Date, Time, Place and General Information. This proxy statement solicits, on behalf of the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc., proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Provident Financial Services, Inc., which will be held at Casino-in-the-Park, located in Lincoln Park (a municipal park), Jersey City, New Jersey, on Thursday, July 17, 2003 at 10:00 a.m., New Jersey time, and at all adjournments or postponements of the annual meeting. The accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders and this proxy statement are first being mailed to stockholders on or about June 5, 2003.

Provident Financial Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation, operates as the bank holding company for The Provident Bank, its wholly-owned subsidiary. As used in this proxy statement, we, us and our refer to Provident Financial Services, Inc. and its subsidiaries. The term annual meeting, as used in this proxy statement, includes any adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting.

Record Date and Voting of Shares. Holders of record of Provident Financial Services, Inc. common stock, par value $0.01 per share as of the close of business on May 23, 2003, the record date for the annual meeting, are entitled to one vote for each share held, except as described below. As of the May 23, 2003 record date, Provident Financial Services, Inc. had 61,538,300 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting. In the event there are not sufficient votes for a quorum, or to approve or ratify any matter being presented at the time of this annual meeting, the annual meeting may be adjourned or postponed in order to permit the further solicitation of proxies.

In accordance with the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation of Provident Financial Services, Inc., record holders of common stock who beneficially own in excess of 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock are not entitled to vote any of the shares held in excess of that limit. The Certificate of Incorporation further authorizes the Board of Directors (i) to make all determinations necessary to implement and apply that limit, including determining whether persons or entities are acting in concert, and (ii) to demand that any person who is reasonably believed to beneficially own shares of common stock in excess of the limit supply information to enable the Board of Directors to implement and apply the limit.

Voting Procedures and Method for Counting Votes. As to the election of directors, the proxy card furnished to a stockholder by the Board of Directors enables a stockholder to vote FOR the election of the four nominees proposed by the Board of Directors, or to vote VOTE

WITHHELD for any nominee being proposed. Under Delaware law and the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Provident Financial Services, Inc., directors are elected by a plurality of votes cast, without regard to either broker non-votes or proxies as to which authority to vote for the nominees being proposed is withheld.

As to the approval of the Provident Financial Services, Inc. 2003 Stock Option Plan and the Provident Financial Services, Inc. 2003 Stock Award Plan, by checking the appropriate box, a stockholder may: (i) vote FOR the item; (ii) vote AGAINST the item; or (iii) ABSTAIN from voting on such item. These plans must be approved by a majority of the shares outstanding and eligible to be voted at the annual meeting. Therefore, broker non-votes and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the plans.

As to the ratification of KPMG LLP as independent auditors of Provident Financial Services, Inc., by checking the appropriate box, a stockholder may: (i) vote FOR the item; (ii) vote AGAINST the item; or (iii) ABSTAIN from voting on such item. Under the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Provident Financial Services, Inc., the ratification of this matter shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast, without regard to broker non-votes or proxies marked ABSTAIN.

Proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be returned to us, and will be tabulated by inspectors of election designated by the Board of Directors.

Revocability of Proxies. Stockholders who execute and return proxies may revoke them in the manner described below. Unless revoked, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted at the annual meeting and all adjournments or postponements of the annual meeting. Proxies solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. will be voted in accordance with the directions given in the proxies. Where no instructions are indicated, validly executed proxies will be voted FOR each of the proposals set forth in this proxy statement for consideration at the annual meeting.

A proxy may be revoked by a stockholder at any time before it is exercised by sending a written notice of revocation to the Secretary of Provident Financial Services, Inc., by delivering to Provident Financial Services, Inc. a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by attending the annual meeting, delivering a written revocation of your proxy and voting in person. However, if you are a stockholder whose shares of Provident Financial Services, Inc. common stock are not registered in your own name, you will need appropriate documentation from your record holder to vote in person at the annual meeting.

As of May 23, 2003, Provident Financial Services, Inc. was unaware of any person who beneficially owns more than 5% of Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s issued and outstanding shares of common stock. As of May 23, 2003, the Provident Financial Services, Inc. As of March 31, 2003, The Provident Bank had accounts totaling approximately $1.4 million on behalf of four present or former directors who participate in this plan.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The following report was prepared by Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s Compensation Committee, regarding its overall approach to executive compensation.

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee"), which is comprised solely of non-employee directors, is responsible for administering the compensation programs for Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s and The Provident Bank's executive officers, including the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. It is the Committee's responsibility to evaluate executive officer base salary levels, annual incentive plan objectives and awards under existing compensation plans, and to administer long-term incentive awards.

The Committee uses an independent compensation consultant to assist it in evaluating the competitiveness of Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s executive compensation program. The consultant provides the Committee with relevant competitive compensation program information of financial institutions that compete with Provident Financial Services, Inc. for business and executive talent.

Compensation Philosophy. The objectives of Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s executive compensation program are to assist it in attracting, retaining, and motivating executive officer talent necessary to achieving Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s operating and strategic objectives. The Committee believes that a strong link between executive compensation levels and value delivered to stockholders should exist.

The Committee uses a total compensation approach in establishing executive compensation opportunities, consisting of base salary, annual incentives, and long-term incentives. It is contemplated that a significant portion of executive compensation opportunities will be provided through variable compensation plans (e.g., annual incentives and long-term incentives, assuming stockholder approval of the Provident Financial Services, Inc. 2003 Stock Option Plan and the Provident Financial Services, Inc. 2003 Stock Award Plan). These plans are generally designed such that the executive receives value when Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s financial objectives are achieved and/or the stock performs.

The Committee establishes target total executive compensation opportunities at the beginning of each year. Such opportunities are generally positioned at competitive median levels. The consultant assists the Committee with regularly reviewing Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s executive pay levels and Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s performance. A peer group of 10 to 15 comparably sized financial institutions that compete with Provident Financial Services, Inc. in similar geographic markets and business lines are used for such purposes. It is anticipated that this peer group may be modified from year to year based on mergers and acquisitions within the industry, or other relevant factors. The results of the competitive analysis, the consultant's recommendations, and the Chief Executive Officer's recommendations are considered by the Committee in making executive compensation program recommendations to the Board of Directors.

Base Salaries. Executive officer base salary levels are evaluated at the beginning of each year. In general, executive officer salary ranges are developed considering the competitive median base salary information furnished to the Committee by the consultant. Executive officer base salary levels are set within these ranges considering the individual's performance and contribution, experience in the industry, and other relevant factors.

Annual Incentives. Annual incentive opportunities are provided to Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s executives to link the attainment of annual performance objectives with executive compensation. Under the annual incentive plan, at the beginning of each year, the Committee assigns a target and range of annual incentive award opportunities to each proxy reported executive. The award opportunities are linked with a specific target and range of performance results on one or more performance measures, which may include net income, efficiency ratio and other company or area specific measures. Payouts under the plan are determined at the end of the year considering actual performance on the measures selected.

Long-Term Incentives (Stock Option and Stock Award Program). The Committee believes that long-term incentives, specifically stock options and stock awards, should be a key element in the executive compensation program. These incentives strongly align the rewards provided to executives with the value created for stockholders through stock price appreciation.

Provident Financial Services, Inc. intends to make initial stock option and stock award program grants to executives and a broader employee population in the future. The Provident Financial Services, Inc. 2003 Stock Option Plan and the Provident Financial Services, Inc. 2003 Stock Award Plan are being submitted for stockholder approval for such purposes. Assuming stockholder approval of these plans, awards thereunder will consider performance, competitive market practices, and the recommendations of an independent advisor that has significant expertise relative to initial program awards made by financial institutions that have completed the mutual-to-stock conversion process.

Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee increased the base salary level of the Chief Executive Officer by 7.14% based upon the same criteria used for other executive officers. For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Chief Executive Officer earned an annual incentive award of $473,760, under the annual incentive plan based on the Committee's review of The Provident Bank's net income, return on assets and efficiency ratio. The Committee intends to provide the Chief Executive Officer with long-term incentive awards consistent with the approach discussed for other executives assuming awards are available for issuance. Provident Financial Services, Inc. and the Chief Executive Officer entered into an employment agreement, effective on January 15, 2003, covering items such as salary and bonus, summarized in this proxy statement.

Tax Deductibility of Executive Compensation. Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, companies are subject to limits on the deductibility of executive compensation. Deductible compensation is limited to $1 million per year for each executive officer listed in the summary compensation table. Compensation that is performance-based under the Internal Revenue Code's definition is exempt from this limit. Stock option grants are intended to qualify as performance-based compensation.

The Committee does not believe that the results of operations of Provident Financial Services, Inc. will be materially affected by the provisions of Section 162(m).

