Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Edgar Filing: STELLENT INC - Form SC 13D

As described in Item 4 below, Stellent and its wholly owned subsidiary, STEL Sub, Inc. (STEL Sub), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with Optika dated January 11, 2004 (the Merger Agreement). Under the Merger Agreement, Optika will merge (the Merger) with and into STEL Sub. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, upon consummation of the Merger:

Each outstanding share of Optika Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.44 of a share of Stellent common stock, par value $.01 per share (the Stellent Common Stock) subject to adjustment described below.

All outstanding shares of Optika Preferred Stock will be converted into the right to receive a total of $10,000,000 in cash and, in certain circumstances described below, shares of Stellent Common Stock.

Each outstanding option to acquire shares of Optika Common Stock will be assumed by Stellent and converted into the right to acquire shares of Stellent Common Stock.

If the value of 0.44 of a share of Stellent Common Stock, based on the average Stellent Common Stock closing price over a period ending shortly before the Merger is consummated, is greater than $4.00, then:

80 percent of the value in excess of $4.00 will be allocated to the holders of Optika Common Stock.

20 percent of the value in excess of $4.00 will be allocated to the holders of Optika Preferred Stock.

This allocation will be accomplished by reducing the total number of shares of Stellent Common Stock to be issued to holders of Optika Common Stock and by issuing those shares to the holders of Optika Preferred Stock. The total number of shares to be issued by Stellent will not change.

The funds that will be used to pay the cash portion of the consideration will be provided by Stellent from existing cash and marketable securities and the shares of Stellent Common Stock to be issued to Optika stockholders will be newly issued by Stellent.

The information in Item 4 of this statement is incorporated by reference in this Item 3.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The following percentages are based upon there being 22,192,264 shares of Stellent Common Stock outstanding as of January 11, 2004, as represented by Stellent in the Merger Agreement.

(a), (b) Stellent, STEL Sub and Optika entered into the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1, under which Optika has agreed to be acquired in the Merger. The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of Optika into STEL Sub, with STEL Sub as the surviving organization. Subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of Optika Common Stock (except for shares held by Optika stockholders who have perfected their appraisal rights under Delaware law) will be canceled and converted automatically into the right to receive the per-share common stock merger consideration and each outstanding share of Optika Preferred Stock (except for shares held by Optika stockholders who have perfected their appraisal rights under Delaware law) will be canceled and converted automatically into the right to receive the per-share preferred stock merger consideration. Under the Merger Agreement, each outstanding option to purchase Optika Common Stock will be assumed by Stellent and converted into an option to purchase Stellent Common Stock.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to a number of standard conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, including the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Optika's stockholders and the approval of the share issuance by Stellent's shareholders.

In connection with the Merger Agreement, Optika entered into a voting agreement, dated as of January 11, 2004, with certain of Stellent's officers and directors set forth on the signature pages attached thereto (the Voting Agreement). A copy of the Voting Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. The Voting Agreement provides, among other things, that these officers and directors of Stellent agree to vote all of their shares of Stellent Common Stock in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement at any meeting of Stellent's stockholders to consider that proposal (and these Stellent officers and directors have delivered irrevocable proxies to this effect to Optika in the form of Exhibit B to the Voting Agreement). The Voting Agreement will terminate if the Merger Agreement is terminated or upon consummation of the Merger. As a result of the Voting Agreement, Optika may be deemed to have a beneficial ownership interest in 3,050,882 shares of Stellent Common Stock through this shared voting control, representing approximately 13.34% of the total number of outstanding shares of Stellent Common Stock. The purpose of entering into the Voting Agreement is to assist Optika in consummating the Merger.

The summary set forth herein of certain provisions of the Voting Agreement does not purport to be a complete descriptions thereof and is qualified by its entirety by reference to the full provisions of the Voting Agreement, a copy of which has been filed as an exhibit hereto.

(c) Not applicable.

(d) It is anticipated that upon consummation of the Merger, the officers of STEL Sub will become the officers of the corporation surviving the Merger. The directors of Optika will continue, immediately following the consummation of the Merger, as directors of the company surviving the Merger. However, it is a condition to the consummation of the Merger that each of the directors of Optika deliver to Stellent a resignation from the board of the company surviving the Merger, which resignation will become effective as of the date on which a registration statement related to stock options issued by Stellent to replace stock options issued by Optika becomes effective.

(e) Upon consummation of the Merger, all outstanding shares of Optika Common Stock will be canceled in exchange for the per-share common stock merger consideration and all outstanding shares of Optika s

Preferred Stock will be canceled in exchange for the per-share preferred stock merger consideration. It is intended that all outstanding options to purchase Optika Common Stock will be assumed by Stellent and converted into the right to acquire shares of Stellent Common Stock.

(f) Not applicable.

(g) Upon consummation of the Merger, the Certificate of Designation of Optika's Series A-1 Preferred Stock will be amended and restated as described in the Merger Agreement and the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of STEL Sub, as in effect immediately before the Merger, will be the governing documents of the surviving organization.

(h) Optika's shares are currently traded on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market. Following the consummation of the Merger, the shares will no longer be listed.

(i) Upon consummation of the Merger, Stellent promptly will file for termination of the registration of Optika's Common Stock pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Sections Exchange Act of 1934.

(j) Not applicable.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a) Although Optika does not directly own any shares of Stellent Common Stock as of the date hereof, pursuant to the Voting Agreement Optika may be deemed to beneficially own 3,050,882 shares of Stellent Common Stock, representing approximately 13.34% of all outstanding shares of Stellent Common Stock.

(b) Pursuant to the voting agreements, Optika may be deemed to have shared voting power with respect to 3,050,882 shares of Stellent Common Stock.

(c) Other than entering into the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement, neither Optika nor, to the best of its knowledge, any of its officers or directors, effected any transactions in the Stellent Common Stock during the past 60 days.

(d) Not applicable.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

Other than the matters disclosed in response to Items 4 and 5 above, neither Optika nor, to the best of its knowledge, any of its officers or directors is a party to any contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) with respect to any securities of Stellent, including but not limited to the transfer or voting of any of the securities, finder's fees, joint ventures, loan or option agreements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, division of profits or loss, or the giving or withholding of proxies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Optika is obligated to pay Revolution Partners for investment banking and financial advisory fees in connection with the Merger.
