Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (“Taro” or the “Company”) is supplementing its press release dated November 11, 2008 by providing in tabular form its preliminary, unaudited financial results for the nine months ended September 30, 2008, and updated information on its liquidity.

As of December 15, 2008, Taro’s cash and cash equivalents have increased to $77.6 million, after payments of debt principal and interest made in the fourth quarter of 2008 of approximately $12.0 million. Debt principal and interest payable for the remaining portion of 2008 is approximately $1.2 million. The following chart illustrates the Company’s net debt position over the last 20 months, which reflects the significant reduction of the Company’s financial indebtedness and increase in cash over the period.

The Company cautions that the financial information presented herein does not constitute complete financial information, has not been reviewed by its independent auditors and is subject to possible change. However, subject to the foregoing caveats, the Company believes that the information provided represents the best information currently available to Taro management.

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT

Certain statements in this 6-K filing are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, statements that do not describe historical facts and statements that refer or relate to events or circumstances the Company “estimates,” “believes,” or “expects” to happen, “should” happen, or similar language, and statements with respect to the Company’s financial performance, availability of financial information and estimates of financial results and financial information for 2007 and 2008. Although Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. believes the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements to be based on reasonable assumptions, it can give no assurances that its expectations will be attained. Factors that could cause actual results to differ include the possible unavailability of financial information, completion of the audits of 2006, 2007 and/or 2008, actions of the Company's lenders, creditors and Sun Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (“Sun”), including but not limited to the outcome of litigation with Sun, general domestic and international economic conditions, industry and market conditions, changes in the Company's financial position, litigation brought by any party in any court in Israel, the United States, or any country in which Taro operates, regulatory actions and legislative actions in the countries in which Taro operates, and other risks detailed from time to time in the Company's SEC reports, including its Annual Reports on Form 20-F. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made. The Company undertakes no obligations to update, change or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, additional or subsequent developments or otherwise.
