

Income taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under the provisions of SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes". Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases.

Valuation of goodwill and other intangibles

The Company reviews the carrying value of its goodwill and other intangible assets and assesses the estimated remaining useful lives of its intangible assets in accordance with SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS 142"). Management reviews goodwill and other intangible assets for impairment by comparing their carrying values to their fair values at least annually or more frequently if circumstances indicate possible impairment. When determining fair value, management utilizes various assumptions, including projections of future cash flows. A change in the underlying assumptions could cause fair value to be less than carrying value and require the Company to record a corresponding charge against operations. Management tested goodwill for impairment at July 1, 2004 and 2003 during the quarters ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively, and concluded that it was not impaired as of July 1, 2004 or 2003. Management also reassessed the estimated useful lives of its indefinite lived intangible assets and determined that they were appropriate.

Intangible assets principally include member and customer relationships and trade names that arose in connection with business acquisitions. Acquired intangibles, except member relationships, are recorded at cost and are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The value of member relationships is amortized using an accelerated method based on estimated future cash flows. The weighted average amortization periods for membership and client relationships, trade names, other amortizable intangible assets and total amortizable intangible assets held at June 30, 2005 were 9 years, 15 years, 3 years and 11 years, respectively.

Impairment of long-lived assets

The Company accounts for impairment and disposition of long-lived assets in accordance with SFAS 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." The Company reviews its intangible and other long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable, as determined based on their projected undiscounted future cash flows. If this review indicates that the carrying value will not be recoverable, the carrying value is reduced to its estimated fair value. As of June 30, 2005, no impairment had been indicated.

Treasury stock

Treasury stock is accounted for under the cost method.

Contingent Liabilities

In accordance with SFAS 5, "Accounting for Contingencies," and Financial Accounting Standards Interpretation 14, "Reasonable Estimation of the Amount of a Loss," the Company accrues for contingent liabilities when it is probable that future costs will be incurred and those costs can be reasonably estimated and measured.

F-9

Stock-based compensation

In accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" ("APB 25"), the Company applies the intrinsic value method in accounting for employee stock options. Accordingly, the Company generally does not recognize compensation expense with respect to stock-based awards to employees. If compensation expense for all awards under the Company's stock-based compensation plans had been determined based on the fair value method (estimated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model) at the grant dates in accordance with SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," and SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure," the Company's pro forma net income and earnings per share would have been as follows (in thousands, except per share data):

Edgar Filing: VERTRU INC - Form 10-K

	For the years ended June 30,

Under the Company's stock option plans, the fair value of each option grant calculated under the provisions of SFAS 123 was estimated on the grant date using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions for the years ended June 30:

	2005	2004	2003
Dividend yield	0%	0%	0%
Expected volatility	64%	74%	69%
Risk free interest rate	3.7%	2.9%	3.5%
Expected lives	5 years	5 years	5 years

The weighted average fair value per share of options granted at market value was $18.23, $14.98 and $7.95 for the years ended June 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. For pro forma purposes, the estimated fair value of the Company's stock-based awards to employees is amortized over the options' vesting periods of four to five years and the estimated fair value of the Company's awards issued under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan is recognized in the period the stock is issued.

New accounting pronouncements

In December 2004, the FASB issued Statement No. 123 (Revised 2004), "Share-Based Payment," ("SFAS 123R"). This statement is a revision of SFAS 123 and supersedes APB 25. SFAS 123R will require the Company to measure all employee stock-based compensation awards using a fair value method and record that expense in its consolidated financial statements over the requisite service periods. Adoption of SFAS 123R will also require additional accounting related to income tax effects and additional disclosure regarding cash flow effects resulting from share-based payment arrangements. SFAS 123R is effective beginning in the Company's first quarter of fiscal 2006. Adoption of SFAS 123R will have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations, cash flow presentation and related disclosures. The Company expects additional expense related to the adoption of SFAS 123R of approximately $5,000,000 in fiscal 2006.

