Tri-Continental Corporation
an investment you can live with

September 25, 2008

Dear Stockholder:

In connection with the pending acquisition of J. & W. Seligman & Co. Incorporated, the manager of Tri-Continental Corporation, by RiverSource Investments, LLC, a subsidiary of Ameriprise Financial, Inc., you should have received a proxy statement in which you are being asked to vote on two proposals that will be considered at a Special Meeting of Stockholders to be held on October 7, 2008 at 10:30 a.m., Eastern Time.

Proposal 1: To consider and vote upon the proposed investment management services agreement between Tri-Continental and RiverSource; and Proposal 2: To elect ten directors to the Board of Tri-Continental.

Your Board of Directors recommends that you to vote OFORO each of these proposals. If you have not already done so, please vote in support of Proposal 1 and Proposal 2 each as described in the proxy statement. You should complete, date, sign and return your proxy card by mail, authorize your proxy by telephone or via the Internet, or you may vote in person at the Special Meeting. Each vote is important, no matter how many shares you own.

After approval by Tri-Continental's stockholders of the proposed investment management services agreement and closing of the acquisition, a new portfolio management team will manage Tri-Continental's portfolio. Tri-Continental will continue as a closed-end fund, and its investment objective and policies will not change.

Tri-Continental has been investing through up and down market cycles for nearly 80 years. As you are aware, over the course of the past year, the market has witnessed a number of unprecedented events that have resulted in heightened volatility, investor uncertainty, and weakening financial markets. Despite the current environment, Tri-Continental is confident about the financial market's long-term prospects and will continue to prudently manage your assets in accordance with its investment objective.

If you have any questions or need additional information, a new proxy card, or assistance voting your shares, please contact Georgeson Inc., Tri-Continental's proxy solicitors, at 199 Water Street, New York, New York 10038, or by telephone at 888-219-8293.

Thank you for your support of these proposals.

Sincerely,

William C. Morris
Chairman

Brian T. Zino
President