Employment Agreements

Provident Financial Services, Inc. entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Pantozzi, Ward and Shell, which became effective on January 15, 2003 upon completion of the mutual-to-stock conversion. Each of these agreements has a term of thirty-six months. The agreements renew for an additional year beginning on the first anniversary date of the agreement, and on each anniversary date thereafter, so that the remaining term is thirty-six months. However, if timely written notice of nonrenewal is provided to the executive, the employment under the agreement ceases at the end of thirty-six months following such anniversary date. On an annual basis, the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. shall conduct a performance review of the executive for purposes of determining whether to provide a notice of nonrenewal. Under the agreements, the base salaries for Messrs. Pantozzi, Ward and Shell are $600,000, $290,000 and $245,500, respectively. In addition to the base salary, each agreement provides for, among other things, participation in bonus programs, and other employee pension benefit and fringe benefit plans applicable to executive employees. In addition, the agreements provide for reasonable vacation and sick leave, reimbursement of certain club membership fees incurred by each executive and the use of a company-owned automobile. The agreements provide for termination by Provident Financial Services, Inc. for cause at any time, in which event the executive would have no right to receive compensation or other benefits for any period after termination. In the event the executive's employment is terminated for reasons other than for cause, for retirement or for disability or following a change in control, the executive would be entitled to a lump sum payment equivalent to the greater of: the payments due for the remaining term of the employment agreement, or three times the sum of (i) the highest annual rate of base salary and (ii) the greater of (x) the average cash bonus paid over the last three years or (y) the cash bonus paid in the last year, as well as the continuation of life, medical, dental and disability insurance coverage for three years. The executive may resign from employment and receive the benefits described above as a result of (i) a material change in the nature or scope of the executive's function, duties or responsibilities, (ii) a material reduction in benefits and perquisites, including base salary, from those being provided as of the effective date of the employment agreement, (iii) a relocation where the executive is required to perform services at a location more than 25 miles from The Provident Bank's principal executive offices, (iv) a failure to elect or reelect or to appoint or reappoint the executive to certain position(s) at Provident Financial Services, Inc. or The Provident Bank, or, in the case of Mr. Pantozzi, to nominate or elect the executive to the Board(s) of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. or The Provident Bank, (v) a liquidation or dissolution of The Provident Bank or Provident Financial Services, Inc., or (vi) a material breach of the employment agreement by The Provident Bank or Provident Financial Services, Inc. Each employment agreement generally provides that following a change in control (as defined in the agreement), the executive will receive the severance payments and insurance benefits described above if he resigns during the one-year period following the change in control or if he is terminated during the remaining term of the employment agreement following the change in control. Messrs. Pantozzi, Ward and Shell would receive an aggregate of $3,221,304, $1,160,679 and $951,612, respectively, pursuant to their employment agreements upon a change in control of Provident Financial Services, Inc., based upon current levels of compensation.

Under each employment agreement, if an executive becomes disabled or incapacitated to the extent that the executive is unable to perform his duties, he will be entitled to 75% of his base salary and all comparable insurance benefits until the earlier of: (i) return to full-time employment; (ii) employment by another employer; (iii) age 65; or (iv) death. Upon retirement at age 65 or in accordance with any retirement policy established with his consent, the executive is entitled to benefits under such retirement policy and other plans to which he is a party but shall not be entitled to any benefit payments specifically as a result of the employment agreement.

Change in Control Agreements

Provident Financial Services, Inc. entered into change in control agreements with six other officers including Messrs. Blum, Kuntz, French and Haagensen, Ms. Niro and Ms. Hynes (First Vice President-Employee Relations, The Provident Bank), which provide certain benefits in the event of a change in control of The Provident Bank or Provident Financial Services, Inc. Each of the change in control agreements provides for a term of 24 months. Commencing on the first anniversary date of the change in control agreement, and on each anniversary date thereafter, the term of the change in control agreement extends for an additional 12 months unless the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. provides the executive timely notice of nonrenewal. In the event notice of nonrenewal is provided to the executive, the change in control agreement terminates 24 months following the applicable anniversary date. On an annual basis the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. shall conduct a performance review of the executive for purposes of determining whether to provide a notice of nonrenewal. For these purposes, a change in control is defined generally to mean: (i) approval by stockholders of a plan of reorganization, merger or consolidation of The Provident Bank or Provident Financial Services, Inc. where The Provident Bank or Provident Financial Services, Inc. is not the surviving entity; (ii) changes to the Board of Directors of The Provident Bank or Provident Financial Services, Inc. whereby individuals who constitute the current Board of Directors cease to constitute a majority of the Board of Directors, subject to certain exceptions; (iii) the acquisition of all or substantially all of the assets of Provident Financial Services, Inc. or the beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the voting securities of Provident Financial Services, Inc.; or (iv) a complete liquidation or dissolution of Provident Financial Services, Inc. or The Provident Bank or approval by the stockholders of Provident Financial Services, Inc. of a plan for such dissolution or liquidation. Although the change in control agreements may have the effect of making a takeover more expensive to an acquiror, we believe that the benefits of enhancing our ability to attract and retain qualified management persons by offering the change in control agreements outweigh any disadvantage of such agreements.

Following a change in control of Provident Financial Services, Inc. or The Provident Bank, an officer is entitled to a payment under the change in control agreement if the officer's employment is terminated during the term of such agreement by Provident Financial Services, Inc. or The Provident Bank, other than for cause, disability or retirement, as defined, or if the officer terminates employment during the term of such agreement for good reason. Good reason is generally defined to include the assignment of duties materially inconsistent with the officer's positions, duties or responsibilities as in effect prior to the change in control, a reduction in his or her annual compensation or benefits, or relocation of his or her principal place of employment by more than 25 miles from its location immediately prior to the change in control, or a failure of Provident Financial Services, Inc. to obtain an assumption of the agreement by its successor. In the event that an officer who is a party to a change in control agreement is entitled to receive severance payments pursuant to the agreement, he or she will receive a cash payment equal to two times the highest level of aggregate annualized base salary and other cash compensation paid to the officer during the calendar year in which he or she was terminated or either of the immediately preceding two calendar years. In addition to the severance payment, each covered officer is generally entitled to receive life, health, dental and disability coverage for the remaining term of the agreement. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the change in control agreement, payments under the change in control agreements are limited so that they will not constitute an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

Benefit Plans

Pension Plan. The Provident Bank maintains The Provident Bank Pension Plan, a tax-qualified plan generally covering employees age 21 or older who have worked at The Provident Bank for at least one year in which they have accrued 1,000 or more hours of service. The Provident Bank froze the Pension Plan as of April 1, 2003. As of April 1, 2003, employees are not entitled to accrue additional benefits. In addition, employees hired after the freeze date are not eligible to enter the Plan. Pension Plan participants generally become entitled to retirement benefits upon the later of attainment of age 65 or the fifth anniversary of participation in the plan, which is referred to as the normal retirement date. The normal retirement benefit is equal to 1.35% of the participant's average final compensation up to the Average Social Security Level plus 2% of the participant's average final compensation in excess of the Average Social Security Level multiplied by the participant's years of credited service to a maximum of 30 years.

Participants who have completed at least 5 years of vested service generally become 100% vested in their accrued retirement benefits. Vested retirement benefits generally will be paid beginning on the participant's normal retirement date. Participants with accrued benefits in the Pension Plan prior to April 1, 2003 will continue to vest in their pre-April 1, 2003 accrued benefit after April 1, 2003.

A participant may elect to retire prior to age 65 and receive early retirement benefits if retirement occurs after completion of at least 5 consecutive years of vested service and attainment of age 55. If such an early retirement election is made, retirement benefits will begin on the first day of any month during the 10-year period preceding his or her normal retirement date, as directed by the retiring participant. If a participant elects to retire prior to both attaining age 65 and completing 5 years of credited service, his or her accrued pension benefit will be reduced 3% per year for the first five years prior to age 65 and 5% per year thereafter to age 55. However, if a participant elects to retire early after both attaining age 60 and completing 25 years of credited service his or her accrued pension benefit will be unreduced. Any participant who terminated employment prior to January 1, 2002 will receive an early pension benefit equal to the actuarial equivalent of the annual amount of the normal pension that would otherwise have been payable to the participant had he or she not elected to receive an early pension. If the termination of service occurs after the normal retirement date, the participant's benefits will begin on the participant's postponed retirement date.

The standard form of benefit payment for a married participant is a 50% joint and survivor benefit that is reduced actuarially and the standard form of benefit payment for a non-married participant is a straight life benefit. A non-married participant or a participant who has complied with the spousal consent requirements may elect to receive payment of benefits in the following optional forms: (a) straight life benefit; (b) 100% joint and survivor benefit; (c) 50% joint and survivor benefit; or (d) period certain and life benefit.