In May 2005, the FASB issued Statement No. 154, "Accounting Changes and Error Corrections - A replacement of APB Opinion No. 20 and FASB Statement No. 3" ("SFAS 154"). This statement requires retrospective application to prior periods' financial statements of changes in accounting principles unless it is impracticable to determine either the period-specific effects or the cumulative effect of the change. This statement applies to all voluntary changes in accounting principles and changes required by an accounting pronouncement that does not include specific transition provisions. SFAS 154 is effective beginning in the Company's first quarter of fiscal 2007. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS 154 to have a material effect on its consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

As part of the acquisitions of certain of the assets of MCM and Bargain in fiscal 2005, the Company acquired intangible assets of $92,491,000. Of those amounts, $12,220,000 was assigned to membership and client relationships and $3,240,000 was assigned to trade names. These identified intangible assets are subject to periodic amortization over the estimated useful lives ranging from 1 to 15 years. Goodwill of $77,031,000, which is not subject to amortization, also arose in connection with these acquisitions.

As part of the purchase of Lavalife in fiscal 2004, the Company acquired intangible assets of $115,632,000. Of that amount, $14,799,000 has been assigned to membership and client relationships and $18,619,000 has been assigned to trade name, both of which are subject to periodic amortization over the estimated useful lives ranging from 3 to 15 years. Goodwill of $82,214,000, which is not subject to amortization, also arose in connection with the acquisition.

Goodwill was tested for impairment during the quarters ended September 30, 2004,

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

2003 and 2002 as required by SFAS 142. The Company concluded that none of its goodwill was impaired. Fair value was estimated using discounted cash flow methodologies. In addition, the Company reassessed the estimated useful lives of its indefinite lived intangible assets and determined that the lives were appropriate. The Company will continue to test the goodwill of each of its reporting units annually or more frequently if impairment indicators exist.

NOTE 5 - FOREIGN CURRENCY INSTRUMENTS

The Company uses purchase option contracts and forward contracts to minimize its exposure to changes in future cash flows caused by movements in foreign currency exchange rates between the U.S. dollar and the Canadian dollar. Derivatives are held only for the purpose of hedging such risks and are not used for speculative purposes. Derivatives used to hedge forecasted cash flows associated with Canadian dollar denominated forecasted transactions that meet the criteria for hedge accounting are designated as cash flow hedges. The effective portion of derivative gains and losses is deferred as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income and is recognized when the underlying hedged item is recognized in earnings.

The fair value of these contracts is included in prepaid and other current assets. As of June 30, 2005, the fair value of these instruments was $559,000 (asset). Derivative gains recognized in earnings were recorded in operating expenses and general and administrative expenses and amounted to $1,382,000 for 2005. All forecast transactions currently being hedged are expected to occur over the next year.

During 2004, the Company used purchase option contracts and forward contracts to protect against the foreign currency exchange risk inherent in the purchase price for its acquisition of Lavalife, which was denominated in Canadian dollars (see Note 9). The risk of loss associated with purchase option contracts was limited to premium amounts paid for them. The risk of loss associated with forward contracts was equal to the exchange rate differential from the time the contract was entered into until it was settled. These contracts expired on April 1, 2004 concurrently with the closing of the Lavalife acquisition. Derivative gains recognized in earnings were recorded as a component of other income, net and amounted to $353,000 in 2004. As of June 30, 2004, the Company did not hold any foreign currency instruments.

NOTE 6 - RESTRUCTURING CHARGES

The restructuring reserve balance, which is recorded in accrued liabilities and other long-term liabilities, was $1,499,000 and $1,644,000 as of June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. Cash payments related to lease obligations for the years ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 were $145,000 and $66,000, respectively. Cash payments related to workforce reductions for the years ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 were $0 and $91,000, respectively.

