ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

On May 22, 2003, we announced financial results for our first quarter ended April 30, 2003.

We added approximately 79,000 new subscriptions in the first quarter, compared to 42,000 subscriptions in the first quarter of last year, bringing the total subscription base to approximately 703,000 as of April 30, 2003.

Total service and technology revenues were $16.1 million in the first quarter, a 63% increase over the $9.9 million of total service and technology revenues reported in the first quarter of last year. Net revenues were $28.5 million, more than double the $13.0 million of net revenues reported in the first quarter of last year. TiVo's net loss for the quarter was $7.9 million, or $(0.12) per share, less than one quarter of the $35.2 million, or $(0.74) per share, net loss recorded in the same period last year.

The launch of Home Media Option in the quarter contributed to strong revenue growth. The premium feature package promises to transform TiVo from a digital video recording device to an entertainment center that allows entertainment enthusiasts to effortlessly enjoy video, digital music and photos throughout the home.

Earlier this month, we announced that we will offer a new introductory service level, TiVo Basic service. This service will provide licensees the opportunity to include entry-level DVR functionality with high-value integrated products such as a combined DVD/DVR. Our licensee Toshiba is the first to announce an integrated product with the TiVo Basic service included. Toshiba's SD-H400 integrated DVD with TiVo is expected to be available in retail later this year. This will be one of the first products available at retail that offers a program guide and basic DVR functionality in a product that is capable of upgrade to the full TiVo service offering and networked home entertainment, making this the most advanced integrated DVR product on the market.