In the event a participant who is married for at least one year and is vested in the Pension Plan dies prior to his or her termination of service and after age 55, his or her spouse will be entitled to one-half of the amount payable to the participant had the participant elected to retire the day before his or her death with the 50% joint and survivor benefit. If the participant dies prior to age 55, the retirement benefits payable to the participant's spouse will commence at the time the participant would have reached age 55.

In the event a non-married participant dies before his or her termination of service after both attaining age 55 and completing 20 years of service, a monthly pension shall be paid to his or her beneficiary. The non-married participant's beneficiary will be entitled to a monthly pension benefit equal to one-half of the amount payable to the participant as if the participant had retired on the first day of the month following his or her death, had been married, and the spouse had been born on the same day as the participant. Payments made to beneficiaries of non-married participants cease upon the earlier of the beneficiary's death or the receipt of the 120th monthly payment.

Edgar Filing: PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

If the total value of a pension payable directly to a participant or to any other beneficiary under the Pension Plan is less than $5,000, as determined by the Pension Plan's actuary, payment of such value shall automatically be made in a single lump sum in lieu of such pension.

The following table indicates the annual retirement benefit that would have been payable under the Pension Plan and the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan upon retirement at or after a participant's normal retirement date in calendar year 2002, considering the average annual earnings and credited service classifications specified below.

(1) The Pension Plan and the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan do not count service in excess of 30 years in the benefit formula.

Average final earnings is the average base salary, as reported in the Salary column of the Summary Compensation Table, for the highest five consecutive years during the final 10 years of employment. Tax laws impose a limit ($200,000 for individuals retiring in 2003) on average final earnings that may be counted in computing benefits under the Pension Plan and on the annual benefits ($160,000 in 2003). The Pension Plan may also pay benefits accrued as of January 1, 1994 based on tax law limits then in effect. For Messrs. Pantozzi, Ward, Shell, and Haagensen, benefits based on average final earnings in excess of this limit are payable under the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan.

The benefits shown in the preceding table are annual benefits payable in the form of a single life annuity and are not subject to any deduction for Social Security benefits or other offset amounts. As of December 31, 2002, Mr. Pantozzi had 39 years of service; Mr. Ward had 30 years of service; Mr. Shell had 8 years of service; Mr. French had 1 year of service; and Mr. Haagensen had 22 years of service.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. In January 1990, The Provident Bank established the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, a non-qualified retirement plan. Participation in the SERP is limited to executive management or highly compensated employees as designated by the Board of Directors and currently consists of Messrs. Pantozzi, Ward, Shell and Haagensen. The SERP pays to each participant an amount equal to the amount which would have been payable under the terms of the Pension Plan but for the limitations under Sections 401(a)(17) and 415 of the Internal Revenue Code, less the amount payable under the terms of the Pension Plan. The Provident Bank froze the SERP as of April 1, 2003, and as of that date employees are not entitled to accrue additional benefits. In addition, employees hired after April 1, 2003 are not eligible to participate in this plan. Amounts due from this plan will be paid on a monthly basis beginning within 90 days following termination of employment, but in no event before age 60, in the form of a qualified joint and 100% survivor annuity for married participants and a single life annuity for non-married participants. The plan has been amended to provide that in the event of a change in control (as defined in the plan), the undistributed balance of an employee's accrued benefit will be paid to him within 60 days of the change in control. For the year ended December 31, 2002, The Provident Bank expensed $242,328, $29,890, $7,002 and $0 relating to the SERP on behalf of Messrs. Pantozzi, Ward, Shell and Haagensen, respectively.

Supplemental Executive Savings Plan. In January 1990, The Provident Bank established the Supplemental Executive Savings Plan, a non-qualified plan that provides additional benefits to certain participants whose benefits under the Employee Savings Incentive Plan are limited by tax law limitations applicable to tax-qualified plans. Participation in the Executive Savings Plan is limited to executive management or highly compensated employees as designated by the Board of Directors and currently consists of Messrs. Pantozzi, Ward, Shell and Haagensen. The Provident Bank contributes for each participant an amount equal to the amount which would have been contributed under the terms of the

Employee Savings Incentive Plan but for the tax law limitations, less the amount actually contributed under the Employee Savings Incentive Plan. The Provident Bank established an investment fund to provide for payments due under this plan and allows participants employed on or after January 1, 1998 to choose, with the plan administrator's consent, from a variety of investment options. In connection with the mutual-to-stock conversion, the Supplemental Executive Savings Plan was amended to allow current employees a one-time election to invest their account balances in shares of Provident Financial Services, Inc. common stock. Any benefits payable under the Executive Savings Plan are vested under the same terms and conditions as the Employee Savings Incentive Plan. If there is a change in control, as defined in the Executive Savings Plan, the unpaid balance of the account shall become 100% vested and will be distributed within 60 days thereof. As of December 31, 2002, The Provident Bank expensed $22,425, $5,767, $3,939 and $1,501 relating to the Executive Savings Plan on behalf of Messrs. Pantozzi, Ward, Shell and Haagensen, respectively. The Supplemental Executive Savings Plan has also been amended to require a contribution for each participant who also participates in the Employee Stock Ownership Plan equal to the amount which would have been contributed under the terms of the Employee Stock Ownership Plan but for the tax law limitations, less the amount actually contributed under the Employee Stock Ownership Plan. The benefit payable under this portion of the Supplemental Executive Savings Plan may be calculated as if the contribution was applied to the repayment of a loan obtained to purchase shares in the stock offering, in substantially the same manner as under the Employee Stock Ownership Plan. The amendment also requires the distribution of shares equal to the value of a participant's account balance attributable to the Employee Stock Ownership Plan component of the plan at the same time and in the same manner as the participant receives a distribution from the Employee Stock Ownership Plan.

Equity Compensation Plans. There are no compensation plans in effect under which equity securities of Provident Financial Services, Inc. have been authorized for issuance.

Ownership Reports by Officers and Directors

The common stock of Provident Financial Services, Inc. is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The executive officers and directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. and The Provident Bank, and beneficial owners of greater than 10% of Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s common stock are required to file reports on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission disclosing beneficial ownership and changes in beneficial ownership of the common stock. The Securities and Exchange Commission rules require disclosure in Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s Proxy Statement or Annual Report on Form 10-K of the failure of an executive officer, director or 10% beneficial owner of Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s common stock to file a Form 3, 4, or 5 on a timely basis. No common stock of Provident Financial Services, Inc. was issued and outstanding during 2002, and therefore no executive officer or director failed to file ownership reports on a timely basis for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Transactions With Certain Related Persons

Federal law and regulation generally require that all loans or extensions of credit to executive officers and directors must be made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with the general public and must not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features. However, regulations also permit executive officers and directors to receive the same terms through benefit or compensation plans that are widely available to other employees, as long as the director or executive officer is not given preferential treatment compared to the other participating employees. Pursuant to such a program, loans have been extended to executive officers, which loans are on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with the general public, except as to the interest rate charged, which rate is the same as available to all employees. These loans do not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features. As of May 23, 2003, The Provident Bank had loans and loan commitments totaling $794,410 to its executive officers. The Provident Bank does not originate loans for members of its Board of Directors or for their immediate family members. There was one residential mortgage loan outstanding to a current Board member that was originated prior to his service as a Board member, which subsequently has been refinanced at a different financial institution.

Section 402 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 generally prohibits an issuer from: (1) extending or maintaining credit; (2) arranging for the extension of credit; or (3) renewing an extension of credit in the form of a personal loan for an officer or director. There are several exceptions to this general prohibition, one of which is applicable to Provident Financial Services, Inc. Sarbanes-Oxley does not apply to loans made by a depository institution, such as The Provident Bank, that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and is subject to the insider lending restrictions of the Federal Reserve Act. All loans to Provident Financial Services, Inc. and The Provident Bank's officers are made in conformity with the Federal Reserve Act and Regulation O.

The Provident Bank retains the law firm of Reed Smith LLP to perform legal services from time to time. In 2002, Reed Smith LLP was paid $43,973 for services rendered to The Provident Bank. Director Connor is a partner at Reed Smith LLP.