NOTE 7 - LONG-TERM LIABILITIES

Long-term liabilities were as follows at June 30, (in thousands):

2005

	243,757	242,927
Less current maturities	686	338
Long-term liabilities	$ 243,071	$ 242,589

In April 2004, the Company issued $150,000,000 aggregate principal amount of unsecured 9.25% senior notes due 2014 ("Senior Notes"). The Senior Notes were registered in 2005. These Senior Notes were sold at 98.418% of the principal amount which resulted in an effective yield of 9.5%. Interest is payable in cash semi-annually in arrears on April 1 and October 1. The first payment was made on October 1, 2004. A portion of the proceeds from the offering of these Senior Notes was used to repay amounts borrowed under the senior secured credit facility to fund a portion of the Lavalife acquisition. At any time prior to April 1, 2007, the Company may redeem up to 35% of the Senior Notes with net cash proceeds of certain equity offerings, as long as at least 65% of the aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes issued remains outstanding after the redemption. The Company may redeem all or part of the Senior Notes prior to April 1, 2009 by paying a make-whole premium. At any time on or after April 1, 2009, the Company may redeem some or all of the Senior Notes at certain redemption prices plus accrued and unpaid interest and liquidation damages, if any, to the date of redemption. Debt issuance costs and debt discount associated with this issuance of $5,889,000 were capitalized and are being amortized as interest expense over the term of the Senior Notes using the effective interest method.

In September 2003, the Company issued $90,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 5.5% convertible senior subordinated notes due 2010 ("Convertible Notes"). The Convertible Notes were registered in 2004. The Convertible Notes bear interest at the rate of 5.5% per year, which is payable in cash semi-annually in arrears on April 1 and October 1. The first payment was made on April 1, 2004. Holders of the Convertible Notes may convert their notes into shares of the Company's common stock at any time prior to maturity at an initial conversion price of approximately $40.37 per share, which is equivalent to an initial conversion rate of approximately 24.7739 shares per $1,000 principal amount of the Convertible Notes. There are no beneficial conversion features related to these Convertible Notes. In accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 14, "Accounting for Convertible Notes and Debt Issued with Stock Purchase Warrants," these Convertible Notes have been classified as a liability. Debt issuance costs associated with this issuance of $3,491,000 were capitalized and are being amortized as interest expense over the term of the Convertible Notes using the effective interest method.

Other long-term obligations are comprised of the long-term portion of the restructuring reserve (see Note 6), minimum pension liability (see Note 15) and lease incentives related to certain operating leases. The lease incentives are amortized as a reduction to rent expense over the terms of the leases.

The Company has an amended and restated senior secured credit facility, which was amended and restated on March 1, 2005 and matures on March 23, 2006, that allows borrowings of up to $45,000,000. Borrowings under the senior secured credit facility accrue interest at either the Eurodollar rate, or the higher of the Prime rate, or the Federal Funds rate plus an applicable margin. As of June 30, 2005, the availability under the senior secured credit facility was reduced by an outstanding letter of credit of $5,458,000 and was $39,542,000. There were no borrowings outstanding under this bank credit facility as of June 30, 2005 or 2004. The senior secured credit facility has certain financial covenants, including a maximum debt coverage ratio, potential restrictions on additional borrowings and potential restrictions on additional stock repurchases. At June 30, 2005 and 2004, the Company was in compliance with all financial and restrictive loan covenants. All of the Company's assets, including the stock of its subsidiaries, are pledged as collateral for the senior secured credit facility. Debt issuance costs associated with the amendment of this credit facility were $56,000. Debt issuance costs associated with this amendment and restatement of the senior secured credit facility were capitalized and are being amortized over the term of the senior secured credit facility using the effective interest method.

Interest (expense) income, net as shown in the statements of operations for the years ended June 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003, includes interest expense of $20,741,000, $7,715,000 and $238,000, respectively, and interest income of $1,936,000, $1,094,000, and $808,000, respectively. Interest expense, net in 2005 and 2004 includes $1,373,000 and $742,000 amortization of debt issuance costs, respectively, and $155,000 and $32,000 amortization of debt discount, respectively.