PROPOSAL II APPROVAL OF THE

PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC. 2003 STOCK OPTION PLAN

General

Subject to stockholder approval at the annual meeting, Provident Financial Services, Inc. has established the Provident Financial Services, Inc. 2003 Stock Option Plan (the "Stock Option Plan"). Pursuant to the Stock Option Plan, options to purchase up to 5,961,830 shares of common stock may be granted to The Provident Bank's and Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s employees and directors. As of May 23, 2003, the market value of the common stock was $19.10 per share. The Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. believes that it is appropriate to adopt a flexible and comprehensive stock option plan that permits the granting of a variety of long-term incentive awards to directors and employees as a means of enhancing and encouraging the recruitment and retention of those individuals on whom the continued success of Provident Financial Services, Inc. and The Provident Bank most depends. Attached as Exhibit C to this Proxy Statement is the complete text of the form of Stock Option Plan. The principal features of the Stock Option Plan are summarized below.

Principal Features of the Stock Option Plan

The Stock Option Plan provides for awards in the form of stock options, reload options and/or limited stock appreciation rights ("Limited Rights"). Each award shall be on such terms and conditions, consistent with the Stock Option Plan and applicable Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation regulations, as the committee administering the Stock Option Plan may determine.

The term of stock options generally will not exceed ten years from the date of grant. Stock options granted under the Stock Option Plan may be either Incentive Stock Options as defined under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code, or stock options not intended to qualify as such. No stock option awards have been granted to date.

Shares issued upon the exercise of a stock option may be authorized but unissued shares, treasury shares, or shares acquired by Provident Financial Services, Inc. in open market purchases. Any shares subject to an award that expires or is terminated unexercised will again be available for issuance under the Stock Option Plan. Generally, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, all or any non-qualified stock options granted under the Stock Option Plan may be transferable by the participant but only to the persons or classes of persons determined by the Board of Directors. No other award or any right or interest therein is assignable or transferable except under certain limited exceptions set forth in the Stock Option Plan.

Edgar Filing: PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

The Stock Option Plan will be administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. Pursuant to the terms of the Stock Option Plan, non-employee directors and employees of The Provident Bank or Provident Financial Services, Inc. or its affiliates are eligible to participate. As of May 23, 2003, there were ten non-employee directors eligible to participate in the 2003 Stock Option Plan. Subject to the provisions of the Stock Option Plan, the Committee will determine to whom the awards will be granted, in what amounts and the period over which such awards will vest. In accordance with Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation regulations, the Stock Option Plan provides that no individual officer shall be granted awards with respect to more than 25% of the total shares of common stock subject to the Stock Option Plan; no non-employee director shall be granted awards with respect to more than 5% of the total shares of common stock subject to the Stock Option Plan; all non-employee directors in the aggregate may not be granted awards with respect to more than 30% of the total shares of common stock subject to the Stock Option Plan; no awards shall begin vesting earlier than one year from the date the Stock Option Plan is approved by stockholders of Provident Financial Services, Inc.; no awards shall vest at a rate in excess of 20% per year beginning from the date of grant; and the vesting of an award shall not accelerate in the event of termination of employment or service due to normal retirement.

In granting awards under the Stock Option Plan, the Committee will consider, among other things, position and years of service, and the value of the individual's services to Provident Financial Services, Inc. and The Provident Bank. The exercise price of stock options will be at least the fair market value of the underlying common stock at the time of the grant. Once granted, stock options may not be re-priced (i.e., the exercise price may not be changed other than adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends and similar events). The exercise price may be paid in cash, common stock, or via a broker-assisted cashless exercise (as defined in the Stock Option Plan).

Stock Options. Incentive Stock Options can only be granted to employees of The Provident Bank, Provident Financial Services, Inc. or an affiliate (i.e., a parent or subsidiary corporation of The Provident Bank or Provident Financial Services, Inc.). Non-employee directors will be granted non-qualified stock options. No option granted to an employee in connection with the Stock Option Plan will be exercisable as an Incentive Stock Option subject to incentive tax treatment if exercised more than three months after the date on which the optionee terminates employment with The Provident Bank and/or Provident Financial Services, Inc., except as set forth below. In the event a participant ceases to maintain continuous service with Provident Financial Services, Inc. or an affiliate by reason of death, disability, or following a change in control, options still subject to restrictions will vest and be free of these restrictions and can be exercised for up to one year after cessation of service but in no event beyond the expiration of the options' original term. In the event a participant ceases to maintain continuous service for any other reason, the participant will forfeit all nonvested options. The participant's vested options will remain exercisable for up to three months in the case of Incentive Stock Options, and one year in the case of non-qualified stock options. If an optionee terminates employment with The Provident Bank, Provident Financial Services, Inc. or an affiliate, any Incentive Stock Options exercised more than three months following the date the optionee terminates employment shall be treated as a non-qualified stock option; provided, however, that in the event of death or disability, Incentive Stock Options may be exercised and receive incentive tax treatment for up to at least one year following termination of employment, subject to the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

In the event of death or disability of an optionee, Provident Financial Services, Inc., if requested by the optionee or beneficiary, may elect, in exchange for the option, to pay the optionee or beneficiary the amount by which the fair market value of the common stock exceeds the exercise price of the option on the date of the optionee's termination of service for death or disability.

Limited Stock Appreciation Rights. The Committee may grant Limited Rights to employees simultaneously with the grant of any option. A Limited Right gives the option holder the right, upon a change in control of Provident Financial Services, Inc. or The Provident Bank, to receive the excess of the market value of the shares represented by the Limited Rights on the date exercised over the exercise price. Limited Rights generally will be subject to the same terms and conditions and exercisable to the same extent as stock options, as described above. Payment upon exercise of a Limited Right will be in cash.

Limited Rights may be granted at the time of, and must be related to, the grant of a stock option. The exercise of one will reduce to that extent the number of shares represented by the other. If a Limited Right is granted with and related to an Incentive Stock Option, the Limited Right must satisfy all the restrictions and limitations to which the related Incentive Stock Option is subject.

Reload Options. Reload options also may be granted at the time of the grant of a stock option. Reload options entitle the option holder, who has delivered shares that he or she owns as payment of the exercise price for option stock, to a new option to acquire additional shares equal in amount to the shares he or she has traded in. Reload options also may be granted to replace option shares retained by the employer for payment of the option holder's withholding tax. The option price at which additional shares of common stock can be purchased by the option holder through the exercise of a reload option is equal to the fair market value of the previously owned common stock on the date the reload option was awarded. The option period during which the reload option may be exercised expires at the same time as that of the original option that the holder has exercised.

Effect of Adjustments. Shares as to which awards may be granted under the Stock Option Plan, and shares then subject to awards, will be adjusted by the Committee in the event of any merger, consolidation, reorganization, recapitalization, stock dividend, stock split, combination or exchange of shares or other change in the corporate structure of Provident Financial Services, Inc. without receipt of payment or consideration by Provident Financial Services, Inc.

In the case of any merger, consolidation or combination of Provident Financial Services, Inc. with or into another holding company or other entity, whereby holders of common stock will receive a cash payment (the Merger Price) for each share of common stock exchanged in the transaction, any individual with exercisable options will receive an amount equal to the difference between the Merger Price times the number of shares of common stock subject to such options and the aggregate exercise price of all surrendered options.

Amendment and Termination. The Board of Directors may at any time amend, suspend or terminate the Stock Option Plan or any portion thereof; provided, however, that no such amendment, suspension or termination shall impair the rights of any individual, without his consent, in any award made pursuant to the Stock Option Plan. Unless previously terminated, the Stock Option Plan shall continue in effect for a term of ten years, after which no further awards may be granted under the Stock Option Plan.

Federal Income Tax Consequences. The following brief description of the tax consequences of stock option grants under the Stock Option Plan is based on federal income tax laws currently in effect and does not purport to be a complete description of such federal income tax consequences.

The exercise of a stock option which is an Incentive Stock Option within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code will generally not, by itself, result in the recognition of taxable income to the individual nor entitle Provident Financial Services, Inc. to a deduction at the time of such exercise. However, the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the option shares on the date of exercise is an item of tax preference which may, in certain situations, trigger the alternative minimum tax. The alternative minimum tax is incurred only when it exceeds the regular income tax. The sale of an Incentive Stock Option share prior to the end of the applicable holding period, (i.e., the longer of two years from the date of grant or one year from the date of exercise) will cause any gain to be taxed at ordinary income tax rates, with respect to the spread between the exercise price and the fair market value of the share on the date of exercise and at applicable capital gains rates with respect to any post exercise appreciation in the value of the share.

The exercise of a non-qualified stock option will result in the recognition of ordinary income on the date of exercise in an amount equal to the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise.

Reload options are of the same type (non-qualified or incentive) as the option that the option holder exercised. Therefore, the tax consequences of the reload option are determined under the applicable tax rules for Incentive Stock Options or non-qualified stock options.

The exercise of a Limited Right will result in the recognition of ordinary income by the individual on the date of exercise in an amount of cash, and/or the fair market value on that date of the shares, acquired pursuant to the exercise.

Provident Financial Services, Inc. will be allowed a deduction at the time, and in the amount of, any ordinary income recognized by the individual under the various circumstances described above, provided that Provident Financial Services, Inc. meets its federal withholding tax obligations.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes eligible to be cast is required for approval of the Stock Option Plan.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE STOCK OPTION PLAN.

PROPOSAL III APPROVAL OF THE PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC. 2003 STOCK AWARD PLAN

General

Subject to stockholder approval at the annual meeting, Provident Financial Services, Inc. has established the Provident Financial Services, Inc. 2003 Stock Award Plan (the "Stock Award Plan") as a method of providing certain key employees and non-employee directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. with a proprietary interest in Provident Financial Services, Inc. in a manner designed to encourage such persons to remain with Provident Financial Services, Inc. and/or The Provident Bank, and to provide further incentives to achieve corporate objectives. The following discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Stock Award Plan, the form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

The Provident Bank intends to contribute stock or sufficient funds for the Stock Award Plan to acquire 2,384,732 shares of common stock of Provident Financial Services, Inc., which will be available to be awarded to key employees and non-employee directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. No stock awards have been granted to date.

Principal Features of the Stock Award Plan

The Stock Award Plan provides for the award of shares of common stock ("Stock Award Plan Shares") subject to the restrictions described below. As of May 23, 2003, the market value of the common stock was $19.10 per share. Each award under the Stock Award Plan will be made on terms and conditions consistent with the Stock Award Plan.

The Stock Award Plan will be administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. The Committee will select the recipients and terms of awards pursuant to the Stock Award Plan. Pursuant to the terms of the Stock Award Plan, any director or key employee of The Provident Bank, Provident Financial Services, Inc. or its affiliates may be selected by the Committee to participate in the Stock Award Plan. In determining to whom and in what amount to grant awards, the Committee will consider the position and responsibilities of eligible persons, the value of their services to Provident Financial Services, Inc. and The Provident Bank and other factors it deems relevant. As of May 23, 2003, there were ten non-employee directors eligible to participate in the Stock Award Plan.

In accordance with Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation regulations, the Stock Award Plan provides that no individual officer shall be granted awards with respect to more than 25% of the total shares subject to the Stock Award Plan; no non-employee director shall be granted awards with respect to more than 5% of the total shares of common stock subject to the Stock Award Plan; all non-employee directors in the aggregate may not be granted awards with respect to more than 30% of the total shares of common stock subject to the Stock Award Plan; no awards shall begin vesting earlier than one year from the date the Stock Award Plan is approved by stockholders of Provident Financial Services, Inc.; no awards shall vest at a rate in excess of 20% per year beginning from the date of grant; and the vesting of an award shall not accelerate in the event of termination of employment or service due to normal retirement.

Subject to the above restrictions, in the event a recipient ceases to maintain continuous service with Provident Financial Services, Inc. or The Provident Bank by reason of death or disability, or following a change in control, Stock Award Plan shares still subject to restrictions ("restricted stock") will vest and be free of these restrictions. In the event of termination for any other reason, all nonvested restricted stock will be forfeited.

Prior to vesting of the nonvested restricted stock, a recipient will have the right to vote the nonvested restricted stock which has been awarded to the recipient and will receive any dividends declared on such restricted stock. Nonvested restricted stock is subject to forfeiture if the recipient fails to remain in the continuous service (as defined in the Stock Award Plan) as an employee, officer, or director of Provident Financial Services, Inc. or The Provident Bank for the restricted period.

Effect of Adjustments. Restricted stock awarded under the Stock Award Plan will be adjusted by the Committee in the event of a reorganization, recapitalization, stock split, stock dividend, combination or exchange of shares, merger, consolidation or other change in corporate structure.

Federal Income Tax Consequences. Holders of restricted stock will recognize ordinary income on the date that the shares of restricted stock are no longer subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture, in an amount equal to the fair market value of the shares on that date. In certain circumstances, a holder may elect to recognize ordinary income and determine such fair market value on the date of the grant of the restricted stock. Holders of restricted stock will also recognize compensation income (or in the case of non-employee directors, self employment income) equal to their dividend payments when such payments are received. Generally, the amount of income recognized by individuals will be a deductible expense for tax purposes by Provident Financial Services, Inc.

Amendment to the Stock Award Plan. The Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. may at any time amend, suspend or terminate the Stock Award Plan or any portion thereof, provided, however, that no such amendment, suspension or termination shall impair the rights of any award recipient, without his or her consent, in any award therefore made pursuant to the Stock Award Plan.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes eligible to be cast is required to approve the Stock Award Plan.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE STOCK AWARD PLAN.

PROPOSAL IV RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s independent auditors for the year ended December 31, 2002 were KPMG LLP (KPMG). The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. has approved the engagement of KPMG to be Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s auditors for the year ending December 31, 2003, subject to the ratification of the engagement by Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s stockholders at this Annual Meeting.

Audit Fees. Set forth below is certain information concerning aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered by KPMG during 2002:

Audit Fees ⁽¹⁾	$ 548,500
Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees
All Other Fees ⁽²⁾	114,000
Total Fees	$ 662,500

(1) Includes assistance with and review of Provident Financial Services, Inc.'s registration statement and prospectus, including the audited consolidated financial statements presented therein, prepared and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with

- Provident Financial Services, Inc. s mutual-to-stock conversion and stock offering.
- (2) Relates to audits of employee benefit plans and fees related to federal and state tax compliance services, as well as advisory services relating to a recent change in the New Jersey State Corporate Business Tax.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independence of KPMG. The Audit Committee concluded that performing such services does not affect the independence of KPMG in performing its function as auditor of Provident Financial Services, Inc.

A representative of KPMG is expected to attend the annual meeting to respond to appropriate questions and to make a statement if he or she so desires.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF KPMG LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS.

In the case of nominations to the Board of Directors, certain information regarding the nominee must be provided. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to require Provident Financial Services, Inc. to include in its proxy statement and proxy relating to an annual meeting any stockholder proposal that does not meet all of the requirements for inclusion established by the Securities and Exchange Commission in effect at the time such proposal is received.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors is not aware of any business to come before the annual meeting other than the matters described above in this proxy statement. However, if any matters should properly come before the annual meeting, it is intended that holders of the proxies will act in accordance with their best judgment.

MISCELLANEOUS

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by Provident Financial Services, Inc. PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES

The following Corporate Governance Principles have been approved by the Board of Directors (Board) to promote the effective operation of the Board and to provide a framework for the conduct of business by Provident Financial Services, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Company) in accordance with the highest ethical standards and in a manner intended to enhance the long term value of the Company. These Principles will be reviewed annually or more often as required and it is recognized that these Principles may evolve to address changing business and regulatory conditions.

Role of the Board of Directors

1. Management is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the Company. The Board oversees and guides the Company's management and its business. The basic responsibility of the Board is to exercise its business judgment to act in what it reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. Within this framework, the Board also considers the Company's ethical behavior and may consider the interests of other constituents, including the Company's customers, employees and the communities in which it functions, as well as the requirements of the Federal and state bank regulatory agencies. In discharging their obligations, Directors are entitled to rely on the honesty and integrity of the Company's executives, outside advisors and auditors.
2. The Board provides oversight with respect to the strategic direction and key policies of the Company. It approves major initiatives, advises on key financial and business objectives, and monitors progress with respect to these matters.
3. The Board, through its Audit Committee, provides oversight of the integrity of the financial statements of the Company; the independent accountants' qualifications and independence; the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent accountants; and the compliance by the Company with legal and regulatory requirements.
4. The Board, through its Compensation Committee, selects and annually evaluates the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and President. The Board also approves the appointment of senior management recommended to the Board. The Compensation Committee, on behalf of the Board, evaluates and determines the compensation of the Company's senior executive officers; oversees compensation and benefits plans, policies and programs of the Company; and will administer any equity-based incentive compensation plans of the Company.
5. The Chief Executive Officer and President shall serve as the Chairman of the Board. The Board may in the future determine to separate these functions based on what is determined to be in the Company's best interest.

Composition of the Board and Selection of Directors

Edgar Filing: PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

The size and composition of the Board should be appropriate for effective deliberation of issues relevant to the Company's businesses and related interests. The Board presently has 11 members and it is the sense of the Board that eleven members is currently the correct size of the Board to achieve governance objectives and goals. More than a majority of the members of the Board shall be, in the business judgment of the Board, independent under the applicable rules of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (NYSE).