NOTE 8 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company operates in leased facilities. Management expects that leases currently in effect will be renewed or replaced by other leases similar in nature and terms. Rent expense under operating leases was $8,643,000, $6,779,000 and $7,671,000 for the years ended June 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

The Company has certain capital leases for equipment. Lease amortization for the years ended June 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 was $536,000, $193,000 and $55,000, respectively, and is included in depreciation and amortization expense. At June 30, 2005, the weighted average interest rate on the Company's capital leases was 8.0% with individual lease rates generally ranging from 5.5% to 19.0%.

Future minimum lease payments under operating and capital leases as of June 30, 2005 are as follows (in thousands):

As of June 30, 2005, the Company had outstanding purchase obligations of $86,544,000 which relate to marketing agreements and maintenance contracts on the Company's software, equipment and other assets as well as $70,624,000 of contingent payments related to the Bargain and MCM acquisitions.

Legal proceedings

In management's opinion, there are no significant legal proceedings to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or to which any of their properties is subject except as set forth below. The Company is involved in other lawsuits and claims generally incidental to its business, including but not limited to various suits, including previously disclosed suits, brought against the Company by individual consumers seeking monetary and/or injunctive relief relating to the marketing of the Company's programs. In addition, from time to time in the regular course of its business the Company receives inquiries from various federal and/or state regulatory authorities.

In March 2001, an action was instituted by plaintiff Teresa McClain against Coverdell & Company ("Coverdell"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, Monumental Life Insurance Company and other defendants in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, Southern Division. The suit, which sought unspecified monetary damages, alleged that Coverdell and the other defendants violated the Michigan Consumer Protection Act and other applicable Michigan laws in connection with the marketing of Monumental Life Insurance Company insurance products. The Court certified a class of Michigan residents. The Court approved the settlement agreement, which was signed by all parties, at a Fairness/Approval hearing on November 22, 2004 and the Company was not required to make any payment.

On January 24, 2003, the Company filed a motion with the Superior Court for the Judicial District of Hartford, Connecticut to vacate and oppose the confirmation of an arbitration award issued in December 2002. The arbitration, filed against the Company by MedValUSA Health Programs, Inc. ("MedVal") in September 2000, involved claims of breach of contract, breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing, and violation of the Connecticut Unfair Trade Practices Act ("CUTPA"). Even though the arbitrators found that the Company was not liable to MedVal for any compensatory damages, they awarded $5,458,000 in punitive damages and costs against the Company solely under CUTPA. The Company believes that this arbitration award was unjustified and not based on any existing legal precedent. Specifically, the Company challenged the award on a number of grounds, including that it violated a well-defined public policy against excessive punitive damage awards, raised constitutional issues and disregarded certain legal requirements for a valid award under CUTPA. On June 22, 2003, the Superior Court denied the Company's motion to vacate the award and on May 10, 2005, the Connecticut Supreme Court denied the Company's appeal of that decision. As a result of the Connecticut Supreme Court's decision, the Company recorded a one-time $5,458,000 charge in the June 2005 quarter. The Company has requested the U.S. Supreme Court to review the Connecticut Supreme Court's decision. However, there can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in its efforts.

On January 1, 2005, the Company completed the acquisition of certain of the assets of MCM, a privately held advertising and practice management company servicing cosmetic surgeons throughout the United States. The Company acquired certain of the assets of MCM in order to expand its consumer offerings to include cosmetic surgery. The purchase price, excluding fees and expenses, amounted to $33,000,000 and was paid in cash on the closing date. In addition, contingent payments of up to $56,000,000 may be paid in the next three years if certain performance targets, including increasing levels of revenues and earnings, are achieved over the next three calendar years. Any additional payments under the contingency arrangement will be considered additional purchase price and allocated to the net assets acquired. The Company identified $12,060,000 of intangible assets other than goodwill, including membership and client relationships and trade name, in conjunction with this acquisition. The $23,367,000 of excess merger consideration over the net assets acquired was allocated to goodwill, substantially all of which is deductible for tax purposes.