7. The credentials of prospective director candidates are reviewed by the Governance /Nominating Committee (the Governance Committee). Nominees are selected through a process based on criteria set with the concurrence of the full Board and re-evaluated periodically. The criteria weighed in the Director selection process include: the relevance of the candidate s experience to the business of the Company; enhancing the diversity of experience of the Board; the current needs of the Company and the Board; the candidate s independence from conflict or direct economic relationship with the Company; and the ability of the candidate to attend and actively participate in Board meetings regularly and devote an appropriate amount of effort in preparation for those meetings.

All new Directors must participate in the Company s Director Orientation Program. This orientation includes presentations by senior management to familiarize new Directors with the Company s strategic plans, its significant financial, accounting and risk management issues, its compliance programs, its code of business conduct and ethics, its principal officers, and its internal and independent auditors. In addition, each Board Committee also provides new Committee members with appropriate background information about the workings of the Committee. The Board also encourages formal Board continuing education.

8. The Governance Committee annually reviews Director suitability and the continuing composition of the Board; it then recommends Director nominees who are voted on by the full Board. The Board believes that, if this evaluation is performed well, it obviates the need for term limits, which could unnecessarily deprive the Company of experienced Directors. The Board is divided into three classes, and the terms of each class are classified so that only one class will be elected each year.
9. Any significant change in circumstances that may relate to a Director s qualifications as a Director shall be considered in determining suitability for continued directorship. In addition, an analysis of potential conflicts and review by the Governance Committee and the Board are conducted for any proposed additional director affiliation with a for-profit or charitable enterprise or for any proposed transaction involving the Company (or a subsidiary of the Company) in which any Director would have a direct economic or beneficial interest. Directors shall give the Chairman of the Governance Committee notice of any such significant change in circumstances, proposed additional for-profit or charitable director affiliation or proposed transaction involving the Company.
10. A Director shall resign no later than the Annual Stockholders Meeting coincident with or immediately following his or her 72nd birthday, regardless of whether or not the Director s term has expired.

Functioning of the Board

11. The Board, with input from the Chairman, sets the annual schedule of Board and Committee meetings. Committee schedules are recommended by each Committee in order to meet the responsibilities of that Committee.
12. The Chairman generally sets board agendas with ample opportunity for suggestions from other Directors.
13. The Board is provided, in advance of meetings, with agendas and written background information and data with respect to Board/Committee agenda items, as well as other general information relevant to the Company s business. As needed, the Board also is provided with information between meetings.
14. The Chairman of the Company presides at Board meetings. In the event that the Chairman of the Company is unable to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors, an independent Director designated by the Board each year and whose name shall be disclosed to stockholders, shall chair the meetings. Members of senior management are included in open sessions of Board and Committee meetings, as appropriate. The Board meets in executive session with only Directors present from time to time as appropriate. The non-management Directors of the Company meet at regularly scheduled executive sessions, without management at least two times a year. The Director who presides at these full executive sessions shall be an independent Director designated by the Board each year and whose name shall be disclosed to stockholders. In addition, the Compensation Committee and the Board meet annually in full executive session, without management, to assess the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and President and consider the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and President and the senior executive officers.

15. Board members have full access to the Company's management. In addition, the Board or any of its Committees have the authority to retain counsel and other independent experts or consultants, as they may deem necessary, without consulting or obtaining the approval of any officer of the Company in advance.
16. The Board will conduct self-evaluations annually to determine whether it and its Committees are functioning effectively. The Governance Committee will oversee this review.

Committees of the Board

17. Committees support the role of the Board on issues that benefit from consideration by a smaller, more focused subset of Directors. The Board will have at all times an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Governance Committee. All of the members of these Committees will, in the business judgment of the Board, be independent Directors under the applicable rules of the NYSE and meet the standards of independence required under applicable law. The Board also may establish a committee of the Board, which may act on behalf of the full Board between regularly scheduled Board meetings, usually when timing is critical. The Board may form other Committees from time to time to deal with special issues. One or more Board members also serve on the Board of The Provident Bank Foundation to oversee and coordinate charitable giving programs.
18. The roles of the Committees are defined by the Company's By-Laws and by Committee charters adopted by the Board.
19. At least annually, the Governance Committee, in consultation with the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President, reviews Committee assignments (members and chairs). In considering a Director for Committee membership, the Committee takes into consideration any factors it deems appropriate, including without limitation, the Director's experience and background, and its relevance to the goals and responsibilities of the Committee and the Director's Committee preferences. The Committee then makes Committee assignment recommendations on which the full Board votes. It is the sense of the Board that consideration should be given to rotating Committee members and Committee chairs periodically, but the Board does not believe that rotation should be mandated as a policy because the Board believes that there are significant benefits attributable to the continuity and experience gained in service on a particular Committee over time.
20. The respective Committee chairs in consultation with management and other Committee members set committee agendas. Committee chairs report on each Committee meeting at the Board meeting following the Committee meeting. Minutes of Committee meetings also are provided to each Director. Each Committee chairman convenes, as appropriate, executive sessions of outside Directors of the Committee to discuss its operations and other related matters.
21. In the absence of a Committee chair, the most senior Committee member (in terms of Committee service) chairs the Committee meeting.

Compensation of Directors

22. At least annually, the Governance Committee will review competitive compensation survey information, and consider the appropriateness of the form and amount of Director compensation with a view toward attracting and retaining qualified Directors. The review will take into consideration the extent to which the Company common stock should be a component of Director compensation. The Governance Committee will also make recommendations on stock ownership guidelines for Directors.

Conduct and Ethics Standards for Directors

23. Directors are subject to applicable provisions of the Company's Code of Conduct. Among other things, Directors must conduct themselves in a manner that avoids actual or apparent conflicts of interest and that protects the Company's business reputation. A conflict of interest occurs when a Director's private interest interferes in any way, or even appears to interfere, with the interests of the Company. Except as authorized by the Board of Directors, no outside Director shall have a direct economic relationship with the Company. The Company loans to or guarantees of obligations of, Directors and their family members are prohibited. The Board will continue the present practice of prohibiting loans by The Provident Bank to a Director or to any Director's immediate family or to an entity in which any Director or a member of a Director's immediate family has an interest.
24. Directors owe a duty to the Company to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity to do so arises. Accordingly, Directors are prohibited from taking for themselves personally business opportunities that are discovered through the use of the Company property, information or position.
25. Directors, in the course of their duties, must comply fully with all federal and state laws applicable to the Company's businesses, and with applicable Company policies, including the Company's stock trading and confidentiality policies.

PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose

The Audit Committee is appointed by the Board of Directors of Provident Financial Services, Inc. The Committee may, in its sole discretion and subject to FDIC regulations and policy, accelerate the time at which any Incentive Stock Option may be exercised in whole or in part, provided that it is consistent with the terms of Section 422 of the Code. Notwithstanding the above, in the event of a Change in Control of the Company, all Incentive Stock Options that have been awarded shall become immediately exercisable, provided, however, that if the aggregate Fair Market Value (determined at the time the Option is granted) of Common Stock for which Options are exercisable as a result of a Change in Control, together with the aggregate Fair Market Value (determined at the time the Option is granted) of all other Common Stock for which Incentive Stock Options become exercisable during such year, exceeds $100,000, then the first $100,000 of Incentive Stock Options (determined as of the Date of Grant) shall be exercisable as Incentive Stock Options and any excess shall be exercisable as Non-Statutory Stock Options (but shall remain subject to the provisions of this Section to the extent permitted).

The provisions of this subsection (e) shall be construed and applied in accordance with Section 422(d) of the Code and the regulations, if any, promulgated thereunder.

(f) Terms of Options. The term during which each Incentive Stock Option may be exercised shall be determined by the Committee, provided, however, in no event shall an Incentive Stock Option be exercisable in whole or in part more than 10 years from the Date of Grant. If any Key Employee, at the time an Incentive Stock Option is granted to him, owns stock representing more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or its Affiliate (or, under Section 424(d) of the Code, is deemed to own stock representing more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock, by reason of the ownership of such classes of stock, directly or indirectly, by or for any brother, sister, spouse, ancestor or lineal descendent of such Key Employee, or by or for any corporation, partnership, estate or trust of which such Key Employee is a shareholder, partner or Beneficiary), the Incentive Stock Option granted to him shall not be exercisable after the expiration of five years from the Date of Grant.