On November 30, 2004, the Company completed the acquisition of certain of the assets of Bargain, a privately held provider of premier pricing services for homes and vehicles. The Company acquired certain of the assets of Bargain in order to expand its direct to consumer marketing presence and to expand its discounted consumer offerings to include personal property. The purchase price, which excludes fees and expenses, was paid in cash and amounted to $39,118,000. The Company expects to pay $14,624,000 of contingent payments in the December 2005 quarter. In addition, the Company assumed certain liabilities amounting to $4,729,000. The Company identified $3,400,000 of intangible assets other than goodwill, including membership and client relationships and trade name, in conjunction with this acquisition. The $53,664,000 of excess merger consideration over the net assets acquired was allocated to goodwill, substantially all of which is deductible for tax purposes.

On April 1, 2004, the Company completed the acquisition of all of the net assets and outstanding capital stock of Lavalife Inc., a leading provider of web-based and phone-based interactive personals services. The Company acquired Lavalife in order to broaden the scope of services offered to include personals services. The acquisition of Lavalife benefited the Company by providing access to one of the largest and fastest growing consumer categories on the internet while expanding its target market. The purchase price, excluding fees and expenses, was Cdn$152,500,000, or $116,300,000. In connection with this acquisition, the Company received $9,080,000 related to the issuance of the Company's restricted common stock to Lavalife's senior management. The acquisition was funded with cash on hand and borrowings under the Company's $45,000,000 senior secured credit facility. The Company identified $33,418,000 of intangible assets other than goodwill. The $82,214,000 of unallocated excess merger consideration over the net assets acquired was allocated to goodwill. The amount of tax deductible goodwill was $77,436,000.

See Note 4 for detailed descriptions of the intangible assets and goodwill identified in connection with these business combinations.

The fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the acquisition dates were as follows (in thousands):

Pro Forma Results

The following unaudited pro forma results of operations for the years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003 have been prepared assuming the Lavalife acquisition had occurred on July 1, 2003 for the year ended June 30, 2004 and on July 1, 2002 for the year ended June 30, 2003. These pro forma results are not necessarily indicative of the results of future operations or results that would have occurred had the acquisition been consummated as of those dates (in thousands, except per share data).

	For the years ended June 30,
	-----	-----
	2004	2003

Revenues	$ 542,766	$ 527,736
Net income	28,979	25,879
Basic earnings per share	$ 2.58	$ 1.98
Diluted earnings per share	2.28	1.89

The results of operations and balance sheets of Bargain and MCM for periods prior to the acquisitions were not material to the Company and accordingly, pro forma results of operations have not been presented.

NOTE 10 - SETTLEMENT OF INVESTMENT RELATED LITIGATION

During 2003, the Company, along with certain of the other former shareholders of iPlace, Inc., settled their lawsuit against Homestore.com, Inc. The total settlement amount in favor of the plaintiffs was $23,000,000 of which the Company received $19,148,000.

The following is a reconciliation of the Company's effective tax rate to the U.S. statutory rate:

	For the years ended June 30,
	2005	2004	2003
Statutory rate	35.0%	35.0%	35.0%

Foreign	(3.7%)	(0.5%)	0.0%
Other	0.3%	2.2%	1.6%
Effective rate	34.4%	40.0%	40.0%

The foreign reconciling item includes the net U.S. tax benefit of the net losses from foreign branch operations. The net U.S. tax benefit is primarily due to the full year impact of the Lavalife acquisition.

F-16

Consolidated U.S. income before taxes was $43,458,000, $44,861,000 and $37,236,000 in 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively. The corresponding amounts for non-U.S.-based operations were (loss) income of $(4,518,000), $1,737,000 and $3,359,000, respectively.