(g) Termination of Continuous Service. Upon the termination of a Key Employee's Continuous Service for any reason other than death, Disability, Termination for Cause or termination following a Change in Control (other than for Cause following a Change in Control) the Key Employee's Incentive Stock Options shall be exercisable only as to those shares that were immediately purchasable by such Key Employee at the date of termination for a period of three months following termination. Upon termination of a Key Employee's Continuous Service due to death or Disability or following a Change in Control, all Incentive Options held by a Key Employee, whether or not vested at such time, shall vest and become exercisable by the Participant or his legal representative or beneficiaries for one year following the date of such termination, death or cessation of Continuous Service, provided that in no event shall the period extend beyond the expiration of the Stock Option term, and provided, further, that, except in the event of death or Disability, such Option shall not be eligible for treatment as an Incentive Stock Option in the event such Option is exercised more than three months following termination. In the event of Termination for Cause all rights under the Incentive Stock Options shall expire upon termination.

In order to obtain Incentive Stock Option treatment for Options exercised by heirs or devisees of an Optionee, the Optionee's death must have occurred while employed or within three months of termination of Continuous Service.

(h) Transferability. No Incentive Stock Option granted under the Plan is transferable except by will or the laws of descent and distribution and is exercisable during his lifetime only by the Key Employee to which it is granted.

(i) Compliance with Code. The options granted under this Section are intended to qualify as Incentive Stock Options within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code, but the Company makes no warranty as to the qualification of any Option as an Incentive Stock Option within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code. If an Option granted hereunder fails for whatever reason to comply with the provisions of Section 422 of the Code, and such failure is not or cannot be cured, such Option shall be a Non-Statutory Stock Option.

10. Limited Rights

The Committee may grant a Limited Right simultaneously with the grant of any Option to any Key Employee of the Bank or the Company, with respect to all or some of the shares covered by such Option. Limited Rights granted under the Plan are subject to the following terms and conditions:

(a) Terms of Rights. In no event shall a Limited Right be exercisable in whole or in part before the expiration of six months from the date of grant of the Limited Right. A Limited Right may be exercised only in the event of a Change in Control of the Company.

The Limited Right may be exercised only when the underlying Option is eligible to be exercised, provided that the Fair Market Value of the underlying shares on the day of exercise is greater than the exercise price of the related Option.

Upon exercise of a Limited Right, the related Option shall cease to be exercisable. Upon exercise or termination of an Option, any related Limited Rights shall terminate. The Limited Rights may be for no more than 100% of the difference between the exercise price and the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock subject to the underlying Option. The Limited Right is transferable only when the underlying Option is transferable and under the same conditions.

(b) Payment. Upon exercise of a Limited Right, the holder shall promptly receive from the Company an amount of cash equal to the difference between the Fair Market Value on the Date of Grant of the related Option and the Fair Market Value of the underlying shares on the date the Limited Right is exercised, multiplied by the number of shares with respect to which such Limited Right is being exercised.

11. Reload Option

Simultaneously with the grant of any Option to a Participant, the Committee may grant a Reload Option with respect to all or some of the shares covered by such Option. A Reload Option may be granted to a Participant who satisfies all or part of the exercise price of the Option with shares of Common Stock (as described in Section 13(c) below). The Reload Option represents an additional Option to acquire the same number of shares of Common Stock as is used by the Participant to pay for the original Option or to replace Common Stock withheld by the Company for payment of a Participant's withholding tax under Section 19. A Reload Option is subject to all of the same terms and conditions as the original Option, including the remaining Option exercise term, except that (i) the exercise price of the shares of Common Stock subject to the Reload Option will be determined at the time the original Option is exercised and (ii) such Reload Option will conform to all provisions of the Plan at the time the original Option is exercised.

C-8

12. Surrender of Option

In the event of a Participant's termination of employment or termination of service as a result of death or Disability, the Participant (or his or her personal representative(s), heir(s), or devisee(s)) may, in a form acceptable to the Committee make application to surrender all or part of the Options held by such Participant in exchange for a cash payment from the Company of an amount equal to the difference between the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock on the date of termination of employment or the date of termination of service on the Board and the exercise price per share of the Option. Whether the Company accepts such application or determines to make payment, in whole or part, is within its absolute and sole discretion, it being expressly understood that the Company is under no obligation to any Participant whatsoever to make such payments. In the event that the Company accepts such application and determines to make payment, such payment shall be in lieu of the exercise of the underlying Option and such Option shall cease to be exercisable.

13. Alternate Option Payment Mechanism

The Committee has sole discretion to determine what form of payment it will accept for the exercise of an Option. The Committee may indicate acceptable forms in the agreement with the Participant covering such Options or may reserve its decision to the time of exercise. No Option is to be considered exercised until payment in full is accepted by the Committee or its agent.

(a) Cash Payment. The exercise price may be paid in cash or by certified check. To the extent permitted by law, the Committee may permit all or a portion of the exercise price of an Option to be paid through borrowed funds.

(b) Cashless Exercise. Subject to vesting requirements, if applicable, a Participant may engage in a cashless exercise of the Option. Upon a cashless exercise, the Participant shall give the Company written notice of the exercise of the Option together with an order to a registered broker-dealer or equivalent third party, to sell part or all of the Common Stock subject to the Option and to deliver enough of the proceeds to the Company to pay the Option exercise price and any applicable withholding taxes. If the Participant does not sell the Common Stock subject to the Option through a registered broker-dealer or equivalent third party, the Participant may give the Company written notice of the exercise of the Option and the third party purchaser of the Common Stock subject to the Option shall pay the Option exercise price plus applicable withholding taxes to the Company.

(c) Exchange of Common Stock. The Committee may permit payment of the Option exercise price by the tendering (or constructively tendering) of previously acquired shares of Common Stock. All shares of Common Stock tendered in payment of the exercise price of an Option shall be valued at the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock. No tendered shares of Common Stock which were acquired by the Participant upon the previous exercise of an Option or as awards under a stock award plan (such as the Company's Stock Award Plan) shall be accepted for exchange unless the Participant has held such shares (without restrictions imposed by said plan or award) for at least six months prior to the exchange.

14. Rights of a Shareholder

Edgar Filing: PROVIDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form DEF 14A

A Participant shall have no rights as a shareholder with respect to any shares covered by a Non-Statutory and/or Incentive Stock Option until the date of issuance of a stock certificate for such shares. Nothing in the Plan or in any Award granted confers on any person any right to continue in the employ of the Company or its Affiliates or to continue to perform services for the Company or its Affiliates or interferes in any way with the right of the Company or its Affiliates to terminate his services as an officer, director or employee at any time.

15. Agreement with Participants

Each Award of Options, Reload Options and/or Limited Rights will be evidenced by a written agreement, executed by the Participant and the Company or its Affiliates that describes the conditions for receiving the Awards, including the date of Award, the purchase price, applicable periods, and any other terms and conditions as may be required by the Board or applicable securities laws.

16. Designation of Beneficiary

A Participant may, with the consent of the Committee, designate a person or persons to receive, in the event of death, any Option, Reload Option or Limited Rights to which he would then be entitled. Such designation will be made upon forms supplied by and delivered to the Company and may be revoked in writing. If a Participant fails effectively to designate a Beneficiary, then his estate will be deemed to be the Beneficiary.

17. Dilution and Other Adjustments

In the event of any change in the outstanding shares of Common Stock by reason of any stock dividend or split, pro rata return of capital to all shareholders, recapitalization, or any merger, consolidation, spin-off, reorganization, combination or exchange of shares, or other similar corporate change, or other increase or decrease in such shares, without receipt or payment of consideration by the Company, the Committee will make such adjustments to previously granted Awards, to prevent dilution or enlargement of the rights of the Participant, including any or all of the following:

(a) adjustments in the aggregate number or kind of shares of Common Stock that may be awarded under the Plan;

(b) adjustments in the aggregate number or kind of shares of Common Stock covered by Awards already made under the Plan; or

(c) adjustments in the purchase price of outstanding Incentive and/or Non-Statutory Stock Options, or any Limited Rights attached to such Options.

No such adjustments may, however, materially change the value of benefits available to a Participant under a previously granted Award. With respect to Incentive Stock Options, no such adjustment shall be made if it would be deemed a modification of the Award under Section 424 of the Code.

18. Effect of a Change in Control on Option Awards

In the event of a Change in Control, the Committee and the Board of Directors will take one or more of the following actions to be effective as of the date of such Change in Control:

(a) provide that such Options shall be assumed, or equivalent options shall be substituted (Substitute Options) by the acquiring or succeeding corporation (or an affiliate thereof), provided that: (A) any such Substitute Options exchanged for Incentive Stock Options shall meet the requirements of Section 424(a) of the Code, and (B) the shares of stock issuable upon the exercise of such Substitute Options shall be registered in accordance with the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (1933 Act) or such securities shall be exempt from such registration in accordance with Sections 3(a)(2) or 3(a)(5) of the 1933 Act, (collectively, Registered Securities), or in the alternative, if the securities issuable upon the exercise of such Substitute Options shall not constitute Registered Securities, then the Participant will receive upon consummation of the Change in Control a cash payment for each Option surrendered equal to the difference between the (1) fair market value of the consideration to be received for each share of Common Stock in the Change in Control times the number of shares of Common Stock subject to such surrendered Options, and (2) the aggregate exercise price of all such surrendered Options; or

(b) in the event of a transaction under the terms of which the holders of Common Stock will receive upon consummation thereof a cash payment (the Merger Price) for each share of Common Stock exchanged in the Change in Control transaction, make or provide for a cash payment to the Participants equal to the difference between (1) the Merger Price times the number of shares of Common Stock subject to such Options held by each Participant (to the extent then exercisable at prices not in excess of the Merger Price), and (2) the aggregate exercise price of all such surrendered Options.

19. Withholding

There may be deducted from each distribution of cash and/or Common Stock under the Plan the minimum amount of any federal or state taxes, including payroll taxes, that are applicable to such supplemental taxable income and that are required by any governmental authority to be withheld. Shares of Common Stock will be withheld where required from any distribution of Common Stock.

20. Amendment of the Plan

The Board may at any time, and from time to time, modify or amend the Plan in any respect, or modify or amend an Award received by Key Employees and/or Outside Directors; provided, however, that no such termination, modification or amendment may affect the rights of a Participant, without his consent, under an outstanding Award.

21. Effective Date of Plan

The Plan shall become effective upon the date of approval of the Plan by the Company's shareholders.

22. Termination of the Plan

The right to grant Awards under the Plan will terminate upon the earlier of (i) 10 years after the Effective Date, or (ii) the date on which the exercise of Options or related rights equaling the maximum number of shares reserved under the Plan occurs. The Board may suspend or terminate the Plan at any time, provided that no such action will, without the consent of a Participant, adversely affect his rights under a previously granted Award.

23. Applicable Law

The Plan will be administered in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware.

(c) Plan Administration Restrictions. All transactions involving a grant, award or other acquisitions from the Company shall:

- (i) be approved by the Company's full Board or by the Committee;
- (ii) be approved, or ratified, in compliance with Section 14 of the Exchange Act, by either: the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present, or represented and entitled to vote at a meeting duly held in accordance with the laws under which the Company is incorporated; or the written consent of the holders of a majority of the securities of the issuer entitled to vote, provided that such ratification occurs no later than the date of the next annual meeting of shareholders; or

If a member of the Board or the Committee is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of anything done or not done by him in such capacity under or with respect to the Plan, the Bank or the Company shall indemnify such member against expense (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Bank and the Company and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

(d) In the event Restricted Stock is forfeited for any reason, the Committee, from time to time, may determine which of the Key Employees and Outside Directors will be granted additional Awards to be awarded from forfeited Restricted Stock.

(e) In selecting those Key Employees and Outside Directors to whom Awards will be granted and the amount of Restricted Stock covered by such Awards, the Committee shall consider such factors as it deems relevant, which factors may include, among others, the position and responsibilities of the Key Employees and Outside Directors, the length and value of their services to the Company and its Affiliates, the compensation paid to the Key Employees or fees paid to the Outside Directors, and the Committee may request the written recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer and other senior executive officers of the Bank, the Company and its Affiliates or the recommendation of the full Board. No Restricted Stock shall be earned unless the Recipient maintains Continuous Service with the Company or an Affiliate until the restrictions lapse.

(f) Manner of Award. As promptly as practicable after a determination is made pursuant to Section 5(b) to grant an Award, the Committee shall notify the Recipient in writing of the grant of the Award, the number of shares of Restricted Stock covered by the Award, and the terms upon which the Restricted Stock subject to the Award may be earned. Upon notification of an Award of Restricted Stock, the Recipient shall execute and return to the Company a restricted stock agreement (the "Restricted Stock Agreement") setting forth the terms and conditions under which the Recipient shall earn the Restricted Stock, together with a stock power or stock powers endorsed in blank. Thereafter, the Recipient's Restricted Stock and stock power shall be deposited with an escrow agent specified by the Company ("Escrow Agent") who shall hold such Restricted Stock under the terms and conditions set forth in the Restricted Stock Agreement. Each certificate in respect of shares of Restricted Stock Awarded under the Plan shall be registered in the name of the Recipient.

(g) Treatment of Forfeited Shares. In the event shares of Restricted Stock are forfeited by a Recipient, such shares shall be returned to the Company and shall be held and accounted for pursuant to the terms of the Plan until such time as the Restricted Stock is re-awarded to another Recipient, in accordance with the terms of the Plan and the applicable state and federal laws, rules and regulations.

6. Terms and Conditions of Restricted Stock

The Committee shall have full and complete authority, subject to Section 5(c) and the other limitations of the Plan, to grant awards of Restricted Stock to Key Employees and Outside Directors and, in addition to the terms and conditions contained in Sections 6(a) through 6(h), to provide such other terms and conditions (which need not be identical among Recipients) in respect of such Awards, and the vesting thereof, as the Committee shall determine.

(a) General Rules. Subject to Section 5(c) hereof, and to FDIC regulations and policy, Restricted Stock shall be earned by a Recipient at the rate or rates determined by the Committee, provided that such Recipient maintains Continuous Service. No shares shall vest in any year in which the

Bank is not meeting all of its fully phased-in capital requirements. Subject to any such other terms and conditions as the Committee shall provide with respect to Awards, shares of Restricted Stock may not be sold, assigned, transferred (within the meaning of Code Section 83), pledged or otherwise encumbered by the Recipient, except as hereinafter provided, during the Restricted Period.

D-5

(b) Continuous Service; Forfeiture. Except as provided in Section 6(c), if a Recipient ceases to maintain Continuous Service for any reason, unless the Committee shall otherwise determine, all shares of Restricted Stock theretofore awarded to such Recipient and which at the time of such termination of Continuous Service are subject to the restrictions imposed by Section 6(a) shall upon such termination of Continuous Service be forfeited. Any stock dividends or declared but unpaid cash dividends attributable to such shares of Restricted Stock shall also be forfeited.

(c) Exception for Termination Due to Death or Disability, and Following a Change in Control. Notwithstanding the general rule contained in Section 6(a), Restricted Stock awarded to a Recipient whose Continuous Service with the Company or an Affiliate terminates due to death, Disability, or following a Change in Control, shall be deemed earned as of the Recipient's last day of Continuous Service with the Company or an Affiliate.

(d) Revocation for Cause. Notwithstanding anything hereinafter to the contrary, the Board may by resolution immediately revoke, rescind and terminate any Award, or portion thereof, previously awarded under the Plan, to the extent Restricted Stock has not been redelivered by the Escrow Agent to the Recipient, whether or not yet earned, in the case of a Key Employee whose employment is terminated by the Company or an Affiliate or an Outside Director whose service is terminated by the Company or an Affiliate for Cause or who is discovered after termination of employment or service on the Board to have engaged in conduct that would have justified termination for Cause.

(e) Restricted Stock Legend. Each certificate in respect of shares of Restricted Stock awarded under the Plan shall be registered in the name of the Recipient and deposited by the Recipient, together with a stock power endorsed in blank, with the Escrow Agent, and shall bear the following (or a similar) legend:

The transferability of this certificate and the shares of stock represented hereby are subject to the terms and conditions (including forfeiture) contained in the Provident Financial Services, Inc. 2003 Stock Award Plan. Copies of such Plan are on file in the offices of the Secretary of Provident Financial Services, Inc., 830 Bergen Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey 07306.

(f) Payment of Dividends and Return of Capital. After an Award has been granted but before such Award has been earned, the Recipient shall receive any cash dividends paid with respect to such shares, or shall share in any pro-rata return of capital to all shareholders with respect to the Common Stock. Stock dividends declared by the Company and paid on Awards that have not yet been earned shall be subject to the same restrictions as the Restricted Stock and the certificate(s) or other instruments representing or evidencing such shares shall be legended in the manner provided in Section 6(e) and shall be delivered to the Escrow Agent for distribution to the Recipient when the Restricted Stock upon which such dividends were paid are earned. Unless the Recipient has made an election under Section 83(b) of the Code, cash dividends or other amounts so paid on shares that have not yet been earned by the Recipient shall be treated as compensation income to the Recipient when paid. If dividends are paid with respect to shares of Restricted Stock under the Plan that have been forfeited and returned to the Company or to a trust established to hold issued and unawarded or forfeited shares, the Committee can determine to award such dividends to any Recipient or Recipients under the Plan, to any other employee or director of the Company or the Bank, or can return such dividends to the Company.