Undistributed earnings of the Company's foreign subsidiaries amounted to $500,000 at June 30, 2005. U.S. income taxes were not provided on certain unremitted earnings from foreign subsidiaries since the Company intends to permanently reinvest substantially all of such earnings outside the U.S. However, if some portion of these earnings is remitted, the Company expects the effect of any remittance after considering available tax credits and amounts previously accrued not to be significant to the consolidated results of operations. A calculation of the amount of unrecognized deferred U.S. income tax liability is not practicable due to the complexities associated with the calculation.

The following is a summary of the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities as of June 30 (in thousands):

As of June 30, 2005, the Company had federal net operating loss carry forwards of $1,523,000 expiring June 30, 2024. The Company's ability to use these losses to offset future taxable income would be subject to limitations under the Internal Revenue Code if certain changes in the Company's ownership occur. The Company also has state net operating loss carry forwards available to reduce future state taxable income which expire beginning June 30, 2006 through June 30, 2011. In addition, the Company has foreign net operating losses of $5,468,000 expiring beginning June 30, 2012 through June 30, 2013.

As of June 30, 2004, the Company had alternative minimum tax credits of approximately $1,380,000. Credits of $664,000 and $716,000 were generated in the years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively. These credits were carried forward and fully utilized during the year ended June 30, 2005.

Tax benefits resulting from the exercise of nonqualified stock options and the disqualifying dispositions of shares issued under the Company's stock-based compensation plans reduced taxes payable by $2,220,000 and $6,520,000 in 2005 and 2004, respectively. Such benefits were credited to additional paid-in capital.

The diluted earnings per common share calculation excludes the effect of potentially dilutive shares when their effect is antidilutive. Excluded from the diluted share calculation above for the years ended June 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 are incremental weighted average stock options of approximately 67,000, 26,000 and 2,838,000, respectively.

NOTE 13 - SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

The Company has a stock repurchase program. During 2005 and 2004, the Board of Directors authorized the Company to repurchase up to an aggregate additional 4,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. As of June 30, 2005, approximately 825,000 shares were authorized for repurchase under the stock repurchase program. The Company repurchased 1,168,000 shares for $41,131,000, an average price of $34.92 per share, in 2005, 2,985,000 shares for $94,207,000, an average price of $31.56 per share, in 2004 and 1,993,000 shares for $37,214,000, an average price of $18.67 per share, in 2003.

In fiscal 2005, the Board of Directors authorized a modified Dutch Auction self-tender offer for up to 500,000 shares of its common stock. Under the terms of the self-tender offer as approved by the Board of Directors, and as set forth in the Offer to Purchase filed as an exhibit to the Company's Schedule TO filed on November 15, 2004, as amended (the "Offer to Purchase"), the Company's stockholders were given the opportunity to tender part or all of their shares to the Company at a price of not less than $33.50 per share and not more than $38.50 per share. The self-tender offer closed on January 7, 2005 with a total of 605,000 shares tendered by shareholders. The Company exercised its right, as set forth in the Offer to Purchase, to purchase the additional 105,000 shares and repurchased a total of 605,000 shares for $38.50 per share, paying a total of $23,293,000.

NOTE 15 - EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

The Company has a defined contribution 401(k) profit sharing plan. Employees may contribute up to 20% of their compensation subject to certain limitations. Effective July 1, 2000, the Company began making quarterly matching contributions in Common Stock based on qualified employee contributions. Treasury stock, calculated under the cost method, was used to match qualified employee contributions. Effective January 1, 2003, the Company began making matching contributions in cash. Matching contributions were $266,000, $168,000 and $153,000 for 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Effective January 1, 2004, the Company has an unfunded, nonqualified defined benefit pension plan that benefits certain executives selected by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. This plan provides for fixed annual payments for 10 years upon retirement after attaining the age of 55 and 10 years of service. Pension expense was $306,000 and $212,000 in 2005 and 2004, respectively.

The Company used weighted-average discount rates of 5% and 6% in its 2005 and 2004 assumptions, respectively. The following tables present information about this pension plan (in thousands):

No benefits are expected to be paid by the plan during the next three years. The Company expects to pay benefits of $60,000 and $225,000 in 2009 and 2010, respectively, and $4,265,000 thereafter.

F-19

NOTE 16 - STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

Stock Compensation Plans

As of June 30, 2005, the Company had the following stock-based compensation plans which are described below.

Under the 1996 Stock Option Plan, the Board of Directors can determine the date on which options vest and become exercisable as well as the term of the options granted. The 1996 Stock Option Plan is authorized to grant 5,600,000 options to acquire shares of Common Stock. Of these options, 2,000,000 must be granted using treasury stock.

Under the 1995 Executive Officers' Stock Option Plan and the 1995 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan the Board is authorized to grant 360,000 and 180,000 options, respectively, to acquire shares of Common Stock at a price per share equal to or greater than fair market value at the grant date. Under the Executive Officers' Stock Option Plan, the Board can determine the date on which options vest and become exercisable.

Under the stock option plans described above, options generally become exercisable over a four to five year period and expire at the earlier of termination of employment or ten years from the grant date.

At June 30, 2005, 3,477,000 shares of common stock were reserved for issuance under these stock option plans, of which 606,000 shares were available for future grant.

Information with respect to options to purchase shares issued under the above plans is as follows (shares in thousands):

Options exercisable as of June 30, 2004 and 2003 were 1,835,000 and 2,305,000, respectively.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan

During 1997, the Company adopted the 1996 Employee Stock Purchase Plan which provides for the issuance of up to 360,000 shares of common stock. The plan permits eligible employees to purchase Common Stock through payroll deductions, which may not exceed 10% of an employee's compensation, at a price equal to 85% of the closing price of the Common Stock on the day the purchase period commences or terminates, whichever is lower. During 2005, 2004 and 2003, 11,000, 14,000 and 16,000 shares were purchased under the plan, respectively.

NOTE 18 - BUSINESS SEGMENTS

The operating business segments reported below are the reportable business segments of the Company for which separate financial information is available and for which operating results are evaluated regularly by executive management in assessing performance and deciding how to allocate resources. The Company has two reportable business segments: Marketing Services, formerly known as the Membership segment, and Personals. The Marketing Services business segment primarily provides discounted products and services to consumers. The Personals business segment provides both web-based and phone-based personals services to its customers. The Corporate and Other business unit includes the results of MCM as well as unallocated general corporate expenses.

Management evaluates the operating results of each reportable business segment based on revenue and adjusted EBITDA. In the past, each reportable segment was evaluated based on operating income. Management decided to use adjusted EBITDA as the measure of profitability beginning in fiscal 2005 in order to better align the results of the acquired companies and to enhance the clarity of the operating performance of the reportable business segments. The following is a summary of revenues, adjusted EBITDA, capital expenditures, depreciation and amortization and assets by business segment (in thousands):

NOTE 20 - GUARANTOR AND NONGUARANTOR FINANCIAL INFORMATION

In April 2004, the Company issued $150,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 9.25% Senior Notes due 2014. The Senior Notes are unsecured obligations and rank pari passu in right of payment to all of the Company's existing and future senior unsecured indebtedness and senior in right of payment to all of the Company's existing and future subordinated indebtedness that expressly provides for its subordination to the Senior Notes. The Senior Notes are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by all of the Company's existing and future domestic subsidiaries that guarantee the Company's Credit Facility (as defined in the Indenture governing the Senior Notes) and certain of the Company's existing and future foreign subsidiaries.

The following consolidating condensed financial information presents the consolidating balance sheets as of June 30, 2005 and 2004, the related statements of operations and cash flows for the years ended June 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003. The information includes the elimination entries necessary to consolidate the Company ("Parent") with the guarantor and nonguarantor entities.

Edgar Filing: VERTRUE INC - Form 10-K

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for by the Parent using the equity method of accounting. The guarantor and nonguarantor subsidiaries are presented on a combined basis. The principal elimination entries eliminate investments in subsidiaries and intercompany balances and transactions.
